TABLE 7—GRADE DIFFERENTIALS

In each case in figuring prices based on grade differentials, if the processor has base prices for both a higher and lower grade than the item being priced, he shall use the differential between the item being priced and the lower grade, except that substandard shall not be used as the lower grade. (For example, if the processor has base prices for both Fancy and Standard grades and now wishes to price Extra Standard he takes the difference between Extra Standard and Standard.)

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RMPR 279,[1] Amdt. 3]

HOPS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 279 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Purpose of the regulation. The purpose of this regulation is to establish maximum prices for sales of all varieties of Pacific Coast hops and sales of all varieties of the 1943 and subsequent years' crops of New York State hops. This regulation does not apply to sales of hop oils, hop concentrates and other hop derivatives. The maximum prices for sales of those commodities are covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation. Sales of lupulin, as well as sales of New York State hops prior to the 1943 crop, remain exempt from price control. Sales of packaged hops by sellers at retail, other than packers, are exempted from the provisions of this regulation.

2. Section 2 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. General definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term

(1) "Hops" means the dried cones (strobiles) of the cultivated varieties of hop plants (humulus lupulus). The term includes the following:

(i) "Baled hops" which means hops compressed in bales containing more than 150 pounds, dry weight, of such hops.

(ii) "Packaged hops" which means hops packed in containers holding not more than one pound, dry weight, of such hops.

(iii) "Pacific Coast hops" which means hops produced in the States of California, Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

(iv) "New York State hops" which means hops produced in the State of New York.

(2) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(3) "Grower" means a person who produces hops on a farm or ranch (excluding grower dealers and grower cooperatives).

(4) "Dealer" means a person whose business customarily includes the purchase of hops from growers for resale to the brewing trade generally and to brewers supply dealers, and who customarily maintains a permanent sales office and sales personnel for sales of hops to the brewing trade generally. The term does not include brewers supply dealers but does include the following:

(i) "Grower cooperative" which means a non-profit organization acting on behalf of its grower members and selling hops produced by such members to brewers supply dealers or to the brewing trade generally; and which has received authorization from the Office of Price Administration to price as a grower cooperative. The authorization will be granted by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., by letter or order to any organization making application therefor if it can be shown that: (a) The organization with respect to hops, is engaged primarily in the business of marketing hops for its grower members; (b) the organization customarily maintains a permanent sales office and sales personnel for sales of hops to the brewing trade generally; and markets hops in the manner customarily followed by dealers generally; (c) the organization is in full compliance with the requirements of Supplementary Order No. 84,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(ii) "Grower dealer" which means (a) a person whose business includes the production of hops on farms and ranches and the purchase of hops from other growers; whose total annual sales of hops customarily include at least 35% (in pounds, dry weight) of hops purchased from other growers; who customarily sells at least 50% (in pounds, dry weight) of his total annual sales direct to brewers; or (b) who sold at least 75% of his own production of the 1942 crop of hops to brewers; and (c) who customarily maintains a permanent sales office and sales personnel for sales of hops to the brewing trade generally.

(5) "Brewers supply dealer" means a person who customarily resells hops to brewers; who prior to December 5, 1942 customarily and regularly engaged in the business of selling hops, diverse equipment, supplies or services to brewers; and whose annual sales of hops to brewers do not exceed 30% of his total annual sales of all commodities and services to brewers.

(6) "Packer" means a person who packs hops in packages containing not more than one pound, dry weight, of such hops and includes sellers of packaged hops which are packaged by a person to whom the seller supplies the hops for packaging.

3. Section 3 (d) is redesignated section 3 (e) and a new section 3 (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) Maximum prices for Pacific Coast baled hops of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops—(1) Growers' maximum prices. A grower's maximum price, f. o. b. grower's farm, warehouse or place of business, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of Pacific Coast baled hops of the particular classification stated on the inspection certificate required under section 10, shall be the price shown in Table I, below, for sales by growers of hops of the same specifications, plus any inspection fee or charge paid by the grower, as provided in section 8.

(2) Dealers' maximum prices. A dealer's maximum price, f. o. b. Pacific Coast shipping point, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of Pacific Coast baled hops of the particular classification stated on the inspection certificate required under section 10, shall be the price shown in Table I, below for sales by dealers of hops of the same specifications, plus any inspection fee or charge paid by the dealer, as provided in section 8.

(3) Brewers' supply dealers' maximum prices. A brewers supply dealer's maximum price, f. o. b. his local warehouse or place of business, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of Pacific Coast baled hops shall be:

(i) The grower's maximum price in accordance with (1), above, for the particular quantity of hops to be priced, plus the amount of 9¢ per pound for such hops purchased by the brewer's supply dealer from a grower, or

(ii) The dealer's maximum price in accordance with (2), above, for the particular quantity of hops to be priced, plus the amount of 5¢ per pound for such hops purchased by the brewer's supply dealer from a dealer.

(iii) The brewer's supply dealer may add to the amount determined at (i) or (ii), above, the applicable amount of transportation costs, not including local hauling and unloading charges, paid by the brewer's supply dealer with respect to the particular quantity of hops to be priced.

(4) Brewers' maximum prices. A brewer's maximum price, f. o. b. his platform or warehouse, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of Pacific Coast baled hops, shall be his supplier's maximum price for the particular quantity of such hops to be priced, plus the applicable amount of transportation charges paid by the brewer.

4. Section 3 (f) is added to read as follows:

(f) Maximum prices for New York State baled hops of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops—(1) Growers' maximum prices. A grower's maximum price, f. o. b. grower's farm, warehouse or place of business, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of New York State baled hops of the particular classification stated on the inspection certificate required under section 10, shall be the price shown in Table II, below, for sales by growers of hops of the same specifications, plus any inspection fee or charge paid by the grower, as provided in section 8.

[1] Subtract 3 cents for each 1 percent above 20 percent leaf and stem content.

(3) Brewers supply dealers' maximum prices. A brewers supply dealer's maximum price, f. o. b. his local warehouse or place of business, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of New York State baled hops shall be:

(i) The grower's maximum price in accordance with (1), above, for the particular quantity of hops to be priced, plus the amount of 9¢ per pound for such hops purchased by the brewers supply dealer from a grower, or

(ii) The dealer's maximum price in accordance with (2), above, for the particular quantity of hops to be priced, plus the amount of 5¢ per pound for such hops purchased by the brewers supply dealer from a dealer.

(iii) The brewers supply dealer may add to the amount determined at (i) or (ii), above, the applicable amount of transportation costs, not including local hauling and unloading charges, paid by the brewers supply dealer with respect to the particular quantity of hops to be priced.

(4) Brewers' maximum prices. A brewer's maximum price, f. o. b. his platform or warehouse, for sales of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops of New York State baled hops, shall be his supplier's maximum price for the particular quantity of such hops to be priced, plus the applicable amount of transportation charges paid by the brewer.

5. Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

(4) Maximum prices for packaged hops. A seller's (other than a seller at retail who is not a packer) maximum prices, f. o. b. packing plant or seller's place of business, for sales of Pacific Coast packaged hops (except such hops of the 1942 crop) and New York State hops of the 1943 and subsequent years' crops, shall be the dealer's maximum price in accordance with the applicable provisions of section 3 for the particular crop year and classification of hops to be priced, plus the amount of 8¢ per pound and the applicable amount of transportation charges paid by the seller with respect to the particular quantity of hops to be priced.

6. Section 5 is amended to read as follows:

(5) Inability otherwise to fix maximum prices. If a seller is unable to determine his maximum price for a particular sale of Pacific Coast or New York State baled hops of the 1944 or subsequent years' crops, he shall apply by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., requesting authorization of a maximum price. The letter shall set forth a statement of the facts which make it impossible for him to determine his maximum price under other provisions of this regulation. Until a maximum price is authorized by the Office of Price Administration the applicant may deliver the hops but may not receive payment for them.

7. Section 8 is redesignated section 15 and a new section 8 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 8 Inspection fees. The maximum prices established under section 3 (d) and section 3 (f) for sales of Pacific Coast and New York State baled hops of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops include the amount of any inspection fee or charge which the seller has actually paid, upon issuance to him of an inspection certificate, to any certifying agency acting under the Farm Products Inspection Act and regulations thereunder, or to his supplier who has so paid such inspection fee or charge. The amount of such fee or charge shall be separately stated on the seller's invoice to the purchaser. Only one inspection fee or charge may be added by a seller to the maximum price of any particular quantity of hops.

8. Sections 10, 11, 13 and 14 are redesignated sections 11, 12, 14 and 16, respectively, and a new section 10 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 10 Inspection of hops—(a) Certificate required. Except as provided in (c), below, no person shall sell or deliver any Pacific Coast or New York State baled hops of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops, except on the basis of an inspection certificate issued pursuant to the Farm Products Inspection Act and regulations thereunder, and instructions and procedures issued pursuant to such regulations, showing the seed content and the leaf and stem content of the hops in percentage of weight and identifying the hops by lot or symbol number. The inspection certificate shall be procured by the first seller of the hops or by any person designated by him. Such certificate shall be retained by the first sellers for a particular lot of hops shall Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, and a copy thereof shall be delivered by him to his purchaser upon delivery of the hops or when he accepts final payment as provided in (c), below. The maximum price of all sellers for a particular lot of hops shall be based on the classification stated on the final inspection certificate covering such lot of hops issued to the first seller, or any person designated by him. When any lot of hops has been appropriately inspected and identified and a final inspection certificate has been issued with respect thereto to the first seller or any person designated by him, no person subsequently selling or delivering the same lot of hops shall be required to obtain another inspection certificate covering such lot, but such subsequent sale or delivery shall be deemed to be on the basis of an inspection certificate if the seller's invoice shows the true lot or symbol number identifying the bales of hops to be sold or delivered and the certificate number. A final inspection certificate shall mean either the initial inspection certificate issued to the first seller, or any person designated by him, or, if a review or appeal of the initial inspection has been requested by the first seller, the review or appeal inspection certificate issued to such seller, or any person designated by him.

(b) Marking of bales. Every seller before delivery of any Pacific Coast or New York State baled hops of the 1944 or subsequent years' crops shall mark clearly on each bale the lot or symbol number identifying the hops with the inspection certificate pertaining to such hops.

(c) Delivery before issuance of certificate. Pacific Coast or New York State baled hops of the 1944 and subsequent years' crops may be delivered by any seller before an inspection certificate has been obtained by the first seller, or any person designated by him, only if

(1) Such hops have been officially sampled and

(2) The bales have been marked as required in (b), above. In such event, the seller may receive at the time of such delivery an amount not to exceed 55¢ per pound (including any advances made prior to delivery) for the hops delivered, and the purchaser shall not make any further payment to the seller for such hops until an inspection certificate has been issued with respect to the hops so delivered. After issuance of the inspection certificate, final settlement may be made between the seller and the purchaser for the full purchase price of the hops on the basis of the inspection certificate but such final settlement shall not result in a total payment for the hops in excess of the seller's maximum price under this regulation.

9. Section 12 is redesignated section 13 and paragraph (b) thereof is amended to read as follows:

(b) Evasion. The maximum prices established under this regulation shall not be evaded, directly or indirectly, whether by commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege; by tying agreement, or other trade understanding; by any change of style of packing; by business practices relating to tare or packing; by the use of grower cooperatives for marketing purposes; or in any other way.

This amendment shall become effective September 2, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 2d day of September 1944.

PART 1401—SYNTHETIC TEXTILE PRODUCTS

[2d Rev. MPR 339,[1] Amdt. 3]

WOMEN'S RAYON HOSIERY

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 339 is amended in the following respects:

1. In paragraph (a) of section 5, the third sentence is amended to read as follows: "Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, other sellers may use the insert until July 15, 1944."

2. Paragraph (b) of section 5 is amended to read as follows:

(b) Responsibility for marking. No person who first sells the hosiery in a finished state and no retailer may deliver any hosiery covered by this regulation unless all of the marking provisions of this section are complied with. A person selling at wholesale, hosiery which he purchases in the finished state, may not deliver such hosiery if not correctly marked as required by this section, unless he includes on or annexes to the invoice for the delivery the following statement:

The hosiery in this shipment is not correctly marked. OPA 2d Rev. MPR 339 requires you to remark it correctly before you sell it.

Please note that you must:

[Specify corrections which must be made. Example: "Change 45gg ceiling price to 81¢" or "substitute regular markers for inserts."]

These marking provisions do not apply to sales made to "exporters," as that term is defined in Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation. However, exporters must mark any hosiery which they sell in the domestic market in accordance with the provisions of this section. These marking requirements likewise do not apply to retail sales of hosiery made by a manufacturer to employees.

3. Paragraph (c) of section 5 is revoked and paragraphs (d) and (e) of that section are re-designated paragraphs (c) and (d) respectively.

4. A new subparagraph (3) is added to the re-designated paragraph (d) of section 5 to read as follows:

(3) Invoices. Each person, in connection with every sale (except a sale at retail) shall deliver an invoice or other similar document showing:

(i) The name and address of the seller and the purchaser.

(ii) The date of invoicing.

(iii) The number of dozens of hosiery delivered, broken down by gauge or needle count and the number of dozens in each gauge or needle count of irregulars, seconds and thirds.

(iv) The selling price per dozen for each of the kinds of hosiery specified in (iii) and the terms of sale.

(v) The seller's ceiling price per dozen for each of the kinds of hosiery specified in (iii) where the selling price is not the same as the ceiling price.

Every seller (including sellers at retail) shall retain for inspection by the Office of Price Administration a copy of each invoice given or received pursuant to this section.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

PART 1220—FEED

LIMITATIONS ON SALE, SHIPMENT, AND INVENTORIES OF PROTEIN MEAL AND ON USE OF SOYBEAN PRODUCTS

Correction

The signature of Federal Register Document 44-13998, appearing at page 10747 of the issue for Saturday, September 2, 1944, should read as follows: "Ashley Sellers, Assistant War Food Administrator."

[WFO 9-6, Amdt. 2]

PART 1220—FEED

LIMITATIONS ON MIXED FEED MANUFACTURERS

War Food Order No. 9-6 (9 F.R. 1481, 4319, 9582) is hereby revised and amended in its entirety to read as follows:

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by War Food Order No. 9 (formerly Food Production Order No. 9) (8 F.R. 16960; 9 F.R. 3475, 4319, 8767, 10747), issued on December 18, 1943, to effectuate the purposes of such order pertaining to the use of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds and to promote the orderly distribution of protein meal; it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1220.8 Quarterly limitation on the use of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feed. During any quarter (beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 or October 1) of the calendar year 1944, no mixed feed manufacturer shall use any quantity of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds (other than custom mixed feeds) in excess of (1) the average quantity of protein meal used by such manufacturer in the manufacture of mixed feeds (other than custom mixed feeds) in the corresponding quarters of the calendar years 1942 and 1943, or (2) 30 percent of the maximum quantity of protein meal which the manufacturer is permitted to use in the manufacture of mixed feeds during the calendar year 1944 under the provisions of paragraph (d) of War Food Order No. 9, whichever is greater: Provided, however, That, in computing the maximum quantity of protein meal which may be used by a manufacturer, during the quarters beginning July 1 and October 1, 1944, in the manufacture of mixed feeds under this order, any protein meal used in the manufacture of cubes or pellets containing not less than 30 percent protein for the feeding of cattle or sheep on the range, which is in excess of the average quantity of protein meal used in the manufacture of cubes or pellets for such purpose during the corresponding quarters of the years 1942 and 1943, need not be taken into account: Provided, further, That this order shall not apply to any mixed feed manufacturer who uses no more than 60 tons of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds during the calendar year 1944. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any mixed feed manufacturer, during the calendar year 1944, to use any quantity of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds in excess of the maximum quantity permitted under paragraph (d) of War Food Order No. 9, Amendment No. 2.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service

Subchapter Q—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 201—ALASKA FISHERIES GENERAL REGULATIONS

RULES OF PRACTICE FOR HEARINGS UPON CLAIMS OF NATIVES

201.21b–1 Rules of practice for hearings upon claims of natives of Alaska—(a) Notice of hearings. Hearings upon the petitions of Indians or other natives of Alaska pursuant to the provisions of § 201.21b of the regulations for protection of the commercial fisheries of Alaska, 1944 (8 F.R. 2890, shall be public hearings and shall be instituted by the Secretary of the Interior or an official duly authorized to act in his behalf, by publication of notice of time, place and subject matter of hearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER not less than 20 nor more than 60 days before the day set for the hearing.

(b) Powers of presiding officer. Subject to review by the Secretary, the presiding officer shall have power to: (1) rule upon motions and requests; (2) change the time and place of hearing and adjourn the hearing; (3) examine witnesses and receive evidence; (4) admit or exclude evidence; (5) hear oral arguments and receive briefs and memoranda on facts and law; (6) do all acts and take all measures necessary for the maintenance of order at the hearing and the official conduct of the proceeding; and (7) make proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law and recommendations of appropriate action to be taken.

At any stage of the hearing, the presiding officer may call for further evidence upon any matter. After the presiding officer has closed the hearing before him, no further evidence shall be taken except at the request of the Secretary unless provision has been made at the hearing for the later receipt of such evidence. In the event that the Secretary shall cause the hearing to be reopened for the purpose of receiving further evidence, due and reasonable notice of the time and place for such taking of testimony shall be given to all persons who have filed notice of intention to appear at the hearing.

The presiding officer may take official notice of any generally recognized fact or any established technical or scientific fact.

(c) Appearance of witnesses and parties. At the hearing any interested person shall be given an opportunity to appear either in person or through his authorized counsel or representative and to be heard with respect to matters relevant and material to the proceeding. Any interested person who desires to be heard in person at any hearing under these rules shall before proceeding to testify state his name, address and occupation. If any such person is appearing through a counsel or representative, such person or such counsel or representative shall before proceeding to testify or otherwise to participate in the hearing state for the record his authority to act as such counsel or representative and the names and addresses and occupations of such persons and such counsel or representative. Any such person or such counsel or representative shall give other information respecting his appearance as the presiding officer may request. If any interested person fails to enter an appearance at the hearing, he shall be deemed to have waived the right to be heard in the proceeding.

The testimony, including records and documents, given at the hearing shall be reported and a transcript thereof shall be made, which shall be a part of the record of the proceeding. The record so made shall be the sole official record. Every party shall be afforded adequate opportunity to cross-examine, rebut or offer countervailing evidence. Evidence shall be received with respect to the matters specified in the notice of the hearing in such order as the presiding officer shall announce.

The testimony of the witnesses shall be given upon oath.

The presiding officer will be responsible for the completeness of the record on all points at issue.

After offering evidence, witnesses may be questioned by the presiding officer or by any agent designated by him or by any person who has entered an appearance, for the purpose of assisting the presiding officer in ascertaining the material facts with respect to the subject matter of investigation.

(d) Rules of evidence. All testimony having reasonable probative value shall be admitted, regardless of common law or statutory rules of evidence, but immaterial, irrelevant or unduly repetitious testimony shall be excluded.

(e) Stipulations. In any such proceeding, a stipulation of fact signed by the parties or their representatives may be introduced in evidence with respect to any issue.

(f) Depositions. The presiding officer may order evidence to be taken by deposition at any stage of the proceeding before any person designated by him and having the power to administer oaths or affirmations. Unless notice be waived, no deposition shall be taken except after reasonable notice to the parties. Any person desiring to take a deposition of a witness shall make application in writing setting out the reasons why such deposition should be taken and stating the time when, the place where, and name and address of the person before whom it is desired the deposition should be taken, the name and address of the witness and the subject matter concerning which the witness is expected to testify. If good reason be shown, the presiding officer will make and serve upon the parties or their attorneys an order naming the witness whose deposition is to be taken and specifying the time when, the place where and the person before whom the witness is to testify. These may or may not be the same as those named in the application. The deponent shall be subject to cross-examination by all the parties appearing. In lieu of oral cross-examination, parties may transmit written cross-interrogations to the deponent. The testimony of the witness shall be reduced to writing by the officer before whom the deposition is taken, or under his direction, after which the deposition shall be subscribed by the witness and certified in the usual form by the officer. Such deposition, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer for good cause shown, shall be filed in the record in the proceeding and a copy thereof supplied to the party upon whose application said deposition was taken or his attorney.

(g) Affidavits. Affidavits if relevant and material may be received and marked as exhibits provided they are filed with the presiding officer before the close of the hearing. Every interested person shall be permitted to examine all affidavits which have been so filed and to file counter affidavits with the presiding officer within a period of time to be fixed by him, not more than five days following the close of the hearing.

(h) Objections. The transcript shall not include argument on objections except as ordered by the presiding officer. The ruling of the presiding officer shall be a part thereof. Only objections made before the presiding officer may subsequently be relied upon in the proceeding.

Formal exception to rulings of the presiding officer are unnecessary. It is sufficient that a party at the time the ruling of the presiding officer is made or sought makes known the action which he desires the presiding officer to take, or his objection to an action taken and his grounds therefor.

(i) Documentary evidence and exhibits. Documentary evidence and exhibits which are otherwise competent under the regulations in this part shall be received and need not be read into the record.

(j) Oral argument and briefs. A request for oral argument at the close of testimony will be granted or denied by the presiding officer in his discretion. Such argument may be limited by the presiding officer to any extent that he finds necessary for the expeditious disposition of the proceeding and shall be reduced to writing and made part of the transcript.

Briefs may be filed in addition to oral argument or in lieu thereof, within such times as the presiding officer may prescribe.

(k) Proposed findings and recommendation. Each party may be requested by the presiding officer to file proposed findings of fact and conclusions, based solely upon the evidence of record, and the briefs in support thereof, and an appropriate form of order to be entered. The presiding officer shall then make his proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and recommend an appropriate form of order to be entered. The said proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, together with the proposed order, shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to each party to the proceeding or to his attorney of record, and copies of the same shall be transmitted at the same time to the Secretary.

(l) Objections to findings and recommendations. Within 15 days after receipt of the proposed findings and recommendations of the presiding officer, the parties may file exceptions thereto and briefs in support thereof. Copies of the petition to review the proposed findings and recommendation and the supporting briefs shall be served upon all parties of record, who shall have the right to file counter-petitions and answering briefs within 25 days.

(m) Transmittal of record. After the close of the hearing, the official transcript of testimony taken, including any exhibits and briefs filed at the hearing, shall be transmitted to the Secretary. Copies of all documents filed with or submitted to the presiding officer subsequent to the hearing shall also be transmitted to the Secretary. No free copies of transcripts of testimony will be available in any proceeding under these rules.

(n) Order. After receipt of the proposed findings and recommendation of the presiding officer, the Secretary will issue his order affirming, modifying, or revising the proposed findings and recommendation of the presiding officer in the case, and the Secretary's order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(o) Rehearing. Any person alleging an interest therein may file a petition for rehearing within 20 days from the date on which the final order appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any such petition for rehearing must be under oath and must state concisely and specifically the grounds upon which it is based, and in what respect the order is claimed to be unjust, unwarranted or erroneous, and show that the failure previously to present such evidence is not due to lack of reasonable diligence. It should be addressed to the Secretary. If the petition for rehearing is found to have merit, the petitioner will be required to serve a copy of his petition together with all argument, on each adverse party within 15 days from date of notice. Each adverse party will be allowed 20 days thereafter in which to file his answer. Thereafter the case will be considered again, and appropriate action taken, which may consist in adhering to the former decision or modifying or vacating same, or the making of any further or other order deemed warranted.

(p) Revision. The foregoing regulations may be revised by the Secretary of the Interior at any time without prior notice. Such revisions shall be promptly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROLF FINKELDEY

In re: Mortgage, property insurance policies and claim owned by Rolf Finkeldey and others.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

1. That the last known address of Rolf Finkeldey, also known as Rolf Robert Finkeldey and as Ralph Finkeldey and hereinafter referred to as Rolf Finkeldey, Hans Finkeldey, also known as Hans Otto Rudolph Finkeldey and as Hans Otto Finkeldey and hereinafter referred to as Hans Finkeldey, Robert Finkelday, also known as Robert Helmut Finkeldey and as Robert H. Finkeldey and hereinafter referred to as Robert Finkeldey, and Kurt Finkeldey, also known as Kurt Karl August Finkeldey and hereinafter referred to as Kurt Finkeldey, is Germany, and that they are residents of Germany and nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That Rolf Finkeldey, Hans Finkeldey, Robert Finkeldey and Kurt Finkeldey are the owners of the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. That the property described as follows:

a. A certain mortgage executed by Lesebarn Building Co., Inc., as mortgagor, on August 8, 1919 in favor of the United States Title Guaranty Company, as mortgagee, and recorded on August 9, 1919 in the Office of the Register of Kings County, New York, in Liber 4592 of Mortgages, Page 156, and thereafter assigned to Rolf Finkeldey, Hans Finkeldey, Robert Finkeldey and Kurt Finkeldey by an Assignment of Mortgage recorded in the Office of the Register of Kings County, New York, in Liber 4806 of Mortgages, Page 473, and any and all obligations secured by said mortgage, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral (including the aforesaid mortgage) for any and all of such obligations and the right to enforce and collect such obligations, and the right to the possession of any and all notes, bonds or other instruments evidencing such obligations,

b. All right, title and interest of Rolf Finkeldey, Hans Finkeldey, Robert Finkeldey and Kurt Finkeldey in and to:

(1) Fire Insurance Policy No. 19302 issued by the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Springfield, Massachusetts, and any and all extensions or renewals thereof,

(2) War Damage Insurance Policy No. 106-54-2211 issued by the War Damage Corporation through the Royal Insurance Company, Limited, of New York, New York, and any and all extensions or renewals thereof, which policies insure the premises covered by the mortgage described in subparagraph 3-a hereof, and

c. All right, title, interest and claim of Rolf Finkelday, Hans Finkelday, Robert Finkeldey and Kurt Kinkeldey in and to any and all obligations, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, which are due and owing to, and held for and in the names of Rolf Finkeldey, Hans Finkeldey, Robert Finkeldey and Kurt Finkeldey by Richter and Kaiser, Inc., 186 Remsen Street, Brooklyn, New York, and represented on the books of Richter and Kaiser, Inc., as a credit balance arising by reason of collections received on account of the mortgage described in subparagraph 3-a hereof, and any and all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such obligations, and the right to enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States owned or controlled by nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany):

And determining that the property described in subparagraphs 3-b and 3-c hereof is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely, that property described in subparagraph 3-a hereof) belonging to the same nationals of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to section 2 of said Executive order;

And further determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification required by law, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account, or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall this order be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on August 8, 1944.

PAUL HARMSEN

In re: Estate of Paul Harmsen, deceased; File D-28-8308; E. T. sec. 9576.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Joseph B. Weller, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Wasco.

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Earnest Harmsen, Germany.
Gustav Harmsen, Germany.
Herman (Henry) Harmsen, Germany.
Anna Harmsen, Germany.
Emma Harmsen, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Earnest Harmsen, Gustav Harmsen, Herman (Henry) Harmsen, Anna Harmsen, and Emma Harmsen, and each of them in and to the estate of Paul Harmsen, deceased.

to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: August 21, 1944.

PIETRO ISAIA

In re: Estate of Pietro Isaia, deceased; File D-38-3181; E. T. sec. 9898.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Albert B. Ferrera, Administrator de bonis non, acting under the judicial supervision of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Multnomah;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by nationals of a designated enemy country, Italy, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Maria Isaia, Italy.
Giuseppe Isaia, Italy.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Italy; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Maria Isaia and Giuseppe Isaia, and each of them, in and to the estate of Pietro Isaia, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: August 21, 1944.

ERNEST KOPF

In re: Estate of Ernest Kopf, deceased; File D–28–8552; E. T. sec. 10122.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Henry Kopf, also known as Henrich and Hinrich Kopf in and to the estate of Ernest Kopf, deceased, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Henry Kopf, also known as Henrich and Hinrich Kopf, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by W. E. Lilley, as Administrator of the Estate of Ernest Kopf, acting under the judicial supervision of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Merced;

And determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on August 21, 1944.

GEORGE KUGLER

In re: Estate of George Kugler, deceased; File D-28-7563; E. T. sec. 7959.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—
(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Clarence Woessner, 402 Eighth Avenue, Sterling, Illinois, and Fred J. Johnson, R. F. D., Sterling, Illinois, Executors, acting under the judicial supervision of the County Court of Whiteside County, Illinois;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Johannes Kugler, Germany.
Christina (Heinselmann) Heinselman, Germany.
Anna (Heinselmann), Heinselman, Germany.

And determining that—
(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Johannes Kugler, Christina (Heinzelmann) Heinselman and Anna (Heinselmann) Heinselman, and each of them, in and to the estate of George Kugler, deceased.

to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: August 22, 1944.

That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Frieda Gravenhorst, Walter Stange, Margarethe Gericke, also known as Grete Gericke and Bruno Rost, and each of them, in and to the trust created under the Last Will and Testament of Rudolf Allert, deceased, is property payable or delivered to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Frieda Gravenhorst, Germany.
Walter Stange, Germany.
Margarethe Gericke, also known as Grete Gericke, Germany.
Bruno Rost, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, as Trustee, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, Kings County, State of New York;

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on August 25, 1944.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[MPR 188, Order 2234]

L. D. COTTON

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 2234 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Approval of maximum prices for sales of knives manufactured by L. D. Cotton.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) The maximum prices for all sales and deliveries by L. D. Cotton, 6500 Ursula Place, Seattle 8, Washington, of knives of his manufacture, as described in his application dated May 23, 1944 after such articles became subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, are as follows:

Article	Model	To jobbers or distributors who stock the knives	Maximum price to retailers
		Each	Each
Sheath hunting knife	X6	$1.60	$2.00
Sheath hunting knife	X1	1.74	2.17
Sheath hunting knife	X3	1.04	1.30
Sheath hunting knife	X4	1.18	1.47

These maximum prices are f. o. b. Seattle, Washington and are subject to a cash discount of 2% ten days, net thirty days.

(b) The maximum price for all sales and deliveries at wholesale for the knives described in paragraph (a) above shall be the prices set forth below as follows:

Article	Model	Maximum price to retailers
		Each
Sheath hunting knife	X6	$2.00
Sheath hunting knife	X1	2.17
Sheath hunting knife	X3	1.30
Sheath hunting knife	X4	1.47

(c) The maximum prices for a sale at retail of the knives described in paragraph (a) above shall be as follows:

Article	Model	Maximum price to consumers
		Each
Sheath hunting knife	X6	$3.35
Sheath hunting knife	X1	3.60
Sheath hunting knife	X3	2.15
Sheath hunting knife	X4	2.45

(d) On each knife shipped to a purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail selling price.

(e) At the time of the first invoice, the manufacturer shall notify in writing each purchaser who buys from it of the maximum prices established by this order for resales by the purchaser. Since this order also establishes maximum prices for sales by all jobbers to jobbers and retailers, each jobber who resells any commodity covered by this order must notify his purchaser of the maximum prices established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This written notice may be given in any convenient form.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(g) This Order No. 2234 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This Order No. 2234 shall become effective on the 5th day of September 1944.

Issued this 4th day of September 1944.

A. FINKELSTEIN

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 2235 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Approval of maximum prices for sales of a knife manufactured by A. Finkelstein.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order Nos. 9250 and 9320, It is ordered:

(a) The maximum prices for all sales and deliveries by A. Finkelstein, 91 Grand Street, New York, New York, of a knife of his manufacture, as described in his application dated June 19, 1944, filed August 10, 1944, after such article became subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, are as follows:

Article	Model	To jobbers or distributors who stock the knife	Maximum price to retailers
Knife	S-100	Each $2.40	Each $3.00

These prices are f. o. b. New York City and are subject to a cash discount of 2% ten days, net thirty days.

(b) The maximum price for all sales and deliveries at wholesale for the knife described in paragraph (a) above shall be the price set forth below as follows:

Article	Model	Maximum price to retailers
Knife	S-100	$3.00

(c) The maximum prices for a sale at retail, by any person, of the knife described in paragraph (a) above shall be as follows:

Article	Model	Maximum price to consumers

(d) On each knife shipped to a purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail selling price.

(e) At the time of the first invoice, the manufacturer shall notify in writing each purchaser who buys from him of the maximum prices established by this order for resales by the purchaser. Since this order also establishes maximum prices for sales by all jobbers to jobbers and retailers, each jobber who resells any commodity covered by this order must notify his purchaser of the maximum prices established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This written notice may be given in any convenient form.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(g) This Order No. 2235 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This Order No. 2235 shall become effective on the 5th day of September 1944.

Issued this 4th day of September 1944.

[Max. Import Price Reg., Order 38]

IMPORTED FOODS

COMPUTATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, it is ordered:

(a) Effect of this order. All importers who sell foods imported by them must compute their maximum prices for such sales under this order if those sales would otherwise have been governed by the Maximum Import Price Regulation. This order does not apply to anyone except the importer but it applies to importers who (being classified as wholesalers or retailers) have previously been governed by Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423 as well as to importers who have previously been governed by the Maximum Import Price Regulation or the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Not all imported foods are covered by this order even when sold by the importer. Only those are covered which, were it not for this order, would be subject to the Maximum Import Price Regulation. This means that imported foods, even when sold by the importer, must be priced under (1) any other price regulation (except the General Maximum Price Regulation) which is or may be made applicable to such sales or (2) any supplementary regulation or order which has been or may be issued under the General Maximum Price Regulation which establishes specific dollar-and-cent maximum prices for all importers of the particular food commodity. This order does not apply to imported fresh fruits or vegetables.

Foods which are classified as imported industrial materials, and so have heretofore been covered by the Maximum Import Price Regulation, now come under this order when sold by the importer. Other sellers, such as intermediate distributors who have formerly priced under the Maximum Import Price Regulation, price under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423 if they are wholesalers or retailers of food products, subject to those regulations; otherwise they remain under the Maximum Import Price Regulation.

Foods which are classified as imported manufactured goods, and so have heretofore been excepted from the Maximum Import Price Regulation, are now brought under this order when sold by the importer. Such sales have previously been governed by the General Maximum Price Regulation or by Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423. The three last-named regulations have been amended so they no longer apply to sales by importers (except in the case of fresh fruits and vegetables) but they continue to apply to sales by wholesalers and retailers of foods not imported by them.

(b) Relation of this order to the Maximum Import Price Regulation. This order supersedes any provision of the Maximum Import Price Regulation with which it is inconsistent, but such regulation applies to importers of foods in any respect not covered by this order. The definitions in the regulation apply to the defined terms when used in this order.

(c) Maximum prices on sales by importers. On and after September 11, 1944, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no importer shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive from an importer, any food produced outside the Continental United States and subject to this order (as explained in paragraph (a)) at a price in excess of the price determined as follows:

(1) If the importer delivered during March 1942, to the same class of purchaser, the same food item imported by him and if his present foreign supplier sold or, in the absence of a sale, offered for sale the same food item during April 1943, his maximum price shall be the sum of his total permitted landed cost of the item (as defined in paragraph (e)) plus the dollar-and-cent amount by which the highest price at which he made such delivery exceeds the actual total landed cost of the same item on his last foreign purchase prior to March, 1942. The importer who computes his maximum price in this manner must file the reports required by paragraph (f) below.

(2) If the importer did not deliver during March, 1942, to the same class of purchaser, the same food item imported by him, or if his present foreign supplier did not sell or offer for sale the same food item during April, 1943, his maximum price shall be established by the Office of Price Administration upon application by the importer before the item is sold or offered for sale. The maximum price so established shall be in line with the level of maximum prices computed under subparagraph (1), above, for the same class of imported foods, when sold to the same class of purchaser. The application shall be filed in form of a letter addressed to the Imported Foods Section, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and shall contain answers to the following questions:

1. What is the nature and description of the item? State the kind, brand, variety, grade, container size and container type.
2. What is the name and address of the foreign supplier?
3. Is your foreign supplier the producer, packer or jobber?
4. What was the highest price which your foreign supplier charged you, or if he did not sell to you, which he charged other importers of the same class, for the same item during April, 1943 (if he made no such sale during that period, so indicate, and then answer question No. 5)?
5. If your foreign supplier did not sell the same item to you or any other importer of the same class during April, 1943, what was his firm offering price for the item to you, or if he did not offer it to you, to other importers of the same class, on April 30, 1943 (if he did not offer the item on that date, so indicate, and then answer question No. 6)?
6. If you are unable to answer either question No. 4 or 5, what information do you have as to prices which other foreign sellers of the item were charging or asking during April, 1943 (attach any documentary evidence which is available to you)?
7. What is your present total landed cost for this item—itemized to show foreign supplier's price, terms of purchase, transportation charges, import duties (if any), marine and war risk insurance premiums, any other direct import expenses and any repackaging costs?
8. What is your proposed selling price (including terms of sale) to each class of trade (wholesaler, retailer, industrial user or other consumer) to which you expect to sell?
9. What was the customary mark-up charged by similar importers for this type of item when sold to similar customers in March 1942? Is this mark-up figured on cost or on selling price?

(d) Exception of high-cost purchases. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) above, any wholesaler or retailer (as those terms are defined in Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423) who, prior to September 5, 1944, had stock on hand which he had purchased, or had outstanding a written contract to purchase, from a foreign seller any food item subject to this order at a price higher than that which may be included in computing its total permitted landed cost, may, upon receipt of written authorization from the Office of Price Administration, sell and deliver such item prior to December 1, 1944, at a price not in excess of the maximum price which would have been permitted under the applicable price regulation in effect at the time of purchase. Application for such authorization shall be filed with the Imported Foods Section, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., no later than October 15, 1944 and shall contain the following information:

1. Complete identification and quantities of each item in stock and on order for which exception is sought.
2. Description of purchase commitments (including copies of contracts if possible) showing name and address of foreign supplier, date of purchase, description of commodity, price paid or to be paid, delivery date, and total landed cost (estimated where goods not yet received).
3. Prices proposed to be charged and method of computing them under regulation in effect when purchases were made.

(e) Limitation of total permitted landed cost. In calculating his total permitted landed cost under this order, the importer may include no more than the following costs, and only those of the following factors which he included in computing the landed cost of his last purchase prior to March, 1942 on which he figured his March, 1942 markup under paragraph (c) (1) of this order:

1. The price actually paid to his foreign supplier but not in excess of the highest price (in dollars) his foreign supplier charged for the same food item to a purchaser of the same class during April, 1943 or, in the absence of a sale, his foreign supplier's highest offering price during the same period.
2. Actual transportation (including marine insurance) charges incurred to the port of entry.
3. Import duties paid.
4. War risk insurance premiums paid at rates in effect at the time of shipment based on a value representing no more than 105% of the sum of the price paid to the foreign supplier, freight to the port of entry, and premiums paid for marine and war risk insurance.
5. Warehouse charges, if incurred, not to exceed 60 days in the Continental United States.
6. Repackaging costs, if incurred, but not to exceed material and labor costs during March, 1942 for the same packaging.
7. A reasonable commission, if incurred, to a purchasing agent outside the Continental United States.

(f) Reports. Any importer who establishes a maximum price for any item under paragraph (c) (1) of this order shall file with the Imported Foods Section, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after the first delivery of each such item, a report in the form of a letter answering the questions stated in paragraph (c) (2) and also stating what was the highest price which he charged for the same item to each class of purchaser to whom deliveries were made during March, 1942 and what was his actual total landed cost of that item on his last foreign purchase prior to March, 1942.

(g) Changes in maximum prices. Any importer who establishes a maximum price for any food item under paragraph (c) (1) or (c) (2) of this order shall reduce that price with respect to future importations of the same item by the amount of any decrease in his total permitted landed costs; he may increase that maximum price in the amount of any increase in transportation charges, marine or war risk insurance rates, or import duties.

(h) Brokers' or agents' commissions. Any commission paid to a broker or agent in the Continental United States by a purchaser buying from an importer shall be considered part of the price and, when added to the amount paid to the importer, may not exceed the importer's maximum price.

(i) Revision of maximum prices. The Price Administrator may revise at any time any maximum price established under this order so as to bring it in line with the level of maximum prices otherwise established under this order for the same class or kind of food item for sale by the same class of importer to the same class of purchaser.

(j) Invoice statements. Any importer, other than a wholesaler or retailer (as those terms are defined in Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423), who sells or delivers any imported food item subject to this order shall include on each invoice therefor whichever of the following statements is applicable:

(1) The invoiced imported foods are sold to you at a price not exceeding our maximum price which we have established under paragraph (c) (1) of Order No. 38 under the Maximum Import Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) The invoiced imported foods are sold to you at a price not exceeding our maximum price as approved by the Office of Price Administration under paragraph (c) (2) or Order No. 38 under the Maximum Import Price Regulation.

(k) Notification. With the first delivery of any item priced under this order to each wholesaler or retailer after September 10, 1944, and also with the first delivery to each wholesaler or retailer after any change in the maximum price made in accordance with paragraph (g), the importer shall supply each wholesaler or retailer who purchases from him with a written notice, reading as follows:

(Insert Date)

NOTICE TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our OPA ceiling price for (describe item by kind, variety, grade, brand, style of pack, and container type and size) has been changed in accordance with Order No. 88 under the Maximum Import Price Regulation. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you from your customary type of supplier with this notification after (insert effective date of change in maximum price). You must figure your ceiling price following the rules in section 6 of Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, whichever is applicable to you.

This notice shall be included in each case, carton, or other receptacle containing the item, or be securely attached to the outside. However, for sales direct to any retailer, the seller may supply the notice by attaching it to, or stating it on, the invoice covering the shipment, instead of providing it with the goods.

This order shall become effective on September 11, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

[Docket No. AO 71-A 9]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RESUMPTION OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

Notice of resumption of hearing on proposed amendments to tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area.

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq.) and the announcement made on August 17, 1944, by the presiding officer of the hearing on proposed amendments to the New York milk marketing agreement and order (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 927.0 et seq.; 8 F.R. 8589, 9862; 9 F.R. 4735), which hearing convened on August 15, 1944, at the Hotel Commodore, New York City, notice is hereby given that the said hearing will be resumed on September 20, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the McAlpin Hotel, New York City, for the purpose of receiving evidence only with respect to the following proposed amendments which were included in the notice of hearing issued on July 14, 1944 (9 F.R. 8099):

1. Emergency in supplying fluid milk to the marketing area. That portion of § 927.10 of the proposed amendments in the notice of hearing which provides for taking action to meet a shortage of fluid milk for the marketing area.

2. Butterfat differential to producers. Increasing the amount of the producer butterfat differential for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat above or below 3.5 percent in milk delivered by any producer. (See § 927.2 (c) of the proposed amendment in the notice of hearing and § 927.7 (c) of the present order.)

3. Pool plants. The proposed provisions with respect to the determination of the plants which are to be in the equalization pool and the method to be followed in making such determinations; the dairy farmers who are to receive minimum prices for milk; and the reports, and payments into the producer-settlement fund, that will be required from handlers with respect to milk received at other than pool plants. (See particularly §§ 927.1, 927.3, 927.6, and 927.9 (h) of the proposed amendments in the notice of hearing.)

NOTE: This will permit full consideration of the question of what plants and dairy farmers are to participate in the producer-settlement fund or the equalization pool.

4. Basis of classification. The basis for the classification of milk, including the methods and standards to be used in (a) determining the plant at which milk shall be classified, (b) accounting for milk, and (c) accounting for and classifying plant loss; including the procedure to be followed by the market administrator in issuing rules and regulations relating thereto. (See § 927.4 (a) and (b) and Exhibit A of the proposed amendments in the notice of hearing.)

5. Changes in minimum class prices. Changing the minimum class prices for milk, the butterfat from which is classified in (a) all the products included in Classes II-B and II-C under the present order, (b) the frozen desserts or mix in Class II-F under the present order, and (c) the evaporated milk, milk powder, and malted milk powder in Class III under the present order; together with requisite changes in the class definitions for these products to facilitate any changes in the minimum prices for milk in the separate products classified and priced the same under the present order. (See § 927.3 (b) (3), (4), (7), and (8) and § 927.4 (a) (6), (7), (10), and (11) of the present order; and § 927.4 (c) (5), (6), (9), (10), (13), (16), (17), and (25) and § 927.5 (c) (5), (6), (9), (10), (13), (16), (17), and (25) of the proposed amendments in the notice of hearing.)

NOTE: This will permit full consideration of the various proposals for increasing or decreasing the minimum class prices for milk in these products, including the proposal to increase the minimum class price for milk in milk powder by 30 cents per hundredweight and the proposals to establish a formula for pricing such milk.

Before any additional evidence is received on the proposed amendments which were included in the notice of hearing, other than the amendments which are herein specifically referred to, a further notice will be issued and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Copies of this notice may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, in Room 1331, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: September 4, 1944.

The President

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9477

AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF WAR TO TAKE POSSESSION OF AND OPERATE THE PLANTS AND FACILITIES OF THE CLEVELAND GRAPHITE BRONZE COMPANY, LOCATED AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

WHEREAS after an investigation I find and proclaim that the plants and facilities of the Cleveland Graphite Bronze Company, located at Cleveland, Ohio, are equipped for the manufacture and production of articles and materials that are required for the war effort, or that are useful in connection therewith; that there are existing interruptions of the operation of said plants and facilities as a result of a labor disturbance; that the war effort will be unduly impeded or delayed by these interruptions; and that the exercise, as hereinafter specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure, in the interests of the war effort, the operation of these plants and facilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including Section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 892) as amended by the War Labor Disputes Act (57 Stat. 163), as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed, through and with the aid of any persons or instrumentalities that he may designate, to take possession of the plants and facilities of the Cleveland Graphite Bronze Company, located at Cleveland, Ohio, and, to the extent that he may deem necessary, of any real or personal property, and other assets wherever situated, used in connection with the operations thereof; to operate or to arrange for the operation of the plants and facilities in any manner that he deems necessary for the successful prosecution of the war; to exercise any contractual or other rights of the Cleveland Graphite Bronze Company, and to continue the employment of, or to employ, any persons, and to do any other thing that he may deem necessary for, or incidental to, the operation of the said plants and facilities and the production, sale and distribution of the products thereof; and to take any other steps that he deems necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this order.

2. The Secretary of War shall operate the said plants and facilities in accordance with the terms and conditions of employment which are in effect at the time possession thereof is taken, subject to the provisions of Section 5 of the War Labor Disputes Act.

3. The Secretary of War shall permit the management of the plants and facilities taken under the provisions of this order to continue with its managerial functions to the maximum degree possible, consistent with the aims of this order.

4. The Secretary of War is authorized to take such action, if any, as he may deem necessary or desirable to provide protection for the plants and all persons employed or seeking employment therein, and their families and homes. All Federal agencies, including but not limited to the War Manpower Commission, the National Selective Service System, and the Department of Justice, are directed to cooperate with the Secretary of War to the fullest extent possible in carrying out the purposes of this order.

5. Possession, control, and operation of any plant or facility, or part thereof, taken under this order shall be terminated by the Secretary of War within 60 days after he determines that the productive efficiency of the plant, facility, or part thereof prevailing prior to the existing interruptions of production, referred to in the recitals of this order, has been restored.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9475A

AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF WAR TO TAKE POSSESSION OF AND OPERATE CERTAIN PLANTS AND FACILITIES OF THE HUGHES TOOL COMPANY LOCATED AT HOUSTON, TEXAS

WHEREAS, after an investigation, I find and proclaim that the main plant of Hughes Tool Company, located at 400 Hughes Street, Houston, Texas, and the Aircraft Strut Plant of the Hughes Tool Company, located at 7790 Wallaceville Road, Houston, Texas, are plants and facilities that are equipped for the manufacture and production of articles and materials that are required for the war effort, or that are useful in connection therewith; that there are threatened interruptions of the operation of said plants and facilities as a result of a labor disturbance; that the war effort will be unduly impeded or delayed by such interruptions; and that the exercise, as hereinafter specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure, in the interests of the war effort, the operation of these plants and facilities:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, it is hereby directed as follows:

1. The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed, through and with the aid of any persons or instrumentalities that he may designate, to take possession of the following plants and facilities:

The Main Plant of the Hughes Tool Company located at 400 Hughes Street, Houston, Texas and,

and, to the extent that he may deem necessary, of any real or personal property and other assets wherever situated, used in connection with the operations thereof; to operate or to arrange for the operation of the plants and facilities in any manner that he deems necessary for the successful prosecution of the war; to exercise any contractual or other rights of the Hughes Tool Company and to continue the employment of, or to employ, any persons, and to do any other thing that he may deem necessary for, or incidental to, the operation of the said plants and facilities and the production, sale and distribution of the products thereof; and to take any other steps that he deems necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this order.

2. The Secretary of War shall operate the said plants and facilities pursuant to the provisions of the War Labor Disputes Act, and during his operation of the plants and facilities shall observe the terms and conditions of the Directive Order of the National War Labor Board dated June 16, 1944.

3. The Secretary of War is authorized to take such action, if any, as he may deem necessary or desirable to provide protection for the plants and all persons employed or seeking employment therein.

4. Possession, control, and operation of any plant or facility, or part thereof, taken under this order shall be terminated by the Secretary of War within 60 days after he determines that the productive efficiency of the plant, facility, or part thereof prevailing prior to the threatened interruptions of production, referred to in the recitals of this order, has been restored.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service

PART 132—READMISSION AND TEMPORARY ADMISSION

IMPORTED LABORERS

SEPTEMBER 1, 1944.

The following amendments to Part 132, Title 8, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

That part of § 132.5 (a) (9 F.R. 5768) before subparagraph (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 132.5 Aliens imported to perform labor during wartime. (a) Any alien who applies for temporary admission into the United States under Title VII of Public Law 373 of June 28, 1944 (58 Stat. 547), shall establish to the satisfaction of the examining immigrant inspector:

(1) That he is seeking admission as one of a specific group of workers who are being imported by the War Manpower Commission for employment in the continental United States with industries and services essential to the war effort; he shall present an alien laborer's identification card (Form I-100) identifying him as such; such card shall be prepared either prior to embarkation or at the port of entry;

The citation at the end of § 132.5 is amended by substituting "58 Stat. 547" for "58 Stat. 11".

JOSEPH SAVORETTI,
Acting Commissioner.

Approved:

FRANCIS BIDDLE,
Attorney General.

[SEAL] ROBERT H. DUNLOP,
Brigadier General,
Acting The Adjutant General.

[Procurement Reg. 1]

PART 801—GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

SUBPART C—APPLICABILITY OF REGULATIONS

In § 801.108 paragraphs (d) (3), (e), (f) and (g) are amended to read as follows:

§ 801.108 Applicability of regulations. • • •

(d) Army Air Forces. • • •

(3) Except as specifically otherwise provided, all communications to the Army Air Forces or to the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, relating to procurement, should be addressed to the attention of the Procurement Division, Assistant and Chief of Air Staff, Materiel and Services.

(e) Service commands. These regulations are applicable to the procurement activities of the service commands. Where procurement is accomplished by a service command at the direction of the chief of a technical service or his duly authorized representative, the directions will contain references to the applicable sections of the procurement regulations and will also contain supplementary instructions where appropriate. In such a case, for the purposes of these regulations, the procurement shall be regarded as procurement by the technical service concerned and the contract will be regarded as a contract of that technical service. In all other cases, except as provided in § 803.318c (b), the service command accomplishing the procurement shall act independently of any technical service and the term "technical service" and the term "service", as used in these regulations, shall be deemed to refer to the service commands and the term "chiefs of technical services" and "chiefs of services" shall be deemed to refer to the Commanding Generals of the service commands. In connection with this paragraph see paragraph (c).

(f) Procurement, contracting, termination and renegotiation authority of commanding officers outside continental United States. (1) In general, each commanding officer in charge of United States armed forces outside the continental United States and its territories and possessions, including Alaska, who is responsible direct to the War Department, in connection with the procurement of supplies and facilities which he may deem necessary or appropriate to facilitate the prosecution of the war and to accomplish the mission confided in him or to protect the health, safety and welfare of the forces under his command, may disregard the provisions of the procurement regulations, Army Regulations and other regulations, circulars, or instructions, and any provisions or restrictions of the laws of the United States which may be applicable within the United States or any territory or possession thereof. This matter is more fully treated in section I of Circular No. 330, War Department, 1944.

(2) Likewise, in general, commanding officers in charge of United States armed forces outside the continental United States but within the territories or possessions of the United States, including Alaska, who is responsible direct to the War Department, in connection with the procurement of supplies and facilities which he may deem necessary or appropriate to facilitate the prosecution of the war and to accomplish the mission confided in him, or to protect the health, safety and welfare of the forces under his command, may disregard the provisions of the procurement regulations, Army Regulations or other War Department regulations, restrictions, circulars or instructions, and if he finds that to do so would facilitate the prosecution of the war, may disregard any provisions of law relating to procurement: Provided, however, That he is not authorized to disregard any of the provisions of (i) Title II of the First War Powers Act, 1941, (ii) the restrictive provisions contained in Executive Order No. 9001 or (iii) except where express authority to take such action is given in a particular case, any law approved after 18 December 1941. This matter is more fully set forth in section II of Circular No. 330, War Department, 1944.

(3) Each commanding officer referred to in subparagraph (1) or (2) above is authorized to exercise, within the limit of his command, subject to any applicable regulations or instructions of the Director of Contract Settlement, or of the War Department, any authority and discretion granted to the War Department under the Contract Settlement Act of 1944. The chiefs of the several technical services, subject to any such applicable regulations or instructions, are also authorized by Part 815, to exercise with respect to any contracts or class of contracts being administered under their direction, and made or performed outside of the continental limits of the United States or in Alaska, any such authority and discretion granted by that Act. The procedures applicable to the termination of contracts set out in Part 815 are not applicable outside the continental United States or in Alaska, but may furnish useful suggestions as to procedures appropriately to be followed in such areas. This matter is more fully treated in section III of Circular No. 330, War Department, 1944.

(4) Authority and discretion under the Renegotiation Act of 1943 and under the Renegotiation Act of 1942 have been delegated to each commanding officer in charge of United States armed forces in Alaska or outside the continental United States, who is responsible direct to the War Department, as more fully set forth in section IV, Circular No. 330, War Department, 1944.

(g) Procurement within the United States for armed forces abroad. It is to be noted that the provisions of Circular No. 330, War Department, 1944, referred to in paragraph (f) have no application to procurement within the United States for armed forces abroad.

PART 803—CONTRACTS

SUBPART A—GENERAL

In paragraph (a) of § 803.303a subparagraphs (2) and (3) are substituted for the former subparagraphs (2) through (5), inclusive, to read as follows:

§ 803.303a Letters of intent and letter orders. • • •

(a) Use of provisions for allowance of profit in standard termination provisions. • • •

(2) The chief of each technical service is authorized by supplemental agreement at any time to amend any letter of intent or letter order to include therein the appropriate standard termination provisions referred to in subparagraph (1) above. Whenever possible such amendments will be made before the giving of notice of termination but may be made even after such notice is given. If any such amendment made after notice of termination includes the portions of the standard termination provisions authorizing the payment of a profit to the contractor, then such amendment may be made only after a finding by the chief of the technical service or any duly authorized representative within his headquarters office that an allowance for profit is reasonable under the circumstances. In the case of the Army Air Forces the authority to make such finding may be exercised by any duly authorized representative of the Commanding General, Army Air Forces within the headquarters offices of the Army Air Forces or of any of its major commands.

(3) Each amendment shall recite that it is made pursuant to the Contract Settlement Act of 1944.

SUBPART B—AUTHORITY TO MAKE AWARDS, CONTRACTS, AND MODIFICATIONS THEREOF; REQUIRED APPROVALS

1. Paragraph (a) of § 803.304 is amended to read as follows:

2. Section 803.308g is revised by the addition of a reference to § 803.308h (d) in the second sentence, as follows:

§ 803.308g Supplements and change orders dealing with or directly affecting matters pending before the General Accounting Office in respect of the amended contract. Chiefs of technical services may not approve or authorize the execution of any supplemental agreement or change order which deals with or directly affects the claim under the contract amended thereby which has been transmitted to the General Accounting Office, or any dispute under the contract which has been referred to the General Accounting Office. This limitation of authority is applicable to action taken pursuant to §§ 803.306 (c), (d), 803.308a, 803.308b, 803.308e, 803.308h (d), 803.379 and 803.380 notwithstanding any authority granted to the chiefs of the technical services by those sections respectively. In requesting any approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, required by these regulations, the chiefs of the several technical services will call attention to any matters pending before the General Accounting Office with respect to the contract in question, or any closely related contract which may be affected or dealt with by the supplementary agreement, change order, or action, approval of which is requested, and will state fully the circumstances in any such pending matter.

3. In § 803.308h paragraph (d) (1) is amended by the addition of subdivisions (v) and (vi); paragraph (f) is redesignated (g); and a new paragraph (f) is added, as follows:

§ 803.308h Defective, informal and quasi-contracts. • • •

(d) Action under Section 17 by the technical service. (1) • • •

(v) No claim relating to the furnishing of such materials, services or facilities has been referred to the General Accounting Office (see § 803.308g).

(vi) Final payment has not been made under the contract as theretofore formally amended in writing.

(f) Form of contract or supplemental agreement. Any contract or supplemental agreement executed or proposed for execution pursuant to the authority of section 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 must contain, in addition to the usual provisions required by existing regulations, the following:

(1) Recitals of the principal facts and circumstances which justify a finding that the action taken is within the scope of section 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, including a statement in cases of action within the scope of subsection (a) of such section 17, that the materials, services or facilities in question were related to the prosecution of the war.

(2) Recital that the execution of the contract or supplemental agreement has been authorized by or in behalf of the Secretary of War pursuant to the authority of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944.

(3) A provision whereby the contractor releases and discharges the Government of and from all liabilities for furnishing or arranging to furnish the materials, services or facilities in question.

(g) Action by War Department Board of Contract Appeals. The War Department Board of Contract Appeals in connection with any appeal pending before it under the "Disputes" article of a contract (see e. g. § 803.326) may authorize or direct the taking of any action pursuant to section 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 which in its opinion is required or authorized by that section.

SUBPART H—MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

In § 803.351 paragraph (d) is amended, and paragraph (e) is added as follows:

(d) Article for use in contracts for the purchase of lumber or coal.

ARTICLE ..... Escalation in relation to OPA ceiling prices. The contractor represents and warrants that the prices shown herein are not in excess of the maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration, or other authorized government agency, and in effect upon the date hereof for the supplies to be furnished hereunder. In the event such maximum price applicable to any item is increased or decreased the price payable for any subsequent delivery of such item made in accordance with the provisions of the contract, shall be increased, or decreased, by the same number of cents, or fraction thereof, per unit, that such maximum price may be increased, or decreased, up to and including the date of delivery.

NOTE: Where the foregoing article is used, the following clause may be added:

Price adjustment in relation to other factors. In the event that the establishment and maintenance by the Office of Price Administration or other Government agency of maximum prices for the type of_____ covered by this contract is terminated during the contract period, and if during the remainder of such period changes should occur in working hours, wage scales, or other conditions of employment, which changes are a part of the general revision of such conditions [within the producing district where the coal is mined], the parties hereto, upon the request in writing of one to the other within 30 days after the effective date upon which any such change occurs, may redetermine by negotiation the unit price affected, provided that pending such negotiation the contractor shall continue deliveries hereunder. Any price redetermination as herein provided shall be applicable to all deliveries after the effective date upon which the change occurs permitting redetermination as herein provided.

(e) Article for use in contracts for the purchase of basic steel products from steel mills (Schedule I of CMP Regulation 1, as amended from time to time).

ARTICLE ..... Escalation in relation to OPA ceiling prices. The contractor represents and warrants that the prices shown herein are not in excess of the maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration, or other authorized government agency, and in effect upon the date hereof for the supplies to be furnished hereunder. In the event such maximum price applicable to any item is increased or decreased the price payable for any subsequent delivery of such item made in accordance with the provisions of the contract, shall be increased by the same number of cents, or fraction thereof, per unit, that such maximum price may be increased up to and including the date of delivery. If the OPA maximum price in effect on the date of shipment of any of the supplies to be delivered hereunder is less than the price stated herein, the price payable for such supplies shall be the OPA maximum ceiling price in effect on the date of shipment.

NOTE: Where the foregoing article is used, the clause set forth in the note to § 803.351 (d) may be added.

SUBPART L—MISCELLANEOUS

1. In § 803.394 that portion of paragraph (b) preceding the colon is amended as follows:

§ 803.394 Contracts for electric power. • • •

(b) War Department Power Procurement Officer. Pursuant to the directives from the President, set forth in § 803.394 (a) the Secretary of War has designated Col. S. M. Weaver as War Department Power Procurement Officer and Major George P. Steinmetz as Deputy War Department Power Procurement Officer, with the following responsibilities for contracts of 1000 kilowatts or over for electric service to all installations where the War Department has an interest in the cost of electric service:

• • • • •

2. In § 803.395 paragraph (b) is revised by the insertion of a reference to section 12, Pub. Law 580, 77th Congress, as follows:

§ 803.395 Contracts within section 9, Military Appropriation Act, 1944 and 1945. • • •

(b) Except as may be provided in other applicable statutes (see, e. g., section 12, Public Law 580, 77th Congress), the statutes above-quoted affect (1) each War Department contract for architectural, engineering, technical or professional services (i) made with any individual; or (ii) made with a firm or corporation which is engaged primarily in the business of furnishing such services, and (2) each War Department contract for the employment of the services of accountants or other experts to assist in inaugurating new or changing old methods of transacting business of the Department. Except as above stated, they do not apply to any contracts with firms or corporations for services related to the development, invention, design, procurement, production, repair, or maintenance of war supplies, materiel or facilities or for research or services concerning any such supplies, materiel or facilities, or to any other type of War Department contract.

[Procurement Reg. 6]

PART 806—INTERBRANCH AND INTERDEPARTMENTAL PURCHASES

SUBPART A—GENERAL

Section 806.602 (a) (1) is revised as follows:

§ 806.602 Definitions—(a) Procurement. The term "procurement" as used in this regulation refers to the procedure necessary to obtain a given item or class of items and includes the execution of the following functions:

(1) Specification (Abbr. Spec.) This function involves the responsibility for the preparation or supply of specifications in accordance with the provisions of AR 850-25 to be used in the procurement of the item or items. Specifications will be such as to provide items meeting the approved military characteristics. For items not covered by military characteristics, specifications will be such as to provide items meeting the technical requirements of the using arms and services and the services interested therein by virtue of their missions.

• • • • •

SUBPART B—INTERBRANCH PROCUREMENT

1. In § 806.603 paragraph (b) is amended by the addition of subparagraph (6); paragraph (d) is revoked; and paragraph (f) is amended by the addition of subparagraph (5), as follows:

§ 806.603 Authority of Procurement Assignment Board. • • •

(b) Purchase of an item by other than the service assigned such responsibility. • • •

(6) Purchases made pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph will be subject to the applicable restrictions concerning local purchases and purchases of restricted or prohibited items. See § 811.1187 et seq.

• • • • •

(d) [Revoked]

• • • • •

(f) Procedure. • • •

(5) Where items are assigned to a technical service other than the Medical Department for the requirements of the Army at large, the separate and additional requirements for such items for hospitals are not included therein. Determination of requirements and provision of funds for such separate and additional requirements for hospitals are the responsibility of the Medical Department.

2. That portion of § 806.604 preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 806.604 Report of actions of the Procurement Assignment Board. (1) There is contained in Appendix I to these procurement regulations[1] a condensed record of the assignments made by the Board since the beginning of the calendar year 1942. Actions taken by the Board are reported in ASF circulars. From time to time, information as to such actions will be consolidated in the Appendix. Reference is made to the first page of the Appendix for a more complete statement as to what is covered therein.

(2) Certain actions of the Board are set forth in the paragraphs immediately following. The Appendix, however, contains cross references to these paragraphs.

• • • • •

2. In § 806.604 (c) the last paragraph of footnote 2 is deleted.

3. Section 806.605b is revoked, as follows:

§ 806.605b Contracts for recapping and retreading tires, and repairing tires and tubes. [Revoked]

SUBPART C—INTERDEPARTMENTAL PURCHASES

In § 806.606 paragraph (f) is added and paragraph (g) revised, as follows:

§ 806.606 Purchases under contracts of Procurement Division, Treasury Department. • • •

(f) Delivery orders under contracts of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department. (1) Delivery orders issued under contracts of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, will contain sufficient data to enable prompt identification by disbursing and auditing agencies of the correct listing in the proper General Schedule of Supplies. These data will include contract number, item number, and, where applicable, supplement, region or zone number.

(2) Reference is made to the discussion in § 806.614 concerning the suggested form of delivery order. As stated in § 806.614 (d), all orders issued under contracts of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, are included within the term "delivery orders" even though such orders are frequently referred to as "purchase orders."

(3) Each delivery order should show the name of the finance officer by whom payment will be made.

(g) Mandatory schedules. The following is a list of the classes of the General Schedule of Supplies which are mandatory on the field services of the War Department:

Description of item	Schedule of Supplies	Period

Household and quarters furniture	(Part 2)	Aug. 1, 1944, to Jan. 31 1945.

NOTE: (1) Some of the schedules listed above are mandatory only upon some of the activities of the War Department. In case of doubt as to whether it is mandatory that a particular item be procured under a schedule, the schedule itself should be consulted and provisions of the schedule should be regarded as controlling.
(2) Attention is called to the provisions of § 811.1187 et seq., as to restrictions concerning local purchases and the purchases of restricted or prohibited items. Such restrictions apply to items, even though they may be listed on the General Schedule of Supplies.

PART 807—DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

SUBPART A—GENERAL

1. Section 807.111 is amended to read as follows:

§ 807.111 Compliance with OPA and WPB regulations—(a) General. All sales or other transfers (except transfers within the Government) of property made under the authority of this part or otherwise, shall conform to applicable orders and regulations of the War Production Board and the Office of Price Administration.

The term "sales," as used in paragraphs (a) to (h), includes, where appropriate, retentions of property by contractors as authorized by procurement regulations, and the term "buyers" similiary includes such contractors.

(b) WPB regulations. Officers responsible for disposal of War Department property may rely upon a representation by the buyer to the effect that the purchase is being made in compliance with all War Production Board regulations affecting the buyer, unless they have knowledge or reason to believe that such representation is false. Such a representation should be incorporated in each written contract of sale. War Department representatives are not responsible, however, for compliance with War Production Board regulations in the case of sales of contractor-owned property.

(c) Exemptions from OPA price ceilings. Price ceilings established by the Office of Price Administration do not apply to a sale (other than a sale of food or of a commodity originally purchased solely for the purpose of resale in substantially the same form or for stockpiling) where the sale is:

(1) To another Government agency (§§ 807.307 to 807.310 (a));

(2) To any foreign government or agency thereof;

(3) To a contractor (but not to a subcontractor) for use in carrying out his prime contract with a Government agency (§ 807.301);

(4) To any relief organization for donation or export sale (§ 807.302);

(5) Of a single item or group of items where the sales price estimated to be obtainable for all substantially similar items available for sale at the place of sale does not exceed $300 (§§ 807.206 (b), 807.701).

(6) Of personal property when sold together with an interest in land or buildings in a single transaction;

(7) Of all or substantially all the Government-owned contents of a factory or plant to the owner, lessee, or operator; or to any other single buyer purchasing for use;

(8) Of building installations, facilities, appurtenances, equipment and personal property attached to the land (except standing timber);

(9) Of scrap metal to a dealer in such material purchasing solely for resale, provided:

(i) That the dealer certifies that he is purchasing such material for resale and that in reselling he will not exceed the applicable OPA maximum prices, and

(ii) That the seller has no reason to doubt the accuracy of the dealer's certificate (§ 807.410 (b)).

(d) Reliance on buyers' certificates. Unless contracting officers (and contractors selling termination inventory) have reason to doubt the accuracy of the certificate hereinafter set forth, they may make any sale (other than of food or of a commodity originally purchased solely for the purpose of resale in substantially the same form or for stockpiling), without verifying OPA ceiling prices, in reliance upon a certificate in the following form executed by the buyer:

> The undersigned hereby certifies that the price paid (to be paid) (to be credited to the Government) for the goods purchased (to be purchased) (to be retained by the undersigned) under (identify contract, bid or quotation) does not exceed one of the following:
> (a) The maximum price applicable to purchases by the undersigned, from usual sources of supply, of the goods in the quantity and at the place of delivery specified in such contract (bid, quotation), or
> (b) The maximum selling price applicable to sales by the undersigned, in its capacity as a manufacturer, producer or processor of the same goods, disregarding minor differences in specifications or design, in the quantity and at the place of delivery specified in such contract (bid, quotation).

(e) Contract termination inventories. A sale of any item of raw materials, supplies, component parts, semi-processed and semi-fabricated material included in a termination inventory, not exempt (see paragraph (c)) and not made in reliance upon a certificate (see paragraph (d)), nevertheless complies with OPA regulations if made at a price not exceeding acquisition cost (§ 807.206 (c)) (although a sale may be made at a price in excess of acquisition cost if it complies with OPA regulations). "Acquisition cost" of termination inventory means the purchase price, plus freight, if any, paid by the contractor for the item and may be averaged. Freight charges which cannot be definitely assigned or allocated to the item may be estimated. Where the item being sold has been fabricated or processed by the contractor, direct labor costs plus the appropriate allocable factory overhead (which may be estimated if actual figures are not available) may be added to the acquisition cost. The cost shown by contractors on termination inventory schedules may be accepted by contracting officers as representing acquisition cost. The acquisition cost of property furnished to the contractor by the Government may be estimated, if the actual cost is unknown or cannot reasonably be ascertained. Contractors who make sales of termination inventory will furnish the purchaser certain information as required by OPA Supplementary Order No. 94.

(f) OPA assistance. In the event a proposed sale is not exempt from OPA price ceilings (see paragraph (c)), and is not to be made in reliance upon a certificate (see paragraph (d)) or in the case of contract termination inventories, at a price not exceeding acquisition cost (see paragraph (e)), contracting officers may call upon the members of the price staff of any OPA office for aid in determining the OPA maximum price, if any, applicable thereto.

(g) Information obtainable. If assistance of OPA officials is not available, interested personnel may refer to the terms of OPA Supplementary Order No. 94 for a recital of various exemptions not discussed and various instructions as to methods of determining OPA price ceilings too numerous to set forth in detail in these procurement regulations.

(h) Liability for violations. The OPA grants exemption to War Department officials and employees and to contractors making sales in reliance upon certificates, as set forth in paragraph (d), from any liability for the violation of any OPA maximum price ceilings, unless the seller has reason to doubt the accuracy of such certificates.

2. Section 807.115 is revised as follows:

§ 807.115 Information as to sales of War Department property. It is the policy of the War Department to have the facts on all public sales of War Department property kept available at the point of sale for public inspection during normal business hours for any proper purpose. The facts on sales to war contractors will likewise be kept available for inspection by the interested parties.

SUBPART C—DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY FOR PURPOSES DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE PROSECUTION OF THE WAR

1. Sections 807.316, 807.317 and 807.318 are added, as follows:

§ 807.316 Donations to schools engaged in pre-induction training. The Secretary of War, exercising the discretion conferred upon him by the act of May 26, 1928 (45 Stat. 753, 20 U.S.C. 94) and the act of February 28, 1936 (49 Stat. 1147, 10 U.S.C. 1258), has authorized and directed the donation of property of the classes specified in paragraph (d) below to educational institutions engaged in preinduction training under the following conditions:

(a) To be eligible for donations, an institution must:

(1) Be operated by a state or municipality, or must be certified by a state department of education or similar state authority responsible for the supervision of education to be an institution not operated for profit and to have a curriculum of a type approved by the certifying authority for similar institution;

(2) Provide training for no less than 15 students in the course in which the donated property is to be used;

(3) Provide a course of instruction which will require the use of the donated property not less than 15 hours per week during the school year;

(4) Use the property to be donated in a preinduction training program recommended by the Military Training Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces; and

(5) Provide adequate facilities to maintain the property.

(b) All requests for the donation of property to educational institutions will be forwarded to the commanding general of the service command in which the institution is located, directed to the attention of the Pre-Induction Training Officer. The commanding general of the service command may approve the request if he determines that (1) all efforts to supply the property from salvage have been exhausted, (2) that the request is reasonable and proper in view of the training to be given; and (3) that the institution meets the standards prescribed by the Secretary of War and set forth in paragraph (a) above.

(c) The recommendation of the commanding general of the service command which shall contain the specific findings required by paragraph (b) will be forwarded to the chief of the technical service having control of the property to be donated (attention Redistribution and Salvage Officer) in the case of property of the Army Service Forces, and to the Commanding General, Air Service Command, Patterson Field, Ohio, in the case of property of the Army Air Forces. The chief of the technical service or the Commanding General, Air Service Command, will, if the request is approved, direct the appropriate installation to supply the property, citing this paragraph.

(d) The following property may be donated under the authority of this paragraph: (1) Obsolete or excess machinery, mechanical equipment and tools; (2) aircraft, aircraft parts, instruments or engines which are obsolete or impaired to the extent that repair would not be economical.

(e) Aircraft, aircraft engines, instruments or parts will be donated only upon the execution and agreement by the donee that the articles donated will not be used in actual flying. Under no circumstances will any donation be made which will result in current procurement to replace the property donated. No property will be considered available for donation after it has been reported as surplus to a Disposal Agency.

(f) No property will be shipped until receipt of payment by the donee of all expenses necessary for packing, handling and delivery to the carrier. Property shipped by carrier will be on commercial bill of lading with transportation charges collect. The shipping directions of the chief of the technical service or Commanding General, Air Service Command, given pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof, together with the shipping document, will constitute a credit voucher to the property account. Two lists of the property donated will be forwarded to the commanding general of the service command who recommended the donation.

§ 807.317 Sales to contractors for return in kind. (a) The chiefs of technical services are authorized to sell property from War Department stocks to prime contractors for the purpose of maintaining or expediting production, under agreements by such contractors to replace the items delivered with identical articles procured by the contractors or to make payment therefor, in the form prescribed in this paragraph. Property from War Department stocks will be made available to prime contractors under the authority of this paragraph only when the property is needed by the contractor to maintain or expedite the production rate under the prime contract, and when the contractor has outstanding subcontracts for the acquisition of identical articles which can be used to replace the War Department stock. The property sold to a contractor under the authority of this paragraph will not exceed in estimated value on amount equal to 5% of the total amount of the principal contract.

(b) The following procedure will be followed in making property available to contractors under the authority of this paragraph:

(1) Requests for the delivery of property under this paragraph will be addressed to the chief of the technical service or his delegate, and signed by the contracting officer for the contract involved. The request will state the specific quantity or number of articles desired, and will give technical service number and nomenclature, and will specify the time within which the articles will be replaced. The request will also state fully the reasons and circumstances under which the request is made.

(2) The chief of technical service will notify the contracting officer of the approval or disapproval of the request, and will advise him of the depot from which the property will be delivered, if the request is approved. The chief of the technical service will direct the depot from which the property is to be delivered to make delivery to the contractor, upon receipt of notice from the contracting officer as provided in subparagraph (4) below. The instructions to the depot will require that a special property record be maintained for each such transaction, and that the depot arrange for adequate inspection of the property at the time of its delivery at the contractor's plant, and for inspection of the replacement items upon their delivery to the War Department by the contractor.

(3) Upon approval by the chief of technical service, the contracting officer will arrange with the contractor for the execution of a supplemental agreement in the following form, which agreement will recite that it is executed pursuant to the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001:

> ARTICLE ——. In consideration of the sale and delivery by the United States to the contractor of the articles listed on Exhibit A, the contractor agrees:
> (1) To replace said articles by delivery to the United States of identical articles at the place or places designated by the contracting officer on or before ——————, or
> (2) Failing the replacement of said articles on said date, to pay to the United States an amount to be determined by the contracting officer, which will include the cost to the government of the articles, and all packing, handling and other costs.
> (3) That said articles will be used by the contractor only for the performance of the contract; and
> (4) That the amount of $—— shall be withheld by the United States until said articles are replaced or the value thereof determined by the contracting officer in accordance with this agreement.
> (5) That if an advance payment is outstanding under the prime contract, the advance payment lien shall attach to the said articles listed in Exhibit A, and any amounts to be withheld as provided in (4) above, shall be withheld only from amounts remaining due after the deduction of liquidation payments required by the advance payment article.

(4) The contracting officer will specify an amount, not exceeding 5% of the total amount of the principal contract, to be withheld which in his opinion is adequate to cover the cost to the government of the articles to be delivered to the contractor.

(5) Upon the execution of such supplemental agreement, the contracting officer will (i) promptly transmit a copy thereof to the finance officer, with a request that the specified amount be withheld until receipt of notice of replacement or instructions to make a final deduction, and (ii) notify the Depot Supply Officer that he is authorized to deliver the articles.

(6) Three copies of the shipping document covering the property delivered to the contractor will be forwarded by the depot to the contracting officer. Two copies will be signed by the contractor acknowledging receipt of the property. One copy will be retained by the contracting officer and the other forwarded to the Depot Supply Officer. The third copy will be retained by the contractor.

(7) The following notation will be typed on the shipping document and signed by the contractor:

> Receipt from the United States Government of the property listed hereon for use on Contract No. —— is hereby acknowledged. It is agreed that replacement of this property will be made in kind on or before —————— (date) or payment made therefor in accordance with said contract.
> ——————— ———————————
> (Date) (Signature of the contractor)

(8) The Depot Supply Officer will notify the contracting officer when the replacement has been made and accepted, and the contracting officer will transmit such notice to the finance officer.

(9) If the property is not replaced in kind by the contractor on or before the date specified in the supplemental agreement, the Depot Supply Officer will report such fact to the contracting officer who will take action to obtain the replacement of the property or will notify the finance officer of the amount payable to the government under the agreement, advising the Depot Supply Officer of the completed action. In the event of payment by the contractor in lieu of replacement, the written advice of the contracting officer to the Depot Supply Officer that settlement has been effected will constitute a valid credit voucher to the Depot Supply Officer's property account.

§ 807.318 Miscellaneous sales under specific statutes and Army regulations. The chiefs of the technical services are authorized to sell or otherwise dispose of any property which is not determined to be surplus pursuant to this part, in accordance with the provisions of AR 45–75, AR 45–90, AR 30–2280, AR 30–2290, AR 95–25, AR 500–60, and AR 850–100. Property determined to be surplus will be disposed of only in accordance with this part.

SUBPART F—DISPOSITION OF SERVICEABLE NON-MILITARY PROPERTY OTHER THAN TERMINATION INVENTORY

Subpart F is revised as set forth below:

§ 807.600 Scope of subpart. This subpart provides authority and procedures for disposing of non-military property other than termination inventories, in addition to those set forth in Subparts C and D. In this connection attention is called to the policy of the War Department set forth in § 807.103 requiring constant and active review of non-military property on hand and in the process of manufacture and prompt disposition of excess property.

§ 807.601 Redistribution. Non-military property other than termination inventory is composed largely of production and construction equipment and materials used in the manufacture of items of issue, and in construction. When such property becomes idle or excess, it can most effectively be returned to productive use through vigorous effort of the local establishment having jurisdiction of the property, with assistance of the chief of the technical service concerned when local effort has not resulted in redistribution within a reasonable period. Property that cannot be redistributed by such means within a reasonable period (which should not exceed 60 days) after it becomes idle or excess should be reported to a disposal agency, in order that it may be offered for disposal in the broadest industrial market. Accordingly, when it has been determined that items of non-military property other than termination inventory are not required for immediate or definitely foreseeable need at the point of use, action will be immediately taken to redistribute such items within the technical service concerned or to return the property to a direct war use in accordance with Subpart C. When such items cannot be redistributed immediately to fill known requirements the procedures established in this Subpart F will be promptly instituted and vigorously pursued.

§ 807.602 Circularization. Although circularization of non-military property, other than part 3 property, is not required, it may be used in those cases where it is considered to be an effective aid to redistribution. When so used, circularization should be accomplished on a selective basis; only important and substantial items of property should be included and only those offices likely to have requirements for the particular property should be circularized. In no event should circularization be permitted to limit local redistribution efforts or delay the disposal as surplus of property that cannot promptly be redistributed.

Production Equipment and Utility Equipment

§ 807.610 Application. The procedures established in §§ 807.610 to 807.616, inclusive, are applicable to production equipment and utility equipment. Such property will be referred to as "part 1 property".

(a) Production equipment includes the following:

Machine tools.
Metal working machinery.
Cleaning and spraying equipment.
Compressors and vacuum pumps.
Industrial pumps.
Industrial conveying machinery.
Engines and turbines, general purpose.
Heat exchangers.
Optical machinery.
Industrial cranes and hoists.
Thermal driers and dehydrators.
Fans, blowers and exhausters, industrial types.
Pressure and vacuum filters.
Pressure vessels (other than boilers).
Electric motors, integral horsepower, and electric motor controls.
Power conversion equipment.
Foundry equipment.
Heat treating equipment.
Welding and cutting equipment, industrial types.
Crushing, pulverizing, screening and mixing equipment and machinery, industrial types.
Special industry machinery (specialized machinery for food products, pulp and paper, printing trades, rubber working; petroleum, ceramics, glass, shoemaking, textile, tanning, pharmaceutical, chemical and other special industries).

(b) Utility equipment includes major items of equipment used in the generating, processing, transmission or distribution of electricity, gas and water, and in the disposal of sewage.

(c) The procedures established under §§ 807.610 to 807.616, inclusive, will not apply to:

(1) Part 1 property comprised in complete industrial installations that have been placed in standby or reported as excess under War Department Circular No. 8, 1944.

(2) Items of part 1 property which the chief of the technical service concerned desires to hold in standby for definitely foreseeable production needs: Provided, That items (other than those suitable solely for production of purely military items) will be so held only with the approval of the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

§ 807.611 Local redistribution. When part 1 property becomes idle, the local establishment having jurisdiction thereof will promptly initiate action to redistribute the property for the following purposes:

(1) Military supply requirements or current production needs, or other purposes in accordance with Subpart C.

(2) Authorized modernization of the permanent military establishment.

(3) Authorized war reserve. Prior to the cessation of hostilities, only such idle production equipment as is suitable solely for production of purely military items will be retained in war reserve.

§ 807.612 Redistribution assistance by chief of service. When local efforts have not resulted in redistribution of an item of part 1 property within 30 days after it becomes idle, the local establishment having jurisdiction of the item will immediately refer it to the chief of technical service concerned for redistribution assistance. The chief of the technical service, if he so desires, may direct that such reference be made prior to the expiration of 30 days after the property becomes idle. Redistribution efforts of the local establishment will be continued after such reference, and the reference will not be permitted to delay or limit local redistribution efforts.

§ 807.613 Determination of surplus. Items of part 1 property that have not been redistributed within 60 days after they become idle will be deemed surplus, without further action, and will be immediately disposed of by the local establishment in accordance with Subpart G. If, at any time prior to the expiration of such 60 day period, the chief of the technical service concerned considers that further redistribution efforts are not warranted, he may direct the local establishment to proceed immediately to dispose of the property as surplus in accordance with Subpart G, without awaiting the expiration of the 60 day period. Except in the case of nominal quantities to be disposed of under § 807.701, the local establishment will prepare the necessary papers for reporting to the Disposal Agency sufficiently in advance to permit immediate reporting not later than the 60th day after the property becomes idle.

§ 807.614 Production equipment in use on other than war production. Production equipment in the possession of contractors under leases or similar arrangements with the War Department that is being used exclusively on work other than war production will be regarded as being idle for the purpose of §§ 807.610 to 807.616, inclusive, and the procedures prescribed hereunder will be immediately instituted with respect to such equipment.

§ 807.615 Interim procedure. It is essential that vigorous action be taken to redistribute or dispose of as surplus all part 1 property that is now idle or in storage. As to property that becomes idle after 1 September 1944, the effective date of this section, the policy of the War Department to accomplish redistribution or disposal as surplus within a maximum period of 60 days can be attained through the procedures established above. As to property now idle or in storage, the following measures will be taken:

(a) Part 1 property in storage at the effective date of this paragraph which has not been circularized under procedures heretofore in effect or reported to the chief of the technical service concerned as idle or excess, will be immediately referred by the local establishment having jurisdiction thereof to the chief of the technical service concerned in accordance with § 807.612, and if not redistributed within 30 days after such reference will be immediately disposed of in accordance with Subpart G.

(b) Part 1 property which has been reported to the chief of the technical service concerned as idle or excess under procedures heretofore in effect, but has not been circularized, will be immediately disposed of in accordance with Subpart G upon the expiration of 30 days after the effective date of this section, if not redistributed during that period.

(c) Part 1 property as to which circularization has been initiated under procedures heretofore in effect will be immediately disposed of in accordance with Subpart G upon the expiration of 30 days after the effective date of this section (or upon the expiration of the circularization period under procedures heretofore in effect, if such circularization period expires earlier than 30 days after the effective date of this section), if not redistributed during that period.

§ 807.616 Storage of surplus part 1 property. (a) After it has been reported to a Disposal Agency as surplus, production equipment may be turned over to Ordnance Department, and utility equipment may be turned over to the Corps of Engineers, for storage pending disposal. The technical service turning over such property for storage will notify the Disposal Agency of the change of location of the property, and will submit a copy of such notification, together with a copy of the report of surplus, to the storing establishment.

(b) When a technical service desires to turn over utility equipment to the Corps of Engineers for storage, the local establishment having jurisdiction of the equipment will notify the division engineer of the Corps of Engineers nearest to the location of the equipment, who will issue shipping instructions. The technical service requesting storage will prepare and ship the equipment in accordance with such shipping instructions. All costs of packing, handling, and transportation will be borne by the technical service requesting storage. Accountability will be transferred to the Corps of Engineers without transfer of funds. Transfer will be coordinated with the interested accountable property officer for compliance with applicable regulations in regard to the transfer of accountability for property.

(c) The procedure for turning over production equipment to Ordnance Department for storage is set forth in Subpart H, ASF Circular No. 4, 1944.

Construction Equipment

§ 807.620 Application. The procedures established in §§ 807.620 to 807.624, inclusive, are applicable to construction equipment, which includes all construction equipment of a standard type not so restricted in design as to render it unsuitable for non-military use of a recurring nature. Such construction equipment includes, but is not limited to, drilling and boring equipment, earth and rock, including core drills, rock drills, churn drills, earth borers and horizontal augers; power cranes and shovels, drag lines, buckets, stiff-leg derricks, and dredges; scrapers, maintainers, and graders; tractors, track-laying and wheel types; tractor-mounted construction equipment including angledozers, bulldozers, and power control units; winches and hoists, contractors' elevating, road brooms, concrete buggies and carts, bins, centerline marking equipment, road discs, ditchers, aggregate dryers, joint and crack filling machinery, road forms, form tamping machines, mud jacks, portable snowloaders, tamping rollers, scarifiers, concrete towers, contractors' crawler wagons, and similar equipment; construction material mixers, spreaders, pavers, surfacers, finishers, tampers, vibrators, and related construction machinery; construction material processing equipment, including asphalt plants and portable crushers. Such property will be referred to as "part 2 property."

§ 807.621 Local redistribution. When part 2 property is determined to be excess, the local establishment having jurisdiction thereof will promptly initiate action to redistribute the property for military supply requirements or current construction needs, or other purposes in accordance with Subpart C.

§ 807622 Redistribution assistance by chief of service and Chief of Engineers. When local efforts have not resulted in redistribution of an item of part 2 property within 30 days after it is determined to be excess, the local establishment will immediately refer it to the chief of the technical service concerned and to the Chief of Engineers (attention: Redistribution and Salvage Officer) for redistribution assistance. The chief of the technical service of origin, if he so desires, may direct that such reference be made prior to the expiration of 30 days after the property is determined to be excess. Redistribution efforts of the local establishment will be continued after such reference, and the reference will not be permitted to delay or limit local redistribution efforts. The Chief of Engineers is specifically charged with acquiring items of part 2 property that are not redistributed within the technical service of origin which are suitable for troop use or tactical operations.

§ 807.623 Determination of surplus. Items of part 2 property that have not been redistributed within 60 days after they have been determined to be excess will be deemed surplus, without further action, and will be immediately disposed of by the local establishment in accordance with Subpart G. If, at any time prior to the expiration of such 60 day period, the chief of the technical service of origin, with the concurrence of the Chief of Engineers, considers that further redistribution efforts are not warranted, he may direct the local establishment to dispose of the property in accordance with Subpart G, without awaiting the expiration of the 60 day period.

§ 807.624 Storage of surplus part 2 property. After it has been reported to a disposal agency as surplus, part 2 property may be turned over to the Corps of Engineers for storage pending disposal. When a technical service desires to turn over part 2 property to the Corps of Engineers, the local establishment having jurisdiction of the equipment will notify the division engineer of the Corps of Engineers nearest to the location of the equipment, who will issue shipping instructions. The technical service requesting storage will prepare and ship the property in accordance with such shipping instructions. All costs of packing, handling and storage will be borne by the technical service requesting storage. Accountability will be transferred to the Corps of Engineers without transfer of funds. Transfer will be coordinated with the interested accountable property officer for compliance with applicable regulations in regard to the transfer of accountability for property. The technical service requesting storage will notify the disposal agency of the change of location of the property, and will submit a copy of such notification, together with a copy of the report of surplus, to the storing establishment.

Property Other Than Production and Utility Equipment, Construction Equipment and Controlled Materials

§ 807.630 Application. The procedures established in §§ 807.630 to 807.634, inclusive, are applicable to property other than production and utility equipment (part 1 property), construction equipment (part 2 property), and Controlled Materials (part 4 property). Such property will be referred to as "part 3 property".

(a) Sections 807.630 to 807.634, inclusive, do not apply to property peculiar to aircraft production to the extent that any of the provisions hereof may be inconsistent with the procedures established for the redistribution of such property by or under the direction of the Aircraft Resources Control Office of the Aircraft Production Board or the Surplus War Property Administration.

§ 807.631 Local redistribution. When part 3 property is determined to be excess, the local establishment having jurisdiction thereof will promptly initiate action to redistribute the property for military supply requirements or current production or construction needs, or other purposes in accordance with Subpart C.

(a) Nominal quantities. Unless requirements therefor are known to exist, or can be quickly ascertained, single items or groups of items, where the cost, estimated if not known, of all substantially similar items in excess at any one time and at any one place does not exceed $100, will be deemed surplus, without further action, and disposed of in accordance with § 807.701.

§ 807.632 Circularization. When local efforts have not resulted in redistribution of part 3 property within 30 days after it is determined to be excess, circularization will be immediately initiated. The chief of the technical service concerned, if he so desires, may direct that circularization be initiated prior to the expiration of 30 days after the property is determined to be excess.

(a) Preparation of circularization lists. (1) Circularization lists will be on 8 × 10½ paper and will contain the following information:

(i) Name of issuing office together with the station identification number and appropriate letter symbol of the technical service concerned.

(ii) Serial number of list. Each issuing office will serially number each list circularized beginning with the number 1.

(iii) Date of circularization, which will be the date of transmittal required under (b).

(iv) Serial number of items or lots. Each item or lot will be serially numbered.

(v) Description of items or lots. Description will comprise such information as would be required by the controlling technical service if it were procuring the property, including, when pertinent, name of manufacturer, manufacturer's catalog number if available, identification numbers, location, age, condition, quantity and cost per unit, estimated, if not known.

(vi) Specific instructions by which an interested agency may be guided in negotiating sale or transfer of property reported. Names, mail and telephone addresses of officers authorized to carry on negotiations, will be included in each list circularized.

(2) For the purpose of convenient abbreviation in communications regarding property circularized, items may be identified by code, which will include in sequence, the station identification number and the letter symbol of the issuing office, serial number of list, serial number of item. For example a particular lot of valves listed as the second item of the third list circularized by an office of Ordnance Department, having station identification number "12345" would be identified as "12345–Ord–3–2".

(b) Transmittal of lists. Circularization lists of part 3 property will be transmitted to the offices listed in §807.902. As soon as practicable, the chiefs of technical services will ascertain informally from each other and from the Navy Department the type and kinds of property likely to be included in part 3 property circularization lists in which each has an interest and thereafter circularization will be limited to those services which have indicated an interest in the type of property being circularized. Transmittal of part 3 circularization lists to War Production Board is required for the sole purposes of advertising the availability of excess property to military agencies, war contractors and others to whom disposition is permitted under Subpart C of this part. Such transmittal does not impose any restrictions upon the movement of the property included therein that are not otherwise imposed by applicable regulations of War Production Board, nor does it impose any obligation to sell or transfer to any prospective purchaser or transferee referred by the War Production Board to the War Department representative responsible for disposal or to accord them any favored treatment whatever.

(c) Items not to be circularized. (1) Nominal quantities, as specified in § 807.631 (a), will not be included in circularization lists of part 3 property.

(2) Items that are peculiar to the technical service of origin will not be circularized. Determination as to what items are peculiar to the technical service and its contractors will be made by the chief of the technical service concerned. In those cases where the peculiarity of the item is not obvious, determination should be based upon informal inquiry as outlined in paragraph (b). The chief of the technical service will advise the offices responsible for circularization of part 3 property as to the items or classes of items that are to be withheld from circularization under this section. Such items will be deemed surplus, without further action, when determined to be excess to the technical service concerned, and will be disposed of in accordance with Subpart G.

§ 807.633 Determination of surplus. Items of part 3 property that have not been redistributed within 30 days after the transmittal of circularization lists under paragraph (b) will be deemed surplus, without further action, and, with the exception of stockpile materials, will be immediately disposed of by the local establishment having jurisdiction thereof in accordance with Subpart G.

§ 807.634 Action to be taken on stockpile materials. Stockpile materials in excess of the minimum quantities indicated in § 807.909 at any one location will be reported by the chief of technical service concerned to the Director, Production Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for disposition instructions. W. D., A. G. O. Form 257 will be used for this purpose. After reporting, the chief of technical service concerned will take action in accordance with the provision of § 807.210 (b).

Controlled Materials

§ 807.640 Application. The procedures established in § § 807.640 to 807.644, inclusive, are applicable to Controlled Materials; that is, steel, copper, copper-base alloy and aluminum, in mill-product forms, as listed in War Production Board CMP Regulation No. 1. Such property will be referred to as "part 4 property".

(a) Sections 807.640 to 807.644, inclusive, do not apply to property peculiar to aircraft production to the extent that any of the provisions hereof may be inconsistent with the procedures established for the redistribution of such property by or under the direction of the Aircraft Resources Control Office of the Aircraft Production Board or the Surplus War Property Administration.

§ 807.641 Local redistribution. When part 4 property is determined to be excess, the local establishment having jurisdiction thereof will promptly initiate action to redistribute the property for military supply requirements or current production or construction needs, or other purposes in accordance with Subpart G.

(a) Nominal quantities. Unless requirements therefor are known to exist, or can be quickly ascertained, single items or groups of items, where the cost, estimated if not known, of all substantially similar items (e. g., all tool steel, all structural shapes, all carbon steel bars, all copper strip, all aluminum tubing) in excess at any one time and at any one place does not exceed $100, will be deemed surplus, without further action, and disposed of in accordance with § 807.701.

§ 807.642 Redistribution assistance by chief of service and War Production Board. When local efforts have not resulted in redistribution of part 4 property within 30 days after it is determined to be excess, the local establishment will immediately refer the property to the chief of the technical service concerned and to the regional office of the War Production Board for the region in which the property is located, for redistribution assistance. The chief of the technical service concerned, if he so desires, may direct that such reference be made prior to the expiration of 30 days after the property is determined to be excess. For the purpose of such reference, the property will be listed in substantially the form set forth in § 807.901 (a) for steel, § 807.901 (b) for copper and copper-base alloy, and § 807.901 (c) for aluminum. Nominal quantities, as specified in § 807.641 (a) will not be referred to the chief of service or the War Production Board. Redistribution efforts of the local establishment will be continued after such reference, and the reference will not be permitted to delay or limit local redistribution efforts. Reference of part 4 property to War Production Board is required for the sole purposes of advertising the availability of excess property to military agencies, war contractors and others to whom disposition is permitted under Subpart C of this part. Such transmittal does not impose any restrictions upon the movement of the property included therein that are not otherwise imposed by applicable regulations of War Production Board, nor does it impose any obligation to sell or transfer to any prospective purchaser or transferee referred by the War Production Board to the War Department representative responsible for disposal or to accord them any favored treatment whatever.

§ 807.643 Determination of surplus. Items of part 4 property that have not been redistributed within 30 days after reference to the chief of service and War Production Board under § 807.642 will be deemed surplus, without further action, and, with the exception of stockpile materials, will be immediately disposed of by the local establishment in accordance with Subpart G.

§ 807.644 Action to be taken on stockpile materials. Stockpile materials in excess of the minimum quantities indicated in § 807.909 at any one location will be reported by the chief of technical service concerned to the Director, Production Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, for disposition instructions. W. D., A. G. O. Form 257 will be used for this purpose. After reporting, the chief of technical service concerned will take action in accordance with the provision of § 807.210 (b).

SUBPART G—DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS PROPERTY

1. Paragraph (e) of § 807.702 is amended to read as follows:

§ 807.702 Reporting to disposing agency. Surplus property other than that required to be disposed of under § 807.701 will be promptly reported to disposal agencies as follows:

* * * * *

(e) Non-military property other than termination inventories—(1) Part 1 property (production and utility equipment) and part 4 (controlled materials). Part 1 property and part 4 property will be reported to the Regional Office of Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the region in which the property is located.

(2) Part 2 property (construction equipment). Surplus part 2 property will be reported to the Regional Office of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department, for the region in which the property is located.

(3) Part 3 property. Surplus part 3 property other than aircraft, food and commercial ships, will be reported to Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Procurement Division, Treasury Department in accordance with the assignments set forth in § 807.904. Reports will be transmitted to the Regional Office of the appropriate Disposal Agency for the region in which the property is located. The assignments of those items likely to be included in § § 807.630 to 807.634, inclusive, are as follows:

Procurement Division, Treasury Department:
- Paper and paper products.
- Cotton, wool and linen basic textiles, and fabricated textile products.
- Basic metal products as follows:
  - Barbed and twisted wire.
  - Woven wire and chain link fencing and fence posts.
  - Insect screening.
  - Wire springs.
  - Wire hoops.
  - Chain and attachments.
  - Nails, tacks and staples.
  - Bolts, nuts, screws, rivets, washers, turnbuckles, eyelets and grommets.
  - Strapping.
  - Builders basic hardware and casket, furniture, and trunk and luggage hardware.
- Glass, pottery and ceramic basic materials and products.
- Rubber fabricated materials and products.
- Containers, closures and packing materials.
- Industrial trucks, tractors, trailers, stackers and accessories.
- Agricultural machinery and implements.
- Motor vehicles, engines, parts, components, assemblies and accessories.
- Plumbing and heating materials and equipment.
- Commercial and household electric appliances, lamps and dry cell and storage batteries.
- Commercial and domestic air-conditioning and refrigerating equipment.
- Hand tools and mechanics' measuring tools.
- Office machines, typewriters, cash registers, calculating and computing scales.
- Furniture and fixtures.
- Professional and scientific instruments and apparatus.
- Apparel and footwear.

Reconstruction Finance Corporation:
- Leather, and boot and shoe cut stock and findings.
- Lumber, veneer, plywood and millwork.
- Petroleum and petroleum products.
- Chemicals.
- Paints, varnishes, lacquers, japans, thinners, pigments, driers, fillers and related products.
- Ferro and nonferrous additive alloys.
- Nonferrous metals (except aluminum, copper and copper-base alloy).
- Fabricated structural iron and steel and architectural metal work.
- Power boilers.
- Storage tanks.
- Insulated wire and cable.
- Basic non-metallic structural products.
- Abrasives.
- Asbestos basic products.
- Graphite and carbon basic products.
- Refractories.
- Mechanical power-transmission equipment and bearings.
- Electric motors, fractional horsepower.
- Electrical building supplies.
- Communication equipment.
- Railroad transportation equipment.
- Indicating, recording and controlling instruments.

- Basic metal products as follows—Con.
  - Bolts, nuts, screws, rivets, washers, turnbuckles, eyelets and grommets.
  - Strapping.
  - Builders basic hardware and casket, furniture, and trunk and luggage hardware.
- Glass, pottery and ceramic basic materials and products.
- Rubber fabricated materials and products.
- Containers, closures and packing materials.
- Industrial trucks, tractors, trailers, stackers and accessories.
- Agricultural machinery and implements.
- Motor vehicles, engines, parts, components, assemblies and accessories.
- Plumbing and heating materials and equipment.
- Commercial and household electric appliances, lamps and dry cell and storage batteries.
- Commercial and domestic air-conditioning and refrigerating equipment.
- Hand tools and mechanics' measuring tools.
- Office machines, typewriters, cash registers, calculating and computing scales.
- Furniture and fixtures.
- Professional and scientific instruments and apparatus.
- Apparel and footwear.

Reconstruction Finance Corporation:
- Leather, and boot and shoe cut stock and findings.
- Lumber, veneer, plywood and millwork.
- Petroleum and petroleum products.
- Chemicals.
- Paints, varnishes, lacquers, japans, thinners, pigments, driers, fillers and related products.
- Ferro and nonferrous additive alloys.
- Nonferrous metals (except aluminum, copper and copper-base alloy).
- Fabricated structural iron and steel and architectural metal work.
- Power boilers.
- Storage tanks.
- Insulated wire and cable.
- Basic non-metallic structural products.
- Abrasives.
- Asbestos basic products.
- Graphite and carbon basic products.
- Refractories.
- Mechanical power-transmission equipment and bearings.
- Electric motors, fractional horsepower.
- Electrical building supplies.
- Communication equipment.
- Railroad transportation equipment.
- Indicating, recording and controlling instruments.

2. Section 807.704 is amended to read as follows:

§ 807.704 Transmittal of reports. Reports of surplus property will be transmitted to Procurement Division, Treasury Department, in triplicate and to other Disposal Agencies in duplicate, with information copy to the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. The information copy to Readjustment Division need not be accompanied by letter of transmittal.

APPENDIX

1. In § 807.901 the headnote is revised and that portion of the text preceding paragraph (a) is deleted, as follows:

§ 807.901 Part 4 property—(a) Form of circularization list for part 4A property. * * *

2. In § 807.904 the table setting forth classifications of property assigned to disposal agencies is amended in the following respects: Under the heading "Reconstruction Finance Corporation" item 19 is revised to read "19 Chemicals (except as indicated);" and "65 Drugs and medicines (except as indicated)" is deleted. Items under the heading "Treasury Procurement Division" are revised as set forth below:

Treasury Procurement Division
25 53	Rigging hardware and chain attachments.
* * * * *
32 51	Fuses.
* * * * *
57 112	Glass stemmed laboratory thermometers.
57 113	Glass stemmed chemical thermometers.
57 114	Household and commercial thermometers.
57 119	Thermometers not elsewhere classified.

3. Section 807.907 is revised with respect to States listed under the Boston region, as follows:

§ 807.907 Regional offices of Reconstruction Finance Corporation. * * *

BOSTON REGION

Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont. Regional Manager, Reconstruction Finance Corporation, 40 Broad Street, Boston 9, Mass. (Mr. John J. Hagerty, Manager).

[Procurement Reg. 8]

PART 808—FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL TAXES

SUBPART B—FEDERAL EXCISE TAXES

The table in § 808.801 is revised in the following respects: Under "Manufacturers' excise taxes" the exemption for tires and tubes (fourth column) is changed to read "Exempt to extent provided in § 808.810 (also see Note 1"). Under "Retailers excise taxes" the Internal Code reference (second column) for "Luggage" is changed to read "Sec. 1651, IRC; Regs. 51, Subpart G."

[Procurement Reg. 9]

PART 809—LABOR

SUBPART B—WALSH-HEALEY PUBLIC CONTRACTS LAW

Section 809.934 is amended to read as follows:

§ 809.934 Fireworks industry. Commercial fireworks, fuses, flares, and railroad torpedoes.

Date effective: September 8, 1944.

Wage: 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piecework basis.

SUBPART G—WAGE AND SALARY STABILIZATION

1. In § 809.979 paragraph (m) (2) is revised. In paragraph (n) "justification" should read "jurisdiction" in the second subparagraph (1). In the second sentence of paragraph (p) "sufficient" should read "insufficient". Section 809.979 (m) (2) is set forth below.

§ 809.979 Jurisdiction and procedure of Regional War Labor Boards. • • •

(m) Directive orders in dispute cases. • • •

(2) If after the issuance of a directive order no timely petition for review is filed within the period provided in paragraph (n) and if the National War Labor Board within such a period does not review the order on its own motion, the order shall on the day following the last day for filing such a petition stand confirmed as the order of the National War Labor Board and shall immediately be effective according to its terms: Provided, That the National War Labor Board may at any time prior to the expiration of the time for filing a petition for review make such an order, or any part thereof, immediately effective pending any further proceedings. If a timely petition for review of a directive order of a Regional Board is filed by a party in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (n), or if the National War Labor Board reviews such an order on its own motion, the entire order shall be suspended, unless and until the National War Labor Board directs, or has directed, otherwise, or unless the parties otherwise agree. However, the date of expiration of the escape period fixed in a directive order of a Regional Board granting a maintenance of membership provision shall not be affected by the filing of a petition for review of this or any other provision of the order. If only a part of the order is sought to be reviewed, any party may petition the National War Labor Board to make the rest of the order immediately effective according to its terms. The parties may in any case mutually agree upon the date when the order, or any part thereof, shall take effect, except that where a wage or salary adjustment is made subject to the approval of the Economic Stabilization Director, the parties may not by their agreement make such adjustment effective prior to the date of such approval. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, that part of a directive order of a Regional Board which continues in effect the terms and conditions of a prior contract which has expired or been otherwise terminated, shall not be suspended or stayed by the filing of a petition for review, but shall be effective according to its terms, unless and until the national board, upon consideration of a petition for review, otherwise directs.

2. In § 809.980dd paragraph (b) (6) of General Order No. 36 replaces former paragraphs (b) (6) and (b) (7), as follows:

(b) • • •

(6) No general order heretofore or hereafter issued by the National War Labor Board shall be applicable to the Territory of Hawaii unless expressly extended thereto by action of the National War Labor Board or Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii: Provided, however, That the Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii may in case of small total wage and salary increases, modify the provisions of subparagraphs (1) through (5) above, or adopt and apply to the Territory any of the general orders of the National War Labor Board or parts thereof and issue such amendments thereto as it may in its discretion deem necessary for the effective administration of its duties hereunder. Such action shall be promptly reported to the National War Labor Board and shall be subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power of review but any modification or reversal thereof shall not be retroactive.

3. Section 809.980ee is added, as follows:

§ 809.980ee General Order No. 37.

The National War Labor Board hereby supplements General Order No. 30 by delegating to the Secretary of War, or to such agency as he may designate, subject to final review by the National War Labor Board, the authority to establish wage or salary schedules for civilian employees of the War Department in the various government-owned, government-operated installations located in the Territory of Hawaii, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress of October 2, 1942, Executive Order 9250 dated October 3, 1942, Executive Order 9328 dated April 8, 1943, the Supplementary Directive of May 12, 1943 and all other Executive Orders and Regulations issued thereunder, subject to the following limitations:

(a) The June 6, 1944 level of wage and salary rates prevailing in army installations in the Territory of Hawaii shall be maintained in accordance with the directions subsequently set forth in this Order.

(b) Exclusive of the Hawaiian Air Depot, the approval of any wage or salary schedules resulting from job classifications shall not cause an overall increase in the job rates as weighted by the number of employees in each job classification in all the establishments to which that schedule is applied, to exceed five percent.

(c) Wage rates to be established through job classifications for the Hawaiian Air Depot shall be in conformity with the schedules for other War Department installations established in the Territory.

(d) The rates for any new job classifications subsequently created in any War Department installation shall bear the proper relationship to the rates for immediately interrelated job classifications in that installation. (See § 809.980n).

[Procurement Reg. 11]

PART 811—MISCELLANEOUS PURCHASE INSTRUCTIONS

SUBPART D—PATENTS

1. In § 811.1112 paragraphs (b), (i), (j) (1) and (j) (5), (l), (m), (n) (2), (q) and (x) (4) are amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1112 Adjustment of royalties for use of inventions. • • •

(b) Basic statute. The act makes provision for adjusting royalties for the use of inventions for the benefit of the United States, in aid of the prosecution of the war, and for other purposes. Paragraphs (c) to (h), inclusive, contain a summary of the provisions of the act as applied to the War Department. Paragraphs (i) of this section to § 811.1114 (c), inclusive, contain the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder for exercise of such of the powers, duties and authorities of the Secretary of War under the act as have been or may hereafter be delegated by him.

(i) Delegations. The Secretary of War has delegated to each of the following:

1. Commanding General, Army Service Forces
2. Commanding General, Army Air Forces
3. Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Materiel and Services
4. Chief, Procurement Division, Office of Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Materiel and Services
5. Commanding General, Materiel Command, Army Air Forces
6. Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces
7. Chiefs of the Technical Services, Army Service Forces
8. Royalty Adjustment Board, Materiel Command, Army Air Forces in matters properly before them and for action under the direction of the Under Secretary of War, the following powers, duties and authorities conferred upon him by the act:

(1) To determine that notice should be given and to give notice of the fact that the rates or amounts of royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive;

(2) To receive and hear such facts and circumstances as may be presented by the licensee or licensor, and such other facts and circumstances as are relevant to an evaluation of the factors specified in paragraph (k), and to recommend appropriate action;

(3) To negotiate voluntary adjustments of royalties or settlements of infringement claims against the United States, before suit against the United States has been instituted, and to withdraw any notice given under subparagraph (1) above, provided that no such notice shall be withdrawn unless the licensor(s) shall have first agreed substantially as follows:

The undersigned hereby consents to the withdrawal of the notice issued_____ [date of notice] under the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 768, 77th Congress; 35 U. S. C. 89–96) and in consideration of such withdrawal hereby releases any and all claims or demands now held by the undersigned against the United States, or any officer or agent thereof, arising out of the issuance of said notice.

but in particular cases for good cause shown the Director may authorize substantial deviation from or omission of the foregoing consent and release.

(4) To fix and specify, by order, fair and just rates or amounts of royalties, and to authorize the payment thereof, if any royalty be allowed, by the licensee to the licensor, subject, however, to the approval of such order by the Director; and

(5) To enter into an agreement, before suit against the United States has been instituted with the owner or licensor of an invention, or of the Letters Patent therefor, effecting a voluntary adjustment of royalties charged or chargeable to the United States, or in settlement and compromise of any claim against the United States accruing to such owner or licensor under the provisions of the Act or any other law by reason of the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition referred to in paragraph (c) or for compensation to be paid such owner or licensor based upon future manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of such invention, subject, however, to the approval of the Director in each case where that approval is required by subparagraphs (4) or (5) of § 811.1113 (c), subparagraph (1) of § 811.1113 (g) or § 811.1114 (a).

(j) Further delegations. (1) The Secretary of War has further delegated the powers, duties and authorities described in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (i), for action in matters properly before them and under the direction of the Under Secretary of War, to each of the following:

1. All Division Engineers of the Corps of Engineers
2. Assistant Air Judge Advocate, Headquarters, Army Air Forces
3. Chief, Legal Division, Office of the Chief of Transportation
4. Assistant Chief, Engineering and Technical Service, Office of the Chief Signal Officer.
5. Royalty Adjustment Board, Office of the Surgeon General

• • • • •

(5) The powers, duties and authorities referred to in paragraphs (i) and (j) shall not be redelegated by any delegate under the general authority to redelegate conferred in § 801.107 (i); except that the power to negotiate voluntary adjustments of royalties or settlements of infringement claims against the United States, before suit against the United States has been instituted, as set forth in subparagraph (3) of paragraph (i), may be redelegated by the chiefs of the technical services, Army Service Forces, to such officer or officers as the chief of the technical service may from time to time designate, such redelegations, however, to be subject to such rules and regulations governing the exercise of delegated powers under the act as have been or may from time to time be prescribed by or on behalf of the Secretary of War.

(l) Duties of the technical services. Subject to the rules and regulations set forth in this section and in § 811.1114 (a) to (c), inclusive, the chiefs of the technical services are, in matters properly before them and acting under the direction of the Under Secretary of War, under the duty of causing the powers, duties and authorities delegated under the act to be exercised in such manner and at such times as may be necessary to prevent unreasonable or excessive royalties from being charged to the War Department. This duty may be discharged pursuant to such instructions as may be issued by the chiefs of the technical services for the guidance of their respective services.

(m) Policy of the War Department in the Administration of the Act. The policy of the War Department is (1) that, so far as practicable, a licensor shall not be subjected to duplicating interrogation by two or more technical services in relation to his royalty receipts from the use of a particular invention or series of related inventions; and (2) that, so far as practicable, each licensor shall, where such royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive, be given fair opportunity to effect a voluntary adjustment thereof before notice is given. The regulations set forth in paragraph (n) and in § 811.1113, are designed to effectuate this policy.

(n) Procedure in the giving of notice. • • •

(2) If, upon consideration of the reply to the initial inquiry, further investigation is believed to be advisable, a memorandum shall, before the licensor is further interrogated in relation to the matter, be transmitted to the Director requesting clearance to do so. The office of the Director may thereupon grant such clearance as appears proper in the light of the information which the records of that office contain regarding the issuance by any other technical service of the War Department or by any other department or agency of the Government of a notice in the same matter, or the consideration which has been or is being given to the issuance of such a notice. The request for clearance shall state the name and address of licensor, and the inventive subject matter, and so far as known and practicable the name(s) and address(es) of the licensee(s) and the numbers of the patent(s) and patent application(s) concerned. A clearance once given remains in force till modified or revoked by the Director.

(q) Form of the notice. The following form of notice is approved for use subject to such deviations as may be necessary or appropriate in any given case:

[Letterhead of Delegate]

In the Matter of

_____, [et al.]
Licensor(s)

and

_____, [et al.]
Licensee(s)

NOTICE

To: Licensor(s) and Licensee(s): You and each of you will hereby take Notice, that:

Pursuant to the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 768, 77th Congress; 35 U.S.C., 89–96), Notice is hereby given that the royalties which are charged or chargeable directly or indirectly to the War Department on account of the manufacture, use or sale to or for the United States of the alleged inventions relating to _____;
[subject-matter]

by virtue of the license agreement(s) between _____, as licensor, and the following licensees, are believed to be unreasonable or excessive:

[Names of all licensees]

This Notice becomes effective upon its receipt by you or five (5) days after the mailing hereof, whichever dates is the earlier.

The licensor or any licensee, if he so requests within ten (10) days from the effective date of this Notice, may within thirty (30) days from the date of such request present in writing or in person any facts or circumstances which may, in his opinion, have a bearing upon the rates or amounts of royalties, if any, to be determined, fixed and specified.

From and after the effective date of this notice and until the making of an order under said Act, each licensee is hereby directed (a) not to pay to licensor any royalties under said license(s) which are charged or chargeable directly or indirectly to the War Department and (b) to segregate said royalties from licensee's general funds and safely keep the same until such time as the disposition thereof is directed by such order.

The foregoing Notice is hereby given in behalf of the Secretary of War.

By direction of the Under Secretary of War:

[Signature (and title) of delegate]

The foregoing Notice is directed to the following: [Names and addresses of all licensors and licensees] _____

The foregoing notice shall be forwarded by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of each licensee and licensor named therein.

• • • • • •

(x) Procedure upon approval of an order. • • •

(4) The Director will cause to be distributed a copy of the order to each of the following:

The General Accounting Office.
Navy Department.
Treasury Department.
Maritime Commission.
Defense Plant Corporation.
Office of Strategic Services.
Director, Renegotiation Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.
Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General.
Chief patent officer of each of the technical services.
Air Judge Advocate.
All Royalty Adjustment Boards.

2. In § 811.1113 paragraphs (a) (1), (d) (2) and (e) (2) are amended and paragraph (l) is added as follows:

§ 811.1113 Voluntary adjustments of royalties effected before an order is made—(a) Available procedures for voluntary adjustments. The delegate having the matter in hand may, subject to such rules and regulations governing the exercise of delegated powers under the Act as have been or may from time to time be prescribed by or on behalf of the Secretary of War, negotiate a voluntary adjustment of royalties before an order is made, in any of the following manners:

(1) Before notice under the act has been given:

(i) By receiving a supplemental agreement entered into between licensor and licensee (s) and executed by each of them;

(ii) By receiving a unilateral agreement executed by licensor (see paragraph (i)); or

(iii) By causing the United States to execute a contract with licensor alone, or with licensor and all licensees materially affected, in the manners provided in paragraphs (c) to (h).

• • • • • •

(d) Contract articles providing for royalty refund or price reduction. • • •

(2) The following contract articles providing for royalty refund or price reduction, when accompanied by the definitions of terms used therein as set forth in Article 1 of § 813.1329, are appropriate for use in the manner set forth in paragraphs (g) to (i) below:

ARTICLE ..... Refund of royalties.

A. Licensor agrees (i) forthwith to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensor showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties which have prior to the date of this contract been received by Licensor and, (ii) to pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of said part of the subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

B. Licensor agrees that, forthwith upon receipt by Licensor on or after the date of this contract of any of the subject royalties, Licensor shall (i) deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensor showing the amount and manner of computation of said royalties, and (ii) pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

C. Licensor agrees to and does hereby authorize and direct Licensee [or, the licensee named in said license] (i) to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties which are due for payment by Licensee to Licensor and have not been paid prior to the date of this contract and, (ii) to pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of said part of the subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

D. Licensor agrees to and does hereby authorize and direct Licensee [or, the licensee named in said license], as and when any of the subject royalties fall due for payment to Licensor on or after the date of this contract, (i) to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of the said subject royalties and (ii) to pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

E. Licensee agrees (i) forthwith to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties which are due for payment to Licensor and have not been paid prior to the date of this contract and (ii) to pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of said part of the subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

F. Licensee agrees that, as and when any of the subject royalties fall due for payment to Licensor on or after the date of this contract, licensee shall (i) forthwith deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of the said subject royalties and (ii) pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

ARTICLE ..... Refund of royalties and price reduction.

G. (a) Licensee agrees (i) to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties not heretofore paid to Licensor, which have heretofore accrued or many hereafter accrue in respect of supplies, equipment, materials or parts thereof delivered prior to....., 194.. [date when price reduction is to become effective] and (ii) to pay to the Treasurer of the United States, at the same time and place, so much of said part of the subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

(b) Licensee agrees (i) to reduce the contract price of all supplies, equipment, materials and parts thereof delivered to the Government on and after the date set forth in clause (a) of this Article, to the extent necessary to secure to the Government the full benefit of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof, and (ii) to pay or credit to the Government, as the Contracting Officer concerned may direct, the amount of such price reduction.

(e) Contract articles providing for release of infringement claims. * * *

(2) If the license, whose royalties are being adjusted is exclusive, the following contract article is appropriate provided both Licensor and Licensee are parties to the contract:

ARTICLE ..... Release of past infringement. Licensor and Licensee hereby jointly and severally release each and every claim and demand which they or either of them now have or may hereafter have against the Government, its officers, agents, servants and employees, for infringement of any patent covering the said inventions by reason of the manufacture, use or sale of any article or material or the use of any process prior to the date of this contract or the use or sale thereafter of any article or material so manufactured.

* * * * *

(l) Numbering and distribution. (1) It is unnecessary to number royalty adjustment agreements, notwithstanding the provisions of § 803.309.

(2) The executed original of every royalty adjustment agreement (whether or not executed by the Government) will be forwarded to the Chief, Audit Division, Room 506, General Accounting Office, Washington 25, D. C., under the following conditions:

(i) If such agreement provides that the Government is to make or receive the payment of an amount determinable at the time of the execution of the contract (such as, for example, refund of royalties already accrued or received), the agreement will be forwarded immediately.

(ii) If such agreement provides that the Government is to make or receive the payment of money upon the happening of or in an amount which is contingent upon a future event (such as, for example, refund of royalties to accrue or to be received), the agreement will be forwarded immediately or upon the happening of any event which requires the payment or receipt of moneys under the agreement.

(3) If such an agreement contains any provision granting to the Government an interest (such as an assignment or license) in or under patents or applications for patents, the agreement is required by Executive Order No. 9424, 18 February 1944, to be recorded in the United States Patent Office. Such recording will be carried out in the manner provided in paragraph 4 of AR 25–10. An agreement providing for a waiver of royalties under existing private licenses, even for a limited time, is subject to the foregoing.

(4) If a royalty adjustment agreement contains provisions such as to require both that it be forwarded to the General Accounting Office (subparagraph (2) above) and that it be recorded in the Patent Office (subparagraph (3) above), and the War Department has in its possession no more than one executed original thereof, such original shall first be transmitted for recording in the Patent Office (in compliance with paragraph 4 of AR 25–10) with a request that it be returned, and upon return thereof said original shall then be forwarded to the General Accounting Office. Hereafter the representative of the War Department shall, if possible, secure an executed original and an executed duplicate original of all documents required to be forwarded under subparagraph (2) and recorded under subparagraph (3) above, and the executed duplicate original shall be used for complying with paragraph 4 of AR 25–10.

3. Section 811.1114 (c) is added, as follows:

§ 811.1114 Agreements in settlement and compromise after an order is made and before suit against the United States has been instituted. (See § 811.1112 (g).)

* * * * *

(c) Numbering and distribution. (See § 811.1113 (l).)

SUBPART D—PRICE AND RATIONING REGULATIONS

Subpart D is completely revised to read as follows:

§ 811.1130 General—(a) Scope of this section. This section deals primarily with certain problems arising from or associated with the relation of the maximum price and rationing regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration (hereinafter sometimes referred to as OPA) to War Department purchases and sales. It discusses separately (1) price regulations in general, (2) problems primarily associated with purchases, (3) information pertinent to sales, and (4) matters relating to rationing. (For a further discussion as to OPA matters primarily relating to War Department sales, see § 807.111 et seq.) The discussion is introductory and is not intended to be complete. Complete details and the text of OPA regulations and orders may be found in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or may be procured from any OPA office. Should these sources fail, inquiries should be sent through the chief of the technical service concerned to the OPA Branch, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, Washington 25, D. C.

(b) Function of OPA Branch. (1) Because of penalties imposed by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, upon contractors who violate price ceilings, contractors must proceed with caution in the acceptance of contracts. To expedite procurement and sales, it is important that War Department personnel be familiar with the problems involved and able, whenever possible, to be of assistance or guidance to contractors. It is an important function of the OPA Branch to undertake the solution of specific problems.

(2) Whenever contact or negotiation is necessary between one of the services and the Office of Price Administration on any price regulation or rationing problem which involves a general policy or might affect more than one of the services, the negotiations will be conducted through the Chief, OPA Branch, Purchases Division.

§ 811.1131 OPA price regulations in general—(a) General. (1) The Office of Price Administration, pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and appropriate delegations of authority, establishes ceiling prices for certain sales of commodities and services. These ceilings are established either by (i) Price Schedules; (ii) Maximum Price Regulations; (iii) Temporary Maximum Price Regulations; (iv) the General Maximum Price Regulation; or (v) other directives. Certain exemptions from price control have been granted and methods for obtaining relief provided, as discussed more fully hereafter.

(2) Definition of commodity: By statutory definition, the term commodity, as to which a ceiling price may be established, includes, with certain exceptions set forth in the statute, commodities, articles, products, materials and services.

(b) Specific Price Regulations (Price Schedules and Maximum Price Regulations). The distinction between price schedules and maximum price regulations is historical only. Both are price regulations, essentially similar in nature, and are hereafter referred to without distinction as specific price regulations. They establish ceiling prices for the commodities or services specified therein.

(c) The General Maximum Price Regulation (GMPR). The General Maximum Price Regulation (hereafter referred to as GMPR) places a price ceiling on practically all commodities and services sold or rendered by manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, if not covered by specific price regulations (see §§ 811.1131 (e), 811.1132 (f) for exemptions). In general, ceiling prices on items covered by this regulation are based on the highest prices charged in March, 1942. Other formulae are used in the event the March 1942 method is inapplicable. Specific price regulations, as to the specific articles or services covered therein, take precedence over the GMPR, whether issued prior or subsequent to the GMPR.

(d) The service regulation: MPR 165. As above noted (par. (c)) all services (along with commodities) were brought under control of the OPA by the GMPR. Effective August 19, 1942, Maximum Price Regulation 165 brought under specific control a long list of services, leaving those not specifically listed still covered by the GMPR, subject to exemptions (see § 811.1132 (f)).

(e) Exemptions—(1) General. OPA has granted exemption of certain purchases and sales from price control. In some cases, specific commodities and services have been exempted from all price control. In other cases, though in general the commodities and services are subject to price ceilings, some purchases and sales thereof, depending on the identity of the buyer or seller, or on other special considerations, have been exempted.

(2) How exemptions are effected. (i) In the case of commodities and services covered by the GMPR, exemptions are granted respectively by OPA Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 and OPA Supplementary Regulation No. 11.

(ii) In the case of commodities or services covered by specific price regulations, exemptions are granted by the terms of the regulation itself, either (a) by specific terms or (b) by incorporating in the regulation by reference terms of other directives.

(iii) In addition to the foregoing methods, exemptions may be granted in specific cases or otherwise by the terms of various OPA orders.

(iv) When determining whether or not an exemption exists, the language apparently granting the exemption must be carefully examined, bearing in mind particularly that although certain transactions may be exempt from price control by the GMPR, they still may be subject to control by specific price regulations unless such regulations, or orders issued supplementary thereto, specifically exempt them.

(3) Particular exemptions of interest. Reference is made to certain exemptions of primary interest in connection with purchases (see § 811.1132 (b) to (f)) and sales (see § 811.1134 (b)).

(f) Procedure for obtaining relief—(1) General. The OPA has provided methods for obtaining relief with respect to price control, in proper cases, by way of elevation of ceiling prices, exemption, or otherwise.

(2) Obtaining higher maximum price. (i) OPA Procedural Regulation No. 6, effective July 3, 1942, as amended, sets forth the procedure to be followed (except where other OPA regulations specifically otherwise provide) to obtain higher maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. In substance, the regulation provides that (a) any seller who has entered into or proposes to enter into a Government contract, or a subcontract thereunder, who believes that his maximum price or prices impedes or threatens to impede the production, manufacture or distribution of a commodity or the supply of a service which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of such contract or subcontract, may apply for adjustment of his maximum price or prices; (b) any government agency may appear as an interested party in the case of any such application; (c) upon the filing of an application for adjustment, or within five days prior thereto and until final disposition of the application, contracts may be entered into or proposals and bids submitted at the higher price or prices requested in the application, and deliveries may be made under such contracts, except that the seller may not receive and the buyer may not pay the amount by which the price exceeds the maximum price unless and until an order granting a higher price has been issued; (d) the seller shall include in any sale, contract to sell, or offer to sell at the price requested in the application the following: The maximum price for the commodity or service in question; a statement that the quoted price is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration; and a statement that an appropriate application has been filed, or will be filed within five days with the Office of Price Administration, and (e) applications involving War Department contracts exceeding $5,000,000 in value must be filed with the OPA in Washington, D. C. (Other applications, [with a few exceptions] may be filed either with the appropriate regional office of the OPA or with the OPA in Washington, D. C.)

(ii) Special procedure to obtain higher maximum prices is provided by amendments to MPR 136, (Machines and Parts and Machinery Services), effective April 12, 1943 and June 25, 1943, respectively, to which reference is made for complete details. This procedure is available to any person who has entered into a "war contract", defined as a contract for the sale of machine or part purchased for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or for use in the production or manufacture of any such commodity. Provision is also made for adjustments of the maximum prices of machinery services.

(3) Certain specific cases. For methods of obtaining relief in certain cases primarily relating to purchases (see § 811.1132 (c) to (e)).

(g) Dissemination of information by chiefs of technical services. Whenever the Office of Price Administration makes an industry-wide revision of ceiling prices on any item purchased by the War Department, or other revision in ceiling prices affecting products purchased by the War Department, the chief of the technical service involved will notify all contracting officers.

§ 811.1132 Purchases—(a) General. This section deals with OPA matters primarily relating to purchases. (For a discussion as to sales see § 807.111 et seq.; § 811.1134 (a) to (c). Interested personnel should, in addition, be familiar with the preceding paragraphs of this section.

(b) Exemptions of purchases by virtue of War Department-OPA Agreement, September 1942. Among the exemptions from price control heretofore granted by the OPA by methods indicated in § 811.1131 (e) are transactions involving certain so-called military items. By agreement between the OPA and the War Department, military items exempt in September 1942 will remain exempt. However, under this agreement, OPA has reserved the right to resume control over exempt items if it develops that the War Department is unable to control prices effectively through its own procurement policies.

(c) Exemptions of secret contracts and subcontracts—(1) Exemption. OPA Supplementary Order No. 42, which applies to all specific price regulations and to the GMPR, exempts from price control sales and deliveries of any commodity or service made under a contract or subcontract properly certified as secret to the OPA (see subpar. (3) of this paragraph for proper certification).

(2) Period of exemption. The exemption applies only for such period as is necessary for the preservation of secrecy. The purchasing agency certifying the contract as secret must notify the contractor or subcontractor and the OPA whenever the contract or subcontract ceases to be secret. Upon receipt of such notification by the contractor or subcontractor, the exemption will end. (See subpar. (3) of this paragraph for proper notification.)

(3) Procedure. The certification mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, made by a representative of the purchasing agency, shall set forth the date of the secret contract or subcontract and its number or other designation. It shall not name the commodity or service covered thereby or the name or address of the contractor. The notice mentioned in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall identify the contract and state that it is no longer secret. Both the certificate and the notice shall be sent to: The Security Officer, Office Services Division, Office of Price Administration, Federal Office Building No. 1, Washington 25, D. C.

(d) Exemption of developmental contracts—(1) Definition of developmental. A contract or subcontract is deemed by the terms of OPA Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1, to be "developmental" if the manufacturer or supplier thereunder requires a period of time for the accumulation of sufficient production experience to permit him to make a fair estimate of his manufacturing costs, or if the purchaser thereunder requires a period of time to select a product, or both.

(2) Exemption. OPA Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 (insofar as ceiling established by the GMPR are concerned) and many specific price regulations grant exemptions from price control in connection with developmental contracts and subcontracts properly certified as being "developmental". The exemptions are not automatic, but are conditioned on complying with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph. Also, not all developmental contracts are exempt, even when such procedure is followed, so in each case the pertinent OPA regulations should be consulted.

(3) Period of exemption. Any exemption of a developmental contract or subcontract applies only so long as the period necessary for development continues. The OPA reserves the right, after consultation with the certifying Government agency, to determine when the developmental period shall expire (for services, MPR 165 fixes a maximum time limit of 90 days).

(4) Procedure. (i) To obtain exemption of a developmental contract or subcontract, where exemption is provided for (see subpar. (2) of this paragraph) it is necessary that the contract or subcontract be certified by the War Department as being developmental and that the contractor or subcontractor file a report within ten days after entering into the contract or subcontract. The certificate, with blank spaces filled in appropriately may be in the following form:

> In accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. _____ Section _____ [or the General Maximum Price Regulation] the following contract is hereby certified as developmental: Contract No. _____ Date of Contract _____ Name and address of supplier_____ _____Commodity covered _____

The report, to be filed by the contractor or subcontractor must describe the product or service, the terms of the contract or subcontract (including pricing provisions) and the production plans of which the contract or subcontract is a part, and must estimate the duration of the developmental work. Both the certificate and the contractor's report should be sent (the certificate in duplicate) to the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. Attention: War Goods Price Coordinator.

(e) Exemption of emergency purchase—(1) Exemption. OPA Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 (insofar as ceilings established by the GMPR are concerned) and many specific price regulations grant exemptions from price control of "emergency purchases" made by the War Department. The exemptions are not automatic, but are conditioned on complying with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. Also, not all emergency purchases are exempt, even when such procedure is followed, so in each case, the pertinent OPA regulations should be consulted.

(2) Definition. To satisfy the definition of "emergency" for purposes of the exemption (i) the subject matter of the purchase must be needed at once, and (ii) at least a portion of the purchase must be capable of immediate delivery (or performance in the case of services) either from stock or after a short period of production. In any case, the emergency exemption is applicable only to the quantity immediately deliverable. The exemption will not apply to contracts or agreements for future delivery.

(3) Procedure. To obtain exemption of an emergency purchase, where exemption is provided for (see subpar. (1) of this paragraph), the purchasing officer must certify that it was imperative to secure the commodity or service immediately and that it was impossible to secure, or unfair to require, immediate delivery or performance at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable. The certificate must set forth, in addition, (i) the name and address of the seller, (ii) the date of purchase, (iii) the date of delivery, (iv) a description of the commodity or service purchased, (v) the quantity purchased, (vi) the price, and (vii) a brief statement of the facts giving rise to the emergency situation which necessitated the purchase at a price higher than the applicable maximum price. The certificate must be filed with the OPA in Washington within five days (ten days in the case of services) after the purchase is made. It should be sent in duplicate to: Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: War Goods Price Coordinator. (No report is required in the case of services unless the total price thereof exceeds $500.00, and a similar exemption is extended in some specific price regulations to emergency purchases.)

(f) Other exemptions of primary interest in connection with purchases—(1) General. Attention is called in this paragraph to certain exemptions from price control by the GMPR (but not necessarily from control by specific price regulations: see § 811.1131 (e) (2) (iv)) not specified in preceding sections, of primary interest in connection with purchases.

(2) Commodities. The following exemptions as to commodities are established by OPA Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1, which provides in part that the GMPR shall not apply to sales or deliveries of the following commodities or in the following transactions:

(i) Aviation gasoline and components, synthetic rubber and components, toluene manufactured from petroleum and agricultural components used in the manufacture of furfural, under the conditions and to the extent stated in the regulation.

(ii) Sales and deliveries to the United States or its agencies of the following commodities:

(a) Aircraft, ammunition, armored trains, artillery, balloon barrage equipment, bombs, bomb sights, caissons, fire control equipment, gas masks, grenades, gun sights, military bridges, mines, mortars, projectiles, pyrotechnics, small arms, ships and boats, and torpedoes;

(b) Amphibians, armed vehicles, automobiles, tanks, trailers and trucks, when sold for military purposes;

(c) Component parts and subassemblies of any product excepted under (a) and (b), regardless of the person to whom sold or delivered, including all metallic and non-metallic component parts, adjuncts and accessories which have been machined or fabricated but not including raw or unfinished materials or any other materials which are in such form as to permit their use in the manufacture of products other than those excepted under (a) and (b);

(d) Military propellants and explosives;

(e) The following Army field and emergency rations and commodities: completed rations; C; D; K; Five-in-One; Mountain; Bail Out; Combat; Jungle; Life Raft; Corned Beef Hash (5½ lb. can); Meat and Vegetable Hash (6 lb. 12 oz. can); Chili Con Carne, and Ten-in-One.

(iii) Dehydrated vegetables sold to the Armed Forces of the United States.

(iv) The list of exemptions in this paragraph is not complete. Interested personnel are referred to the text of OPA Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1.

(3) Services. The exemptions mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are established, as to services, by OPA Supplementary Regulation No. 11 (which also has been incorporated by reference into the so-called Service Regulation MPR 165; see § 811.1131 (d)). It provides, in part, that the GMPR shall not apply to compensation for the following services:

(i) The lubrication, painting, rental, storage, washing, operation, repair, conversion, modification, maintenance or other services of aircraft, including maintenance of or repairs to engines, parts, accessories, instruments and other equipment used in connection with aircraft.

(ii) The list of exemptions in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph is not complete. Interested personnel are referred to the texts of OPA Supplementary Regulation No. 11 and Maximum Price Regulation No. 165.

(g) Responsibility of contracting officers as to purchases. (1) Contracting officers, in executing contracts covering procurement of commodities or purchases unless otherwise specifically directed, are not required to verify the prices charged by any vendor or contractor against the maximum prices fixed in accordance with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in the absence of actual knowledge of violation of price limitations, they may assume that prices charged do not exceed maximum prices. Likewise, in connection with cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, contracting officers in approving items for reimbursement are not responsible for determining whether the costs of materials, supplies, tools, equipment or machinery exceed the maximum prices thus fixed. In the interests of economical purchasing, however, contracting officers are expected to exert reasonable effort to be familiar with the OPA regulations that apply to the commodities and services which they buy.

(2) Where a contracting officer is definitely informed that the price or proposed price of a commodity or service is in excess of the OPA maximum, he should proceed as follows:

(i) Try to negotiate a reduction in the price to conform to the OPA standard;

(ii) If such a reduction proves impossible, endeavor to have the contractor file an application for an adjustment of the established maximum price with OPA under Procedural Regulation 6 (see § 811.1131 (f));

(iii) If necessary, and if immediate deliveries can be made, make emergency purchases for immediate delivery in excess of the OPA maxima, complying with the requirements set forth in paragraph (e);

(iv) If recourse to the foregoing methods proves unsuccessful and the contracting officer believes an impairment of production of essential war material is threatened, report should be made at once to the chief of the technical service concerned and the services of the OPA Branch enlisted to remove the impediment.

(v) As a last resort, the statutes provide for the requisition of needed articles already in existence, and for mandatory orders to compel the supply of essential military items. For the conditions and procedures governing the use of these methods, see Part 814.

(h) Acceptance of contractor's certification in connection with purchases. The action of certifying and disbursing officers in connection with such price limitations is governed by Fiscal Directive SPBFA-11A, June 19, 1942, providing as follows:

1. The certification now required on Standard Form No. 1034-revised, as used in connection with payments made to vendors or contractors for purchases or services rendered other than personal will be continued in use and is a proper and sufficient warranty of compliance by the vendor or contractor with the price ceilings established in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, Public Law 421, approved January 30, 1942.

2. In the absence of actual knowledge of violation of price limitations, certifying officers may rely upon the certificate of the vendor or contractor as to the correctness of the prices charged and will not be required to verify such prices against maxima established by the Office of Price Administration. Disbursing Officers may rely upon their records and the certificate of the vendor or contractor and will not be required to verify such maxima prices.

3. Disbursing officers will make payment in accordance with the above outlined procedure.

The form of certification (Standard Form 1034) is as follows:

I certify that the above bill is correct and just; that payment therefor has not been received; that all statutory requirements as to American production and labor standards, and all conditions of purchase applicable to the transactions have been complied with; and that State or local sales taxes are not included in the amounts billed.

The words "the above bill is correct and just" and "all conditions of purchase applicable to the transactions have been complied with" constitute a proper and sufficient warranty by the vendors and contractors that the prices billed are within any applicable price ceilings established by the OPA. Accordingly, no additional certificate or statement by the vendors and contractors with respect to maximum prices should be required. Also, no special certificate accompanying quotations, or warranty in the contract with respect to compliance with price regulations will be required.

(i) Exemption from liability of contracting and finance officers in connection with purchases. Supplementary Order No. 7, entitled "Removal of Liability of War Procurement Agencies and Governments whose Defense is Vital to the defense of the United States," effective July 11, 1942, provides that prohibitions contained in maximum price regulations against buying or receiving a commodity or service at a price higher than the permitted maximum shall not apply to (1) any War Procurement Agency of the United States or any contracting or paying finance officer thereof or (2) the Government of any country whose defense is deemed by the President to be vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941. It provides further that any such War Procurement Agencies or contracting or paying finance officers of any such government or agency, shall be relieved of any criminal or civil liability imposed by a maximum price regulation or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The OPA statement of considerations involved in the issuance of Supplementary Order No. 7 states such purchases are typically not purchases "in the course of trade or business" within the meaning of the act.

(j) Non-exemption of contractors holding War Department contracts. The OPA has advised, however, that this exemption is applicable only to Government contracting officers in connection with Government purchases and does not extend to purchases made by contractors even when operating under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, and even though purchases made by them are reimbursable by the Government. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors, as well as all other prime contractors, are buyers "in the course of trade or business" within the meaning of Section 4 (a) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and are, therefore, subject to the prohibitions of that section.

§ 811.1134 Sales—(a) General. For a general discussion of OPA matters primarily relating to War Department sales other than by Army stores, see § 807.111 et seq. (See § 811.1132–811.1132 (j) for a discussion of purchases.) Interested personnel should in addition be familiar with §§ 811.1130 to 811.1131 (f).

(b) Exemption of sales by Army stores (OPA Supplementary Order No. 27). OPA Supplementary Order No. 27, effective November 14, 1942, as amended, exempted sales and deliveries of any commodity or service by the War Department through its sales stores, including commissaries, Army canteens, and post exchanges, from all OPA price regulation. The OPA retained the right, however, to make price regulations applicable to such sales.

(c) Other OPA regulations pertaining to sales. If officers making sales on behalf of the War Department have any problems with relation to ceiling prices in connection with such sales which are not covered by the provisions of these procurement regulations including § 807.111 (b) et seq., solution of such problem should be reached through contact with appropriate OPA officials by reference of the problems to the Chief, OPA Branch, Purchases Division, as provided in § 811.1130 (b).

§ 811.1135 Rationing regulations—(a) General. The OPA issues regulations covering the rationing of scarce consumer goods. These regulations do not restrict Army purchases of the goods concerned, but to control illegal sales ("black markets") sellers of rationed goods, whether sales are made to the Army or otherwise, are required by OPA, upon replacement of their stocks, to produce so-called "ration evidences" obtained from their customers. Accordingly, Army procurement officers, in purchasing rationed goods, furnish the seller with ration evidences for the goods purchased, or otherwise cooperate with OPA policies.

(b) Applicable OPA directives. Sugar (Ration Order 3), processed foods (Ration Order 13), meats, fish, fats, and cheese (Ration Order 16), gasoline (Ration Order 5c), fuel oil in part of the United States (Ration Order 11), and shoes (Ration Order 17), have been subjected to rationing. Procedures under the rationing system are established by OPA General Ration Orders 3, 3A, 3B, 5 and 11.

(c) Where certain War Department instructions may be found. Interested personnel may find instructions in the following War Department publications covering the general subjects indicated:

1. Circular Letter 30, OQMG, 13 February 1943 and supplements thereto—ration banking accounts;

2. Circular 201, W. D., 1943—food rationing;
3. Circular 291, W. D., 1943; Circular 89, W. D., 1944—non-rationed food items containing rationed commodities;
4. Circulars 246, 282, W. D., 1944—Certain petroleum products; and
6. Circular 255, W. D., 1944—Shoes.

SUBPART H—MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

1. Section 811.1183 is amended by revising the last sentence. The section, as amended, reads as follows:

§ 811.1183 Procurement of spare parts. Certain restrictions and procedures have been prescribed with respect to the procurement of spare parts, particularly initial concurrent spare parts. Such restrictions and procedures are set forth in Circular No. 227, War Department, 1944, as amended by section IV, Circular 318, War Department, 1944.

2. Section 811.1187 is revised to refer to applicable War Department circulars. The section as amended reads as follows:

§ 811.1187 Restrictions on purchases of selected items. The purchase of various items or classes of materiel and supplies has been restricted or prohibited due to shortages of such items or classes of equipment or of materials used in the construction thereof and for other reasons. Certain of these items or classes are mentioned below together with a reference to the War Department circulars setting forth the restrictions or prohibition. These circulars must be examined for a more detailed statement of the items and classes of materiel and supplies affected and of the nature of the restriction or prohibition.

1. Office furniture and equipment. See section II, Circular No. 168, War Department, 1943 and section III, Circular No. 216, War Department, 1943.
2. Interoffice communication systems, sound recording equipment and public address systems. See section I, Circular No. 2, War Department, 1944.
3. Farm machinery and equipment. See section VI, Circular No. 204, War Department, 1944, as amended by section III, Circular No. 217, War Department, 1944.
4. Spare parts. See paragraph § 811.1183.

3. Section 811.1187a is added, as follows:

§ 811.1187a Restrictions on local purchases. (a) Detailed provisions respecting restrictions upon and procedures required to be followed in connection with local purchases (including local purchases from appropriated as well as unappropriated funds) are set forth in section VII, Circular 310, War Department, 1944.

(b) It is essential that local purchases be kept to a minimum in order not to impinge on materiel and supplies intended for civilian economy. Local purchases are generally less economical, often result in an accumulation of nonstandard supplies which have limited use and tend to create excesses of standard items in depot stocks.

(c) Responsibility for controlling local purchases is a continuing command function in all echelons and at all installations. It shall be exercised vigorously and systematically.

[Procurement Reg. 12]

PART 812—RENEGOTIATION AND PRICE ADJUSTMENT

SUBPART C—CONTRACT PROVISIONS FOR PRICE ADJUSTMENT UPON CONTINGENCIES AND SHORT-TERM PRICING

1. Section 811.1231 is amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1231 Adjustments under changes article in fixed price supply contracts—(a) General. The "changes" article authorized for use in fixed price supply contracts (see § 813.1301 (b)) permits the contracting officer by a written order to make changes in the drawings or specifications, or in the requirements as to packing and shipment. The article authorized in § 803.329a may be used in supply contracts in lieu of that authorized in § 813.1301 (b) in which event the contracting officer is also empowered to increase or decrease within stated limits the quantities called for by the contract or to accelerate or reduce the rate of deliveries. An equitable adjustment is to be made and the contract modified accordingly,

(1) If such changes cause an increase or decrease in the amount due under the contract or in the time required for its performance (§ 813.1301 (b)), or

(2) If such changes cause an increase or decrease in the amount of work under the contract or in the time required for its performance (§ 803.329a).

If the parties fail to agree the dispute is to be determined as provided in the Disputes article.

The different types of changes which may be ordered will raise different kinds of problems in effecting the equitable adjustment required. These are discussed in paragraphs (b) to (d).

(b) Types of adjustments after a change order. There are two types of adjustments either or both of which may be required to be made as the result of a change order:

(1) Adjustments attributable to increases or decreases in the unit costs for the balance of the contract as a result of the change order including changes in the direct expenses and in the allocations of indirect expenses,

(2) Adjustments attributable to the portion of the work done prior to the change order including items such as work in process, materials or machinery no longer usable, and subcontract or purchase order cancellation charges.

It is important that the difference between these two types of charges be clearly understood and observed in order to avoid duplication of the expenses incurred by the Government. Ordinarily it is desirable that these two types of adjustments be kept distinct, although the results may be included in a single written instrument. From the standpoint of pricing such separation is particularly desirable since including those adjustments which are attributable to work done prior to the change order in the adjustment of unit prices tends to distort the unit prices for the purpose of pricing continuation orders and other comparable contracts. Where the two types of adjustment mentioned in (1) and (2) above are not set out in a single instrument it is important that each instrument shall indicate that it accomplishes only a part of the "equitable adjustment" contemplated as a result of the change order.

(c) Adjustments attributable to the balance of the contract. Efficient administration of the contract requires that the charges attributable to the change in unit costs as a result of the change order be determined and adjusted as quickly as possible in order that the contractor shall assume the same risks as he assumed in negotiating the original contract price. In effecting this adjustment, consideration must be given to the factors and principles relating to the negotiation of a new contract discussed in ASF Manual M-601 "Pricing in War Contracts", with particular attention to changes in the cost factors. Any necessary adjustment will in every case be reflected in an increase or decrease of the unit price of the items to be delivered after the change became effective. The claim for this type of adjustment is similar in nature to a a claim asserted by a contractor under subparagraph (f) of the Uniform Termination Article (see e. g. §§ 803.324, 815.901, 815.321 (b)). Including this adjustment in a written agreement need not be delayed pending completion of the adjustment discussed in the next paragraph. In the event that the contract in question contains the optional price adjustment article set forth in § 803.360a or § 803.360a (a), consideration will be given to the desirability of a negotiation for price adjustment under that article in lieu of the adjustment described in this paragraph.

(d) Adjustments attributable to the work before the change order. A claim for the adjustment of charges attributable to the work done prior to the effective date of the change order is similar in nature to a claim with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract arising upon termination under the termination article (see e.g. §§ 803.324, 815.-901, 815.901a). In adjusting such charges the provisions of Part 815 are not controlling but may be used as a guide. The adjustment of this type of charges may be reflected in a lump sum payment and should normally be so reflected where substantial amounts are involved. In the event that the contractor includes in his claim the cost of any property which is rendered unusable by reason of the change order, the contracting officer must safeguard the interests of the Government by assuring that the value of such property is reflected in the adjustment made by reason of the change. Such property rendered unusable will be disposed of by use of one of the following methods:

(1) By retention of the property by the contractor, with a credit to the Government of an amount therefor to be agreed upon between the contractor and the contracting officer;

(2) By sale of the property at a price to be approved by the contracting officer, the proceeds to be credited to the Government; or

(3) By transfer of title to the property to the Government and delivery of possession thereof in such manner as may be agreed upon by the contractor and the contracting officer.

The written agreement reflecting the adjustment will show as to each general category of property rendered unusable which method of disposition is to be followed. If title is to be taken by the Government, the agreement will provide clearly what is to be done with the property. The contracting officer will take all necessary action for prompt execution of the provisions of the supplementary agreement relating to property which is to be transferred to the Government.

(e) Adjustments of changes resulting in a reduction in quantity. A reduction in the quantity to be delivered under the contract made pursuant to the "changes" article set forth in § 803.329a constitutes a partial termination within the meaning of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944. The use of a "changes" article to effect a reduction in quantity and the problems incident thereto are discussed in § 815.300 (c). Attention, however, is directed to the importance of safeguarding the interest of the Government in property rendered unusable because of the reduction by securing title thereto or otherwise receiving credit for the value thereof.

2. In § 812.1232 the reference at the end of paragraph (d) is revised. The paragraph, as amended, reads as follows:

§ 812.1232 Escalation • • •

(d) Escalation in relation to OPA ceiling prices. Escalation in relation to OPA ceiling prices is not permitted, except that escalation articles may be included in contracts for the purchase of certain basic commodities to the extent and in the form set forth in § 803.351 (d) et seq.

SUBPART H—AUDITS AND INSPECTIONS UNDER TITLE XIII OF THE SECOND WAR POWERS ACT

Section 812.1263 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 812.1263 Preliminary steps before audit or subpena. (a) No audit is to be made without first advising the War Production Board. Communications on this subject should be addressed to Chief, Contract Review Branch, Procurement Policy Division, War Production Board, 4th and Independence Avenue, SW., Washington 25, D. C. It is the intent of this notification to prevent conflict and duplication of audit with other Departments. Approval from the War Production Board should therefore be obtained before proceeding.

[Procurement Reg. 13]

PART 813—FORMS OF CONTRACTS

1. In § 813.1303 subparagraph 2 of Article IV is amended to read as follows:

§ 813.1303 W. D. Contract Form No. 3. • • •

ART. IV. Records and Accounts Inspection and Audit. • • •

2. The Contracting Officer shall at all times be afforded proper facilities for inspection of the work and shall at all times have access to the premises, work and materials, to all books, records, correspondence, instructions, plans, drawings, receipts, vouchers, and memoranda of every description of the Contractor pertaining to said work except such documents as have been submitted in support of reimbursement vouchers; and the Contractor, without additional compensation therefor, shall preserve such papers to such extent and for such period as may be required by law.

• • • • •

2. In § 813.1304 subparagraph 2, of Article III–B is amended to read as follows:

§ 813.1304 W. D. Contract Form No. 4. • • •

ART. III–B. Records and accounts, inspection and audit. • • •

2. Access to records by Contracting Officer and Architect-Engineer. The Contracting Officer shall at all times be afforded proper facilities for inspection of the work and shall at all times have access to the premises, work and materials, to all books, records, correspondence, instructions, plans, drawings, receipts, vouchers, and memoranda of every description of the Architect-Engineer pertaining to said work except such documents as are submitted in support of reimbursement vouchers; and the Architect-Engineer, without additional compensation therefor, shall preserve such papers to such extent and for such period as may be required by law. Likewise, any duly authorized representative of the Architect-Engineer shall be accorded the privilege of examining the books, records, and papers of the Contracting Officer relating to the actual cost of the work for the purpose of checking and verifying such cost.

• • • • •

3. In §§ 813.1307 to 813.1310, inclusive, the footnotes in paragraph 6 of the forms are amended. The paragraphs, as amended, read as follows:

§ 813.1307 W. D. Contract Form No. 7. • • •

6. (a) In case a definitive contract is not executed by _____, 19__ (or any subsequent date at any time mutually agreed upon) because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, this order will terminate on the stated date or such subsequent date, as the case may be.

(b) The Government may at any time terminate this order in whole or in part for its convenience by giving you written notice of such termination.

(c) In the event of any termination pursuant to either paragraph 6 (a) or paragraph 6 (b) of this order, you and the Contracting Officer will attempt to agree by negotiation upon a settlement estimated by the parties to be the aggregate amount (less payments previously made to you) of the costs incurred by you in the performance of this order and the amounts paid or to be paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made in the performance of this order. In case of termination pursuant to paragraph 6 (b), such negotiated settlement may include a reasonable allowance for profit. Any such negotiated settlement shall be embodied in a Supplemental Agreement.

(d) If you and the Contracting Officer are not able to agree upon such a negotiated settlement within 90 days after the effective date of the termination (or within such longer period as at any time may be mutually agreed upon), the Government binds itself (without duplication of any of the following payments or of payments previously made) to reimburse you for the costs incurred by you in the performance of this order and for any amounts paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made in the performance of this order. In lieu of reimbursing you for expenditures made by you in settling any of your obligations for commitments, the Government, in the discretion of the Contracting Officer, may assume such obligations or any of them. The total of such reimbursement (and of all payments previously made), together with the amount of any obligations assumed, shall not exceed the amount above specified.

If such termination shall take place pursuant to paragraph 6 (a) of this order no allowance of profit will be made to you. If termination shall take place for the convenience of the Government pursuant to paragraph 6 (b) of this order, such allowance of profit will be made to you with respect to the work done by you prior to the effective date of the termination as the Contracting Officer may find to be reasonable under all the circumstances.

(e) The Government may permit you to sell or retain at prices or on terms agreed to by the Government any equipment, completed supplies, materials or work in process and the proceeds of any such sale, or such agreed prices, shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(f) Upon payment or reimbursement to you pursuant to paragraph 6 (c) or 6 (d) of this order, title to all equipment, completed supplies, work in process, materials, plans, information, and other things, for which you are so paid or reimbursed (except such property as may be sold or retained by you as above provided) will vest in the Government (if title thereto has not already become vested in the Government). The Government will also become entitled to any rights under any commitment which it may assume, or for the settlement of which it shall have reimbursed you.

(g) Any dispute which arises under this paragraph 6 regarding a matter of fact (including any dispute (1) as to whether termination has in fact taken place for the convenience of the Government or because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, or (2) as to the extent of any allowance of a profit in the event of a termination for the convenience of the Government) will be treated and resolved as a dispute under the "Disputes" article [1] incorporated in this order by reference.

(h) Partial payments on account of any amount admittedly due to you pursuant to this paragraph 6 may be made by the Government at any time in the discretion of the Contracting Officer.

§ 813.1308 W. D. Contract Form No. 8. • • •

6. (a) In case a definitive contract is not executed by _____, 19____ (or any subsequent date at any time mutually agreed upon) because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, this order will terminate on the stated date or such subsequent date, as the case may be.

(b) The Government may at any time terminate this order in whole or in part for its convenience by giving your written notice of such termination.

(c) In the event of any termination pursuant to either paragraph 6 (a) or paragraph 6 (b) of this order, you and the Contracting

[1] Where the letter order is for an amount less than $20,000, the "Disputes" article will not have been incorporated by reference by virtue of paragraph 3 or 6 (g) of the letter order, since contracts in such amount are not required to contain that article (see § 803.326). In that event the language of the letter order will be appropriately modified expressly to incorporate by reference either the "Disputes" article set forth in § 803.326 or that contained in General Provision 12 of W.D. Contract Form No. 18 (paragraph § 813.1317b).

Officer will attempt to agree by negotiation upon a settlement estimated by the parties to be the aggregate amount (less payments previously made to you) of the unit price above specified for all completed supplies, the costs incurred by you with respect to the uncompleted portion of this order, and the amounts paid or to be paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made with respect to such uncompleted portion of this order. In case of termination pursuant to paragraph 6 (b), such negotiated settlement may include a reasonable allowance for profit. Any such negotiated settlement shall be embodied in a Supplemental Agreement.

(d) If you and the Contracting Officer are not able to agree upon such a negotiated settlement within 90 days after the effective date of the termination (or within such longer period as at any time may be mutually agreed upon), the Government binds itself (without duplication of any of the following payments or of payments previously made):

(1) To pay you the unit price above specified for all completed supplies;

(2) To reimburse you for the costs incurred by you with respect to the uncompleted portion of this order and for any amounts paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments with respect to such uncompleted portion of this order. In lieu of reimbursing you for expenditures made by you in settling any of your obligations for commitments with respect to the uncompleted portion of this order, the Government, in the discretion of the Contracting Officer, may assume such obligations or any of them.

If such termination shall take place pursuant to paragraph 6 (a) of this order no allowance of profit will be made to you (except as the payment of the unit price for completed supplies may include a profit). If termination shall take place for the convenience of the Government pursuant to paragraph 6 (b) of this order, such allowance of profit (in addition to any profit included in paying the unit price for completed supplies) will be made to you with respect to the work done by you on uncompleted supplies prior to the effective date of the termination as the Contracting Officer may find to be reasonable under all the circumstances.

(e) The Government may permit you to sell or retain at prices or on terms agreed to by the Government any equipment, completed supplies, materials or work in process and the proceeds of any such sale, or such agreed prices, shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(f) Upon payment or reimbursement to you pursuant to paragraph 6 (c) or 6 (d) of this order, title to all equipment, completed supplies, work in process, materials, plans, information, and other things, for which you are so paid or reimbursed (except such property as may be sold or retained by you as above provided) will vest in the Government (if title thereto has not already become vested in the Government). The Government will also become entitled to any rights under any commitment which it may assume, or for the settlement of which it shall have reimbursed you.

(g) Any dispute which arises under this paragraph 6 regarding a matter of fact (including any dispute (1) as to whether termination has in fact taken place for the convenience of the Government or because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, or (2) as to the extent of any allowance of a profit in the event of a termination for the convenience of the Government) will be treated and resolved as a dispute under the "Disputes" article[1] incorporated in this order by reference.

(h) Partial payments on account of any amount admittedly due to you pursuant to this paragraph 6 may be made by the Government at any time in the discretion of the Contracting Officer.

§ 813.1309 W. D. Contract Form No. 9. * * *

6. (a) In case a definitive contract is not executed by ----------, 19-- (or any subsequent date at any time mutually agreed upon) because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, this order will terminate on the stated date or such subsequent date, as the case may be.

(b) The Government may at any time terminate this order in whole or in part for its convenience by giving you written notice of such termination.

(c) In the event of any termination pursuant to either paragraph 6 (a) or paragraph 6 (b) of this order, you and the Contracting Officer will attempt to agree by negotiation upon a settlement estimated by the parties to be the aggregate amount (less payments previously made to you) of the costs incurred by you in the performance of this order and the amounts paid or to be paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made in the performance of this order. In case of termination pursuant to paragraph 6 (b), such negotiated settlement may include a reasonable allowance for profit. Any such negotiated settlement shall be embodied in a Supplemental Agreement.

(d) If you and the Contracting Officer are not able to agree upon such a negotiated settlement within 90 days after the effective date of the termination (or within such longer period as at any time may be mutually agreed upon), the Government binds itself (without duplication of any of the following payments or of payments previously made) to reimburse you for the costs incurred by you in the performance of this order and for any amounts paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made in the performance of this order. In lieu of reimbursing you for expenditures made by you in settling any of your obligations for commitments, the Government, in the discretion of the Contracting Officer, may assume such obligations or any of them. The total of such reimbursement (and of all payments previously made), together with the amount of any obligations assumed, shall not exceed the amount above specified.

If such termination shall take place pursuant to paragraph 6 (a) of this order no allowance of profit will be made to you. If termination shall take place for the convenience of the Government pursuant to paragraph 6 (b) of this order, such allowance of a fee will be made to you with respect to the work done by you prior to the effective date of the termination as the Contracting Officer may find to be reasonable under all the circumstances; but such fee shall in no event exceed ____ per cent (____%) of so much of the estimated cost set forth in paragraph 1 as is allocable to such work.

(e) The Government may permit you to sell or retain at prices or on terms agreed to by the Government any equipment, materials or work in process and the proceeds of any such sale, or such agreed prices, shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(f) Upon payment or reimbursement to you pursuant to paragraph 6 (c) or 6 (d) of this order, title to all equipment, work in process, materials, plans, information, and other things, for which you are so paid or reimbursed (except such property as may be sold or retained by you as above provided) will vest in the Government (if title thereto has not already become vested in the Government). The Government will also become entitled to any rights under any commitment which it may assume, or for the settlement of which it shall have reimbursed you.

(g) Any dispute which arises under this paragraph 6 regarding a matter of fact (including any dispute (1) as to whether termination has in fact taken place for the convenience of the Government or because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, or (2) as to the extent of any allowance of a fee in the event of a termination for the convenience of the Government) will be treated and resolved as a dispute under the "Disputes" article[1] incorporated in this order by reference.

6. (a) In case a definitive contract is not executed by ----------, 19-- (or any subsequent date mutually agreed upon) because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, this order will terminate on the stated date or such subsequent date, as the case may be.

(b) The Government may at any time terminate this order in whole or in part for its convenience by giving you written notice of such termination.

(c) In the event of any termination pursuant to either paragraph 6 (a) or paragraph 6 (b) of this order, you and the Contracting Officer will attempt to agree by negotiation upon a settlement estimated by the parties to be the aggregate amount (less payments previously made to you) of the costs incurred by you in the performance of this order and the amounts paid or to be paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made in the performance of this order. In case of termination pursuant to paragraph 6 (b), such negotiated settlement may include a reasonable allowance for profit. Any such negotiated settlement shall be embodied in a Supplemental Agreement.

(d) If you and the Contracting Officer are not able to agree upon such a negotiated settlement within 90 days after the effective date of the termination (or within such longer period as at any time may be mutually agreed upon), the Government binds itself (without duplication of any of the following payments or of any payments previously made) to reimburse you for the costs incurred by you in the performance of the order and for any amounts paid by you or for your account in settling with the approval of the Contracting Officer your obligations for commitments made in the performance of this order. In lieu of reimbursing you for the expenditures made by you in settling any of your obligations for commitments, the Government, in the discretion of the Contracting Officer, may assume such obligations or any of them. The total of such reimbursement (and of all payments previously made), together with the amount of any obligations assumed, shall not exceed the amount above specified.

If such termination shall take place pursuant to paragraph 6 (a) of this order no allowance of profit will be made to you. If termination shall take place for the convenience of the Government pursuant to paragraph 6 (b) of this order, such allowance of profit will be made to you with respect to the work done by you prior to the effective date of the termination as the Contracting Officer may find to be reasonable under all the circumstances.

(e) The Government may permit you to sell or retain at prices or on terms agreed to by the Government any equipment, materials or work in process and the proceeds of any such sale, or such agreed prices, shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(f) Upon payment or reimbursement to you pursuant to paragraph 6 (c) or 6 (d) of this order, title to all equipment, work in process, materials, plans, information, and other things, for which you are so paid or reimbursed (except such property as may be sold or retained by you as above provided) will vest in the Government (if title thereto has not already become vested in the Government). The Government will also become entitled to any rights under any commitment which it may assume, or for the settlement of which it shall have reimbursed you.

(g) Any dispute which arises under this paragraph 6 regarding a matter of fact (including any dispute (1) as to whether termination has in fact taken place for the convenience of the Government or because of the inability of the parties to agree upon a definitive contract, or (2) as to the extent of any allowance of a profit in the event of a termination for the convenience of the Government) will be treated and resolved as a dispute under the "Disputes" article[1] incorporated in this order by reference.

(h) Partial payments on account of any amount admittedly due to you pursuant to this paragraph 6 may be made by the Government at any time in the discretion of the Contracting Officer.

GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLYING TO THIS ORDER

1. Payments. The Contractor shall be paid, upon the submission of properly certified invoices or vouchers, the prices stipulated herein for articles delivered and accepted or services rendered, less deductions, if any, as herein provided. If the Contracting Officer permits, (a) payments may be made on partial deliveries accepted by the Government when the amount due on such deliveries so warrants; or, (b) when requested by the Contractor, payments for accepted partial deliveries may be made whenever such payments would equal or exceed either $1,000 or 50% of the total amount of the contract.

2. Inspection. Whether or not an inspection point is specified herein, all material and workmanship shall be subject to inspection and test at all times and places (including inspection and test after arrival at destination) and, when practicable, during manufacture. In case any articles are found to be defective in material or workmanship, or otherwise not in conformity with the specification requirements, the Government shall have the right to reject such articles, or require their correction. Final inspection shall be conclusive except as regards latent defects, fraud, or such gross mistakes as amount to fraud. In the event public necessity requires the use of materials or supplies not conforming to the specifications, payment therefor shall be made at a proper reduction in price.

3. Variation in quantities, (Insert § 803.320)

4. Notice of shipments. (Insert § 803.326)

5. Taxes. (Insert § 803.357 (b))

6. Walsh-Healey Act. If this contract is for an amount in excess of $10,000, the representations and stipulations required by Section 1 of the Act of June 30, 1936 (Walsh-Healey Act, Public No. 846, 74th Cong.), to be included in all contracts therein specified, are hereby incorporated and made a part of this contract with the same force and effect as if fully set forth in the contract. Such representations and stipulations shall be subject to all applicable regulations, determinations, and exemptions of the Secretary of Labor now or hereafter in effect.

7. Eight-hour law. This General Provision 7 shall apply if General Provision 6 is not applicable. (Insert § 803.346)

8. Anti-discrimination. (Insert § 803.328)

9. Convict labor. The Contractor shall not employ any person undergoing sentence of imprisonment at hard labor.

10. Changes. Where the supplies to be furnished are to be specially manufactured in accordance with drawings and specifications, the Contracting Officer may at any time, by a written order, and without notice to the sureties, if any, make changes in the drawings or specifications. Changes as to shipment and packing of all supplies may also be made as above provided. If such changes cause an increase or decrease in the amount due under this contract, or in the time required for its performance, an equitable adjustment shall be made and the contract shall be modified in writing accordingly.

11. Delays; damages. If the Contractor refuses or fails to perform this contract within the time specified, or any extension thereof, the Government may, by written notice, terminate the right of the Contractor to proceed with deliveries or with such part or parts thereof as to which there has been delay, and may hold the Contractor liable for any damage caused the Government by reason of such termination. The right of the Contractor to proceed with the performance of this contract shall not be terminated under this General Provision 11 if the delay is due to causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, including without being limited to, any preference, priority, or allocation order issued by the Government or any other act of the Government.

12. Disputes. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this contract, all disputes concerning questions of fact which may arise under this contract, and which are not disposed of by mutual agreement, shall be decided by the Contracting Officer, who shall reduce his decision to writing and mail a copy thereof to the Contractor. Within 30 days from said mailing the Contractor may appeal to the Secretary of War, whose decision or that of his designated representative, representatives, or board shall be final and conclusive upon the parties hereto. Pending decision of a dispute hereunder the Contractor shall diligently proceed with the performance of this contract.

13. Assignment of rights hereunder. This General Provision 13 shall apply if this contract is for $1,000 or more, unless this contract is marked secret, confidential, or restricted. (Insert § 803.355.)

14. Officials not to benefit. Insert § 803.322.)

15. Covenant against contingent fees. (Insert § 803.323.)

16. Termination at the option of the Government. The performance of work under this contract may be terminated by the Government whenever the Contracting Officer shall determine that such action is for the best interests of the Government. If this contract is so terminated, fair compensation, within the meaning of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 (Public No. 395, 78th Cong.), as the same may from time to time be amended, will be provided for contractor.

17. Definitions. Except for the original signing of this contract, and except as otherwise stated herein, the term "Contracting Officer" as used herein shall include his duly appointed successor or his authorized representative.

9. In § 813.1329, the first "Whereas" clause and articles 1, 2, and 6 are amended to read as follows:

§ 813.1329 W. D. Contract Form No. 29. • • •

Whereas, on or about the ..... day of ....., 19....., Licensor and Licensee entered into an instrument of license, providing for the payment of certain royalties;

• • • • •

ARTICLE 1. Definitions. Where used in this contract, the following terms have the meanings here assigned to them, viz.:

(a) "Said license" means the instrument of license dated .....; 19.. above mentioned;

(b) "Said inventions" means each and all of the inventions whose practice is licensed in and by said license;

(c) "The Act" and "the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 768, 77th Congress; 56 U.S.C. 89–96);

(d) "Notice under the Act" means the notice contemplated by Section 1 of the Act;

(e) "Period of this agreement" means the period of time beginning the ..... day of ..... 19.. [insert date as of which the royalty adjustment is to take effect] and ending when the head of any department or agency of the Government gives notice under the Act that the reduced royalties specified in this contract are believed to be unreasonable or excessive, but in any event ending six months after the cessation of hostilities in any war in which the United States are now engaged;

(f) "Subject royalties" means that portion of the royalties accruing under said license, in respect to the practice of said inventions during the period of this agreement, which is charged or chargeable to the Government; and

(g) "Secretary of War" includes any officer or board exercising the powers, duties and authorities of the Secretary of War under the Act in respect of said license or said inventions.

ART. 2. Royalty Reduction. Licensor agrees that the subject royalties shall be and they are hereby reduced to ....% [or, reduced to an amount not exceeding $..... in any calendar year] in lieu of the rates specified in said license.

• • • • •

ART. 6. Reserved Rights. Nothing herein contained shall limit the right of the head of any department or agency of the Government, including but not limited to the Secretary of War, to give notice [or, further notice] under the Act if at any time it is believed that the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof are unreasonable or excessive, nor shall the Government be deemed to have approved the rates or amounts of said reduced royalties or be estopped at any time to contest the enforceability, validity or scope of, or the title to, any patent in respect of which said royalties are payable.

PART 815—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

SUBPART A—POLICY AS TO TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS AND SUPERVISION OF TERMINATION SETTLEMENTS

Introduction

1. In § 815.100 former (a), (b) and (c) are redesignated (1), (2) and (3), and paragraph (a) is added, as follows:

§ 815.100 Scope of part. • • •

(a) Contracts made or to be performed outside continental United States or in Alaska. (1) By War Department Circular 330, 1944, all war contracts made or to be performed outside the continental limits of the United States or Alaska have been exempted from the provisions of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 except to the extent that the commanding officer in charge of United States armed forces outside the continental United States or in Alaska, who is responsible direct to the War Department, may choose at his discretion to make some or all of the provisions of the act applicable to any such contract or class of contracts. By Circular 330, each such commanding officer is authorized to exercise, within the limits of his command, subject to any applicable regulations or instructions of the Director of Contract Settlement or of the War Department, any authority or discretion granted to the War Department under the act.

(2) With respect to any contracts or class of contracts being administered under the direction of the chiefs of any technical service, and made or performed outside of the continental limits of the United States or in Alaska, such chief of the technical service is hereby granted authority:

(i) To make some or all of the provisions of the Act applicable thereto, and

(ii) To exercise with respect thereto, subject to any such applicable regulations of the Director of Contract Settlement or of the War Department, any authority or discretion granted to the War Department under the act.

(3) The procedures set out in this part are not applicable outside the continental United States or in Alaska, but may furnish useful suggestions to the commanding officers mentioned above as to appropriate procedure to be followed in such areas. The chiefs of the technical services, however, in their administration of contract terminations in such areas should adhere to the procedures in this part as closely as is practicable. This matter, insofar as it relates to the commanding officers mentioned above, is more fully treated in section III of Circular 330, War Department, 1944.

2. In paragraph (h) of § 815.104, the words "76th Congress" are added immediately following the words "Public Law 703" in the last sentence.

3. In paragraph (a) of § 815.107, the parenthetical reference in the first sentence is amended to read "(see §§ 815.150 (b), 815.206)" and paragraph (b) is amended by the substitution of subparagraphs (2) and (3) for the former subparagraphs (2) to (5), inclusive.

§ 815.107 Amendments of contracts to insert termination provisions. • • •

(b) Letters of intent, letter contracts and letter orders. • • •

(2) The chief of each technical service is authorized by supplemental agreement at any time to amend any letter of intent or letter order to include therein the appropriate standard termination provisions. Whenever possible, such amendments will be made before the giving of notice of termination but may be made even after such notice is given. If any such amendment made after notice of termination includes the portions of the standard termination provisions authorizing the payment of a profit to the contractor, then such amendment may be made only after a finding by the chief of the technical service or any duly authorized representative within his headquarters office that an allowance for profit is reasonable under the circumstances. In the case of the Army Air Forces the authority to make such finding may be exercised by any duly authorized representative of the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, within the headquarters offices of the Army Air Forces or of any of its major commands.

(3) Amendments pursuant to this paragraph shall not be allowed to delay in any manner whatsoever the execution of a definitive contract in accordance with § 803.303a.

Organization and Responsibility for Terminations

4. Section 815.202 is amended to reflect the redesignation of the Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Materiel; Maintenance and Distribution, as Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Materiel and Services, Section 815.202, as amended, reads as follows:

§ 815.202 Staff supervision. Staff supervision of terminations in the Army Service Forces is assigned to the Director of Materiel who will coordinate the activities of all headquarters staff divisions relating to this subject through the Readjustment Division. With respect to the Army Air Forces, staff supervision of terminations is vested in the Commanding General, Army Air Forces who acts with respect to such matters through the Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Materiel and Services.

5. Section 815.208 is amended by the addition of a sentence at the end thereof. The section, as amended, reads as follows:

§ 815.208 Authority to vary procedures. The chief of each technical service, consistently with the general policy of this part and with the policy stated in § 815.106, may authorize variations from the procedures herein prescribed in any case or class of cases, unless in his opinion such variation involves a matter of policy which should be considered and passed upon by higher authority. In determining whether a matter of policy should be considered and passed upon by higher authority, consideration shall be given by the chief of the technical service to the following factors:

(a) Whether there is involved a conflict with a policy theretofore approved by higher authority;

(b) Whether there is involved a decision on an important question of policy which has not theretofore been passed upon by higher authority;

(c) Whether there is involved a decision on any matter in which uniformity among the several technical services is especially desirable;

(d) Whether there is involved a decision on an important or doubtful question of law, cost interpretation, accounting practice or fiscal policy;

(e) Where deviation from the procedures herein prescribed will tend to set a precedent which may be undesirable in other cases.

In any case where a substantial deviation from the general policies prescribed in this part is involved, such deviation may be made only with the approval of the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, who will obtain any appropriate concurrences of other Headquarters staff divisions, where in his judgment such concurrences are desirable. The Director, Readjustment Division, may authorize:

(i) Any deviation from the provisions of these regulations in any case or class of cases;

(ii) Such action or procedures as he deems appropriate in any case or class of cases where this regulation does not adequately cover the problems raised.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURES RELATING TO TERMINATION OF LUMP SUM SUPPLY CONTRACTS

Service of Termination Notice and Action Connected Therewith

1. In § 815.325 (c) (5) the parenthetical reference is amended to read as follows: "(see § 815.431 et seq.)"

Property Disposition

2. Section 815.350 is amended by the addition of reference to subcontractors in the second sentence. The last sentence in paragraph (c) is revised to refer to § 815.437a and subparagraph (3) of paragraph (d) is revised to correct cross reference:

§ 815.350 Disposition of property. As stated in paragraph (b) of § 815.106, so far as permitted by the contract being terminated, property acquired for the performance of the contract is to be disposed of with reasonable dispatch, as advantageously as is reasonably possible and in a manner which makes such property available for other productive use at the earliest possible moment. The settlement and payment of the amounts owing to contractors and subcontractors are not, however, to be delayed by reason of failure to dispose of property. Property not disposed of prior to the reaching of an agreement for settlement will be transferred to the Government, unless previously transferred in accordance with the provisions of Subpart F–I of this part (§ 815.850 et seq). The policies and procedures with respect to the removal of property from contractors plants subsequent to termination are set forth in said Subpart F–1. Property included in termination inventories will be disposed of in accordance with the provisions in Part 807, which set forth procedures to be followed and price policies applicable to various classes of property.

• • • • •

(c) Approval of the contracting officer. Pursuant to the provision quoted in paragraph (a) the contractor (1) may be authorized or directed by the contracting officer to make reasonable efforts to sell property to which he has title at prices approved by the contracting officer, or (2) may be permitted to retain such property to which he has title with the approval of the contracting officer at a price mutually agreeable. Such authorizations to sell or retail property shall be subject to the regulations relating to sales of termination inventories set forth in Part 807. In each instance the prior approval or subsequent ratification of the contracting officer must be obtained except as provided in § 815.354 (a), and except in the case of settlements made pursuant to authority given under § 815.437a.

(d) Protection of the rights of assignees and the Government. • • •

(3) Where the Government has made advance payments, or partial payments pursuant to §§ 815.500 to 815.512 on the contract in process of termination, the interest of the Government in preserving adequate security or obtaining payment where property is to be retained by the contractor or in the proceeds of the property which is to be sold or retained for sale by the contractor should be protected by proper coordination, in advance, with the officers charged with the administration of such advance payments or partial payments.

3. In § 815.351 (b) the parenthetical reference to § 815.361 is deleted.

4. Section 815.353 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.353 Where contractor or subcontractor is willing to forego reimbursement for the cost of any property. Frequently as to certain property (e. g. standard materials and parts) the contractor will be willing to retain or take over property at cost and agree not to include such property in any request for reimbursement. Unless in rare instances where the contracting officer wants the specific property transferred to the Government (as, for example, because it is a critical material or because it has risen sharply in value) it will be normal procedure for the contracting officer to notify the contractor, at the time of serving the termination notice or by subsequent written instructions (see par. 10a of the instructions to contractor, § 815.936), that, without further authority of the contracting officer, the contractor may retain any property to which he has title if he agrees to make no request for reimbursement. The contracting officer should direct the contractor similarly to advise subcontractors and suppliers (see par. 19 of the instructions to contractors). However, in any case where there is an advance payment or partial payment outstanding with respect to the contract, the interest of the Government will be protected by the contracting officer by proper coordination in advance with the officers charged with the administration of advance payments or partial payments, as provided in § 815.360 (d) (3). Where such blanket authority has previously been granted, it should appropriately be limited or conditioned, if the interests of the Government so require, before an advance or partial payment is thereafter made.

5. Paragraph (a) of § 815.355 is amended to read as follows:

(a) Diversion of property or orders to other contracts. (1) It is the policy of the War Department to encourage contractors and subcontractors so far as possible to divert to other war production all materials, equipment, and supplies which have become excess by reason of the termination of a contract or subcontract. If notice of termination of any contract to which such property is diverted is thereafter given, the contractor is entitled in the settlement of this contract to reimbursement for the property so diverted to the extent that the property is properly allocable to this contract and is within the reasonable quantitative requirements of the entire contract. Thus, where the cost of such property was not included in the settlement of the original terminated contract, or where the cost was included but the contractor retained the property at an agreed value, the cost or agreed value, as the case may be, together with any charges properly applicable thereto, may be included as part of the cost of materials applicable to the contract to which such property was diverted.

(2) Where a saving to the Government may be effected, contractors and subcontractors should divert property from a terminated contract to a continuing contract in accordance with subparagraph (1) above even if it necessitates the cancellation of orders which have already been placed for materials, equipment, or supplies under the continuing contract. The charges incurred by reason of the cancellation of such orders may be dealt with in either of the following ways:

(i) The contractor may take such cancellation charges into consideration when calculating the amount at which he will agree to retain the property for transfer to the continuing contract. If an agreement is reached whereby the contractor retains the property at an amount thus calculated, and the continuing contract to which the property is transferred is later terminated, the reasonable cost to the contractor of cancelling such orders, may be included as part of the cost of materials applicable to the continuing contract.

(ii) In the alternative, with the approval of the contracting officer, such cancellation charges may be included in the termination claim under the contract from which the property is transferred, in which event such charges shall not be considered in determining the agreed value of the property, or in a later termination settlement of the continuing contract.

(3) Similarly, it is the policy of the War Department to encourage the transfer of orders for materials, equipment, supplies and services from contracts or subcontracts being terminated to continuing contracts or subcontracts where a saving to the Government may be effected and where the property or services covered by the orders transferred will be properly allocable to the continuing contract and within the reasonable quantitative requirements of the entire contract. Where the transfer of an order from a contract being terminated to a continuing contract necessitates the cancellation of orders under the continuing contract, the cancellation charges thereon may be included as part of the cost of materials applicable to the contract being terminated.

6. In §§ 815.356 and 815.357 references to the Termination Accounting Manual are deleted.

Preparation and Review of Contractors' and Subcontractors' Accounting Statements and Proposals for Settlement: Accounting Guides to a Negotiated Settlement

7. Section 815.445 is amended to correct the reference. The section, as amended, reads as follows:

§ 815.445 Accounting guides for use in connection with negotiating settlement. In negotiating a settlement, the contracting officer should have as a guide an accounting memorandum, prepared by Government accounting personnel, containing the available accounting data as to the costs incurred by the contractor with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract and computations based upon such data and other available information as to the rate of profit which it is expected the contractor would have earned if he had been permitted to complete the contract. This accounting memorandum will ordinarily be prepared on either the inventory basis or the total cost basis as described in paragraph 20 of TM 14–1005. This memorandum will not limit the contracting officer in arriving at what he considers to be a proper settlement, but should be given weight by him in connection with other relevant and available criteria and considerations.

Negotiation of Settlements

8. Paragraph (f) of § 815.560 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.560 Formula settlements. • • •

(f) Final payment. When the amount due the contractor on his termination claim has been finally determined, a voucher will be prepared in the usual manner covering the portion of the amount so determined which remains unpaid and will be presented to the finance officer for payment. A copy of the determination pursuant to which payment is made will be attached to the voucher, and the voucher should contain substantially the following statement:

> The payment covered by this voucher is a full and final payment of all amounts due on the contractor's termination claim under Contract W-------, as finally determined pursuant to Section 13 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 by the -------, (War Department, War Department Board of Contract Appeals, Appeal Board, Court) in its determination dated----------, a copy of which is attached hereto.

The voucher should also include a certificate by the contracting officer substantially as follows:

> This payment is authorized under the Contract Settlement Act of 1944.

SUBPART D—COST-PLUS-A-FIXED-FEE CONTRACTS

General

1. In § 815.651, paragraphs (a), (b) and (d) are amended and paragraph (g–1) is added, as follows:

§ 815.651 Steps in the termination of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. • • •

(a) Issuance of a notice of termination and action directed therein. The contracting officer will issue a notice of termination (see §§ 815.914 and 815.915) to the contractor ordering the contractor to stop all work and the making of all commitments and directing him to issue similar orders to all subcontractors, vendors and suppliers, and to request them to furnish statements of charges on account of such termination. A copy of such termination notice will be promptly furnished to the disbursing officer currently designated as the paying officer for the contract. Provision may be made for ordering the continuation of some of the work, in the discretion of the contracting officer. With respect to the issuance of a notice of termination, the following provisions of this part relating to the termination of lump sum supply contracts are also applicable to the termination of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts.

(1) Preparatory steps, §§ 815.301 to 815.306, 815.312 to 815.315.

(2) Service of termination notice and action connected therewith, §§ 815.320 and 815.321. [He should, of course, obtain a statement of charges and a proposal for settlement from each of his subcontractors and suppliers despite the fact that the Government may have agreed to assume his commitments to such subcontractors and suppliers.]

(3) Initial conference, §§ 815.322 and 815.323. The attention of the contractor should be directed particularly to the necessity of prompt performance of the applicable obligations listed in § 815.321.

(b) Termination and settlement of subcontracts. The prime contractor will take steps forthwith upon receipt of the termination notice to terminate subcontracts and purchase orders in compliance with such notice and to obtain inventories, accounting data, cost statements and proposals for a negotiated settlement of any lump sum subcontracts and purchase orders. (See § 815.325 (c).) In the case of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts the prime contractor will obtain the accounting and other data necessary to permit (1) the negotiation of a settlement of such a contract or (2) final determination and payment of the reimbursable costs under such subcontract and any necessary adjustment of the fixed fee thereunder, if such determination is necessary.

• • • • •

(d) Settlement of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts, purchase orders and other obligations of the prime contractor. (1) The prime contractor and the subcontractor may settle by negotiation in the manner set forth in paragraph (c) all amounts due with respect to any cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontract or other obligation under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee prime contract, the amount of any adjustment of any fixed fee payable under such a subcontract and the costs and expenses incurred by the subcontractor in connection with the termination and settlement of such cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontract. The amount of any such settlement, when approved by the contracting officer as made in good faith and with protection of the interests of the Government, shall be reimbursable to the prime contractor.

(2) If such a settlement by negotiation is not made, settlement of such cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontract or other obligations will be made in accordance with the terms of the subcontract.

(3) Audit of the unreimbursed costs of such cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts will be made in a manner consistent with the applicable instructions set forth in paragraph (g–1).

• • • • •

(g–1) Method of presenting and auditing costs under terminated cost-plus-a-fixed-fee supply contracts and subcontracts. (1) General. In connection with the settlement of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee supply prime contracts and cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts thereunder terminated for the convenience of the Government or in process of settlement on and after 21 July 1944, the procedure set forth in this paragraph will be put into effect as promptly as possible.

(i) Costs of the contractor not reimbursed by the Government will not be included in form 1034 vouchers but will be dealt with as provided in subparagraph (4) below.

(ii) The only form 1034 vouchers which will be prepared after the procedure described in this paragraph is in effect will be:

(a) A voucher representing the final negotiated settlement of the contract or a final determination by the contracting officer of the amount due to the contractor on its termination claim.

(b) A voucher for each partial payment which may be necessary to provide the contractor with interim financing prior to final settlement.

(c) A voucher based upon any supplemental agreement effecting a partial negotiated settlement of the contract or upon any partial determination by the contracting officer of the amount due to the contractor on its termination claim.

(iii) Any final or partial settlement voucher going to the disbursing officer will be supported only by the final or partial settlement agreement or by the final or partial determination of the contracting officer. Vouchers for partial payments will be supported only by the certificate prescribed in § 815.506 (d), except that if interim financing is provided by controlled partial payments (as prescribed in § 815.506 (f)) the vouchers will also be supported by the supplemental agreement providing for such controlled partial payments.

(2) Proposal forms. Upon termination, unreimbursed costs incurred by the contractor, which are reimbursable under the contract will under the procedure herein prescribed, form part of the costs proposed to be dealt with in the termination settlement. Such costs will not be reimbursed in accordance with the usual cost-plus-a-fixed-fee procedure, but proof that such reimbursable costs have been incurred will be presented to the contracting officer as part of the contractor's settlement proposal. Instead of presenting these costs on the usual voucher forms they will be summarized, as presented from time to time on a new form, which is set out in § 815.940, entitled "Contractor's Partial Proposal for Settlement of a Terminated Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee Contract", supported by appropriate schedules of such costs. In much the same manner as in the case of forms 1034 and 1035 the new forms will be used by the contractor as a method of presenting costs for inclusion in the settlement and will be examined by the Government auditor. The proposal form, however, will not be sent to the disbursing officer. Inasmuch as no payments will be made directly on the basis of this form, the form will not be the subject of the usual cost-plus-a-fixed-fee audit by the General Accounting Office. When the contractor has submitted his complete proposal for settlement on the Partial Proposal for Settlement Forms above mentioned, the contractor will present as his final proposal for settlement a summary and recapitulation of these partial proposal forms, supported by any other information or schedules which the contractor may deem appropriate.

(3) Retention of Government copies of proposal and date. Government copies of the Contractor's Proposal Forms referred to in subparagraph (2) above and the supporting data therefor will be retained in War Department files, separated from the files of 1034 vouchers, at the project or elsewhere, as the chief of the technical service concerned may prescribe.

(4) Numbering of proposal forms. Every Partial Proposal for Settlement Form, when prepared, will be serially numbered by the contractor beginning with number "1". A separate number series will be maintained for each cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract or subcontract.

(5) Audit procedures. The procedure prescribed by TM 14–1000 "Administrative Audit Procedures for Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee Supply Contracts" will be applied in connection with all reimbursable costs submitted by the contractor on the Partial Proposal for Settlement Form for consideration in connection with the termination settlement. The documentary evidence requirements set forth in TM 14–1000 will also be continued but such evidence will be presented and maintained for War Department administrative purposes only.

(6) Certificate of evidence of payment. The "Certificate of Evidence of Payment" required by paragraph 28 of TM 14–1000 will be furnished to the General Accounting Office (with respect to items for which the contractor has been reimbursed prior to the effective date of the notice of termination), but the deduction of uncleared checks in accordance with subparagraph a (4) of that paragraph will not be made. The auditor will continue to check the evidence of payment on a selective basis and at the time of final settlement will consider the necessity of recommending to the contracting officer the elimination from consideration in the settlement of any costs on which doubt has been caused by lack of evidence of payment.

(7) Information for disbursing officer. For the assistance of the disbursing officer he will be advised in writing by the contracting officer of the bureau voucher submitted to him for payment prior to putting into effect the procedures contemplated by this paragraph, or, in the case of terminations thereafter, prior to the effective date of the termination.

(8) Scope of application of this paragraph; partial terminations. The instructions contained in this paragraph apply to all complete terminations of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee supply contracts and cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts thereunder and to all terminations of such contracts or subcontracts which do not involve any substantial continuing performance. The continuation of work on subsidiary items or spare parts or incidental work on minor aspects of the contract will not be considered a substantial continuing performance. Until further notice, however, the instructions given in this paragraph will not be applied with respect to the partial termination of a contract where there is any substantial amount of continuing performance, unless the prior written approval of the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, has been obtained.

(9) Items affected by General Accounting Office action. Procurement Regulations provide that negotiated settlements will not be made of items of termination claims which are the subject of suspensions by the General Accounting Office (either outstanding at the time of settlement or previously cleared by a deduction) unless the Director, Readjustment Division, has given prior written approval of such a negotiated settlement. It is recognized that contractors may be unwilling to enter into negotiated settlements of their termination claims based on unreimbursed items of cost, unless at the same time they also receive a final closing agreement with reference to all items of cost incurred and reimbursed prior to termination, including final disposition of all items questioned or suspended by the General Accounting Office. Accordingly, every effort should be made to answer both all suspensions and all informal inquiries from the General Accounting Office promptly. The assistance of the chief of the technical service in answering suspensions should be sought if necessary. The General Accounting Office audit of vouchers at the project should usually be complete by the time a final settlement agreement is to be considered and all informal inquiries should have been answered by that time. If at the time a final settlement agreement is to be negotiated, any informal inquiries (deemed likely to give rise to formal exceptions) have not been cleared or if there are outstanding suspensions the items involved in such informal inquiries or suspensions of the General Accounting Office will not be made the subject of negotiation without the prior written approval of the Director, Readjustment Division. All clearances of suspensions with the General Accounting Office will be made through the office of the Fiscal Director, by request made through the office of the chief of the technical service and the Director, Readjustment Division.

(10) Presentation of proposals affecting suspended items. The Partial Proposal for Settlement Form will not be utilized by the contractor in presenting for settlement reimbursable costs which have been suspended by the General Accounting Office and deducted by the disbursing officer. Settlement of such items will be presented by the contractor in a memorandum which includes a full explanation of the circumstances justifying such settlement. If the contracting officer believes a negotiated settlement of such items to be proper, recommendation therefor may be submitted by the contracting officer through channels for approval by the Director, Readjustment Division, of the negotiation of a settlement as provided in § 815.651 (g) (3).

(11) Unreimbursed overhead items. The Partial Proposal for Settlement Form will be used by the contractor in presenting claims for settlement of overhead or administrative costs for any year for which final overhead settlement vouchers for such year have not been paid or submitted to the disbursing officer for payment prior to the date of putting into effect the procedure outlined in this paragraph, or, in the case of terminations hereafter, prior to the effective date of the termination notice. In the negotiation or determination of overhead allowances in connection with termination settlements, full recognition should be given to the fact that such negotiations or determinations may be relevant in connection with other Government contracts with the same contractor performed in the same period. Accordingly, so far as practicable, effort should be made to coordinate the actions of Government personnel of all interested Government agencies in ascertaining overhead allowances.

(12) Auditor's report for final settlement negotiation. When the final settlement proposal has been submitted by the contractor, the auditor will prepare a final report to be submitted to the contracting officer for his assistance in negotiating a final lump-sum settlement with the contractor. The auditor's report will summarize in an appropriate manner all costs which have been submitted by the contractor on the new Partial Proposal for Settlement Form. It will also include a complete list of General Accounting Office suspensions which are disputed by the contractor and any uncleared informal inquiries by the General Accounting Office related to the terminated contract.

(13) Determinations of costs where negotiated settlement is not practicable. Subparagraph (2) of § 815.651 (g) provides that, if a settlement cannot be negotiated, the contracting officer will determine the items payable to the contractor, of the types mentioned in subparagraph (1) of § 815.651 (g), substantially in accordance with the procedures for a formula settlement under a lump-sum supply contract. For this purpose Partial Proposal for Settlement Forms will be employed by the contractor in presenting unreimbursed reimbursable costs for the consideration of the contracting officer. The contracting officer will cause these forms to be reviewed and audited as provided in subparagraph (5) above, together with such other evidence and data as may be presented to him or as he may require as a basis of his general findings of fact and determination.

2. Section 815.654 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.654 Interim financing. (a) Pending the final determination of the total amount due the contractor on account of termination, the contracting officer is authorized to make partial payments on account in general in accordance with §§ 815.506 to 815.512. Such partial payments will be made in amounts within the estimates of the total amounts due to the contractor, and will not take the form of direct reimbursement of the costs summarized in Partial Proposal for Settlement Forms.

(b) Where advance payment funds have been established, they should be utilized in lieu of partial payments. These funds are available for the payment of all termination costs, including the making of partial payments to subcontractors. In the case of a total termination, such funds may be utilized on termination without further payment of interest (§§ 803.348a and 813.1321). In the case of partial terminations (whether effected under the termination article or the changes article of the contract), many advance payment agreements outstanding require the payment of interest. The Procurement Regulations have been amended so as to authorize the amendment of existing advance payment agreements, either before or after termination, to provide that in the case of partial or total terminations of prime contracts, the advance payment balance outstanding, to the extent that partial payments out of the revolving fund are made to subcontractors or supplies against their termination claims, shall not bear interest from the time those partial payments are made until the contractor is reimbursed for termination settlements with such subcontractors. (See §§ 803.321 (m) and 803.349a.)

The undersigned, individually and as an authorized representative of the contractor, certifies that, to the best of his knowledge and belief:

(1) Contractor's own charges. The summary of charges, exclusive of charges arising from termination claims filed against the undersigned by its subcontractors, (which term is used in this certificate to include suppliers) and supporting schedules and explanations have been prepared from the books of account and records of the undersigned in accordance with the terms of this contract; they include only those charges allocable to this contract; they have been prepared with knowledge that they will, or may, be used directly or indirectly as the basis of settlement of a claim or claims against the United States; and the charges as stated are fair and reasonable.

(2) Subcontractors' charges. (a) The contractor has examined, or caused to be examined, to an extent which it considers adequate in the circumstances, the claims of its immediate subcontractors (exclusive of charges arising from termination claims filed against such immediate subcontractors by their subcontractors); (b) the settlements on account of immediate subcontractors' own charges are fair and reasonable, said charges are allocable to this contract, and said settlements were negotiated in good faith, and are not more favorable to its immediate subcontractors than those which the undersigned would make if reimbursement by the Government were not involved; (c) the contractor has received from all its immediate subcontractors appropriate certificates with respect to their claims, which certificates, if the claims are for more than $1,000, are substantially in the form of this certificate; and (d) the contractor has no knowledge leading it to doubt the reasonableness of the settlements with more remote subcontractors or to doubt that the charges for them are allocable to this contract.

Upon receipt by the contractor of amounts covering settlements with its immediate subcontractors, the contractor will pay or credit such subcontractors promptly with the amounts so received, to the extent that it has not previously done so.

The undersigned certified that to the best of his knowledge and belief the statements with respect to accounting matters made in the above Certificate are true. Signature of supervisory accounting official	Name of contractor By (Signature of authorized executive official)

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 3407]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

NATION-WIDE DISTRIBUTORS

§ 3.6 (i) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Free goods or service: § 3.72 (e) Offering deceptive inducements to purchase—Free goods: § 3.99 (b) Using or selling lottery devices—In merchandising. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of electric toasters, watches, pen and pencil sets, jewelry ensembles, leather wallets, silverware sets, chinaware, dresser sets, cameras, cosmetics, razor blades, cigarette lighters, or any other articles of merchandise, (1) supplying, etc., others with pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon, or other lottery devices for the purpose of enabling such persons to dispose of or sell any merchandise by the use thereof; (2) mailing, etc., to respondent's agents, or to distributors or to members of the public pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon, or other lottery devices so prepared or printed as to enable said persons to sell or distribute any merchandise by the use thereof; (3) selling, etc., any merchandise by the use of pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon, or any other lottery device; or (4) using the terms "free" or "without cost" or any other terms of similar import or meaning to describe or refer to merchandise offered as compensation for distributing respondent's merchandise; prohibited. (Sec. 5b, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U. S. C., sec. 45b) (Modified cease and desist order, Nation-Wide Distributors, Docket 3407, August 16, 1944)

In the Matter of Aaron N. Sauer, Individually and Trading as Nation-Wide Distributors

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of August, A. D. 1944.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts; and the Commission having duly made and issued its findings as to the facts, conclusion and order to cease and desist dated February 7, 1939; and the Commission having further considered said order to cease and desist heretofore issued, and being of the opinion that the public interest requires that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued in said cause; and the Commission having given due notice to the respondent to show cause on July 24, 1944, why this case should not be reopened for the purpose of modifying said order to cease and desist; and the Commission having considered the matter and the record herein, and having issued its order modifying said order in certain respects, issues this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Aaron N. Sauer, individually and trading as Nation-Wide Distributors, or trading under any other name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of electric toasters, watches, pen and pencil sets, jewelry ensembles, leather wallets, silverware sets, chinaware, dresser sets, cameras, cosmetics, razor blades, cigarette lighters, or any other articles of merchandise in commerce as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Supplying to, or placing in the hands of others, pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon, or other lottery devices for the purpose of enabling such persons to dispose of or sell any merchandise by the use thereof.

In the Matter of William C. Steffy, Lorina Steffy, and G. V. Parkinson

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of August, A. D. 1944.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson, in which said respondents admit all of the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and state that they waive all intervening procedure and further hearings as to said facts, and upon the testimony taken before Robert S. Hall, an examiner of the Commission therefore duly designated by it, relative to the acts and practices of respondent Lorina Steffy, and the Commission having duly made and issued its findings as to the facts, conclusion and order to cease and desist dated August 2, 1939; and the Commission having further considered said order to cease and desist heretofore issued, and being of the opinion that the public interest requires that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued in said cause; and the Commission having given due notice to the respondents to show cause on July 24, 1944, why this case should not be reopened for the purpose of modifying said order to cease and desist; and the Commission having considered the matter and the record herein, and having issued its order modifying said order in certain respects, issues this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson, individually and trading as Atlas Globe China Company, Advertising Department, Rogers Silverware Distributors, Bordeau China Company, or China Sales Syndicate, or trading under any other name or names, or trading through the corporations Security Silverware Distributors, Inc., United States Sales Corporation, or through any other corporation or corporations, and on the part of their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any other corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of silverware, earthenware, chinaware, radios or sales promotional plans, including premium certificates, coupons, cards, or other and similar devices redeemable in silverware, earthenware, chinaware or any other merchandise, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing through the use of the term "Rogers Silverware" either alone or in connection with any other term or terms in a corporate or trade name, or in any other manner, that respondents have an interest in, form a part of, or have any connection with, the manufacturers of Simon L. and George H. Rogers Silverware, or from representing in any manner that respondents have an interest in, form a part of, or have any connection with the International Silverware Company, the Atlas Globe China Company, or any other manufacturer or manufacturers of silverware, chinaware or earthenware.

(2) Representing merchandise delivered in redeeming certificates, coupons or trading cards as "free" or as a gift or gratuity or as delivered without cost to the holders of said certificates, coupons or trading cards when said merchandise is not in fact delivered to the holders of said certificates, coupons or trading cards without cost and unconditionally.

(3) Representing that respondents are conducting any special campaign or advertising campaign to introduce, advertise or sell any article or articles of merchandise on behalf of a manufacturer or manufacturers of silverware, earthenware or chinaware, or any other manufacturer or concern unless such a campaign is in fact being conducted at the instance of and on behalf of such manufacturer or concern.

(4) Representing that respondents sell premium certificates, cards, coupons or other and similar devices or other merchandise in any territory or locality exclusively to any purchaser therein unless and until such is the fact.

(5) Representing that the respondents will give a set of silverware or other merchandise free, or will refund the sum of $4.50, or any other sum, to the purchaser of said premium certificates, gift cards, coupons or other and similar devices on the redemption of a specified number of cards, certificates or coupons unless such merchandise is delivered to said purchaser, without cost and unconditionally and said premium certificates, gift cards, coupons or other and similar devices are redeemed without cost to the holders thereof and unconditionally, and said refund is made to said purchaser upon the redemption of the specified number of premium certificates, gift cards, coupons or other and similar devices.

(6) Representing that the retail price of radios is $24.90 or $39.99 or any other amount or amounts unless and until said radios are customarily and ordinarily sold at retail at such amount or amounts.

(7) Supplying to, or placing in the hands of, others said radios or other merchandise together with a padlock and a number of keys which said padlock and keys are to be used or may be used to conduct a lottery, gaming device or gift enterprise in the sale or distribution of said radios or other merchandise to the general public.

(8) Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a lottery, game of chance, or a gift enterprise.

(9) Supplying to, or placing in the hands of, others any lottery device, game of chance or a gift enterprise so as to enable such persons to dispose of or sell any merchandise by the use thereof.

(10) Representing that certificates, coupons or trading cards will be redeemed with certain articles of merchandise, unless the merchandise described is delivered to the holders of such certificates, coupons or trading cards without cost or condition.

It is further ordered, That this proceeding in so far as it relates to respondent Lorina Steffy, be and the same hereby is, closed without prejudice.

It is further ordered, That the respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-615]

THE HOUSE OF RUTTENBERG

Joseph Ruttenberg, Ida Ruttenberg, Melvin Ruttenberg and Samuel Ruttenberg, partners, doing business as The House of Ruttenberg, are engaged in the wholesale and retail sale of hardware, paints and furniture through their store located at 419 Kaighn Avenue, Camden, New Jersey. During their second quarter of 1943 (May 1 to July 31), the partners received consumers' goods of the value of $28,909 in excess of their allowable receipts for this period; during their third quarter of 1943 (August 1 to October 31) they received consumers' goods of the value of $23,611 in excess of their allowable receipts for that period; during their fourth quarter (November 1 to January 31, 1944) they received consumers' goods of the value of $24,479 in excess of their allowable receipts for that period, and during their first quarter of 1944 (February 1 to April 30) they received consumers' goods of the value of $41,217 in excess of their allowable receipts for that period. The excessive receipts of consumers' goods during each of these periods constituted violations of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219. The partnership was familiar with the provisions of Limitation Order L-219 and its actions constituted wilful violations of that order.

These violations of Limitation Order L-219 have interfered with the controls established by the War Production Board for the distribution of critical materials and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.615 Suspension Order No. S-615. (a) Joseph Ruttenberg, Ida Ruttenberg, Melvin Ruttenberg and Samuel Ruttenberg, partners, doing business as The House of Ruttenberg, or under any other name, their and its successors and assigns, during their third quarterly period of 1944 (August 1 to October 31) shall compute their allowable receipts of consumers' goods in accordance with the provisions of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219 as a controlled merchant whose mercantile inventory is greater than its inventory limit at the beginning of any quarterly period; they shall not during their third quarter of 1944 (August 1 to October 31), receive consumers' goods in excess of 90% of the amount thus computed under the provisions of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Joseph Ruttenberg, Ida Ruttenberg, Melvin Ruttenberg and Samuel Ruttenberg, partners, doing business as The House of Ruttenberg, or under any other name, their and its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-569]

SEIDEL ROSENSON & SONS, INC.

Seidel Rosenson & Sons, Inc., is a California corporation having its principal place of business at 5127 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California, where it operates a general department store known as "Kay's". The President and General Manager of this corporation is Robert Rosenson and the Secretary-Treasurer is his brother, Theodore Rosenson; the two individuals as partners own and operate under common ownership and control with "Kay's" two other department stores, one situated in Inglewood, California, and the other in Huntington Park, California; these three stores are subject as a unit to the restrictions and controls of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219. The corporation (together with the individual officers) violated Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219 by receiving merchandise during the second quarter of 1943 having a value of $90,247 in excess of allowable receipts and during the third quarter of 1943 by receiving merchandise of a value of $80,975 in excess of allowable receipts. Partial restitution has been made by voluntary reduction in their receipts of consumers' goods; however, the responsible officers of Seidel Rosenson & Sons, Inc., were aware of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219, and these violations were the result of gross negligence.

These excess receipts of consumers' goods have interfered with the War Production Board's allocation controls and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.569 Suspension Order S-569. (a) Unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board, Seidel Rosenson & Sons, Inc., its successors or assigns, shall reduce its inventory at the close of the third calendar quarter and of the fourth calendar quarter in 1944 below the allowable inventory limit under Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219 (as applicable to its then operations, and as amended from time to time) for the quarters in question by a total amount of not less than $20,000, this amount being distributed between the two quarters as it may see fit.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Seidel Rosenson & Sons, Inc., its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on September 5, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

Issued this 26th day of August 1944.

[Limitation Order L-99, Direction 1]

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF SCHEDULE B IN CASES WHERE APPEALS HAVE BEEN FILED

The following direction is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L-99:

Any person who has filed an appeal from the restrictions of Schedule B is relieved from complying with them until September 30, 1944, or until otherwise ordered by the War Production Board in acting on his appeal.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Order M-290, Direction 2 as Amended Sept. 6, 1944]

USE OF SOLID FIBRE CONTAINER PRODUCTION EQUIPMENT

The following amended direction is issued pursuant to Order M-290:

(a) Purpose. This direction is issued in order to insure timely production of the items listed in Schedule A and to reduce the current excessive backlog of orders for these items.

(b) Restrictions on use of solid fibre container production equipment. No person shall use solid fibre container production equipment to fill any order except a preferred order unless he can do so without interfering with the delivery of preferred orders on hand on the delivery dates specified by the purchaser. A preferred order is an order for any item listed in Schedule A which, in case of all items except V-boxes and W-boxes, bears the certificate set forth in Paragraph (g).

(c) Use of solid fibre container production equipment to produce preferred orders. All persons are directed to use all of their solid fibre container production equipment to the fullest extent to fill all preferred orders which they may have on hand at any time, regardless of the preference ratings on other orders for solid fibre containers which they may then have on hand.

(d) Scheduling of solid fibre container orders on which specifications are changed. If a person has unfilled rated orders for solid fibre containers other than preferred orders, and the specifications on them are changed to call for corrugated rather than solid fibre containers, he shall not treat them as new orders, but as orders received on the date the original rated order for solid fibre containers was received.

(e) Applicability of regulations. All applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time remain fully applicable to the production of solid and corrugated fibre containers except as they are specifically modified by this direction.

(f) Modification of this direction and requests for procurement of V-board. This direction may be modified by the War Production Board from time to time with respect to specific container manufacturers. Any person who does not have sufficient V-board to run V-box orders which he has on hand should promptly advise the Fibre Box Section, Paperboard Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C.

(g) Certification. No person shall treat any order for any item listed in Schedule A (except V-boxes and W-boxes) as a preferred order, unless he receives with each purchase order a certification signed as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that he is familiar with Direction 2 to Order M-290 of the War Production Board and that the items covered by this purchase order are included in the items listed in Schedule A of said direction.

A jobber, in placing this certificate on his orders, may rely on the certificate supplied to him by his customer.

(h) Individual directives. All orders for domestic solid fibre freezer boxes specifying delivery before November 1, 1944 placed pursuant to individual directives shall be filled in accordance with such directives. Individual directives to fill orders for domestic solid fibre freezer boxes shall become null and void on November 1, 1944. All orders for domestic solid fibre freezer boxes for delivery after November 1, 1944 must comply with the provisions of this direction in order to be regarded as preferred orders.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

[NOTE: Schedule A added Sept. 6, 1944.]

1. V-boxes and W-boxes (as defined in Paragraph (g) of Order L-317).

2. Interior boxes or parts when sold to be packed for the account of the military services in accordance with Army specification 100-14A, OQMC 99, Navy specifications 59P16A and 58B-11, and joint Army and Navy specifications JAN-P108.

3. Solid fibre board sheets to be made into fibre drums.

4. Freezer boxes for packing butter, meat and fish.

5. Solid fibre containers for packing military explosives, TNT, nitromon or dynamite.

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS

[General Limitation Order L-277, as Amended Sept. 6, 1944]

ELECTRICAL WIRING DEVICES AND HEATER CORD SETS

§ 3284.31 General Limitation Order L-277—(a) Definitions of "electrical wiring device and replacement heater cord set." (1) "Electrical wiring device" means any unit of an electric circuit which does not consume electrical energy, but is used for the purpose of switching, tapping, or connecting such circuit. The term includes, but is not limited to the following:

(i) Sockets and lampholders of all types and component parts thereof;

(ii) Switches, such as: tumbler, push, rotary, snap, pull, door, pendant, cord, canopy, appliance switches; and component parts thereof;

(iii) Receptacles, such as: weatherproof, watertight, non-watertight, motor base, polarized, locking, electric range, pilot light recptacles; and component parts thereof;

(iv) Caps, plugs, connectors and taps, such as: weatherproof, watertight, non-watertight, polarized, locking and electric range plugs, current taps, attachment plugs and component parts of such caps, plugs, connectors and taps;

(v) Rosettes, adapters; and component parts thereof.

(2) "Electrical wiring devices" shall not include lighting fixtures, portable lamps, flashlights, fuses, fuse cutouts, lugs, mechanical wire connectors, knife blade switches, fluorescent starter switches, relays, push buttons, automatic control equipment, circuit breakers, cord sets, or any unit of an electric circuit designed and constructed to connect, convey or control electrical energy in excess of 60 amperes or 600 volts.

(3) "Replacement heater cord set" means any heater cord set not produced for original use in the manufacture or assembly of any new electrical appliance. "Heater cord set" means any assembly of insulated wire, an attachment plug and an appliance plug or terminals which is used to connect an electrical appliance to a source of electrical current.

(b) Definition of "manufacturer". "Manufacturer" means any person who produces, processes or assembles electrical wiring devices, component parts thereof, or heater cord sets. However, the term does not include a repairman who, in the normal course of his business, assembles electrical wiring devices, component parts thereof, or heater cord sets, if such items are for use only with the equipment he is currently repairing.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture of heater cord sets. (1) On and after July 5, 1944, no manufacturer shall manufacture or assemble replacement heater cord sets except pursuant to an authorization issued by the War Production Board on Form GA-1850. The amount authorized will be based on the manufacturer's 1940 total production of such sets, available facilities including manpower required, and the availability of controlled materials to meet such production.

(2) All heater cord sets shall be six feet in length. The conductors shall be size No. 16 or No. 18 American Wire Gauge and shall be either type HC, type HPD, type HSJ, or the equivalent insulated copper wire. The wire shall test three thousand or more cycles in flexure.

(d) Restrictions on sale and delivery of electrical wiring devices. No manufacturer may ship, transfer, sell or otherwise dispose of an electrical wiring device except on an order bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher.

(e) Restrictions on sale and delivery of replacement heater cord sets. On or after July 5, 1944, no manufacturer may ship, transfer, sell or otherwise dispose of replacement heater cord sets except on an order bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher.

(f) Violations and false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further delivery of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form WPB 1477 with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(h) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all present and future regulations of the War Production Board.

(i) Communications. Reports and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, 25, D. C., Ref: L-277.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Conservation Order M-382]

PROTECTIVE COATINGS

§ 3293.621 Conservation Order M-382—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Protective coating" means any liquid organic coating, thinner or remover which either alone or mixed with other materials is normally applied to any surface by brush, spray, dip, roller coat, or other method of application. The term includes but is not limited to paint, varnish, enamel, lacquer, dope, lacquer or dope thinner, paint or varnish remover, and stain. The term does not include adhesive, cement, printing ink, coating for the manufacture of coated fabric, coating for leather (limited to hides, skins and splits, etc., which have not been incorporated into any product), and coating for footwear (of any material, including leather).

(2) "Critical coating" means any protective coating as defined above, which contains one or more of the following allocated raw materials:

Acetone and diacetone, as defined in Order M-352.
Benzene, as defined in Order M-300-22.
Butyl alcohols and butyl acetates, as defined in Order M-159.
Cadmium (cadmium pigments only), as defined in Order M-65.
Chrome pigments (Class B only), as defined in Order M-370.
Copper chemicals (cuprous oxide only), as defined in Order M-227.
Ethyl acetate and isopropyl acetate, as defined in Order M-327.
Ethyl cellulose, as defined in Order M-175.
E W. naphtha, as defined in Order M-340.
Isopropyl alcohol, as defined in Order M-300-12.
Methyl ethyl ketone, as defined in Order M-169.
Methyl isobutyl ketone, as defined in Order M-300-24.
Phenolic resins (Protective Coatings A only), as defined in Order M-246.
Phosphate plasticizers, as defined in Order M-183.
Phthalate plasticizers, as defined in Order M-303.
Phthalic alkyd resins, as defined in Order M-139.
Toluene, as defined in Order M-300-21.
Urea and melamine aldehyde resins, as defined in Order M-300-34.
Vinyl polymers, as defined in Order M-10.
Xylene, as defined in Order M-300-23.

The effect of revocation of, or amendment to, the above orders is explained in paragraph (h).

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the business of making critical coatings.

(4) "Distributor" means any person who buys critical coatings for the purpose of resale as such.

(5) "Consumer" means any person who uses critical coatings.

(b) Restrictions on producers. On and after September 20, 1944, no producer may deliver critical coatings unless all the following conditions have been met:

(1) Labeling. If the critical coatings are packaged in containers of 5 gallon capacity or larger, the producer must have labeled all such containers, "Contents subject to WPB Order M-382". This statement must be plainly visible and easily reachable on the containers.

(2) Receipt of end-use certificate. The producer must have received from the person accepting delivery of the coatings, the end-use certificate set forth in Appendix A. The person ordering protective coatings from a producer may not know that the coatings he wants are critical coatings. When such is the case, the producer must advise that person to furnish a certificate.

(3) Receipt of allocation of raw materials. The producer must have received War Production Board authorization under the applicable M orders listed in paragraph (a) (2), relating to each of the allocated raw materials contained in the critical coating. In other words, the necessary quantity of each allocated ingredient must have been previously authorized for the specific coating for the specific end use certified.

(4) Notification to purchaser. In the event the producer is unable to fill in full any purchase order (for critical coatings) accompanied by an end-use certificate specifying more than one use, by reason of the limitations imposed by paragraph (b) (3) of this order, he must have notified the purchaser in writing (either on the invoice or otherwise) what quantity of specific critical coating he is able to deliver for each end use stated on the purchaser's end-use certificate. For example, the purchaser may have ordered 100 gallons of a certain lacquer and certified to the producer that 75 gallons will be used for aircraft parts and 25 gallons for civilian furniture. War Production Board may have only allocated sufficient raw materials to the producer to enable him to make up for this particular purchaser, 75 gallons for aircraft and 10 gallons for civilian furniture. The producer must notify the purchaser that War Production Board has only permitted him sufficient raw material to enable him to manufacture and deliver against his particular purchase order, 85 gallons of lacquer of which only 75 gallons may be used for aircraft parts and only 10 gallons for civilian furniture.

(c) Restrictions on purchasers from producers and distributors. Any person accepting delivery from a producer or distributor, on and after September 20, 1944, of any protective coating packaged in a container labeled "Contents subject to WPB Order M-382", or of any protective coating (not so labeled) which that person knows or has reason to believe is a critical coating, is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) End-use certificate. No person may accept delivery of any such coatings from a producer unless he has furnished the producer with the end-use certificate set forth in Appendix A. Similarly, no person may accept delivery of any such coatings from a distributor without furnishing the distributor with the end-use certificate, except that any person may accept delivery of a total of 275 gallons or less of such coatings in the aggregate from all distributors in any calendar month without furnishing an end-use certificate.

(2) Consumer's use restricted. If the person accepting delivery is a consumer and has filed an end-use certificate, he shall not use the coatings delivered in a greater quantity for any end use, or for any other end uses, than those specified on his certificate. Furthermore, if the producer or distributor gives him the notification described in paragraphs (b) (4) or (d) of this order, the consumer shall not use any greater quantity of a particular coating for any particular end use described or his certificate than his producer or distributor has notified him could be delivered for this use.

(3) Distributor's deliveries restricted. If the person accepting delivery of such coatings is a distributor who furnished an end-use certificate to obtain these coatings, he must, before redelivering the coatings, ascertain the end use to which his customer intends to put the coatings. No distributor may deliver more than 275 gallons of such coatings to any person during any calendar month without obtaining from that person the end-use certificate set forth in Appendix A. In the absence of any notification to the contrary from his supplier, no distributor shall redeliver a greater quantity of a particular coating for any particular end use than that specified on his (the distributor's) end-use certificate. Furthermore, if the supplier gives him the notification described in paragraph (b) (4) or (d) of this order, the distributor shall not redeliver any greater quantity of a particular coating for an end use certified (by the distributor) than his supplier has notified him could be delivered for this use.

(d) Distributor's notification to purchaser. In the event that a distributor is unable to fill in full a purchase order (for critical coatings) accompanied by an end-use certificate specifying more than one end use, the distributor shall notify the purchaser in writing (either on the invoice or otherwise) what quantity of specific critical coating he is able to deliver for each end use stated on the purchaser's end-use certificate.

(e) Exceptions. Paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this order do not apply to the following:

(1) Coatings made from small deliveries of raw material. Any producer may deliver a critical coating to any person for any purpose, if all the allocated raw materials contained in it were obtained by the producer under the small order exemption provisions of the applicable M orders governing the allocated materials.

(2) Coatings made from previously acquired raw materials. Any producer may deliver a critical coating to any person for any purpose, if the producer acquired all of the allocated raw materials contained in it prior to the effective date of the applicable M orders governing those allocated raw materials, and if the applicable M orders in no way restrict stocks of the raw materials acquired prior to the effective date of these applicable M orders.

(f) Disposal of coatings for other uses than those for which the raw materials were originally authorized. If for any reason a critical coating cannot be delivered or used for the specific end use for which the various allocated raw materials contained in it were authorized by War Production Board, that coating may be delivered or used by a producer, or by a consumer or distributor who filed an end-use certificate to obtain the critical coating, or by a person who obtained the critical coating as an idle or excess stock under Priorities Regulation 13, only in accordance with the following rules:

(1) Delivery by producer or distributor. Any producer or distributor having a critical coating on hand as a result of spoiled batches, rejections due to failure to meet specification or consumer requirements, cancelled orders or anticipated orders which failed to materialize, or excess and idle stocks obtained by him from a consumer pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13, must first obtain War Production Board authorization before delivering or using the critical coating for other end uses than those for which the ingredients were originally authorized. Application for such authorization should be made by letter in duplicate addressed to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-382, setting forth the following information:

Type, color and specification number of critical coating;

Quantity, and package sizes;

Composition (i. e. the allocated raw materials contained in it);

Specific end use for which those allocated materials were originally authorized by War Production Board;

Approximate date of such authorization, and of manufacture;

Reasons why the critical coating cannot be used for the end use for which the allocated raw materials were authorized;

Specific end use or uses for which the producer or distributor desires to sell or use the critical coating.

(2) Use by consumer. Any consumer desiring to use a protective coating, packaged in a container labeled "Contents subject to WPB Order M-382" or a protective coating (not so labeled) which he knows or has reason to believe is a critical coating, for a different end use than that specified on his end-use certificate, or in a greater quantity for a specified end use than his producer or distributor has notified him could be delivered for this use, the consumer must first obtain War Production Board authorization before using the protective coating. Applications should be made in the same manner and substantially the same information furnished, as described in paragraph (f) (1) above. A consumer acquiring critical coatings pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13 not in excess of the amount shown in the remarks column of that regulation may use them for any purpose. He may also use any critical coatings acquired pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13 without limitation as to quantity for the same use that the original holder acquired them.

(3) Delivery of excess or idle stocks of protective coatings. Excess or idle stocks of protective coatings may be delivered on "special sales" pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13.

(g) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable War Production Board regulations, as amended from time to time.

(h) Applicability of orders listed in paragraph (a) (2). In case the provisions of this order conflict with provisions of M orders listed in paragraph (a) (2), the provisions of this order shall govern, insofar as critical coatings are concerned, unless the M order specifically states that this order does not apply. In the event that an M order listed in paragraph (a) (2) is revoked, the subject material shall no longer be considered for the purpose of determining what is a "critical coating", except when the subject material is transferred to control under another order (for example, Order M-300). The definition of an allocated raw material listed in paragraph (a) (2) shall change for the purpose of this order when the definition is altered by amendment of the governing M order listed in paragraph (a) (2), or by the order or amendments to the order to which the material may be transferred.

(i) Records. All persons affected by this order must maintain accurate and complete records of all transactions as required by Priorities Regulation 1, § 944.15. Such records must include complete statements of all receipts and withdrawals of allocated raw materials, and amounts of allocated raw materils consumed in production batches of critical coatings, and the disposition of production batches.

(j) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Budget Bureau approval. The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(l) Communications to War Production Board. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-382.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A

END-USE CERTIFICATE

A certificate in substantially the form appearing below, signed either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7, must be furnished (1) to a producer by all consumers or distributors who purchase directly from that producer, pursuant to paragraphs (b) (2) and (c) (1) of this order, and (2) to a distributor by any person who purchases more than 275 gallons from distributors in any calendar month, pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (3) of this order, before any deliveries of critical coatings are made or accepted. This certificate may either be endorsed upon the purchase order for the critical coating, or submitted on a separate paper with the purchase order. The end use stated in the certificate should specify the particular item to be coated. For those coatings containing allocated ingredients which are only authorized for specific military contracts and specifications, such military contract and specification numbers should be included in the end use statement. Primary Products and End Use List, WPB-I-317, may be used as a guide for submitting end use statements:

Pursuant to Order M-382, the undersigned hereby certifies to the producer or distributor and to the War Production Board that the critical coatings covered by Purchase Order No. ------, dated ----------, will be used (or delivered in the case of a distributor) solely for the purposes and in the quantities listed below:

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[Supplementary Order M-24-c, as Amended Sept. 6, 1944]

ALLOY SCRAP SEGREGATION

§ 3294.126 Supplementary Order M-24-c—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this order, "alloy scrap" means scrap consisting of any of the alloy irons or alloy steels listed in Schedule A hereto.

(b) Segregation of alloy scrap. Each person who produces in any calendar month a total of ten tons or more of alloy scrap of the types described in Groups 1–9 inclusive and Groups 21–25 inclusive of Schedule A, or a total of 1 ton or more of alloy scrap of the types described in Groups 10–20 inclusive and Group 26 of Schedule A, shall segregate such scrap into the groups shown in Schedule A.

(c) Mingling of segregated scrap prohibited. No person shall (except in melting iron or steel) mingle alloy scrap segregated in accordance with paragraph (b) with scrap which is unclassified or in a different group, nor ship or deliver such alloy scrap without clearly identifying the group to which it belongs.

(d) Limitations on use of alloy scrap. Alloy scrap shall be melted only in the production of alloy iron or alloy steel, except that the following grades of alloy scrap may be melted in the production of carbon steel or iron:

(1) Chromium or chrome-vanadium steel scrap with chromium 1.65% maximum (e. g. 5000, 5100, 52100, 6100 series).

(2) Chromium-molybdenum steel scrap with molybdenum 0.27% maximum (e. g. 4100 series).

(3) Nickel - chromium - molybdenum steel scrap with nickel 0.70% maximum, chromium 0.60% maximum, molybdenum 0.30% maximum (e. g. 8600, 8700, 9400 series).

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

PART 1340—FUEL

[RMPR 122, Amdt. 36]

SOLID FUELS SOLD AND DELIVERED BY DEALERS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 is amended in the following respects:

Amendment No. 36 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall become effective September 11, 1944.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RMPR 271, Amdt. 22]

POTATOES AND ONIONS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 271 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 7 is amended by adding an undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

The maximum prices established by this regulation shall not be exceeded by buyers or sellers by splitting or sharing of margins, joint account transactions or otherwise.

2. Section 9 (h) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Every country shipper making shipments of potatoes or onions in any conveyance other than railroad freight car, shall post or cause to be posted in the conveyance, a manifest showing the following:

The name and address of the shipper; the location of the shipping point; the quantity, grade, state or area of production and maximum price, f. o. b. shipping point of the goods; and the name and address of the person to whom shipped. If the goods are shipped unsold the manifest shall show that fact, and the shipper shall give his own name and address as the person to whom the goods are shipped.

The shipper shall retain a copy of the manifest pursuant to section 22 of this regulation.

3. Section 13 is revoked.

4. Section 25 (b) (2), (3) and (4) are amended to read as follows:

(2) Cotton, mesh or burlap bags.

10 pounds	add 5¢
15 pounds	add 3½¢
25 pounds	add 2½¢
50 pounds	add 1¢

(3) Paper bags.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 421,[1] Amdt. 13]

CEILING PRICES OF CERTAIN FOODS SOLD AT WHOLESALE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 421 is amended in the following respects:

1. A new undesignated paragraph is added to section 15, to read as follows:

This section shall not apply to any imported food item which you purchase from a wholesaler who has imported that item.

2. A new section 15a is added to read as follows:

SEC. 15a. Items which you import. On and after September 11, 1944, this regulation shall not apply to you for sales of any item purchased by you directly from a foreign seller or his agent (except as provided in Section 22a), for importation into the continental United States. Your ceiling price for such items shall be determined by you in accordance with Order No. 38 issued under the Maximum Import Price Regulation[2] or the General Maximum Price Regulation[3] or any other applicable maximum price regulation covering the sale of the item by importers. If you have an existing ceiling price for any such item, you must, by the opening of business on September 11, 1944, refigure that ceiling price in accordance with the applicable maximum price regulation or order covering the sale of the item by importers.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

[MPR 453,[6] Amdt. 4]

WHOLESALERS' AND RETAILERS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR AUTOMOTIVE PARTS

A statement of the consideration involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. Section 3 is amended by adding an undesignated paragraph following paragraph (c) to read as follows:

NOTE: Any commodity, including an automotive part, traded in in connection with the sale or purchase of a part covered by this regulation is a partial payment for the part being sold. Therefore, a reasonable allowance must be made for the commodity traded in.

2. Section 8 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Allowance that may be added instead of manufacturer's federal excise tax. A wholesaler or retailer who is entitled to add to a maximum price a manufacturer's federal excise tax under the provisions of paragraph (a), instead of adding such a tax may add an allowance approximating it which shall not exceed a percentage of that maximum price if he states this percentage allowance on the invoice (1) separately from all other charges and (2) designates it as "special handling charge authorized by OPA." This percentage allowance is as follows:

1. For a sale at wholesale: 4%.
2. For a sale at retail: 8%.

Wholesalers and retailers are cautioned against representing this allowance as the exact amount of the federal excise tax, since where it is in excess of this tax such a representation may be construed to be a violation of section 3325 of the Internal Revenue Code.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

PART 1400—TEXTILE FABRICS: COTTON, WOOL, SILK, SYNTHETIC AND ADMIXTURES

[MPR 478,[1] Amdt. 4]

COATED AND COMBINED FABRICS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 478 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 7a, paragraph (c) is amended and paragraphs (d) and (e) are added to read as follows:

(c) Reports of proposed maximum prices. The manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after he begins to perform any service required to be priced under this section. This report shall contain the following information:

(1) A description of the service being priced and of the coated or combined fabric being used as a basis for pricing.

(2) The maximum price to each class of purchaser of the coated or combined fabric used as a basis for pricing, the cost (as defined in section 8 (d) (2)) of the cloth used in its production, the date on which the cost price of the cloth used was in effect in the manufacturer's plant, and the value of the cloth specified as the working allowance provided for in the service being priced.

(3) The proposed maximum price for the service for each class of purchaser, computed in accordance with paragraph (b).

(d) Quotations, invoices, and payments pending approval of maximum prices. Payments for a service priced under this section may not be accepted until the report required by paragraph (c) has been filed with the Office of Price Administration. Until a maximum price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration for a service priced under this section, a notification that the proposed price is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration must appear on all quotations and invoices. If the price approved by the Office of Price Administration is less than that set forth in the invoices, all invoices which have been issued must be changed to the approved maximum price, and if payments in excess of the approved price have been collected, refunds must be made.

(e) Approval of maximum prices. The Office of Price Administration may approve or disapprove the proposed maximum price, or may approve a maximum price that differs from the proposed maximum price but which is consistent with the level of maximum prices fixed by the regulation. The proposed maximum price, however, shall be deemed to be approved unless within fifteen days after the mailing of the report (or within fifteen days after the mailing of all additional information which may have been requested) the Office of Price Administration notifies the manufacturer that his proposed maximum price has not been approved or that action thereon has been deferred pending receipt of further information. The Office of Price Administration may at any time adjust an approved maximum price (not to apply retroactively) so as to make it consistent with the level of prices otherwise established by this regulation.

2. Section 8 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Reports and approvals of maximum prices—(1) Report of price computed under paragraph (b). If a manufacturer receives total orders exceeding $1,000 in the case of a fabric, or exceeding $500 in the case of a service, for a fabric or service that must be priced under this section, he shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D, C. This report shall be filed within ten days after the manufacturer has received a sufficient dollar volume of orders to necessitate filing of the report, and shall contain information required by the form set forth in Appendix A and shall be made on a copy of that form.

(2) Quotations, invoices, and payments pending approval of maximum prices. Payments exceeding $1,000 in the case of a fabric, or exceeding $500 in the case of a service, for a fabric or service being priced under this section, may not be accepted until the report required by subparagraph (1) has been filed with the Office of Price Administration. Until a maximum price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration for a fabric or service being priced under this section, a notification that the proposed price is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration must appear on all quotations and invoices covering orders exceeding the first $1,000 in the case of a fabric, or exceeding the first $500 in the case of a service. If the price approved by the Office of Price Administration is less than that set forth in the invoices required to carry such notification, all such invoices which have been issued must be changed to the approved maximum price, and if payments in excess of the approved maximum price have been collected, refunds must be made.

(3) Approval of maximum prices. The Office of Price Administration may approve or disapprove the proposed maximum price, or may approve a maximum price that differs from the proposed maximum price but which is consistent with the level of maximum prices fixed by this regulation. The proposed maximum price, however, shall be deemed to be approved unless within fifteen days after the mailing of the report (or within fifteen days after the mailing of all additional information which may have been requested) the Office of Price Administration notifies the manufacturer that his proposed maximum price has not been approved or that action thereon has been deferred pending receipt of further information. The Office of Price Administration may at any time adjust an approved maximum price (not to apply retroactively) so as to make it consistent with the level of prices otherwise established by the regulation.

(4) Report and approval where recomputation under paragraph (c) results in a higher price. If the recomputation required by paragraph (c) results in a higher maximum price than the price previously approved by the Office of Price Administration, and if on any subsequent order the manufacturer elects to charge a higher price than the maximum price previously approved by the Office of Price Administration, he must file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after entering into a contract at such increased price. The provisions of subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) shall be applicable to reports, quotations, invoices, payments, and approval of the increased price.

3. In section 8b, paragraph (c) is amended, and paragraphs (d) and (e) are added, to read as follows:

(c) Reports of maximum prices. The manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after he has sold or delivered any fabric priced under this section. This report shall contain the following information:

(1) A description of the coated or combined fabric being priced, including the number of yards involved, and of the fabric used as a basis for pricing.

(2) The maximum price to each class of purchaser of the coated or combined fabric used as a basis for pricing, and a statement of the section of this regulation under which this maximum price was determined, and the proposed maximum price to each class of purchaser of the fabric being priced.

(3) The cost of the cloths used in the coated or combined fabric used as a basis for pricing and in the fabric being priced. The cost of the cloths shall be determined in accordance with section 8 (d) (2). The dates on which the prices of the cloths used were in effect in the manufacturer's plant must be reported.

(d) Quotations, invoices, and payments pending approval of maximum prices. Payments for a fabric priced under this section may not be accepted until the report required by paragraph (c) has been filed with the Office of Price Administration. Until a maximum price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration for a fabric priced under this section, a notification that the proposed price is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration must appear on all quotations and invoices. If the price approved by the Office of Price Administration is less than that set forth in the invoices, all invoices which have been issued must be changed to the approved maximum price, and if payments in excess of the approved price have been collected, refunds must be made.

(e) Approval of maximum prices. The Office of Price Administration may approve or disapprove the proposed maximum price, or may approve a maximum price that differs from the proposed maximum price but which is consistent with the level of maximum prices fixed by the regulation. The proposed maximum price, however, shall be deemed to be approved unless within fifteen days after the mailing of the report (or within fifteen days after the mailing of all additional information which may have been requested) the Office of Price Administration notifies the manufacturer that his proposed maximum price has not been approved or that action thereon has been deferred pending receipt of further information. The Office of Price Administration may at any time adjust an approved maximum price (not to apply retroactively) so as to make it consistent with the level of prices otherwise established by the regulation.

4. The paragraph numbered 1 of Appendix A is amended to read as follows:

1. Description of fabric or service being priced: (a) Give a definite description of the fabric or base material; if base is a textile, give width, and thread count of the greige goods and describe all finishes; if the base is a fibre (paper, etc.), give a full and complete description of it; (b) State the type of coating used (rubber, synthetic rubber, pyroxylin, ethyl cellulose, synthetic resin, or oxidizable oil); give the dry weight of coating and process involved in its application, and the number of coats; (c) Submit a sample of the finished material.

5. Subparagraph b of the table under paragraph 4 of Appendix A is amended to read as follows:

b. Direct materials

Rubber, if any.....	$.....	$.....	.....
	(August 1, 1943, prices must be used in your calculations. If OPA has established lower maximum prices, such prices must be used.)
Fabric or base material	$.....	$.....	.....

Other materials ...	$.....	$.....	.....
	(Base period prices for fabric or base material, finishing charges, and other materials must be used in your calculations. If there was no base period price, you must use the first price after the base period. If OPA has established lower maximum prices, such prices must be used.)

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 17,[1] Amdt. 75]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1.7 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) An employer or institution that gets shoes under this section or section 3.6 may let its employees, students or residents, as the case may be, use the shoes but it must keep title to them. However, if a resident of a charitable or correctional institution leaves the institution, it may give him the shoes he has been wearing to take with him and, if it is the custom of the institution, it may give him a new pair of discharge shoes. Upon the termination of an employee's contract of employment and after collecting ration currency from the employee, an employer may, without registering as an establishment, transfer to the employee the shoes he has been wearing. It shall surrender all ration currency so received to the District Office within five days.

2. Section 1.7 (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) Employers and institutions may dispose of shoes. (1) If an employer or institution discontinues furnishing shoes to its employees, residents or students, or if it has worn shoes which can no longer be used by its employees, students or residents for the purposes for which it furnishes shoes to them it may make application to the District Office to transfer such worn shoes ration-free, without registering as an establishment. The application shall state the number of employees, students or residents who are furnished shoes, the number of pairs of shoes acquired since February 7, 1943, the condition of the shoes sought to be transferred ration-free and the reasons why they can no longer be used or that the employer or institution is no longer furnishing shoes. If the District Office is satisfied that the worn shoes sought to be transferred ration-free cannot be worn by the applicant's employees, students, or residents for the purposes for which it furnishes shoes to them, or that it has in fact discontinued the furnishing of shoes to its employees, students or residents, it shall issue to the applicant a written authorization to transfer such shoes as non-rationed without registering as an establishment. However, such shoes may not be transferred as non-rationed if the price charged for them is more than fifty percent of the price paid for them by the applicant. For the purposes of this subparagraph, "price paid" means the invoice price paid by the employer or institution, plus any separable transportation expense (a charge for freight or postage not included in the invoice price). In determining the price paid, a cash or trade discount need not be deducted from the invoice price.

(2) If an employer or institution has odd lot shoes on hand which it desires to transfer or if it discontinues furnishing shoes to its employees, students or residents and desires to transfer its stock of new shoes, it may make application to the District Office for permission to transfer such shoes without registering as an establishment. The application shall state the number of shoes on hand, and in the case of odd lot shoes sought to be transferred, their size and type. If the District Office is satisfied that the applicant is in fact discontinuing the furnishing of shoes for the use of its employees, students or residents, or that the shoes it desires to transfer cannot be used by its employees, students or residents, the District Office shall send the applicant a written authorization to transfer the shoes for ration currency, without registering as an establishment. The applicant shall surrender all ration currency so received to the District Office within five days.

(3) If an employer or institution desires to resume the furnishing of shoes to its employees, students or residents after having discontinued this practice in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (1) or (2) above, it may apply to the District Office for stamps or certificates. The District Office may grant the application only if it determines that there has been a substantial change in circumstances (other than the disposition of shoes under subparagraphs (1) or (2)) leading to the decision by the employer or institution to resume furnishing shoes for the use of its employees, students or residents.

3. Section 1.12 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1.12. Anyone may acquire used shoes. Anyone may acquire used shoes without giving up ration currency. However, shoes returned for exchange under section 1.10 (a) and shoes acquired for wear-testing or as samples may not be transferred or acquired as used shoes. Shoes acquired by employers and institutions under section 1.7 (a) may be transferred or acquired as used shoes only in accordance with the provisions of section 1.7 (d). (The term "used" is explained in section 3.13.)

4. Section 3.6 (c) is amended by adding the following:

(For rules governing the use and disposition of shoes acquired under this section by an employer or institution, see section 1.7.)

This amendment shall become effective Sept. 9, 1944.

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements and reporting provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

Acting Administrator.

19. Section 2.15(a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Any registered distributing establishment whose ration currency has been destroyed, damaged, lost, stolen or paid to the Collector of Customs for non-rationed shoes, or whose shoes have been (1) taken from him by judicial process, or the enforcement of a security interest, (2) exported to a foreign country or to a territory or possession of the United States (other than the District of Columbia) or delivered as slop-chest supplies, ships' stores, or to Ships' Service Stores Afloat, pursuant to section 3.5, or transferred to or for the account of an exempt person or agency designated in section 3.6, without getting ration currency, (3) damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen, or (4) released from rationing under section 2.11(a)(7) after the establishment paid ration currency for them, may get a certificate to replace the ration currency or shoes, as the case may be. Application for replacement certificate should be made to the District Office (on OPA Form R-1704) and should show the facts necessary to establish the eligibility for the replacement certificate, including all information required by the form prescribed. In the case of an application for currency to replace shoes which have been exported, there shall be attached to the application, a shipper's export declaration certified by the Collector of Customs or ocean bill of lading signed by the steamship company, or if the shoes were mailed, a certificate of mailing certified by a postal employee, covering the shoes which were exported.

20. Section 3.4(b)(4) is added which reads as follows:

(4) Are non-rationed shoes under section 2.11.

21. Section 3.13 (d) is added to read as follows:

(d) Whenever the term "shoes" is used in this order, it refers to rationed shoes unless the context of the language used indicates otherwise.

This amendment shall become effective September 5, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[MPR 554]

WESTERN RED CEDAR POLES AND PILING

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the industry affected.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

AUTHORITY: Secs. 1 to 15, inclusive (§ 1426.254), issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SECTION 1. Sales of Western Red Cedar poles and piling at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after September 11, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Western red cedar poles and piling covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices, may, of course, be charged and paid.

(c) In any case where a maximum price having once been established in this regulation is reduced by subsequent amendment, sellers who have entered into firm contracts on the basis of the earlier ceiling may apply for special permission to complete shipment under such firm contracts without regard to the new ceiling, under the following rules and conditions:

(1) The permission, if granted, will allow completion of the contract within 60 days from the effective date of the action setting up the new ceilings.

(2) The existence of a "firm contract" must be shown by the seller's submitting a copy of formal contract or copies of written order and acceptance covering specific items, quantities and prices.

(3) The application must show that the items covered by the contract were actually being produced and had not been shipped on the effective date of the amendment which changes the maximum price.

(4) The seller must state in his application—and the permission, if granted, will be so limited, that all prices shown in the contract will be adhered to, even though the maximum price on some items included therein may have been increased by the amendment.

(5) Applications must be sent to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, at Washington, D. C. The Lumber Branch may grant or deny such applications by letter or telegram.

Note that the seller must apply for the special permission covered in this paragraph, and he may not go ahead on the basis of the contract prices unless and until he has received the authorization to do so.

SEC. 2. Products, species and transactions covered. This regulation covers all sales and purchases of the Western Red Cedar (Thuja plicata) poles and piling produced in the states of California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, and Canada.

SEC. 3. Basic maximum prices. The basic maximum prices are set out in section 15. These maximum prices are all f. o. b. the railroad loading-out point or towable waters nearest the mill or point of production in the normal direction of delivery to the point of destination.

SEC. 4. Transportation addition. The transportation charges set forth below may be added to the maximum f. o. b. railroad loading-out point or towable water prices when the seller makes delivery to the destination. Transportation from the mill or point of production to the railroad loading-out point or booming and rafting ground must, in every instance, be provided on the seller's account. All additions for transportation must be shown separately on the invoice.

(a) Common or contract carrier. (1) When estimated weights or guaranteed mean diameters are used, the appropriate published rate times the estimated weight or mean diameter is the proper transportation charge, even though the estimated weights or diameters may be higher than actual. Estimated weights higher than those set forth in the tables may not be used. To compute mean diameters add 1" to the top or butt diameter, whichever is the controlling factor, and increase or decrease that figure by 1" for each 10 lineal feet. Add the top and butt diameters thus determined and divide by two to find the mean diameter. The charge for transportation shall be evened out to the nearest quarter cent per lineal foot or five cents per pole, whichever is applicable.

(2) When estimated weights are not used, the amount added for transportation must not be more than the amount actually paid to the common or contract carrier.

(b) Private truck. (1) When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the maximum permissible addition (on hauls involving any point outside of metropolitan areas) shall be computed as 5 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of not over 10 miles, 7 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of more than 10 but not over 20 miles, 9 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of more than 20 but not over 30 miles, two tenths of a cent per 100 pounds to be added to the 30-mile charge. No addition is allowed for the return trip.

(2) A "metropolitan area" includes all territory within 10 miles of the city limits of any city having a population of 250,000 or more according to the Census of 1940. On shipment by private truck entirely within a metropolitan area, the amount added for transportation may not be more than the published motor common carrier rate for such haul times the estimated weight or other unit of measure used. If there is no published rate, then the actual cost of trucking may be added, that is, the seller's out-of-pocket expense in making delivery. If the order and shipment are for less than a truckload, a minimum charge for 10,000 pounds may be made.

(c) Rail shipments of poles and piling. (1) On eastbound shipments by rail the transportation addition for all shippers may be computed as the estimated weights shown in the appropriate table times the rail freight rate from Seattle, Washington.

(2) On southbound shipments by rail or combined water and rail in the case of poles and piling produced in Canada to destinations covered in Pacific Freight Tariff Bureau Tariff No. 80-H or appropriate interstate tariffs the transportation addition may be computed as the estimated weights shown in the appropriate table times the rail freight rate arrived as follows:

(i) When the published rail rate is greater than the Seattle, Washington rate, the Bellingham, Washington published rate may be used; on shipments of poles or piling produced in Canada the Bellingham rate may be used regardless of the location of rail shipping point.

[1] 8 F.R. 4325.

(ii) When the published rail rate is greater than the Portland, Oregon rate but not greater than the Seattle, Washington published rate, the Seattle, Washington published rate may be used.

(iii) When the shipping point is North of the California-Oregon State line and takes a published rail rate not greater than the Portland rate, the Portland published rate may be used.

(iv) When the shipping point is in the State of California the published rate from Arcata, California may be used.

(3) On shipments of Western red cedar poles and piling from points in Idaho, Montana, and that part of Washington east of the crest of the Cascade Mountains to points for which there is no published through railroad freight rate via the Minnesota Transfer-Twin Cities Gateway, the transportation addition may be computed on the basis of the local freight rate or rates from the original loading-out point to destination.

(4) Regardless of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (c), if a treating-in-transit rate is applicable and results in a lower total cost of transportation, the treating-in-transit rate must be used.

(d) For other means of transportation, where there are no published rates the actual cost of such transportation may be charged, that is, the out-of-pocket cost to the seller whether public or private means of transportation are used.

(e) Averaging inbound transportation charges from multiple loading-out points. The addition for inbound transportation may be calculated by multiplying the estimated weight of the material by the local freight rate from the loading-out point of the untreated poles or piling. If the untreated material is received from more than one point, an average rate of all inbound freight may be used. The average must be determined by the following formula:

(1) The total inbound freight charges on all receipts during the preceding three months of the type and species of the item to be priced—divided by—

(2) The total weight of all receipts of such items during the three-month period, regardless of whether inbound freight actually was involved, but excluding any material sold f. o. b. original loading-out point.

This average rate may be used in computing the "inbound freight" addition on all sales f. o. b. treating plant or concentration yard made during the quarter next following that on which the average is based. The average may also be used in selling on a delivered basis as provided in this section, except that where treating-in-transit rates are available, the entire addition for transportation (including inbound) must be figured on the through rate from the loading-out point indicated on the freight bills surrendered in connection with the outbound shipment. The transit charge itself may be added.

SEC. 5. Treated products. (a) The maximum prices for Western red cedar poles and piling preservatively treated by pressure process are established by Maximum Price Regulation 491.[1]

(b) The maximum price for all Western red cedar poles and piling preservatively treated by non-pressure methods (except as otherwise provided herein in Tables 5 and 6) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 9 of this regulation.

SEC. 6. Definitions of territories. (a) The term "Western schedule" as used in section 15, Table 1, refers to sales of treated poles shipped from treating plants or concentration yards located in California or in those parts of Oregon, Washington, and Canada west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains (regardless of the location of the original loading-out point), and to sales of untreated poles shipped from original loading-out points or from concentration yards in that same territory.

(b) The term "Eastern schedule", as used in section 15, Table 2, refers to sales of treated poles shipped from treating plants or concentration yards located outside the area described in paragraph (a), regardless of the location of the original loading-out point. It applies also to sales of untreated poles shipped from original loading-out points or from concentration yards located outside the area described in paragraph (a).

SEC. 7. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were on April 1, 1942. The cash and credit periods recognized by the seller on April 1, 1942, shall not be reduced.

(2) Refusing to sell on a loading-out point basis and insisting on selling on a delivered basis.

(3) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount, the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(4) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want.

SEC. 8. Purchasing commissions. It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring, buying, selling or locating Western Red Cedar poles and piling, or for any related service (such as "expediting") which does not involve actual physical handling of those products, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer which is higher than the maximum price of the products. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any service charge or payment which is figured either directly or indirectly on the basis of the quantity, price or value of the products in connection with which the service is performed.

SEC. 9. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of shipment; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after shipment. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is necessary to promote distribution or production and it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 10. Special pricing. If a seller wishes to sell a specification of Western Red Cedar poles not specifically priced in this regulation or wishes to make charges for extras not specifically provided for, he shall apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a maximum price. He must provide the following information.

(a) The requested price.

(b) A complete description of the item for which a price approval is desired.

(1) If a specification other than ASA is to be priced, he shall furnish a copy of the specification.

(2) If any other extra is to be priced he shall furnish a description of the extra for which an addition is requested.

(c) The price differential between the item to be priced and the most comparable item priced in the regulation, which existed in October 1941 or the first month preceding October 1941 in which both items were sold. The differential should be developed from the seller's own records, or if that is not possible, from the experience of other buyers and sellers.

(d) If no price differential existed, a detailed analysis of comparative costs of supplying the two items shall be furnished.

As soon as the request has been filed, quotations and deliveries may be made at the requested price, but final payment may not be made until the price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration. Such approvals may be made by letter or telegram.

[1] 8 F.R. 15694.

SEC. 11. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6[1] for adjustment provisions on certain government contracts or subcontracts.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 12. Records. All sellers of Western Red Cedar poles and piling products must keep records which will show a complete description of the item sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought $1,000 worth of Western Red Cedar poles and piling. These records must be kept for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for the duration of the Price Control Act or for two years, whichever is the shorter.

SEC. 13. Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by the regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(c) The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1[3] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not during the period of suspension, make any sale of which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 14. Exports. The maximum price for export sales of Western red cedar poles and piling is governed by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[4]

SEC. 15. Maximum prices for poles and piling. (a) All maximum prices set forth below are f. o. b. cars at the railroad loading-out point or dumped, boomed, and rafted on towable waters nearest the point of in the normal direction of delivery to the point of destination.

(b) Quantity discounts on treated poles. When the seller takes a firm order for treated poles, he must make discounts for quantity as follows:

	Percent
For 3,000 to 4,999 poles	2½
For 5,000 poles or more	5

For purposes of this paragraph a "firm order" is one requiring shipment from time to time over a period of 12 months, as ordered by the buyer, with guarantee of payment for any poles not ordered shipped at the end of the 12-month period, and covering at least 5 lengths with 3 classes in each length. The maximum price for treated poles subject to this discount is the sum of the appropriate untreated price taken from Tables 1, 2, 3, and 4 and the additions for treatment and services made according to Tables 5 and 6 or section 5, excluding any addition for transportation.

GENERAL NOTES APPLYING TO TABLES 1, 2, 3, AND 4

1. These prices include all production costs before processing and treating such as yarding and inspection.

2. Piling. The maximum price for Western Red Cedar piling shall be the price for the closest equivalent A. S. A. size pole in the same length.

3. On orders to established concentration, distribution or treating plant yards for less-than-carload minimum weight as established by railroad tariffs, and where the invoice value at maximum prices for the untreated poles or other round material does not exceed $300.00 on items 50 feet and shorter, or $450.00 where 50 percent of the items are more than 50 feet in length, the seller may add a service charge of not more than 25% of the total invoice value of the treated or untreated material not including transportation but including the treating and processing additions provided in Table 5 and 6. The transportation addition on "less than carload sales" must not exceed that permitted by section 4 for transportation from the point of origin to the concentration, distribution or treating plant yard from which the shipment is made. The service charge may be made only on sales, f. o. b. seller's yard, with transportation outbound for the buyer's account.

4. Cut back allowance. When requirements of the buyer exceed the available supply of the seller for one or more classes or lengths of poles for delivery required, the seller may cut back the next lower class pole in the five foot longer length on orders for poles 45' and shorter and the next lower class pole in the ten foot longer length on orders for poles 50' and longer, and may charge the maximum price for the class and length pole actually used. The additions for transportation, treatment, processing, etc., on such cut back poles, shall be those additions applicable to the class and length pole ordered by the buyer, plus an addition for inbound freight computed at the difference in estimated weights times the freight rate to the concentration yards. No addition may be made for the labor included in such cutting back operations. The seller shall keep a record of such sales and show this charge as a separate item on the invoice.

5. Inspection service. On shipments where the buyer requests special inspection service, furnished by an approved inspection agency, an addition may be made to cover the actual cost of such service. This charge must be shown separately on the invoice.

6. Branding and marking. The manufacturer's brand showing year mark, class, and length of pole may be branded on the face of butt treated poles at no extra charge. For any additional branding or marking on butt treated poles, and for all branding on untreated poles, an addition of not more than 7½ cents may be made for each additional branding or marking operation required by the buyer and performed with one iron.

7. Heavy duty and 30" top poles. On sales of heavy duty and 30" top #1 and #2 poles an addition for inbound freight may be added computed at the difference in estimated weights between the pole as sold and the pole cut back times the freight rate to the concentration yard.

8. Untreated poles, stubs, anchor logs and short round material. On shipments from treating plant yards of untreated poles, stubs, anchor logs and short round material, the seller may add a charge of not more than $0.075 per cwt. times the estimated weight for that length and size in the appropriate table.

9. Storage. When the buyer requires storage of treated poles until released for shipment as required, the seller may add a yarding charge of not more than $0.05 per cwt. times the estimated weight for the same class and length in the appropriate table.

10. Specifications not priced. To price any specification of pole other than American Standard Association, the seller shall determine the size A. S. A. pole of the same length having the same or nearest the larger circumference 6' from the butt, and this price is the tentative maximum price for the specification to be priced. The tentative price so determined and any price for other lengths or extras not specifically priced shall be submitted to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. as provided in section 10.

[1] On poles treated west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains or in California these prices may be increased by 5%. If poles are not incised no increase to these prices is allowed.

[2] If the buyer does not require ground-line incising with this type of treatment deduct 5% from the price of under 8 hours' treatment.

[4] This addition is permitted when the sapwood is reduced in machine shaving to less than ½" average thickness.

NOTES APPLYING TO TABLES 5 AND 6

1. Additional height butt treatment. An additional charge may be made for butt treatment for one foot or portion thereof in excess of the standard height, but the total charge must not be more than the maximum charge for creosote butt treatment of the same class pole five feet longer.

2. Extended incised area. When the buyer requires an extended ground-line incised area greater than 3 feet, the maximum charge for creosote butt treatment shall not exceed the maximum charge for the next larger class pole in the five foot longer length to provide for this service and any additional height treatment.

3. Bolt holes and step holes. For the first boring in any plane of a pole, stub, anchor log or other short round material add $0.05. For each additional boring in that same plane add $0.03.

4. Continuous slab gain. An addition may be made for each 12 inches or part thereof of continuous slab gain not to exceed the charge for "Each Additional Gain.".

5. Full length immersion of butt treated poles. For butt treated poles immersed full length in creosote, stain or other preservative, under 2 hours the seller may add to the butt treated price the staining and painting charge for the same length and class of pole.

6. Push braces. For framing and boring on push brace poles, an addition of $0.50 may be made to the maximum price for class and length of pole used.

7. Specifications not priced. For any specification of treating or processing not priced in this table a maximum price addition may be determined in accordance with section 10.

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[MPR 555]

WESTERN POLES AND PILING

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the industry affected.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

AUTHORITY: Secs. 1 to 14, inclusive. (§ 1426.255) issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SECTION 1. Sales of Western poles and piling at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after September 11, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Western poles and piling covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

(c) In any case where a maximum price having once been established in this regulation is reduced by subsequent amendment, sellers who have entered into firm contracts on the basis of the earlier ceilings may apply for special permission to complete shipment under such firm contracts without regard to the new ceiling, under the following rules and conditions:

(1) The permission, if granted, will allow completion of the contract within 60 days from the effective date of the action setting up the new ceilings.

(2) The existence of a "firm contract" must be shown by the seller's submitting a copy of formal contract or copies of written order and acceptance covering specific items, quantities, and prices.

(3) The application must show that the items covered by the contract were actually being produced and had not been shipped on the effective date of the amendment which changes the maximum price.

(4) The seller must state in his application, and the permission, if granted, will be so limited, that all prices shown in the contract will be adhered to, even though the maximum price on some items included therein may have been increased by the amendment.

(5) Applications must be sent to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, at Washington, D. C. The Lumber Branch may grant or deny such applications by letter or telegram.

Note that the seller must apply for the special permission covered in this paragraph, and he may not go ahead on the basis of the contract prices unless and until he has received the authorization to do so.

SEC. 2. Products, species, and transactions covered. This regulation covers all sales and purchases of poles and piling (except Western Red Cedar) produced in "Western" territory. Western Red Cedar poles and piling are covered by Maximum Price Regulation 554.

"Western" territory is all that area within or west of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado; the Oklahoma Panhandle (Cimarron, Texas, and Beaver Counties); and West Texas (all Texas counties within or west of Lipscomb, Hemphill, Wheeler, Collingsworth, Childress, Cottle, King, Stonewall, Fisher, Nolan, Coke, Tom Green, Schleicher, Sutton, Edwards, Kinney, and Maverick Counties.) It includes Mexico and Canada, when the poles and piling are imported through ports of entry in the above territory.

SEC. 3. Basic maximum prices. The basic maximum prices are set out in Tables 1, 2 and 3. These maximum prices are all f. o. b. the railroad loading-out point or towable waters nearest the mill or point of production in the normal direction of delivery to the point of destination.

SEC. 4. Transportation addition. The transportation charges set forth below may be added to the maximum f. o. b. railroad loading-out point or towable water prices when the seller makes delivery to the destination. Transportation from the mill or point of production to the railroad loading-out point or booming and rafting ground must, in every instance, be provided on the seller's account. All additions for transportation must be shown separately on the invoice.

(a) Common or contract carrier. (1) When estimated weights or guaranteed mean diameters are used, the appropriate published rate times the estimated weight or mean diameter is the proper transportation charge, even though the estimated weights or diameters may be higher than actual. Estimated weights higher than those set forth in the tables may not be used. The estimated weight must be taken from the tables for the exact type of product actually ordered. To compute mean diameters add 1" to the top or butt diameter, whichever is the controlling factor, and increase or decrease that figure by 1" for each 10 lineal feet. Add the top and butt diameters thus determined and divide by two to find the mean diameter. The charge for transportation shall be evened out to the nearest quarter cent per lineal foot, or five cents per pole, whichever is applicable.

(2) When estimated weights are not used, the amount added for transportation must not be more than the amount actually paid to the common or contract carrier.

(b) Private truck. (1) When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the maximum permissible addition (on hauls involving any point outside of metropolitan areas) shall be computed as 5 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of not over 10 miles, 7 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of more than 10 but not over 20 miles, 9 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of more than 20 but not over 30 miles, and for each mile over 30 miles, two tenths of a cent per 100 pounds to be added to the 30-mile charge. No addition is allowed for the return trip.

(2) A "metropolitan area" includes all territory within 10 miles of the city limits of any city having a population of 250,000 or more according to the Census of 1940. On shipment by private truck entirely within a metropolitan area, the amount added for transportation may not be more than the published motor common carrier rate for such haul times the estimated weight or other unit of measure used. If there is no published rate, then the actual cost of trucking may be added, that is, the seller's out-of-pocket expense in making delivery. If the order and shipment are for less than a truckload, a minimum charge for 10,000 pounds may be made.

(c) Rail shipments of poles and piling (other than lodgepole pine.) (1) On eastbound shipments by rail the transportation addition for all shippers may be computed as the estimated weights shown in the appropriate table times the rail freight rate from Seattle, Washington.

(2) On southbound shipments by rail or by combined water and rail in the case of poles and piling produced in Canada to destinations covered in Pacific Freight Tariff Bureau Tariff No. 80–H or appropriate intrastate tariffs the transportation addition may be computed as the estimated weights shown in the appropriate table times the rail freight rate arrived at as follows:

(i) When the published rail rate is greater than the Seattle, Washington, rate, the Bellingham, Washington published rate may be used; on shipments of poles or piling produced in Canada the Bellingham rate may be used regardless of the location of rail shipping point.

(ii) When the published rail rate is greater than the Portland, Oregon rate but not greater than the Seattle, Washington published rate, the Seattle, Washington published rate may be used.

(iii) When the shipping point is north of the California-Oregon State line and takes a published rail rate not greater than the Portland rate, the Portland published rate may be used.

(iv) When the shipping point is in the State of California the published rate from Arcata, California may be used.

(3) Regardless of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (c), if a treating-in-transit rate is applicable and results in a lower total cost of transportation, the treating-in-transit rate must be used.

(d) For other means of transportation, where there are no published rates the actual cost of such transportation may be charged, that is, the out-of-pocket cost to the seller, whether public or private means of transportation are used.

(e) Averaging inbound transportation charges from multiple loading-out-points. This addition for inbound transportation may be calculated by multiplying the estimated weight of the material by the local freight rate from the loading-out point of the untreated poles or piling. If the untreated material is received from more than one loading-out point, an average rate of all inbound freight may be used. The average must be determined by the following formula:

(1) The total inbound freight charges on all receipts during the preceding three months of the type and species of the item to be priced—divided by—

(2) The total weight of all receipts of such items during the three-month period, regardless of whether inbound freight actually was involved, but excluding any material sold f. o. b. original loading-out point.

This average rate may be used in computing the "inbound freight" addition on sales f. o. b. treating plant or concentration yard made during the quarter next following that on which the average is based. The average may also be used in selling on a delivered basis as provided in this section except that where treating-in-transit rates are available, the entire addition for transportation (including inbound) must be figured on the through rate from the loading-out point indicated on the freight bills surrendered in connection with the outbound shipment. The transit charge itself may be added.

SEC. 5. Treated products. (a) The maximum prices for Western poles and piling preservatively treated by pressure process are established by Maximum Price Regulation 491.[1]

(b) The maximum price for any product preservatively treated by non-pressure methods shall be the maximum price established in accordance with the provisions of section 9 of this regulation.

SEC. 6. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were on April 1, 1942. The cash and credit periods recognized by the seller on April 1, 1942, shall not be reduced.

(2) Refusing to sell on a loading-out point basis and insisting on selling on a delivered basis.

(3) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(4) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want.

SEC. 7. Purchasing commissions. It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring, buying, selling or locating Western poles and piling, or for any related service (such as "expediting") which does not involve actual physical handling of those products, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer which is higher than the maximum price of the products. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any service charge or payment which is figured either directly or indirectly on the basis of the quantity, price or value of the products in connection with which the service is performed.

SEC. 8. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of shipment; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after shipment. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 9. Special pricing. If a seller wishes to sell a species or specification of western poles or piling not specifically priced in this regulation, or wishes to make charges for extras not specifically provided for, he shall apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a maximum price. He must provide the following information:

(a) The requested price;

(b) A complete description of the item for which price approval is desired;

(1) If a specification other than Navy 39P–14a Class 2 for piling or A. S. A. for poles, he shall furnish a copy of the specification.

(2) If any other extra is to be priced, he shall furnish a description of the extra for which an addition is requested.

(c) The price differential between the item to be priced and the most comparable item priced in the regulation, which existed in October 1941 or the first month preceding October 1941 in which both items were sold. The differential should be developed from the seller's own records, or, if that is not possible, from the experience of other buyers and sellers.

(d) If no price differential exists, a detailed analysis of the comparative costs of supplying the two items shall be furnished.

As soon as the request has been filed, quotations and deliveries may be made at the requested price, but final payment may not be made until a price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration. Such approvals may be made by letter or telegram.

SEC. 10. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government Contracts. See Procedural Regulation 6[2] for adjustment provisions on certain government contracts or subcontracts.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation 1[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 11. Records. All sellers of Western poles and piling products must keep records which will show a complete description of the item sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought $1,000 worth of Western Red Cedar poles and piling. These records must be kept for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for the duration of the Price Control Act or for two years, whichever is the shorter.

SEC. 12. Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by the regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury department, or any of their agencies.

(c) The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[4] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to the regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 13. Exports. The maximum price for export sales of Western Poles and piling is governed by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5]

SEC. 14. Maximum prices for poles and piling. (a) All maximum prices set forth below are f. o. b. cars at the railroad loading-out point or dumped, boomed, and rafted on towable waters nearest the point of production in the normal direction of delivery to the point of destination.

(b) Quantity discounts on poles. When the seller takes a firm order for poles, he must make discounts for quantity as follows:

	Percent
For 2000 to 4999 poles	2½
For 5000 poles or more	5

For purposes of this paragraph a "firm order" is one requiring shipment from time to time over a period of 12 months, as ordered by the buyer, with guarantee of payment of any poles not ordered shipped at the end of the 12-month period, and covering at least 5 lengths with 3 classes in each length. The maximum price for poles subject to this discount is the untreated price taken from Tables 1, 2, or 3 and the additions for treatment and services made according to section 5, excluding any addition for transportation.

1. To price any specification of pole other than American Standard Association, the seller shall determine the size A. S. A. pole of the same length having the same or nearest larger circumference 6' from the butt and this price is the tentative maximum price for the specification to be priced. The tentative price so determined and any price for other lengths or extras not specifically priced, such as roofing or framing, shall be submitted to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., as provided in section 9.

LENGTH SPECIFICATIONS

All additions allowed by the following footnotes must be shown separately on the invoice.

In all the specified length groups below, the lengths shall be evenly distributed.

2. For specified length groups, 5 or more consecutive lengths in A. S. A. multiples: No addition.

3. For specified length groups, of 4 consecutive lengths in A. S. A. multiples: add $.005 per lin. ft.

4. For specified length groups, of 3 consecutive lengths in A. S. A. multiples: add $.01 per lin. ft.

5. For specified length groups, of 2 consecutive lengths in A. S. A. multiples: add $.015 per lin. ft.

6. For random length orders when the purchaser specifies restricted loading, the seller may add ⅔ of the appropriate specified length addition above.

WINTER OR BARK STUCK PEELING

8. For clean peeled poles which are delivered during the winter peeling or bark stuck season (October 1 to February 28 or 29, inclusive): add $.02 per lin. ft.

9. For rough peeled poles which are delivered during the winter peeling or bark stuck season (October 1 to February 28 or 29, inclusive): add $.01 per lin. ft.

10. Butt treating. When fir poles are sold butt-treated, the seller may apply, in accordance with section 9, for authorization of an addition to the untreated fir pole price.

11. Less than carload sales. On orders to established concentration, distribution or treating plant yards for less-than-carload minimum weights as established by railroad tariffs and where the invoice value at maximum prices for the untreated poles or other round material does not exceed $175.00 on items 50 feet and shorter, or $250.00 where 50 percent of the items are more than 50 feet in length, the seller may add a service charge of not more than 25% of the total invoice value of the butt treated or untreated material not including transportation but including the treating additions provided in footnote 10 above. The transportation addition on "less-than-carload sales" must not exceed that permitted in section 4 for transportation from the point of origin to the concentration, distribution or treating plant yard from which the sale is made. The services charge may be made only on sales f. o. b. seller's yard, with transportation outbound for the buyer's account.

12. Cut back allowance. When requirements of the buyer exceed the available supply of the seller for one or more classes or lengths of poles for delivery required, the seller may cut back the most similar class pole in the five foot longer length and may charge the maximum price for the class and length pole actually used. The additions for transportation, treatment, processing, etc., on such cut back poles, shall be those additions applicable to the class and length pole ordered by the buyer, plus an addition for inbound freight computed at the difference in estimated weights times the freight rate to the concentration yard. No addition may be made for the labor included in such cutting-back operations. The seller shall keep a record of such sales and show this charge as a separate item on the invoice.

13. Inspection service. On shipments where the buyer requests special inspection service, furnished by an approved inspection agency, an addition may be made to cover the actual cost of such service. This charge must be shown separately on the invoice.

1. If a top diameter only is specified, or where the top diameter controls, the butt size shall be determined by adding 1 inch for each 10 feet or fraction thereof.

SPECIFICATIONS NOT COVERED

2. For all lengths butt or top specifications, and other extras not specifically priced, such as sniping and boring, price according to section 9.

UNPEELED PILING

3. For unpeeled piling, deduct: $0.025 per lin. ft.

LENGTH SPECIFICATIONS

Additions allowed by the following footnotes must be shown separately on the invoice.

Orders calling for specific quantities of any length are specified single length orders for that quantity. On all orders for specified length groups, the shipment must contain a distribution of lengths so that the average of the lengths actually shipped does not deviate from the average of the group ordered by more than 25 percent of the difference between the shortest and longest lengths in the group ordered.

4. For specified length groups of one size of 20' or more spread: No addition.

5. For specified length groups of one size of over 10' but less than 20' spread: add $0.005 per lin. ft.

6. For specified length groups of one size of over 5' but less than 11' spread for example, 48' to 58': add $0.01 per lin. ft.

7. For specified length groups of one size of not over 5' spread, for example, 64'–65'–66'–67'–68': add $0.02 per lin. ft.

8. For specified length groups of one size of not over 3' spread, for example, 79'–80'–81': add $0.025 per lin. ft.

9. For specified single lengths: add $.03 per lin. ft.

10. For random length orders where the purchaser specifies restricted loading the seller may add ⅓ of the proper specified length addition above.

WINTER OR BARK STUCK PEELING

11. For cleaned peeled piling which is delivered during the winter or bark stuck peeling season (October 1 to February 28 or 29, inclusive): add $0.02 per lin. ft.

12. For rough peeled piling which is delivered during the winter or bark stuck peeling season (October 1 to February 28 or 29, inclusive): add $0.01 per lin. ft.

13. Less than carload sales. On orders to established concentration, distribution or treating plant yards for less than carload minimum weight as established by railroad tariffs and where the invoice value at maximum prices for the untreated piling or other round material does not exceed $175.00 on items 50 feet and shorter or $250.00 where 50 percent of the items are more than 50 feet in length, the seller may add a service charge of not more than 25% of the total invoice value not including transportation. The transportation addition on "less than carload sales" must not exceed that permitted by section 4 for transportation from the point of origin to the concentration, distribution or treating plant yard from which the sale is made. The service charge may be made only on sales f. o. b. seller's yard, with transportation outbound for the buyer's account.

This regulation shall become effective September 11, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[MPR 556]

WESTERN RAILROAD TIES AND WOODEN MINE MATERIALS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation were, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION 556—WESTERN RAILROAD TIES AND WOODEN MINE MATERIALS

Sec.

1. Sales of Western railroad ties and mine material at higher than maximum prices prohibited.

AUTHORITY: Secs. 1 to 17, inclusive, (§1426.256) issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

SECTION 1. Sales of Western railroad ties and mine material at higher than

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after September 11, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Western railroad ties and mine material covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices, may, of course, be charged and paid.

(c) In any case where a maximum price having once been established in this regulation is reduced by subsequent amendment, sellers who have entered into firm contracts on the basis of the earlier ceilings may apply for special permission to complete shipment under such firm contracts without regard to the new ceiling, under the following rules and conditions:

(1) The permission, if granted, will allow completion of the contract within 60 days from the effective date of the action setting up the new ceilings.

(2) The existence of a "firm contract" must be shown by the seller's submitting a copy of formal contract or copies of written order and acceptance covering specific items, quantities, and prices.

(3) The application must show that the items covered by the contract were actually being produced and had not been shipped on the effective date of the amendment which changes the maximum price.

(4) The seller must state in his application, and the permission, if granted, will be so limited, that all prices shown in the contract will be adhered to, even though the maximum price on some items included therein may have been increased by the amendment.

(5) Applications must be sent to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. The Lumber Branch may grant or deny such applications by letter or telegram.

Note that the seller must apply for the special permission covered in this paragraph, and he may not go ahead on the basis of the contract prices unless and until he has received the authorization to do so.

SEC. 2. Products, species, and transactions covered. This regulation covers all sales and purchases of the Western railroad ties and mine material listed below when produced in the territory described, except as provided in paragraph (d) below.

(a) Products covered. (1) Western mine pit posts and stulls, whether peeled or unpeeled and whether processed or unprocessed, Western mine ties, timbers, blocks, cross bars, caps, lagging, and wedges, and any other wooden mine material.

(2) Western railroad cross ties and switch ties.

(b) Species covered. All species produced in the territory described below are covered. The price tables cover particular species as designated in each table; any species not listed in the price tables is nevertheless covered, and is to be priced according to section 11 as a special.

(c) Territory covered. Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming; Cimarron, Texas and Beaver Counties, Oklahoma; those counties in Texas west of the east line of Lipscomb, Hemphill, Wheeler, Collingsworth, Childress, Cottle, King, Stonewall, Fisher, Nolan, Coke, Tom Green, Schleicher, Sutton, Edwards, Kinney, and Maverick Counties. Material produced in Canada or Mexico is subject to this regulation when imported through ports of entry in the territory just described, maximum prices to apply f. o. b. cars at the port of entry.

(d) Excepted products and species. Sawn railroad ties of the Redwood species (Sequoia sempervirens) are not covered by this regulation but remain subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 253.[1] Railroad ties of Redwood species are subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 556 only when they are split or hewn. Sawn wooden mine materials of Redwood, Douglas fir, hemlock or true firs, produced in Canada, California, and in Oregon and Washington west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains are not subject to this regulation but to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 26[2] or Maximum Price Regulation No. 253.

SEC. 3. Basic maximum prices. The basic maximum prices for Western mine materials are set out in section 16 and for Western Railroad ties in section 17. Except as otherwise provided in footnotes to tables 5 and 8 these maximum prices are all f. o. b. the railroad loading-out point nearest the mill or point of production in the normal direction of delivery to the point of destination.

SEC. 4. Transportation addition. Except as otherwise provided in footnotes to Tables 5 and 8, the transportation charges set forth below may be added to the maximum f. o. b. railroad loading-out point prices when the seller makes delivery to the destination. Except when ties are sold f. o. b. mill as allowed by footnote to Tables 5 and 8 transportation from the mill or point of production to the railroad loading-out point must, in every instance, be provided on the seller's account. All additions for transportation must be shown separately on the invoice.

(a) Common or contract carrier. (1) When estimated weights are used, the appropriate published rate times the estimated weight is the proper transportation charge, even though the estimated weights may be higher than actual. Estimated weights higher than those set forth in the tables may not be used. The estimated weight must be taken from the tables, in Sections 16 or 17 for the exact type of product ordered. The charge for transportation shall be evened out to the nearest quarter-dollar per MBM, or quarter cent per lineal foot, whichever is applicable.

(2) When estimated weights are not used, the amount added for transportation must not be more than the amount actually paid to the common or contract carrier.

(b) Private truck. (1) When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the maximum permissible addition (on hauls involving any point outside of metropolitan areas) shall be computed as 5 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of not over 10 miles, 7 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of more than 10 but not over 20 miles, 9 cents per 100 pounds for hauls of more than 20 but not over 30 miles, and for each mile over 30 miles, two tenths of a cent per 100 pounds to be added to the 30-mile charge. No addition is allowed for the return trip.

(2) A "metropolitan area" includes all territory within 10 miles of the city limits of any city having a population of 250,000 or more according to the Census of 1940. On shipment by private truck entirely within a metropolitan area, the amount added for transportation may not be more than the published motor carrier rate for such haul times the estimated weight or other unit of measure used. If there is no published rate, then the actual cost of trucking may be added, that is, the seller's out-of-pocket expense in making delivery.

(c) Averaging-out. (1) When a single order, for which a single flat delivered price was quoted and accepted, is shipped from two or more railroad loading-out points to a single destination on varying freight rates, the seller may average out the transportation charges applying from the railroad loading-out point to the destination.

(2) In order that no single invoice shall appear to be false or over the ceiling, the seller must write on each invoice that the particular shipment is part of a larger order. Then, when shipment has been completed, he must render a final invoice which shows the individual prices, loading-out point, the amount shipped from each loading-out point, each destination, the freight charge for each shipment, and a reconciliation of the total amount so computed with the agreed delivered sale price and also with the maximum price permitted by this regulation.

SEC. 5. Treatment addition. (a) The maximum prices for Western railroad ties and mine material preservatively treated by pressure process are established by Maximum Price Regulation 491.

(b) The maximum price for Western railroad ties and mine material preservatively treated by non-pressure methods shall be the maximum price established by the General Maximum Price Regulation for each seller plus or minus an amount to cover any increased or decreased untreated cost resulting from the maximum prices established by this regulation. This amount shall be determined by each seller in the following manner:

Determine the difference between the highest untreated price f. o. b. loading-out point, paid in March 1942 by this seller of treated products and the maximum price established in this regulation for the same size, and grade of untreated product. If the buying price is increased by this regulation, add the difference to the seller's established price under the General Maximum Price Regulation for the treated product. If the buying price is decreased by this regulation, subtract the difference from the seller's established price under the General Maximum Price Regulation for the treated product. (If the seller of a treated product did not buy in March 1942, he should use his buying price in the first month prior to March 1942 in which he purchased the untreated product.)

SEC. 6. Tie contractors' addition. (a) In Table No. 5, a "tie contractors' addition" is provided. It applies to cross ties (not switch ties) produced in the fringe area (as defined in the following section) of Western pine and the associated species listed in Table 5. This may be made by all persons who have registered as tie contractors.

(b) Registered contractors. Any person who has been authorized to act as a tie contractor prior to August 1, 1944, must file a request for registration with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., before October 1, 1944.

(c) The Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., may by letter or telegram authorize any person not meeting these qualifications to act as a tie contractor upon presentation of proof that the granting of this authorization will supply a service needed by tie users by increasing production and availability of cross ties in the area covered by this regulation.

SEC. 7. Definitions of territories. (a) The term "north and west area" means the States of California, Idaho, Montana, and Nevada, and those parts of Oregon and Washington east of the crest of the Cascade Mountains; and Canada.

(b) The term "fringe area" means the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Arizona, and New Mexico; Cimarron, Texas, and Beaver Counties, Oklahoma; and those counties in Texas west of the east line of Lipscomb, Hemphill, Wheeler, Collingsworth, Childress, Cottle, King, Stonewall, Fisher, Nolan, Coke, Tom Green, Schleicher, Sutton, Edwards, Kinney, and Maverick Counties; and Mexico.

SEC. 8. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) Getting the effect of a higher price by changing credit practices or cash discounts from what they were on April 1, 1942. The cash and credit periods recognized by the seller on April 1, 1942, shall not be reduced.

(2) Refusing to sell on a loading-out point basis and insisting on selling on a delivered basis.

(3) Quoting a gross price above the maximum price, even if accompanied by a discount, the effect of which is to bring the net price below the maximum.

(4) Making the buyer take something he does not want in order to get what he does want.

SEC. 9. Purchasing commissions. It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring, buying, selling or locating Western railroad ties and mine material products, or for any related service (such as "expediting") which does not involve actual physical handling of those products, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer which is higher than the maximum price of the products. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any service charge or payment which is figured either directly or indirectly on the basis of the quantity, price or value of the products in connection with which the service is performed.

SEC. 10. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of shipment; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after shipment. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is necessary to promote distribution or production and it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 11. Special pricing. If a seller wishes to sell a specification of Western Railroad Ties and Wooden Mine Material not specifically priced in this regulation, or wishes to make changes for extras not specifically provided for, he shall apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a maximum price. He must provide the following information.

(a) The requested price;

(b) A complete description of the item for which price approval is desired:

(1) If a specification other than those provided by the regulation, he shall furnish a copy of the specification.

(2) If any other extra is to be priced, he shall furnish a description of the extra for which an addition is requested.

(c) The price differential between the item to be priced and the most comparable item priced in the regulation, which existed in October 1941 or the first month preceding October 1941 in which both items were sold. The differential should be developed from the seller's own records, or if that is not possible, from the experience of other buyers and sellers.

(d) If no price differential exists, a detailed analysis of the comparative costs of supplying the two items shall be furnished.

As soon as the request has been filed quotations and deliveries may be made at the requested price, but final payment may not be made until a price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration. Such approvals may be made by letter or telegram.

SEC. 12. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment. (a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6[1] for adjustment provisions on certain government contracts or sub-contracts.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 13. Records. All sellers of Western railroad ties and mine material must keep records which will show a complete description of the item sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of the sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought $400.00 worth of Western railroad ties and mine material. These records must be kept for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for the duration of the Price Control Act or for two years, whichever is the shorter.

SEC. 14. Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by the regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Navy Department, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

(c) The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[3] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

NOTE: For any size wedge not specifically priced above, a tentative maximum price of $40.00 per M'BM is established. The use of this maximum price is conditional on the filing of copies of the invoices showing a complete description of the odd sized wedge so priced within 15 days of the use of it. This tentative maximum price may be adjusted by the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, by letter or telegram, within 30 days after it is filed with that Branch. If not adjusted within that time, it shall become the maximum price for that seller.

SEC. 17. Maximum prices for railroad ties. All maximum prices set forth below except as provided in footnotes to Tables 5 and 8, are f. o. b. cars at the railroad loading-out point nearest the mill or point of production in the normal direction of delivery to the point of destination. These maximum prices do not include treatment.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[RMPR 165,[1] Supp. Service Reg. 33]

HAND LAUNDRIES IN WASHINGTON, D. C. AREA

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 33 has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* For the reasons set forth in that statement and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, Supplementary Service Regulation No. 33 is hereby issued.

§ 1499.2268 Hand laundries in the Washington, D. C. area—(a) Dollars-and-cents maximum prices established for hand laundry services sold by hand laundries in the Washington, D. C. area. (1) The maximum prices established by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, for hand laundry services sold by hand laundries in the Washington, D. C. area are hereby modified and henceforth shall be the prices set forth in Appendix A.

(2) Definitions. As used in this supplementary service regulation the term:

"Hand laundry" means a retail laundry establishment receiving and distributing laundry, generally finishing wearing apparel by hand ironing done on the premises, giving only limited, if any, delivery service and employing 10 or less employees.

"Washington, D. C. Area" means the District of Columbia, Arlington County, Virginia, and all that portion of Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties in Maryland, lying within a radius of seven miles of the AAA milestone, located at the rear of the White House, Washington, D. C.

"Shirts" as used in Appendix A means all shirts except the following:

Shirts made of silk, wool, rayon and other artificial fibers; gabardine shirts; full dress shirts.

The prices of shirts included within the above exceptions shall be the prices for these items which were filed by the individual laundry with the OPA. If no such prices have been filed, the maximum price to be charged for all shirts shall be the price established for shirts by Appendix A.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 9 F.R. 7439.

(3) Posting requirements. Within 30 days after the issuance of this supplementary service regulation, every hand laundry located in the Washington, D. C. area shall post on its premises in a place and manner so that it is plainly visible to the purchasing public, a placard or card setting forth the maximum prices established in Appendix A.

(4) Elimination of individual adjustments. On and after the effective date of this Supplementary Service Regulation the provisions of section 16 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 shall no longer be available to sellers covered by this regulation. On and after the effective date of this regulation, all surcharges and percentage surcharges made by hand laundries located in the Washington, D. C. area shall cease and all percentage adjustments granted by the Office of Price Administration to hand laundries located in the Washington, D. C. area are hereby revoked.

(5) Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

(6) Other services supplied by hand laundries. Laundry services not listed in Appendix A performed by hand laundries shall be governed by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14 to GMPR,[1] Amdt. 169]

MANUFACTURERS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S HANDBAGS, PURSES AND POCKETBOOKS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 3.14 is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) A manufacturer's sale is a sale of a handbag (other than to an ultimate consumer) by a person (i) who fabricated the handbag, or (ii) who sold or consigned to the fabricator any of the principal materials from which the handbag was fabricated, or (iii) who is, directly or indirectly, under the same ownership, control or management as a person described in (i) or (ii).

A manufacturer's sale also includes a sale by a person described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above to a department, establishment or business which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by (or which directly or indirectly owns or controls) such person.

2. In paragraph (b) a new sentence is added following the first sentence to read as follows:

Under this section, a handbag shall be deemed to have been "delivered" only at the time that physical possession was actually transferred to the purchaser or to any carrier (including a carrier owned or controlled by the seller) for delivery to the purchaser.

3. Paragraph (c) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Invoices. In connection with every sale of handbags, including sales for cash, you must deliver to the purchaser an invoice showing: (i) the date, (ii) your name and address, (iii) the name and address of the purchaser, (iv) terms of sale, (v) style number or other designation of each different style of handbag sold, (vi) category number or description of covering material of each style sold, (vii) the quantities of each different style of handbag sold, (viii) the price charged by you for each different style of handbag sold.

You must keep available, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, a duplicate copy of each invoice delivered.

4. Paragraph (h) is amended to read as follows:

(h) Commodities covered by this section. This section covers all women's and children's handbags, purses, and pocketbooks, except handbags fabricated according to military specifications for wear with uniforms and distributed under agreements restricting the sale of the handbags to persons authorized to wear such uniforms (such as bags fabricated especially for Wave's, Wacs, etc.).

CATEGORY NUMBER

1. Fur. When outside surface of the handbag is made of two principal materials (excluding frame and fittings), value of fur must be greater than value of the other principal component material; when outside surface of the handbag is made of three or more principal component materials, fur must be the material of greater value than any other single component material taken separately.

2. Alligator, crocodile and ostrich.

3. Reptile and aquatic leathers; Snake, lizard, frog, top grain seal, walrus, and shark.

4. All leathers other than those listed in categories 2 and 3, and patent cloth (hand japanned fabric processed exactly as patent leather is processed).

5. Corde, sequins, beads (other than wooden beads), hand embroidery, hand crochet and pure silk fabrics.

(a) "Corde" includes only handbags of which 70% of the outside surface is made of textile strings sewn together on a "Bonnas" type machine or on a hand loom.

(b) "Sequins", "beads" and "hand embroidery" includes only handbags of which 50% of the outside surface of the handbag is covered with sequins, beads or hand embroidery.

6. 100% wool broadcloth and 100% wool felt.

7. Textiles: Woven and knitted cotton, wool (except wool listed in category 6), rayon and other synthetic fibers.

8. All others: String, cord, cordette, plastic, metal, straw, grass, wood, imitation leather, etc.

Except where the materials listed in a category have been specifically defined, if the outside surface of a handbag is made of two or more principal component materials, the handbag is included in the category listing the material which constitutes 70% or more of the outside surface. If no principal material constitutes 70% or more of the outside surface, the handbag is included in the category listing the principal material or lower unit value. (Value is determined by a comparison of pieces of equal size of the materials involved).

5. In Paragraph (j) (1) the last sentence of the first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

However if a price line shown in the proper group is below the price line allowed under any of the exceptions to Rule 1 you may use the price line limit allowed by the exceptions.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of September 1944.

PART 1448—EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

[2d Rev. Restaurant MPR 7-1, Amdt. 3]

FOOD AND DRINK SOLD FOR IMMEDIATE CONSUMPTION IN DENVER REGION

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

2d Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 7-1 is amended in the following respects:

1. The second unnumbered paragraph in the preamble is amended to read as follows:

In the judgment of the Regional Administrator of Region VII, the prices of food and beverages sold for immediate consumption in the States of Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming, and all that portion of the State of Idaho lying south of the southern boundary of Idaho County, and all of Malheur County in the State of Oregon, and all of Mohave and Coconino Counties in the State of Arizona lying north of the Colorado River, have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328.

2. Section 9 Rules for new proprietors is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 9. Rules for new proprietors. (a) If you acquire another's business, or if after the seven-day period you did acquire another's business, and if you continue to operate an eating or drinking place at the same location, you are subject to the same ceiling prices and duties as the previous proprietor. If, however, you engage or plan to engage in a different type of operation than that of the previous proprietor, you may apply to your District Office of the Office of Price Administration for permission to price under paragraph (b) of this section. If your operation began before June 24, 1944, your application must be filed on or before July 13, 1944. Otherwise, your application must be filed not less than ten days before nor more than ten days after you commence operation. Your application for permission to price under paragraph (b) shall contain the following information:

(1) Your name and address and the name and address of your eating or drinking place.
(2) The name and address of the previous proprietor.
(3) The date when you acquired the business.
(4) The date when you commenced or plan to commence operation.
(5) A brief description of the type of operation by the previous proprietor.
(6)) A brief description of your type of operation.
(7) A list showing the meals and food items you will serve and the prices you propose to charge.
(8) The names and addresses of the two nearest eating or drinking places of the same type as yours.

If permission to price under paragraph (b) is granted to you, it may be subject to such conditions as the Office of Price Administration deems necessary. You may not price under paragraph (b) until permission is granted to you by your District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) If you open an eating or drinking place after the seven-day period, you must fix ceiling prices in line with the ceiling prices of the nearest eating or drinking place of the same type as yours. If the ceiling prices so fixed are too high and threaten to have an inflationary effect on the price of food or drink, the Office of Price Administration may issue an order requiring you to reduce your ceiling prices.

(c) You are subject to the record requirements of section 11 and the posting requirements of section 12 immediately upon the opening of your place of business.

3. A new section designated 9a is added, to read as follows:

SEC. 9a. Changing the location of your place of business or type of operation. If you change the location or the type of operation of your eating or drinking place or if, after the seven-day period, you did make such change or changes, you are subject to the same maximum prices and duties as formerly, irrespective of such change of location or type of operation. You may, however, apply to your District Office of the Office of Price Administration for permission to price in accordance with the method set forth in paragraph (b) of section 9 of this regulation. If you changed the location or changed the type of operation of your eating or drinking place before June 24, 1944, your application must be filed on or before July 13, 1944; otherwise, it must be filed not less than ten days before nor more than twenty days after the change is made. Your application for permission to price under paragraph (b) of section 9 shall contain the following information:

(1) Your name and address and the name and address of your eating or drinking place.
(2) The former name and address of your eating or drinking place if its location has been changed.
(3) A brief description of your former type of operation and of any change in type of operation which you have made or plan to make.
(4) The date when you changed or plan to change the location or type of operation of your eating or drinking place.
(5) A list showing the meals and food items you will serve and the prices you propose to charge.
(6) The names and addresses of the two nearest eating or drinking places of the same type as yours.

If permission to price under paragraph (b) of section 9 is granted to you, it may be subject to such conditions as the Office of Price Administration deems necessary. You may not price under paragraph (b) of section 9 until permission is granted to you by your District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

4. Section 15 Geographical applicability is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 15. Geographical applicability. This 2d Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 7–1 applies to the States of Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming, and all that portion of the State of Idaho lying south of the southern boundary of Idaho County, and all of Malheur County in the State of Oregon, and all that part of Mohave and Coconino Counties of the State of Arizona lying north of the Colorado River.

5. This amendment shall become effective June 24, 1944.

MILEAGE RATIONING: TIRE REGULATIONS FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 1E is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4.1 (a) (4) is added to read as follows:

(4) To replace a lost or stolen tire or tube.

2. Section 5.2 (a) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5.2 Certification by inspector prior to filing application—(a) Inspection of tires and tubes. No consumer may file an application for a tire or tube and no such application shall be considered, until an inspector authorized by the Office of Price Administration has currently inspected the tire or tubes to be replaced, and has executed and signed the "Certification by Inspector" contained in OPA Form R–1: Provided, however, That if application is made for a tire to be mounted on a passenger automobile or commercial motor vehicle, all tires mounted on such vehicle shall be inspected and their condition certified to by an authorized inspector.

3. Section 5.6 (a) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5.6 Action by certificate holders—(a) Use of certificate. A certificate may be used at any time within thirty (30) days by the person to whom it was issued for the purpose specified thereon.

4. Section 6.1 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 6.1 Prohibitions—(a) General prohibition. Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, regardless of when made, no person, unless permitted by this order, or by an order, authorization or regulation issued by the War Production Board, shall:

(1) Make or offer to make, accept or offer to accept, or solicit a transfer of any tire or new tube; or

(2) Use, alter or change the physical location of any tire or new tube; or

(3) Mount any tire or new tube upon a wheel or rim.

(b) Removal of tires by automobile dealer. (1) No automobile dealer shall remove a tire or new tube mounted on a passenger automobile which he holds for sale, except for repair or recapping or unless it is being removed:

(i) As part of the process of scrapping the vehicle; or

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

*Copies may be obtained from Office of Price Administration.

(1) Sales and deliveries of finished rice by wholesalers which shall be and remain subject to Maximum Price Regulation 421, and sales and deliveries by retailers which shall be and remain subject to Maximum Price Regulations 422 and 423.

(2) Sales and deliveries of bolted rice polish which shall be and remain subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(3) Sales and deliveries of sweet rice which shall be and remain subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(4) Sales and deliveries of wild rice.

(5) Any export sale of any finished rice or rice milling by-products. The maximum price for such sales shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[1]

(6) Sales and deliveries of finished rice and rice milling by-products, whenever circumstances of emergency make their purchase by the United States, or any of its agencies imperative and it is impossible to secure or unfair to require immediate delivery at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable. Such purchases and deliveries may be made pursuant to the provisions of section 4.3 (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended: Provided, however, That the Administrator may, by order, waive the reporting of any part of the information required by section 4.3 (f) in connection with a particular purchase or group of purchases upon determining that such information may not reasonably be required under all the circumstances, and he may, in lieu thereof, require the reporting of other information more suited to the circumstances.

SEC. 2. Sales at other than maximum prices. (a) Regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall, in the course of trade or business, buy or receive any of the commodities covered by this regulation at a price above the maximum price established by this regulation, nor shall any person agree, solicit, offer, or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, however, That this prohibition is subject to the exception provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(1) Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery, but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by an order of the Administrator or of any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices established by this regulation may be charged or paid.

SEC. 3. Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to finished rice or rice milling by-products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or an agreement requiring the buyer to sell any commodity in return, or other trade understanding or by any other means.

SEC. 4. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the license revocation or suspension provisions, civil enforcement actions, suits for damages, and criminal penalties, as provided in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 5. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[2] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) Every person shall keep for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect a complete record of each sale or purchase subject hereto showing the date thereof, the names and addresses of the buyer and seller, the price contracted for, paid or received, and the quantity and quality of the finished rice or rice milling by-products sold or purchased.[3]

(b) Upon demand every such seller shall submit such records to the Office of Price Administration and keep such further records as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.[4]

SEC. 7. Interpretations, protests and petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an interpretation or an amendment of, or desiring to file a protest against, any provisions of this regulation may do so in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, as amended,[5] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 8. Definitions. (a) As used in this regulation, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Finished rice" means milled rice, converted milled rice, unpolished rice and brown rice.

(2) "Converted milled rice" is rice which has been processed in the manner described in patent Nos. 2286486 and 2287737 registered in the United States Patent Office.

(3) "Milled rice," "second head milled rice", "screenings milled rice," "brewer's milled rice," "unpolished rice" and "brown rice" mean the rices defined as such in "The United States Standards for Milled Rice" published by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(5) "Rice hulls" mean the product consisting of the outer covering of the rice.

(6) "Rice bran" means the pericarp or bran layer of the rice with only such quantity of hull fragments as is unavoidable in the regular milling of rice.

(7) "Rice polishings" mean a by-product of rice obtained in the milling operation of brushing the grain to polish the kernel.

(8) "Bolted rice polish" means rice polishings which have been processed by being passed over a fine mesh screen to remove the bran and coarser particles.

(9) "Transportation cost" means:

(i) Where the carrier is not owned or controlled by the seller, the amount paid such carrier, not exceeding any applicable common or contract carrier rate for a like shipment nor any applicable maximum price for such service.

(ii) Where the carrier is owned or controlled by the seller, the reasonable value of the transportation in question not exceeding, if any, the common or contract carrier rate nor the maximum price for a like service if performed by a person other than the seller.

(10) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons or the legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any other Government or any political subdivision or agency of any of the foregoing.

(11) "Processor" means with respect to a particular lot of rice milling by-products a person who produced such lot.

(12) "Jobber" means with respect to a particular lot of rice milling by-products, a person who purchases such lot and resells the same without unloading into a warehouse.

(13) "Wholesaler" means with respect to a particular lot of rice milling by-products, a person who purchases such lot, unloads his purchase into a warehouse, and resells the same other than at retail.

(14) "Retailer" means with respect to a particular lot of rice milling by-products a person who purchases and resells the same to a feeder.

(15) "Importer" means with respect to a particular lot of finished rice or rice

Edith	7.00	6.50	6.00	8.10
Prelude	7.00	6.50	6.00	8.10
Calady	6.65	6.10	5.85	7.99
Blue Rose	6.50	6.10	5.85	8.15
Ark Rose	6.50	6.10	5.85	8.15
Southern Pearl	6.50	6.10	5.85	8.15
California Pearl	6.50	6.10	5.85	7.75
Lady Wright	6.50	6.10	5.75	8.00
Zenith	6.50	6.10	5.85	8.15
Early Prolific	6.20	5.70	5.40	7.60
Any other variety	6.20	5.70	5.40	7.60

*When converted milled rice is sold to any person other than the United States Government or any of its agencies the maximum price shall be the maximum price for milled rice.

(2) For finished rice not covered by subparagraph (1) above, the maximum price shall be as follows:

(i) For any lot of milled rice containing more than 4 percent broken kernels, either:

Class:	Maximum price
Second Heads—Rexoro, Nira and Fortuna	$6.00
Second Heads—any other variety	5.25
Screenings	4.50
Brewers	4.00

or (b) The figure obtained:

(1) By multiplying the percentage of whole kernel finished rice in the lot by $5.40 (or, at the option of the seller, by multiplying the percentage of each variety and kind of whole kernel rice in the lot by the maximum price for each such variety and kind respectively, as specified in subparagraph (1) above and totaling the results); and/or

(2) By multiplying the percentage of broken kernel finished rice in the lot by $4.00 (or, at the option of the seller, by multiplying the percentage of each class or kind of broken kernels in the lot by the maximum price for each such class or kind of broken kernels respectively, as specified in inferior subdivision (a) above and totaling the results); and

(3) By totaling the results of (1) and (2) if the lot contains both whole kernel finished rice and broken kernel finished rice.

(ii) For unpolished rice broken kernels, $4.75.

(iii) For brown rice broken kernels, $4.50.

(3) For finished rice which has been granulated the maximum prices shall be:

(i) Where the seller furnishes a certificate of a recognized grading service certifying to the variety or kind of finished rice in the lot before granulation, the maximum price for such variety or kind shall be as above set forth in this section plus an increase at the rate of 10 cents per 100 pounds.

(ii) Where no such certificate is furnished, $4.00 per 100 pounds.

(4) The maximum prices specified in subparagraphs (1) to (3) above, both inclusive, may be increased as indicated below for the sale or delivery of any finished rice which is processed in any one of the following cities or within the railroad switching limits thereof, f. o. b. such places:

City:	Amount of increase per 100 pounds
St. Louis, Mo	$0.25
Memphis, Tenn	.08
Baton Rouge, La	.10
New Orleans, La	.10
San Francisco, Calif	.09
Stockton, Calif	.05
Sacramento and West Sacramento, Calif	.03
Woodland and Merritt, Calif	.03
Biggs, Calif	.01
Dos Palos, Calif	.01

(5) The maximum prices specified in subparagraphs (1) to (4) above, both inclusive, shall be decreased at the rate of 15 cents per 100 pounds for the sale or delivery of finished rice in bulk or in 100 pound sacks or other containers furnished by the buyer.

(6) (i) The maximum prices specified in subparagraphs (1) to (4) above, both inclusive, may be increased for the sale or delivery of milled or unpolished rice in containers of less than 100 pounds furnished by the seller at the rate per 100 pounds as set forth in the following table:

Size of containers	Cartons or cellophane bags	Kraft bags or other containers
Up to and including 12 ozs	$1.65	$0.90
Over 12 ozs. up to and including 1 lb	1.50	.90
Over 1 pound up to and including 2 lbs	1.35	.90
Over 2 pounds up to and including 3 lbs	1.20	.90
Over 3 pounds up to and including 5 lbs	.65	.65
Over 5 pounds up to and including 10 lbs	.50	.50
Over 10 pounds up to and including 25 lbs	.15	.15
Over 25 pounds up to and including 50 lbs	.10	.10

Where containers of less than 100 pounds are furnished by the buyer, the seller shall determine the differential to be included in his maximum price by subtracting from the appropriate differential above the cost of the containers furnished by the buyer.

(ii) The maximum prices specified in subparagraph (1) above for the sale or delivery of brown rice containing not more than 4 percent broken kernels may be increased for the sale or delivery thereof in containers furnished by the seller at the following rates per 100 pounds:

Size of containers	Cartons or cellophane bags	Kraft bags or other containers
Up to and including 1 pound	$2.15	$1.55
Over 1 pound up to and including 2 pounds	2.00	1.55

Where such containers are furnished by the buyer, the seller shall determine the differential to be included in his maximum price by subtracting from the appropriate differential above the cost of the containers furnished by the buyer.

(iii) The maximum prices specified in subparagraph (1) above for the sale or delivery of brown rice containing not more than 4 per cent broken kernels may be increased for the sale or delivery thereof for packing and resale by the buyer in containers of 2 pounds or less at the rate of $.65 per 100 pounds: Provided, That within 10 days of each such sale the seller delivers to the district office of the district in which the sale is made or the appropriate regional office of the Office of Price Administration a copy of the invoice of the sale showing the quantity sold, the price paid and the name and address of the buyer and seller together with a verified certificate signed by the buyer and stating that he will use the rice in question for packing and resale in containers of 2 pounds or less.

(b) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of finished rice at any point other than the rice mill where processed in the case of domestic finished rice or the port of entry in the case of imported finished rice by any person subject to this regulation other than a primary distributor shall be the appropriate maximum price set forth in paragraph (a), above, plus the transportation cost actually incurred for the transportation of the finished rice from the rice mill where processed, or port of entry, as the case may be, to the buyer's receiving point.

(c) The maximum prices set forth in the foregoing subparagraphs of this section may be increased for storage charges, where storage is furnished by the seller, at the rate of ⅛ of one cent per 100 pounds for each day's delay in shipment beyond 30 days from the date of sale or beyond the delivery date or period specified in the contract of sale, whichever is later, where such delay is occasioned by the buyer's failure to furnish adequate shipping instructions within such time prior thereto as is reasonably sufficient to permit of shipment prior thereto.

SEC. 10. Maximum prices for the sale or delivery of finished rice by primary distributors. (a) "primary distributor" means, with respect to a particular lot of finished rice, a person who performs the following functions, and who performed the same prior to April 28, 1942: Receives delivery of finished rice, containing not more than 50 percent broken kernels, at a warehouse in carload quantities, unloads it into space in said warehouse not owned or controlled by his supplier or any of his customers and sells the same for his own account in quantities of 20,000 pounds or less at such point to wholesalers or for delivery to distributing warehouses of retailers: Provided, That in any given year, following the effective date of this regulation, his total volume of sales cannot exceed the total volume that he warehoused and sold, other than as a wholesaler, in quantities of 40,000 pounds or less during the period from April 28, 1941 to April 28, 1942; and Provided, further, That a miller may be a primary distributor of finished rice only if he unloads such rice at a warehouse located outside any city and the recognized switching limits thereof in which he owns or operates a rice mill.

(b) Any person making any sales as a primary distributor under this regulation must make application in writing within 30 days after the effective date hereof to the regional office of each region of the Office of Price Administration in which he does business as a primary distributor for permission to make sales as such, and he must receive a written approval of his application. Said application shall contain:

(1) The name and address of the applicant.

(2) The length of time he has been in the business of receiving finished rice in carload quantities on his own account and reselling the same in lots of 40,000 pounds or less to wholesalers or for delivery to distributing warehouses of retailers.

(3) The volume of sales made in lots of 40,000 pounds or less on his own account during the period from April 28, 1941 to April 28, 1942.

(4) The name and address of each warehouse from which he customarily distributes finished rice in lots of 40,000 pounds or less. If the seller is also a miller, he must give the name and address of his mill or mills, and the name and address of the warehouse or warehouses from which he will distribute finished rice in lots of 20,000 pounds or less.

Any regional office of the Office of Price Administration is hereby authorized to grant to sellers of finished rice in lots of 20,000 pounds or less, written permission to function as primary distributors upon the receipt of an application provided for in this paragraph.

(c) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of finished rice by a primary distributor shall be the maximum price for the sale or delivery of finished rice as specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 10 plus an addition at the rate of 15 cents per 100 pounds, plus the inbound and outbound transportation costs actually incurred by the primary distributor.

SEC. 11. Contents of invoice covering the sale or delivery of finished rice and rice milling by-products. (a) At or prior to the time of delivery, every seller of finished rice subject to this regulation shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice covering the finished rice in question. This invoice must bear the same lot number or other mark of identification as the lot in question. The invoice shall set forth and warrant to the purchaser and every subsequent transferee:

(1) That the finished rice in question; is milled rice, unpolished rice, brown rice or mixed milled rice as the case may be.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph;

(i) The minimum percentage of whole kernel finished rice of all varieties in the lot;

(ii) The variety and minimum percentage of whole kernel finished rice of the predominant variety in the lot;

(iii) The variety and the maximum percentage of whole kernel finished rice of every other variety in the lot;

(iv) The variety and the maximum percentage of each variety of second head finished rice in the lot;

(v) The maximum percentage of screenings finished rice in the lot; and

(vi) The maximum percentage of brewers finished rice in the lot.

(3) To the extent that the maximum price is calculated by multiplying the percentage of whole kernel finished rice in the lot by $6.20 and/or by multiplying the percentage of broken kernel finished rice in the lot by $4.00, the invoice need set forth only the percentage of whole kernel finished rice and/or of broken kernel finished rice in the lot.

(b) At or prior to the time of delivery, every seller of rice milling by-products subject to this regulation shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice covering the rice-milling by-products in question. This invoice must bear the same lot number or other mark of identification as the lot in question.

SEC. 12. Maximum price for the sale or delivery of rice milling by-products. (a) The maximum price for the sale or delivery by a processor of rice hulls, rice bran or rice polishings, sacked, shall be as follows:

(1) For all sales except sales to a feeder in quantities of 20,000 pounds or less:

(i) $10.00 per ton for rice hulls, plus his transportation cost.

(ii) $30.00 per ton for rice bran plus his transportation cost.

(iii) $38.00 per ton for rice polishings plus his transportation cost.

(2) For sales to a feeder in quantities of 20,000 pounds the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) above may be increased at the rate of $2.00 per ton.

(b) The maximum price of an importer shall be the maximum price of a processor, f. o. b. a mill, as if located at the port of entry, plus transportation cost from the port of entry to the buyer's receiving point.

(c) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of rice milling by-products, sacked, by a jobber shall be the applicable maximum price of the processor or importer from whom the rice milling by-products in question were purchased, plus the applicable markup below:

(1) $1.00 per ton for sales in quantities of 20,000 pounds or less; or

(2) 50 cents per ton for all other sales.

(d) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of rice hulls, sacked, by a wholesaler shall be $2.00 per ton maximum markup over the maximum price of the processor, importer or jobber, as the case may be, from whom the rice hulls in question were purchased plus his transportation cost.

(e) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of rice bran or rice polishings, sacked, by a wholesaler shall be $2.50 per ton maximum markup over the maximum price of the processor, importer or jobber, as the case may be, from whom the rice bran or rice polishings in question were purchased plus his transportation cost.

(f) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of rice hulls, sacked, by a retailer shall be $3.00 per ton maximum markup over the maximum price of the processor, importer, jobber or wholesaler, as the case may be, from whom the rice hulls in question were purchased plus his transportation cost.

(g) The maximum price for the sale or delivery of rice bran or rice polishings, sacked, by a retailer shall be $4.00 per ton maximum markup over the maximum price of the processor, importer, jobber or wholesaler, as the case may be, from whom the rice bran or rice polishings in question were purchased plus his transportation cost.

(h) When a given lot of rice milling by-products is sold by more than one member of the same class, as set forth above, the maximum aggregate markup of all such sellers in the same class shall not exceed the maximum markup of a single handler in such class.

(i) The maximum prices for the sale or delivery of rice hulls, rice bran and rice polishings, unsacked, or in buyer's sacks, shall be the maximum prices hereinbefore in this section set forth less the customary differential, applying to sales unsacked or in buyer's sacks, in relation to sales sacked by a like class of seller during March 1942.

SEC. 13. Maximum prices for sales not specifically provided for in this regulation. The maximum price for the sale of finished rice or rice milling by-products by any person not otherwise specifically provided for in this regulation shall be the maximum purchase price which he could lawfully have paid his supplier for the lot in question, plus his transportation cost.

SEC. 14. Toll-milling. (a) "Toll-milling" or "custom milling" is the practice by which an owner of rough rice arranges to have his rough rice milled by another and pays a fee for the milling.

(b) Any person who rendered the service of toll-milling during the base period from April 1, 1941 to April 1, 1942, upon presenting evidence of this fact (stating specifically the quantity of rough rice toll-milled by him during the base period) to and registering with the nearest District office of the Office of Price Administration, may (in any given year following the effective date of this regulation) toll-mill the same quantity of rough rice he toll-milled during the base period. All other persons are prohibited from rendering the service of toll-milling after the effective date of this regulation.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting provisions of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

NOTES

1. All crates are priced unitized but knocked down, unless otherwise specified.

2. All dimensions on crates are inside, unless otherwise specified.

3. For all stock and customers printing add ¼¢ per impression; die charge extra for customer's account.

4. All berry crates are priced complete with cups and dividers.

5. All berry crates sold without cups or dividers, deduct 4¢ per crate and ceiling price of cups.

6. For dyed cleats add ½¢ per crate.

7. For curved sides on 1⅗ bushel nail type citrus crates, add 1½¢ per crate.

8. For curved sides on ⅘ bushel nail type citrus crates, and lugs, add 1¢ per crate.

9. For all nail type celery crates with 22" x 10" head frames, add 2¢ per crate.

10. For making up crates (except those priced made up) add 2¢ per crate.

11. All parts are complete or unitized, not sets.

12. In 1⅗ bu. wirebound citrus boxes when 4 solid fiber slats are substituted for 4 veneer slats in the blank only an addition of $3.50 per hundred may be made to the basic maximum price.

13. In 1⅗ bu. wirebound citrus boxes when 4 solid fiber slats in the blank and 1 in each end panel are substituted for veneer slats, an addition of $4.50 per hundred may be made to the basic maximum price.

14. In 1⅗ bu. wirebound citrus boxes when 4 corrugated slats are substituted for 4 veneer slats in the blank only an addition of $2.00 per hundred may be made to the basic maximum price.

15. In 1⅗ bu. wirebound citrus boxes when 4 corrugated slats in the blank and 1 in each end panel are substituted for veneer slats an addition of $2.50 per hundred may be made to the basic maximum price.

3. Section 4 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Overtime operations. Any manufacturer whose operations during any one week exceed 40 hours may reflect the increased cost of such operations on deliveries during the succeeding week by adding to the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price as follows: (1) 2% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price for the first full 4 hour period of overtime operations; (2) 1% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price for each full 2 hour period of overtime operations in excess of 44 hours per week.

The amount of the overtime addition is to be calculated in the following manner:

(1) Divide the total number of regular man hours worked during the week in the entire agricultural package production operation into the number of overtime hours worked during the same week in the entire agricultural package operation to establish a percentage.

(2) Apply the percentage obtained as outlined above to 40 hours to determine the number of overtime hours for which addition may be made.

Examples. A mill operated a total of 4200 man hours on regular time and 200 man hours on overtime. Dividing 4200 into 200, the result is 4.8%. (Step (1) above). Applying 4.8% to 40 hours, the result is 1.92 hours overtime. (Step (2) above). Since the overtime was not a full 4 hours no addition may be made. If, however, the regular man hours were 4200 and the overtime man hours were 960, the percentage would be 22.9. Applied to 40 hours, the result is 9.2 hours or a full 4 hour and two full 2 hour periods for which overtime addition may be made. The permissible addition in this case is 4% of the basic maximum f. o. b. factory price.

4. Section 5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) The seller's average percentage mark-up weighted by volume, over the f. o. b. factory price on all sales of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers during 1941.

5. In section 6 (c) the first sentence is amended to read as follows:

(c) The seller's average percentage mark-up, weighted by volume, over the f. o. b. factory price on all sales of Eastern and Central wooden agricultural containers during 1941.

6. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 10. Prohibited practices. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher than ceiling price without actually raising the dollars and cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, typing agreements, trade understandings, changes in discount practices and the like.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1418—TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

[MPR 395,[1] Amdt. 33]

MAXIMUM PRICES IN THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 9a is added to read as follows:

SEC. 9a. Inability to determine maximum price. If the maximum price at retail or wholesale cannot be determined by the seller in accordance with the applicable pricing method established in Article IV of this Maximum Price Regulation 395 for his commodity, such seller shall apply to the Territorial Director for the Virgin Islands for the authorization of a maximum price. The Territorial Director may authorize and establish a maximum price for such commodity in line with the maximum prices of other similar sellers of the same or similar commodity.

This amendment shall become effective as of August 19, 1944.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter I—National Park Service

PART 2—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

PART 20—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Paragraph (a) of § 2.4 Fishing, is amended by deleting "Olympic,".

The amendment to § 2.14 Mountain summit climbing, issued on May 19, 1943 (7 F.R. 2906, 8 F.R. 7283), is changed by deleting "(a)" and "(b)", and substituting therefor "(d)" and "(e)".

Paragraph (b) of § 2.17 Pack trains and saddle horse parties is amended by inserting "Rocky Mountain", immediately following "Kings Canyon,".

Paragraph (e) of § 2.32 Private lands, is amended by inserting "Olympic," immediately following "Glacier,".

Paragraph (e) of § 2.40 Permits, is rescinded.

Paragraph (b) of § 20.11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.11 Lassen Volcanic National Park * * *

(b) Fishing; limit of catch and in possession. The limit of catch and in possession per person per day shall be 10 fish, or 10 pounds of fish and 1 fish, in all waters except Mazanita Lake and Reflection Lake, where the daily limit of catch shall be 5 fish, or 5 pounds of fish and 1 fish. All fish caught, regardless of size, shall be retained.

Section 20.30 is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.30 Fort Jefferson National Monument, fishing. (a) No coral, shells, sea fans, or other forms of marine life found in the water, whether alive or dead, except fish, crayfish, and the common species of conch known as giant stromb (Strombus gigas), shall be taken or disturbed. Dead shells found above the low tide line on Loggerhead Key and Garden Key may be taken by visitors. Dead shells found above the low tide line on other keys shall not be taken without a permit from the Custodian. Dead shells occupied by hermit crabs shall not be taken or disturbed.

(b) Sea turtles, or the eggs thereof, whether on land or in the water, shall not be taken or disturbed.

(c) (1) Salt water crayfish (Panulirus argus), known locally as "crawfish", "Florida Lobster", or "Caribbean Spiny Lobster", shall not be caught or taken between March 21 and July 21, inclusive.

(2) Salt water crayfish caught or taken measuring less than 12 inches from tip of head to tip of tail, exclusive of "feelers", shall be immediately returned to the water alive unless seriously injured. Those retained because seriously injured shall be counted in the day's catch and shall be surrendered to the Custodian or his representative.

(d) The limit per person per day is 2 crayfish, including those retained because seriously injured, except that the total for any vessel having more than 12 persons aboard shall not exceed twenty-five.

(e) The taking or catching of crayfish for commercial purposes is prohibited.

(f) No conchs known as the giant stromb (Strombus gigas) shall be caught or taken except for food or for bait. The shells of conchs caught or taken for such purposes may be retained for non-commercial purposes.

(g) The limit per person per day is 2 conchs, except that the total for any vessel having more than 12 persons aboard shall not exceed twenty-five.

(h) Commercial fishing is permitted with drop lines, except within one-half mile of Garden Key, Bush Key, or Long Key, in conformity with the laws and regulations of the State of Florida.

(i) Nets may be used for collecting bait for commercial or sport fishing. Possession at any time of more than one day's supply of bait so taken is prohibited. No bait shall be taken for the purpose of sale.

(j) No underwater marine life shall be disturbed or taken from the moat or from the shoal waters surrounding Garden Key and Bush Key, or from the shoal waters of Long Key north of the 5-foot channel, where depths of water at mean low tide are less than 15 feet. The possession of fishing tackle, nets, spears, or gigs within such areas shall be prima facie evidence that the person or persons possessing the same are guilty of unlawful fishing in such waters: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to prohibit sport fishing in the deep water channels or from any pier within the area. (39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C. 3)

Issued this 28th day of August 1944.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 36—REGULATIONS UNDER SERVICEMEN'S READJUSTMENT ACT OF 1944

READJUSTMENT ALLOWANCES FOR FORMER MEMBERS OF ARMED FORCES WHO ARE UNEMPLOYED

The following regulations govern the operations of State Cooperating Agencies and others concerned with the Administration of Title V of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944:

Sec.
36.501 Definitions.
36.502 Starting date of readjustment allowance payment.
36.503 Applications for allowances.
36.504 Determination of entitlement.
36.505 Registration for work and reporting unemployment.
36.506 Use of agency's type of week.
36.507 Time and frequency of allowance payments.
36.508 Required content of agency records.
36.509 Required content of claims for total unemployment.
36.510 Allowance checks—repayments, etc.
36.511 Partial unemployment claims.
36.512 Transfer of claims between agencies.
36.513 Allowances during periods of illness or of disability.
36.514 Allowances to the self-employed.
36.515 Payment of claim after death.
36.516 Agency application of disqualifications.
36.517 Additional disqualification.
36.518 Determinations and appeals with respect to unemployment.
36.519 Prosecutions and penalties.
36.520 Force of instructions on forms.
36.521 Statistical reports.
36.522 Individual reports.

AUTHORITY: §§ 36.501 to 36.522, inclusive, issued under 58 Stat. 248.

(b) "Administrator" means the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs.

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 8 F.R. 6621, 8673, 9996, 11438, 12661, 13345, 14144, 15865, 17052, 16298, 16793; 9 F.R. 1398.

(c) "Agency" means any agency administering a State Unemployment Compensation Law or the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, which has entered into an agreement with the Administrator to assist him in the payment of allowances.

(d) "Allowance" means the readjustment allowance payable under the act.

(e) "Employment office" means a public employment office which is utilized by the agency in administering its unemployment compensation law, and also means any facility designated as an employment office for the purposes of the Act by the Railroad Retirement Board.

(f) "Agent" means the readjustment allowance agent appointed by the Administrator under section 1100 (a) of the act, as his representative assigned to a given agency.

(g) "Value of remuneration other than cash," as used in this act, shall be determined by the agency pursuant to its rules and regulations as to such valuation under its unemployment compensation law.

§ 36.502 Starting date of readjustment allowance payment. (a) With respect to agencies paying benefits on a flexible week basis, allowances for unemployment are first payable for the week starting Monday, September 4, 1944. With respect to agencies then paying benefits on a calendar week basis, (i. e. the week beginning Sunday) the first week for which allowances may be paid starts September 10, 1944.

(b) Allowances for the self-employed are first payable for the month of October 1944.

(c) The allowances will be in the amount authorized in Chapter IX of the act.

§ 36.503 Applications for allowances. (a) The veteran's initial application shall be made through local offices or facilities of any agency for a form supplied by the Administrator. Applications may be made by mail pursuant to agency regulations and procedures.

(b) The veteran shall present his discharge or separation paper at the time of making his application whether such application is made in person or by mail.

(c) The agency may require any veteran who files an application and has no social security account number to secure such a number.

§ 36.504 Determination of entitlement. (a) When a veteran's discharge or separation paper specifies that the discharge or separation was "honorable" or "dishonorable", the agency shall immediately determine his entitlement and enter its determination on the application form. A veteran's discharge or separation paper may have one of the following titles:

Honorable discharge.
Certificate of active service.
Certificate of service.
Certificate of discharge.
Discharge.
Certificate of unfavorable discharge.
Bad conduct discharge.
Dishonorable discharge.

When the veteran asserts that he has lost his paper; when the paper does not specify whether his discharge or separation was honorable or dishonorable; or when the facts stated in the paper are inconclusive, incomplete or in dispute; his application shall be cleared with the Veterans' Administration through the agent.

(b) The agency shall determine the maximum number of weekly allowances to which the veteran is entitled.

(c) In determining the maximum number of weekly allowances potentially payable to the veteran, the agency shall, under section 900 (b), count "each calendar month or major fraction thereof of active service." For the purpose of such determination the term "calendar month" means the month starting with the date of the veteran's entry upon active service, and each such corresponding month ensuing consecutively thereafter: (i. e.; the first "calendar month" starts on the beginning date of active service and ends on the day preceding the same date in the succeeding month; Provided however, That if the succeeding month does not include enough days to have a corresponding date, his first "calendar month" will end at the close of such succeeding month. The second "calendar month" starts immediately after the end of the first "calendar month" and its termination is likewise determined, and so on with beginning and ending dates similarly determined.) When a fraction of such a month had elapsed on the veteran's discharge date, any balance of days remaining after the determination of calendar months as herein above described shall be treated as a "major fraction" if it includes 16 days or more.

(d) The period of active service is stated on some types of discharge or separation papers. All of the period between the veteran's entry upon active service and his discharge is active service. When the discharge does not show the date of entry into active service but does show the date of induction (or date of enlistment) the latter shall be accepted as date of entry into active service except as modified by other remarks on the reverse of the discharge paper.

(e) When a veteran files his first application for allowances the back of the veteran's discharge or separation paper shall be stamped or endorsed in ink with the following: "Application for Readjustment Allowances made through (name of agency) on (date)."

§ 36.505 Registration for work and reporting unemployment. (a) Unemployed veterans shall be registered for work in accordance with the employment office regulations, policies and procedures applicable to claimants under the Unemployment Compensation Law of the agency.

(b) Unemployed veterans shall report their unemployment at such times and in such manner as is required by the agency for claimants under its Unemployment Compensation Law.

(c) No unemployed veteran shall be eligible to receive an allowance for any week in which he was not so registered or with respect to which he did not so report: Provided, That such failure to be registered or to report may be waived by the agency on the same basis as would justify such a waiver as to its unemployment compensation claimants. Registration may be waived in case of illness, as provided in § 36.513.

§ 36.506 Use of agency's type of week. Claims for allowances filed by unemployed veterans with a given agency shall be based on the weekly time unit which currently applies to claimants under the agency's Unemployment Compensation Law: Provided, That any agency which applies other than a weekly time unit to unemployment compensation claimants shall adopt suitable procedures to provide for a weekly basis for allowances to unemployed veterans.

§ 36.507 Time and frequency of allowance payments. Allowances shall be paid at the intervals prescribed for unemployment compensation payments by the law or regulations of the agency.

§ 36.508 Required content of agency records. (a) Each agency shall maintain files containing all correspondence and other papers relating to individual veteran's claims, and such files shall be readily accessible to the agent, or other authorized representative of the Administrator.

(b) Each agency shall maintain a separate record for each veteran whose application is allowed. This record shall be maintained in such manner as will facilitate a prompt compilation of required statistical data and shall contain at least the following information:

(1) The veteran's name.
(2) His last service serial number, and branch of service.
(3) The date and place of the veteran's birth.
(4) The maximum number of weekly allowances to which the veteran was originally entitled.
(5) Number of weekly allowances paid, and total amount of weekly allowances paid during each consecutive period of unemployment.
(6) Number of monthly payments made to the self-employed and allowances weeks charged.
(7) Disqualifications imposed (current or past) and weeks involved.
(8) Record of transfer to or from another agency.

§ 36.509 Required content of claims for total unemployment. (a) The initial, or additional first claim (i. e. the first claim taken after an intervening period of employment) filed by a veteran during any period of total unemployment shall contain a signed statement covering at least the following information:

(1) Residence.
(2) Ability and availability for work.
(3) Registration for work.
(4) Name of last employer.
(5) Reason for separation from last employer.

(6) Recent refusal of job offer to job referral.
(7) Recent failure to attend a free training course.

(b) Continued claims shall contain a signed statement covering at least the following information with respect to the week for which allowance is claimed:

(1) Ability and availability for work.
(2) Registration for work.
(3) Refusal of job offer or referral.
(4) Failure to attend free training courses.
(5) Wages earned.
(6) Benefits, received or accrued under other programs, which are deductible from allowances.

§ 36.510 Allowance checks; repayments, etc. (a) Each agency shall supply its checks or other forms for payment of allowances in such form as is best suited to its own procedures and equipment: Provided, That the face of each such check (or order for payment) shall bear the following statement: "In payment for readjustment allowances under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944."

(b) Repayment to the agency of the amount of readjustment allowances paid veterans will be made promptly following receipt of certified voucher (Standard Form 1034) by the agent. Form 1034 will show the designation of the fund to be credited, the total amount to be repaid, the period covered, etc., and will be supported by a schedule or list of the individual items totaling the amount of the repayment claimed. This supporting schedule or list will contain the name of each veteran paid, his service serial number and the amount paid, and may be in the form of a copy of the check (or warrant) register or some similar product of the agency's accounting system.

(c) The amount of canceled checks and collections on account of items for which repayment had been made to the agency will be shown as a deduction from the amount stated on a subsequent Form 1034 and there will be attached a list of the checks canceled and the collections made.

(d) The agency will establish and maintain a separate depositary (banking) account for benefit payments under Title V of the act and following each reconciliation of the account will furnish the agent a summary statement showing the balance at the beginning and end of the period, the total charges and total credits during the period, and the total of the checks outstanding at the end of the period.

§ 36.511 Partial unemployment claims. (a) Each agency whose law provides for partial unemployment benefits shall take and pay veteran's claims for weeks of partial unemployment in a manner consistent with its methods under its unemployment compensation law.

(b) Any agency whose unemployment compensation law does not provide for the payment of partial unemployment benefits, shall provide for payment of veteran's partial unemployment benefits by adopting and putting into effect procedures which are insofar as practicable consistent with those of other agencies.

(c) Each agency's claim-form for veterans' claims for weeks of partial unemployment shall contain a signed statement by the veteran covering the following information with respect to the week covered by the claim:

(1) Items 1, 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 listed in § 36.509 (a).
(2) Wages payable (i. e. earned).
(3) That work was for less than a full work week.
(4) Reason for less than a full work week.

§ 36.512 Transfer of claims between agencies. (a) When a veteran, who has been receiving allowances through a given agency, transfers to the jurisdiction of another agency, he may continue his claims against the original agency under the interstate benefit payment plan (or, by direct mail with the consent of the original agency), or, at his option, he may request the new agency to have his allowance record transferred so that the new agency may pay his allowances.

(b) The form used by each agency for transferring a veteran's allowance record under paragraph (a) of this section shall contain the same minimum information specified under § 36.508 (b).

§ 36.513 Allowances during periods of illness or of disability. (a) Under the provisions of section 700 (b) (4) of the act, a period of continuous unemployment will be deemed to start on the effective date of the veteran's first claim for allowances during the period of continuous unemployment.

(b) Each agency shall initially, if practicable, secure evidence of the veteran's illness or disability through a certificate of his attending physician. The veteran's signed statement or other suitable evidence shall be obtained.

(c) So far as practicable, the agency shall assist the veteran in reporting weekly his continued unemployment, due to his illness or disability, by mail or through his designated representative.

(d) The first claim for allowance filed by a veteran for a period of illness or disability shall bear a signed statement by the veteran that he is unable to work and shall specify the nature of his illness or disability. Such claims shall also provide space for a physician's certification to the same effect, or for an explanation as to why such a certification could not practicably be secured.

(e) Continued claims for allowances filed by a veteran for a period of illness or disability under this regulation shall bear a signed statement by the veteran that he was unable to work throughout the week or weeks in question.

§ 36.514 Allowances to the self-employed. (a) Each agency shall determine whether a veteran is engaged in self-employment, consistently with the definition of the employment relationship provided in its unemployment compensation law.

(b) A veteran shall be treated as having been fully engaged in self-employment during a given calendar month only if, throughout that month, he was engaged in his self-employment to the exclusion of any services in an employment relationship. For the purposes of this paragraph calendar month means one of the given twelve months of the calendar year.

(c) A veteran's net earnings from his self-employment include total income from self-employment less expenses incurred in securing such income. Personal or family expenditures shall not be deductible as expenses.

(d) Each self-employed individual shall maintain such records as are necessary for a determination of his net earnings. Such records shall reflect income received and expenses paid, and shall be open to inspection or audit by an authorized agency representative, or of the Veterans Administration.

(e) Veterans' claims for allowances for months of self-employment shall be filed at a local office of the agency, or by mail on forms prescribed by the Administrator.

(f) Such claims shall be cleared through agency records, and the agency shall enter from the veteran's record, the maximum number of weeks of allowance which may be paid for the month in question. At the time of making such entry on the claim, the agency shall charge the claimant's record with payment of a monthly allowance (which shall be charged as the equivalent of 5 weekly allowances), subject to reversal of the charge, if the claim is subsequently disallowed.

(g) The agency shall deliver the claim, thus endorsed as to entitlement, to the agent, who shall examine the claim and either, disallow it, request further specified facts from the agency, or allow it and determine the veteran's net earnings and allowance payable for the month in question.

(h) If the agent disallows the claim, he shall so inform the agency. If he allows the claim, he shall secure payment thereof by appropriate notification to the nearest Treasury Disbursing Office.

(i) The agent's determination as to such claim shall be subject to review within the time set by the agency's law and regulations for the filing of appeals from initial determinations. The agent shall, when an application for review has been filed, conduct a recorded hearing and based upon the record, issue his decision in accordance with the provisions of § 36.518 (c).

§ 36.515 Payment of claim after death. (a) In case a veteran dies, and at the time of his death there is due and payable to his readjustment allowances, the amount thereof shall, upon claim therefor, be certified to the agent. The agent shall forward such certification to the Dependents Claims Service, Veterans' Administration, Washington, D. C., for adjudication. The amount of such allowances shall be awarded under the provisions of § 5.2660 (a) and (c) of this chapter to the surviving spouse, or if there be no surviving spouse, to the child, or children, dependent mother or father, in the order named. In all other cases only so much of the unpaid allowances may be paid as may be necessary to reimburse a person who bore the expense of last illness and burial; Provided, That no part of the allowances due the deceased veteran shall be used to reimburse any political subdivision of the United States, or of any State, for expenses incurred in the veteran's last sickness or burial.

§ 35.516 Agency application of disqualifications. Each agency shall take appropriate steps consistent with its established administrative policies, procedures, and precedent (disregarding the provision "attributable to the employer"), to enforce and apply the disqualifications provided in the act. Each agency shall interpret and apply such disqualifications so far as practicable consistently with decisions of the agent on second appeal, and with decisions of the Administrator on final review.

§ 36.517 Additional disqualifications. Pursuant to section 800 (c) (2) of the act, the Administrator hereby prescribes that each agency may apply the following additional disqualifications. In the case of successive (consecutive) disqualifications and the assessing of additional disqualifications (except as determined by the Administrator upon referral by the agency) the aggregate number of weeks to be assessed by the agency shall not exceed thirteen (13).

§ 36.518 Determinations and appeals with respect to unemployment. (a) Each determination of the agency with respect to a veteran's application or claim shall be in writing and shall bear a clear statement of his right to appeal.

(b) Such determination shall be final unless within the time set by the agency's law and regulations for the filing of appeals from initial determinations an appeal is taken therefrom. Except as provided in §§ 36.501 to 36.522, inclusive, such appeal shall be heard and decided by the same referee or tribunal which would hear and decide the appeal if it had arisen under the law of the agency. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the agency's law and regulations, in the same manner as are appeals from the agency's unemployment compensation benefit determinations.

(c) Each decision of such referee or tribunal shall contain: the name of the agency whose determination is appealed; the name, most recent serial number, and last known address of the claimant; a complete statement of the case; findings of fact; conclusions of law; and the decision. Such decision shall be signed and dated.

(d) Unless an appeal is heard and decided by the referee or tribunal within thirty days after the date upon which the appeal was filed with the agency the claimant may make written application to the agent to have such appeal transferred to, and heard and decided by the agent. Upon receiving such application the agent may, if after consultation with the agency, he finds that such delay was unreasonable, order the appeal transferred to him for hearing and decision.

(e) The claimant shall be promptly notified of the referee's or tribunal's decision and such decision shall be final unless within thirty days after the date of mailing of notice to the claimant's last known address or in the absence of such mailing within thirty days after the delivery of such notice a written appeal pursuant to section 1102 of the Act is filed with the agency, the referee or tribunal, or the agent.

(f) When such appeal is filed the record shall be transmitted to the agent. Upon such agent's request he shall be furnished with a transcript of the hearing on appeal.

(g) Interstate appeal proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the law and regulations of the agency conducting the hearing and appeal.

(h) The phrase in section 1103 of the act, "the appellate procedures being subject to final appeal to the Administrator" is hereby construed to mean "the appellate proceeding and the decision being subject to final appeal to the Administrator".

(i) For the purpose of §§ 36.501 to 36.522, inclusive, the veteran shall be deemed to be the only interested party, other than the United States, except that in cases involving a strike, lock-out or other labor dispute the employer shall be deemed to be an interested party.

(j) Any appeal to the Administrator from the decision of the agent must be made in writing within sixty (60) days from the date of mailing of notice of decision to last known address of the veteran.

§ 36.519 Prosecutions and penalties. In case an agency discovers an apparent violation of the act, subject to penalty under section 1300 or 1301, the agency shall report the relevant facts to the agent, who will be responsible for further proceedings.

§ 36.520 Force of instructions on forms. The Administrator's instructions appearing on forms supplied by him under §§ 36.501 to 36.522, inclusive, shall have the same force and effect as if they were set out in full in this instruction.

§ 36.521 Statistical reports. Each agency shall report to the agent promptly after the close of each calendar week the number of veterans who, during that week, were paid allowances by the agency on account of unemployment, the total amount so paid, and the number of veterans whose entitlement expired during the week. The agency shall furnish such other reports or information which the Administrator finds necessary. It will be the policy of the Administrator, where feasible, to consult with the agencies before requiring additional statistical reports.

§ 36.522 Individual reports. (a) Each agency shall with respect to each veteran whose right to benefits has been exhausted or has expired, or whose record has been transferred to another agency, or at intervals as prescribed by the Administrator, report the following information on forms supplied by the Administrator:

(1) The name of the veteran.
(2) His serial number and branch of service.
(3) Total number of weekly allowances and amount paid during each consecutive period of unemployment and the beginning and ending dates thereof.

FRANK T. HINES,
Administrator.

Notices

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

General Land Office.

[Small Tract Classification No. 57]

CALIFORNIA

LEASING OF PUBLIC LANDS FOR HOME SITES, ETC.

On July 17, 1944, the Secretary of the Interior classified, under the act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U.S.C. sec. 682a), for leasing as home, cabin, health, convalescent, and recreational sites, the following-described public land in the Sacramento, California, land district:

CALIFORNIA No. 21

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 4 N., R. 14 E., sec. 27, lot 7 (SW¼NE¼), lot 10 (NW¼SE¼), 78.19 acres.

This land is located approximately 3½ miles northeast of Murphys in Calaveras County. It is in a mountainous area, at an elevation of about 3,000 feet. The Big Tree State Highway is near the south boundary of the land. The Stanislaus National Forest lies about 2 miles to the east. San Domingo Creek, a perennial stream, is adjacent to the tract on the west and north.

This land was classified by the Secretary of the Interior on his own motion. Accordingly, no preference right to a lease will be granted based on an application under the act of June 1, 1938, filed on or after July 17, 1944.

This order shall not become effective to permit the leasing of such land under the Act of June 1, 1938, until 10:00 o'clock a. m. of the 63d day from the date on which it is signed, whereupon the land shall, subject to valid existing rights and withdrawals, become subject to such leasing. Applications under the act filed on or after July 17 and prior to such 63d day, with those received at 10:00 o'clock a. m. on that day, will be held and treated as simultaneously filed. Applications filed after 10:00 o'clock a. m. of such 63d day will be received and noted in the order of their filing. The applications will be acted upon and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of 43 CFR 295.8, to the extent that it is applicable.

Lessees will be required to construct, within a reasonable time after execution of the lease, substantial improvements having a value of not less than $500. Leases will be for a period of 5 years, at an annual rental of $5, payable in advance yearly. Leases will provide for ingress and egress. Any applications filed for small tracts in the classified area should describe the land applied for according to the rectangular system of surveys as far as possible.

The Register of the district land office will make appropriate notations upon the records of his office and acknowledge receipt hereof.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner.

[Order 1985]

HEISLEY COAL CO., ET AL.

ORDER TAKING POSSESSION

Pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9476 (9 F.R. 10817) issued by the President of the United States on September 3, 1944, Government possession is hereby taken, effective forthwith, of each and all of the mines, collieries and facilities of Heisley Coal Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Imperial Coal Corporation, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Monroe Coal Mining Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Springfield Coal Company, New York, New York, and of any and all real and personal property and other assets used in connection with the operation thereof.

The regulations for the operation of coal mines under government control, as amended (8 F.R. 6655, 10712, 11344, 17339) heretofore issued by the Secretary of the Interior shall be applicable to the properties possession of which is taken by this order, except as may be otherwise directed.

L. G. Ball is hereby designated operating manager for the United States for each and all of the mines, collieries and facilities of Heisley Coal Company and Monroe Coal Mining Company; Charles A. Owen is hereby designated as operating manager for the United States for each and all of the mines, collieries and facilities of Imperial Coal Corporation, and Rembrandt Peale, Jr., is hereby designated as operating manager for the United States for each and all of the mines, collieries and facilities of Springfield Coal Company. As operating manager for the United States, each is authorized and directed to operate any and all such respective properties in accordance with the aforementioned regulations for the operation of coal mines under government control and such further directions as may from time to time be issued, and to do all things necessary and appropriate for the operation of such mines, collieries and facilities, and for the production, distribution and sale of their products.

The operating manager for the United States shall forthwith fly the flag of the United States at each such mine, colliery and facility, and shall display conspicuously thereat copies of a poster, reading as follows:

NOTICE: In accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, Government possession of the mines, collieries and preparation facilities of this mining company has been taken by order of the Secretary of the Interior.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. IT-6913]

CONNECTICUT POWER CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED INCREASED RATES

SEPTEMBER 1, 1944.

It appears to the Commission that: (a) The Connecticut Power Company (Connecticut) has on file with the Commission a rate schedule, designated as The Connecticut Power Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 6, providing for the sale of electric energy to The Torrington Electric Light Company (Torrington) for resale by the latter in Torrington, Connecticut, and vicinity.

(b) By letter dated May 29, 1944, Connecticut advised the Commission of certain proposed rates to Torrington to supersede the rates provided in the aforesaid Rate Schedule FPC No. 6. Connecticut, however, did not submit with such letter the information required by the Commission's rules of practice and regulations to be filed with any proposed changes in rates. By letters of June 8, 1944, June 23, 1944, and July 31, 1944, the Commission requested such information, and advised Connecticut that no filing date would be assigned to the proposed rates until receipt of the required information. On August 4, 1944, Connecticut filed its new agreement with Torrington providing for the proposed changes in rates, together with information required under the Commission's rules of practice and regulations. Such new agreement is dated June 30, 1944, and is designated as The Connecticut Power Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 8.

(c) The information submitted on August 4, 1944, by Connecticut shows that the proposed rates provided in the aforesaid Rate Schedule FPC No. 8 would result in an estimated increase over the rates provided in Connecticut's Rate Schedule FPC No. 6 for the sale of electric energy at wholesale to Torrington of approximately $104,000 for the 12-month period beyond July 1, 1944.

(d) In response to an inquiry by the Commission with respect to the effect of Connecticut's proposed increased rates upon Torrington's rates, Torrington stated in a letter dated July 5, 1944, "That an increased cost of $104,000 in our operations would be a serious burden unless increased income could follow."

(e) Unless suspended by Commission order, Connecticut's Rate Schedule FPC No. 8 would become effective as of September 3, 1944, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act and the rules of practice and regulations thereunder.

(f) The proposed increased rates provided for in Connecticut's Rate Schedule FPC No. 8 may result in excessive rates or charges to Torrington and may place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of electric energy; may be discriminatory; and will result in increased rates or charges which have not been shown to be justified.

The Commission finds that: It is necessary, desirable and in the public interest that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates or charges and that said proposed increased rates or charges be suspended pending such hearing and the decision thereon.

The Commission orders that: (a) A public hearing be held commencing on December 5, 1944, at 10 a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates provided for in The Connecticut Power Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 8, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, for the sale and delivery of electric energy to The Torrington Electric Light Company for resale.

(b) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the operation of the schedule of increased rates or charges for the sale of electric energy for resale provided for in The Connecticut Power Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 8 be and the same is hereby suspended until February 3, 1945, or such time thereafter as it shall be satisfactorily shown to the Commission that Connecticut will keep accurate account in detail of all amounts received by reason of the proposed increase in rates and will specify by whom and in whose behalf such amounts are paid.

(c) During the aforesaid suspension period, Connecticut's rates to Torrington contained in The Connecticut Power Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 6 shall remain and continue in effect, in so far as they apply to the sale of electric energy for resale.

(d) At the hearing in this matter, the burden of proof to show that the proposed increased rates or charges are just and reasonable shall be upon The Connecticut Power Company, as provided in section 205 (e) of the Federal Power Act.

(e) Interested State commissions may participate in said hearing as provided in section 39.4 of the rules of practice and regulations under the Federal Power Act.

By the Commission.

Acting Secretary.

[Docket No. IT-5914]

SAFE HARBOR WATER POWER CORP.

ORDER INSTITUTING INVESTIGATION AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 1, 1944.

Upon consideration of the petition filed on August 31, 1944, by the Maryland Public Service Commission requesting this Commission to institute an investigation of the interstate wholesale rates of Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation and Pennsylvania Water & Power Company, and the joint petition filed on August 14, 1944, by counsel for the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, Maryland, counsel for the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, Maryland, counsel for Bethlehem-Fairfield Shipyard, Inc., and counsel for Rustless Iron & Steel Corporation, also requesting this Commission to institute such investigation; and

It appearing to the Commission that: (a) Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation owns and operates facilities, among others, used for the transmission and sale at wholesale of electric energy which is generated in Pennsylvania and transmitted therefrom to Maryland and the District of Columbia, and consumed at points outside of Pennsylvania. Such facilities are facilities for the transmission and sale at wholesale of electric energy in interstate commerce. Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation is a public utility within the meaning of that term as used in the Federal Power Act, and is also the licensee under license for Project No. 1025 (Pennsylvania) issued by this Commission.

(b) Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation and Pennsylvania Water & Power Company are both parties to certain agreements involving the transmission and sale of electric energy subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, which said agreements include those designated in the files of the Commission as follows: Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 1 (also designated as Pennsylvania Water & Power Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 8), and Supplements Nos. 1 and 2 thereto; Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 3 and Supplements Nos. 1 and 2 thereto, and Supplement No. 1 to Supplement No. 2 thereto; Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 4 and Supplements Nos. 1 and 2 thereto; Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 5.

(c) By order of September 1, 1944, the Commission has instituted an investigation of the interstate wholesale rates of Pennsylvania Water & Power Company.

The Commission finds that: It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act, that an investigation be instituted by the Commission into and concerning all rates, charges, or classifications demanded, observed, charged, or collected by Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation for or in connection with any transmission or sale of electric energy subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and any rules, regulations, practices, or contracts affecting such rates, charges, or classifications.

The Commission orders that: (a) An investigation be and the same hereby is instituted for the purpose of enabling the Commission:

(i) To determine whether, in connection with any transmission or sale of electric energy subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission under the Federal Power Act, by Safe Harbor Water Power Corporation any rates, charges, or classifications demanded, observed, charged, or collected, or any rules, regulations, practices, or contracts affecting such rates, charges or classifications, are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential; and

(ii) If, after hearing, it shall find that any of such rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices, or contracts are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, to determine and fix by appropriate order or orders, just and reasonable rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices, or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force.

(b) A public hearing be held, commencing on October 30, 1944, at 10 a. m. (e. w. t.), in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., respecting the matters involved and the issues presented in this proceeding.

(c) Interested State Commissions may participate in this proceeding as provided for in section 39.4 of the rules of practice and regulations under the Federal Power Act.

[Vesting Order 4063]

MARION BENTINCK-SMITH

In re: Estate of Marion Bentinck-Smith, deceased; File No. D-28-7382; E. T. sec. 7572.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095 as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Romney Spring, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Probate Court, County of Norfolk, Commonwealth of Massachusetts;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Elsie Pfeiffer, Germany.
Anna B. Eckstein, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests;

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Elsie Pfeiffer and Anna B. Eckstein, and each of them, in and to the estate of Marion Bentinck-Smith, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: August 25, 1944.

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on August 25, 1944.

THERESA MAISCH

In re: Estate of Theresa Maisch, deceased; File No. D–28–7435; E. T. sec. 7668.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Danbury National Bank, as administrator, acting under the judicial supervision of the Court of Probate, District of Bethel, State of Connecticut;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Bernhardt Hoffarth, Bahnbeamter, Heidelberg Baden, Ronerstrasse 62, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken certification, required by said Executive order all action, after appropriate consultation and or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Bernhardt Hoffarth in and to the estate of Theresa Maisch, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: August 25, 1944.

In re: Estate of William L. Pressler, deceased; File No. D–28–8475; E. T. sec. 9866.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Louis Remde and Paul Wensel, and each of them, in and to the Estate of William L. Pressler, deceased, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Louis Remde, Germany.
Paul Wensel, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by William E. Pressler, as Executor of the Estate of William L. Pressler, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court of Bronx County, New York;

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of thre Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

BROWN AND BROWN, ET AL.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 971 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 120. Bituminous coal delivered from mine or preparation plant. Order establishing maximum prices and price classifications.

For the reasons set forth in an accompanying opinion, and in accordance with § 1340.210 (a) (6) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, It is ordered:

Producers identified herein operate named mines assigned the mine index numbers, the price classifications and the maximum prices in cents per net ton, for the indicated uses and shipments as set forth herein. All are in District No. 17. The mine index numbers and the price classifications assigned are permanent but the maximum prices may be changed by an amendment issued after the effective date of this order. Where such an amendment is issued for the district in which the mines involved herein are located and where the amendment makes no particular reference to a mine or mines involved herein, the prices shall be the prices set forth in such amendment for the price classifications of the respective size groups. The location of each mine is given by county and state. The maximum prices stated to be for truck shipment are in cents per net ton f. o. b. the mine or preparation plant and when stated to be for rail shipment or for railroad locomotive fuel are in cents per net ton f. o. b. rail shipping point. In cases where mines ship coals by river the prices for such shipments are those established for rail shipment and are in cents per net ton f. o. b. river shipping point. However, producer is subject to the provisions of § 1340.228 and all other provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120.

CALABRO & FRELFALL, ET AL.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 972 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 120. Bituminous coal delivered from mine or preparation plant. Order establishing maximum prices and price classifications.

For the reason set forth in an accompanying opinion, and in accordance with § 1340.210 (a) (6) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, It is ordered:.

Producers identified herein operate named mines assigned the mine index numbers, the price classifications and the maximum prices in cents per net ton, for the indicated uses and shipments as set forth herein. All are in District No. 2. The mine index numbers and the price classifications assigned are permanent but the maximum prices may be changed by an amendment issued after the effective date of this order. Where such an amendment is issued for the district in which the mines involved herein are located and where the amendment makes no particular reference to a mine or mines involved herein, the prices shall be the prices set forth in such amendment for the price classifications of the respective size groups. The location of each mine is given by county and state. The maximum prices stated to be for truck shipment are in cents per net ton f. o. b. the mine or preparation plant and when stated to be for rail shipment or for railroad fuel are in cents per net ton f. o. b. rail shipping point. In cases where mines ship coals by river the prices for such shipments are those established for rail shipment and are in cents per net ton f. o. b. river shipping point. However, producer is subject to the provisions of § 1340.213 and all other provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120.

Regional and District Office Orders.

[Louisville Order 1 Under Restaurant MPR 2]

POSTING REQUIREMENTS IN LOUISVILLE, KY., DISTRICT

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the District Director of the Louisville District Office of the Office of Price Administration by section 16 of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2, it is hereby ordered:

SECTION 1. Posting requirements. If you own or operate an eating or drinking establishment, you must, on or before August 16, 1944, show on a poster to be supplied by the Office of Price Administration, your lawful ceiling prices for 40 food items, and meals, as set forth in this order.

(a) First list on the poster as many of the food items and meals listed in Appendix A of this order, as you offer for sale and your ceiling prices for each. If you find in Appendix A several tables of food items and meals, choose the table most applicable to your establishment.

(b) If you do not offer all the 40 items listed in the applicable table in Appendix A, list first those which you do offer, placing them on the poster in the order in which they appear in Appendix A. Then add as many other items which you usually offer to bring the total number to 40, with your ceiling price for each item.

(c) If you do not offer as many as 40 items, place on the poster all the items which you do offer and your ceiling price for each.

(d) List a la carte items first. In listing meals, list the entree and then indicate the type of meal, for example, steak dinner, leg of lamb dinner, filet of sole lunch, vegetable plate luncheon.

(e) The list of individual items may be printed or hand lettered in ink on the poster in letters large enough so that it can be easily read by your customers.

(f) You must place the poster near the main entrance of your establishment, or in a conspicuous place so that it will be plainly visible to your customers.

SEC. 2. Filing of lists of posted prices. When you have made up the list of food items and meals to be posted and your lawful ceiling price for each, you must make three copies of this list, and send or deliver it to your local War Price and Rationing Board on or before August 21 1944. Each copy must be clear and legible, dated and signed by the owner or manager of your establishment, with the name and address of the establishment following the signature.

The War Price and Rationing Board shall check this list with your filed ceiling prices. If the prices check, the Board shall make a notation to this effect on one copy of the list and return it to you. You shall keep this copy in your establishment, and make it available for examination by any person during business hours.

If the prices on your list do not completely check with your filed ceiling prices, the Board will call you in for a conference, so that corrections can be made.

SEC. 3. Replacement of posters. If a poster is mutilated or becomes badly soiled or otherwise damaged, it must be replaced by a new one which may be obtained from your War Price and Rationing Board upon presentation of the damaged poster. Erasures or changes of prices listed on the poster are prohibited. The new poster must be filled out exactly like the old one. Large establishments may receive extra posters.

SEC. 4. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this order extend to all eating and drinking establishments located within the Louisville District of the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 5. Exemptions. All establishments which are exempted from the provisions of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 are exempted from this order.

This order shall become effective August 9, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871, E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681)

Issued this 31st day of July 1944.

GEO. H. GOODMAN,
District Director.

Wholesale	Glass or paper	One-half pint	5¼¢ per half-pint.

(b) Sales of special milk. (1) Except as hereinafter provided in paragraph (2) of this section (b), any person selling special milk, as hereinafter defined, at retail or wholesale in any County in the State of Kentucky, who is permitted under the provisions of this order or has been permitted under the provisions of any previous order issued by the Regional Administrator of Region III to increase the price of approved fluid milk (raw or pasteurized regular, standard milk) sold by him, may add an amount equal to such increase and/or the sum of such increases to the retail and wholesale prices of special milk established for him under the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or under the provisions of any previous order issued by the Regional Administrator of Region III.

(2) The adjusted maximum price of plain homogenized milk, chocolate drink, buttermilk and skim milk as established under the preceding paragraph (1) shall in no event exceed the adjusted maximum price of approved fluid milk (raw or pasteurized regular, standard milk) established under the applicable provisions of this order.

(3) If any person selling special milk at retail or wholesale in any County in the State of Kentucky cannot determine his maximum prices for such special milk under the provisions of (1) or (2) of this section (b), he may apply by letter to the Regional Office, Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, for determination of his maximum prices. He shall submit full information as to his present maximum prices, the prices of his most closely competitive sellers, the type and approximate butterfat content of the special milk sold by him and his most closely competitive sellers, and a full statement of the reasons why he is unable to determine adjusted prices under paragraph (1) and (2) hereof.

(c) Fractional sales. (1) Whenever the seller's maximum price, as established under this order, results in a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller, if the sale be at retail, may adjust the unit price therefor to the next highest full cent. For sales of two or more such units, such seller shall, however, multiply such fractional unit figure by the number of units in such sale; for example, a maximum price of 7½¢ per unit may be adjusted to 8¢ for the sale of one unit, but must be 15¢ for the sale of two units, etc.

(2) Whenever the seller's maximum price, as established under this order, results in a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller, if the sale be at wholesale, shall multiply such fractional unit figure by the number of units in such sale; for example, the maximum price for 24 pints of fluid milk at a per unit cost of 5½¢ would be $1.32.

(d) Reports. Each person, other than a retail store, adjusting his maximum prices pursuant to the provisions of this order, shall within five (5) days after such action, notify the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, by letter, of his maximum prices established pursuant to this order, together with a statement of his previous maximum prices.

Each such person shall, in addition to the above, file with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio such reports as may hereafter be required by said Regional Office.

(e) Discounts. Any person selling approved fluid milk and/or special milk at retail or wholesale in the State of Kentucky may discontinue the granting of discounts.

(f) Notification of retail stores. Each distributor selling approved fluid milk and/or special milk at wholesale to a retail store or stores shall notify each store to whom he sells, by letter, of the adjustment permitted by this order, and each retail store is hereby required to comply with the requirements of the General Maximum Price Regulation as to the posting of prices of cost-of-living commodities.

(g) The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of General Order No. 1 pertaining to certain trade practices in Region III. Said Order No. 1 is therefore revoked as to all counties in the State of Kentucky.

(h) The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of Order No. G–22 under § 1499.18 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation insofar as the provisions of said Order No. G–22 are applicable to Jefferson County in the State of Kentucky. Therefore, Order No. G–22 is revoked in its applicability to Jefferson County in the State of Kentucky.

(i) Definitions. (1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or successors of the foreging.

(2) "Approved fluid milk and special milk." (i) Approved fluid milk is defined to mean fluid cows' milk, whether raw or pasteurized, meeting the minimum butterfat content, sanitary and health requirements for fluid milk for human consumption in the particular area wherein it is delivered, including standards set by the army or navy purchasing officer making purchases for the armed forces of the United States.

(ii) Special milk is defined to mean plain homogenized milk, softcurd milk, buttermilk, regular or standard milk flavored with chocolate, chocolate drink, skim milk and, in addition to the foregoing, any milk conforming to both of the following requirements: (a) it must contain a greater butterfat content than regular or standard milk, and (b) it must have sold during the month of March, 1942, at a price higher than regular or standard milk.

(3) "Sale or delivery at retail" means a sale or sales of approved fluid milk in glass or paper containers to an ultimate consumer, other than an industrial or commercial user.

(4) "Sale or delivery at wholesale" refers to a sale of approved fluid milk or special milk in glass, paper or other containers to any person, including an industrial or commercial user, other than an ultimate consumer. For the purposes of this order, a sale or delivery at wholesale shall include a sale or delivery to stores, hotels, restaurants, institutions, and any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States. A sale or delivery at wholesale does not include a sale of bulk milk made by one distributor to another, or a sale by a cooling station to a distributor.

(j) This order shall remain in effect until modified or revoked by the Regional Administrator.

This order shall become effective August 1, 1944.

BEER AND ALE IN NEW MEXICO DISTRICT

Amendment 3 to Order No. G-1 under General Order No. 50. Maximum Prices for sales of beer and ale by dispensers.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the New Mexico District Office of Price Administration by General Order No. 50, 2d Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 7-1, and Region VII Revised Delegation Order No. 15, It is hereby ordered, That Order No. G-1 under General Order No. 50 be amended in the following respects:

1. Subsection (d) of section 4 is amended to read as follows:

(d) The prices listed above include all taxes, local, State, and Federal, in effect up to and including March 31st, 1944, and no additional charge may be made on account of such taxes.

2. A new subsection, to be numbered (e) to section 4, be added as follows:

(e) In addition to the prices permitted in this order, a night club may, during the hours between 8 p. m. and closing time, if operating as a night club and subject to the 30 percent amusement tax imposed by the Federal Revenue Act of 1943, add the exact amount of said 30 percent amusement tax or the additional 25 percent increase if the night club was adding the 5 percent amusement tax already in force at the time the Federal Revenue Act of 1943 became effective: Provided, however, That this tax can be added only in the event that it is shown separately from the selling price of the beer and/or ale on the seller's invoice.

3. This Amendment No. 3 shall become effective April 1st, 1944.

(c) A night club employing a band of 3 or more musicians may, between the hours of 8 p. m. and closing time, charge 5 cents per bottle more than the appropriate maximum price listed above for the area in which such night club is located. This additional charge may be made only during such time as said band is on duty. No addition may be made to the prices listed above for draught beer. Persons selling beer or ale items at state or county fairs, may, for sales of beer or ale made on the fairgrounds, charge five cents per bottle more than the prices listed above for the area in which such fair is held.

(d) The prices listed above include all taxes, local, state, and federal, in effect up to and including April 1, 1944 and no additional charge may be made on account of any such taxes.

(e) In addition to the prices permitted in this order, a person may, during the hours when he is subject to the 20% amusement tax imposed by the Federal Revenue Act of 1943, add the exact amount of said 20% amusement tax, or the additional 15% increase if the person was adding the 5% amusement tax already in force at the time the Federal Revenue Act of 1943 became effective: Provided, however, That this tax may be added only in the event that it is shown separately from the selling price of the beer and/or ale on the seller's sales slip, or in cases where sales slips are not used, a price chart showing the prices of all brands of bottled beer and draught beer is posted in a conspicuous place above the bar; Provided further, That a sign showing the hours during which the 20% federal tax will be collected be posted in a conspicuous place visible to anyone entering the establishment.

This amendment shall become effective July 25, 1944.

[Montgomery Rev. Order G-1 Under Gen. Order 50]

MALT AND CEREAL BEVERAGES IN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN ALABAMA

Revised Order No. G-1 under General Order No. 50. Maximum prices for malt and cereal beverages in the Counties of Baldwin, Barbour, Bullock, Covington, Dallas, Escambia, Greene, Henry, Houston, Lee, Lowndes, Mobile, Montgomery, Perry, Pike, and Russell, in the State of Alabama.

Order G–1 under General Order 50 is revised and amended to read as follows:

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the District Director of the Montgomery District Office of Region IV of the Office of Price Administration by General Order No. 50, issued by the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, and Region IV Revised Delegation Order No. 17, issued May 5, 1944, it is hereby ordered:

SECTION 1. Purpose of order. It is the purpose of this order to establish specific maximum prices for malt and cereal beverages, including those commonly known as ale, beer and near-beer, in containers when sold or offered for sale at retail by any eating or drinking establishment, either for consumption on the premises or when carried away.

SEC. 2. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this order extend to all eating and drinking places or establishments located within the limits of the following named counties in the State of Alabama: Baldwin, Barbour, Bullock, Covington, Dallas, Escambia, Greene, Henry, Houston, Lee, Lowndes, Mobile, Montgomery, Perry, Pike and Russell.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices. (a) On and after July 29, 1944, if you operate an eating or drinking establishment, you may not sell or offer for sale any beverage subject to this order at prices higher than the applicable ceiling prices listed in the appendices hereof. You may, of course, charge lower prices at any time.

(b) If you sell any beverage subject to this order which is not specifically listed herein, and if you believe that the maximum price specified herein for such beverage is not appropriate to such beverage, you may make application to the Montgomery District Office of the Office of Price Administration requesting that such beverage be specifically included in the appendices hereof. With or without such application, the Montgomery District Office of the Office of Price Administration may, at any time, and from time to time, add new or unlisted beverages, brands, types or sizes together with maximum prices for same to the lists set forth in the appendices hereof.

(c) You may not add any taxes to your ceiling prices set forth in the appendices hereof except those specifically provided therein, as all other taxes were taken into consideration in establishing the ceiling prices for each group of sellers.

SEC. 4. How to figure your ceiling prices. (a) This order divides eating and drinking establishments into three different groups and gives each group a different ceiling price. The group to which you belong depends on your legal ceiling prices in effect during the base period of April 4–10, 1943. You must figure the group to which you belong on the basis of your correct legal ceiling prices for that period.

(b) The group to which you belong depends on your legal ceiling prices for the beverages subject to this order in effect during the base period of April 4–10, 1943. If your legal ceiling prices for various brands and types of beverages subject to this order vary so that your ceiling prices on some brands or types seem to place you in one particular group and ceiling prices on others seem to classify you into a different group, you must classify yourself into the particular group representative of the prices at which the greater number of your sales were made. For the purpose of determining your classification as herein provided, no consideration may be given to sales of beverages listed in appendices other than Appendix A hereof. You must figure the group to which you belong as follows:

(1) Group 1–B. Your establishment belongs to Group 1–B if, during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, your legally established ceiling prices for beverages subject to this order were the same as, or more than the prices listed in Appendix A hereof for Group 1–B establishments.

(2) Group 2–B. Your establishment belongs to Group 2–B if, during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, your legally established ceiling prices for beverages subject to this order were the same as, or more than, the prices listed in Appendix A hereof for Group 2–B establishments, but were less than those provided in Appendix A for Group 1–B establishments.

(3) Group 3–B. Your establishment belongs to Group 3–B if, during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, your legally established ceiling prices for beverages subject to this order were less than the prices listed in Appendix A hereof for Group 2–B establishments. All establishments not in operation during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, and all establishments which began operating after the effective date of this order also belong to Group 3–B.

(c) If your eating or drinking establishment was not in operation during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, but was in operation prior to the effective date of this order, and, if the nearest similar eating or drinking establishment of the same type is one which is properly classified in Group 1–B or Group 2–B, you may, but not later than the first day of October, 1944, file an application with the Montgomery District Office of the Office of Price Administration, requesting that your establishment be reclassified into the same group to which its nearest similar eating or drinking establishment of the same type belongs. Until your application is acted upon, and unless your establishment is reclassified, it must retain the classification of a Group 3–B seller, and must observe the ceiling prices as provided for that group in the appendices hereof. All such applications for reclassification must contain the following information:

(1) Name and address of the establishment and of its owner or owners.

(2) A description of the establishment showing its type (such as night club, hotel, restaurant, tavern) and the date it began operating.

(3) The selling prices by brand name of all beverages sold since the beginning of its operation.

(4) The names of the three nearest eating and drinking establishments of the same type, and their group number as determined under this order.

(5) Any other information pertinent to such application or which may be requested by the Office of Price Administration.

(d) If your eating and drinking establishment begins operation after the effective date of this order, you are classified as a Group 3 seller and may not sell or offer for sale beverages subject to this order at prices higher than those set forth for Group 3–B sellers in the appendices hereof. However, if your nearest eating and drinking establishment of the same type is one which is properly classified as a Group 1–B or Group 2–B seller, you may, within and not later than 30 days from the time you begin operating, file an application with the Montgomery District Office, requesting that your establishment be reclassified into the same group in which its nearest eating and drinking establishment of the same type belongs. Until your application is acted upon and unless your establishment is reclassified, it must retain the classification of Group 3–B and must observe the ceiling prices as provided for that group in the appendices hereof. All such applications for reclassification must contain the same information required by paragraph (c) of this section.

(e) After you have figured your proper group number under this section and have filed the required statement with your War Price and Rationing Board as provided in section 5, you may not change your group classification except as otherwise provided by this order.

SEC. 5. Filing with War Price and Rationing Board. (a) When you have figured your proper group under section 4 above, you must, on or before August 10, 1944, file with your War Price and Rationing Board a signed statement with the name and address of your establishment, its type (such as night club, hotel, restaurant, tavern) and the group to which it belongs. Thereupon the War Price and Rationing Board will send you a card bearing your group number. If you begin operating your establishment after the effective date of this order, you must likewise file said signed statement in this manner as soon as you begin operating.

(b) If you are now in operation and have not filed the signed statement showing the group number to which you belong as provided in paragraph (a) above, you must do so immediately. If you have failed to file said signed document as herein required, you are hereby classified as a Group 3–B seller and you may not sell or offer for sale any beverage subject to this order at prices higher than the applicable ceiling prices listed for Group 3–B sellers in the appendices hereof. Failure to file said signed statement as herein provided is a violation of this order and also subjects you to the other penalties herein provided.

SEC. 6. Modification of prices. After you have determined your group and have put into effect the ceiling prices provided in this order for that group, the Office of Price Administration District Director for the District in which your establishment is located may direct you to charge lower ceiling prices:

(a) If, on the basis of your April 4–10, 1943 legal ceiling prices, this order, properly applied, requires you to be placed into a group with lower ceiling prices.

(b) If, as a result of speculative, unwarranted, or abnormal increases, contrary to the purpose of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, your legal ceiling prices on April 4–10, 1943 were excessive in relation to the legal ceiling prices of other comparable establishments in the District.

SEC. 7. Exempt sales. The following sales are exempt from the operation of this order. However, unless they are otherwise exempt from price control, they shall remain subject to the appropriate maximum price regulation or order:

(a) Sales by persons on board common carriers (when operated as such), including railroad dining cars, club cars, bar cars, and buffet cars, or sales otherwise governed by Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 1 (Dining Car Regulation).

(b) Sales by public and private hospitals insofar as they serve to patients.

(c) Sales by eating cooperatives formed by members of the Armed Forces (as, for example, officers' mess) operated as a non-profit cooperative (where no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any individual) which sells food items or meals on a cost basis (or as near thereto as reasonable accounting methods will permit), and substantially all sales of which are made to members of the Armed Forces who are members of the cooperative.

(d) Sales where the beverages subject to this order are included in, and sold as part of, a meal and where the price of such beverage is included in the price of the meal. (Such sales remain under Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 2.)

(e) Sales by the War Department or the Department of Navy of the United States through such Departments' sales stores, including commissaries, ships' stores ashore, and by stores operated as army canteens, post exchanges, or ships' activities.

(f) Bona fide private clubs insofar as such clubs sell only to members or bona fide guests of members. Whenever such clubs sell to persons other than members or bona fide guests of members, such clubs shall be considered for all sales an eating or drinking establishment and subject to this order. No club shall be considered to be exempt as a private club, within the meaning of this subparagraph, unless such club is a non-profit organization and is recognized as such by the Bureau of Internal Revenue and unless its members pay dues (more than merely nominal in amount), are elected to membership by a governing board, membership committee or other body, and unless it is otherwise operated as a private club.

No club organized after the effective date of this order shall be exempt unless and until it has filed a request for exemption with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration of the area in which it is located, furnishing such information as may be required, and has received a communication from such office authorizing exemption as a private club.

SEC. 8. Evasion. If you are an operator of an eating or drinking establishment you must not evade the ceiling prices established by this order by any type of scheme or device; among other things (this is not an attempt to list all evasive practices) you must not:

(a) Institute any cover, minimum, bread and butter, service, corkage, entertainment, checkroom, parking or other special charges which you did not have in effect on any corresponding day during the seven-day period from April 4–10, 1943, or

(b) Increase any cover, minimum, bread and butter, service, corkage, entertainment, checkroom, parking or other special charges which you did have in effect on any corresponding day during the seven-day period from April 4–10, 1943, or

(c) Require as a condition of sale of a beverage the purchase of other items or meals, except that during the hours from 11:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. and the hours from 6:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m., any eating or drinking establishment which derives not less than 70% of its gross revenue from the sales of prepared food items (not including beverage items) sold for consumption on the premises may refuse to sell beverages subject to this order for consumption on the premises during those hours to persons who do not also purchase food items.

SEC. 9. Records and menus. If you are an operator of an eating or drinking establishment subject to this order you must observe the requirements of General Order 50, as well as Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2, either as revised and amended or as may be revised and amended, with reference to the filing and keeping of menus and the preservation and keeping of customary and future records. Among other provisions of General Order 50, are the following:

(a) Preserve all existing records relating to prices, cost and sales of food items, meals and beverages;

(b) Continue to prepare and maintain such records as have been ordinarily kept;

(c) Keep for examination by the Office of Price Administration two copies of each menu used by the establishment each day, or a daily record in duplicate of the prices charged for food items, beverages and meals. If the establishment has customarily used menus, it must continue to do so.

SEC. 10. Posting of prices. If you are an operator of an eating or drinking establishment you must post and keep posted, the ceiling prices of the beverages subject to this order sold by your establishment, either by:

(a) Supplying the customers menus or bills of fare showing the beverages subject to this order which are sold by the establishment; and showing the brand name, quantity and ceiling price of each kind and type of bottled beverage, and the quantity and ceiling price of all beverages sold on draught, or

(b) Posting a sign giving the same information as required on menus or bills of fare by sub-paragraph (a) above. Such a sign must be posted in the establishment at a place where it can easily be read by the customers. If you prefer you may use a similar sign furnished by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) No establishment which fails to comply with the posting requirements of this section may sell any beverage subject to this order at a higher price than provided for Group 3–B sellers in the appendices hereof during such time as such establishment is not in compliance with this section.

SEC. 11. Posting of group number. (a) If you operate an eating or drinking establishment selling at retail beverages subject to this order you must post, and keep posted, in the premises a card or cards clearly visible to all purchasers showing the group number of your establishment as classified under this order. The card must read "OPA 1–B", "OPA 2–B", or "OPA 3–B", whichever is applicable. You may use the card or cards furnished you for this purpose by the War Price and Rationing Board.

(b) No establishment which fails to comply with the posting requirements of this section may sell any beverage subject to this order at a higher price than provided for Group 3 sellers in the appendices hereof during such time as such establishment is not in compliance with this section.

SEC. 12. Receipts and sales slips. Regardless of whether or not receipts have customarily been issued, upon request by any customer at the time of payment, a receipt containing a full description of the beverage sold and the price of same must be issued. Such receipts must show the date of issue and bear the signature of the person issuing same. If you have customarily issued receipts or sales slips, you may not now discontinue the practice.

SEC. 13. Operation of several places. If you own or operate more than one place selling beverages subject to this order, you must do everything required by this regulation for each place separately.

SEC. 14. Enforcement. If you violate any provision of this regulation you are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspensions of licenses, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 15. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1 licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this order. If you are a seller subject to this order your license is suspended for violation of the license or of the order. If your license is suspended you may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which your license has been suspended.

SEC. 16. Relation to other maximum price regulations. This order supersedes the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 259 and the General Maximum Price Regulation insofar as such provisions were applicable to sales at retail by eating and drinking establishments of beverages subject to this order. Sales of beverages subject to this order when sold as part of a meal and when the price of same is included in the price of the meal remain subject to the provisions of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 2.

SEC. 17. Definitions. (a) "Malt beverage" is any malt beverage produced either within or without the continental United States, and includes those commonly designated as beer, lager beer, ale, porter and stout.

(b) "Cereal beverage" is any beverage produced from cereals either within or without the Continental United States and commonly known as "near-beer".

(c) "On draught" means dispensed by a seller at retail from any container of ⅓ barrel or larger size.

(d) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(e) "Sales at retail" or "selling at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user.

(f) "Eating or drinking establishment" shall include any place, establishment or location, whether temporary or permanent, in which any prepared food item or meal, or any beverage is sold for immediate consumption on the premises or to be carried away without substantial change in form or substance. However, grocery and other stores that do not sell food items or meals, or beverage for immediate consumption on the premises are specifically excluded from this definition.

(g) "Other definitions". Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, shall apply to the other terms used herein.

SEC. 18. Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business assets, or stock in trade of any establishment are hereafter sold or otherwise transferred, or have been sold or transferred subsequent to April 10, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business or continues to sell malt beverages covered by this order in the same location, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which its transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and its obligations to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the recording-keeping requirements of this order. If there is a lapse of business operations in connection with such a transfer for a period of sixty days, selling prices shall be determined as provided in section 4 for a new seller.

SEC. 19. Changes in location. If any establishment is hereafter moved to a new location, the establishment shall be considered a new seller under this order and shall determine its ceiling prices under the provisions of section 4.

SEC. 20. Petitions for amendment. Any person dissatisfied with any of the provisions of this order may request the Office of Price Administration to amend the order. Such petition for amendment must be filed in pursuance of the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition for amendment shall be directed to, filed with, and acted upon, by the District Director of the Montgomery District Office.

SEC. 21. Revocation and amendment. This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time.

SEC. 22. Effective date. This revised Order G–1 shall become effective September 1, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget and in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[Region IV Order G–23 Under RMPR 122]

Solid Fuels in Memphis, Tenn.

Order No. G–23 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Maximum prices for solid fuels in the City of Memphis, Tennessee.

For the reasons set forth in an Opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator, Region IV, Office of Price Administration, by § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is hereby ordered:

(a) What this order does. (1) This order establishes maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels when the delivery is made to any point in the area set out in paragraph (c) hereinafter.

(2) Paragraph (c) of this order contains a price schedule applicable to sales of the solid fuels named therein. Special charges and discounts applicable to such sales are likewise found in that paragraph.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy solid fuels at prices higher than the maximum prices set by this order, but less than maximum prices may, at any time, be charged, paid or offered; or

(2) Obtain a higher than maximum price by:

(i) Charging for a service which is not expressly requested by the buyer or which is not specifically authorized by this order;

(ii) Using any tying agreement by making any requirement that anything other than the fuel requested by the buyer be purchased by him; or

(iii) Using any other device by which a higher than maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) Price schedule; consumer sales. (1) This price schedule sets forth maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels when delivery is made within the corporate limits of the City of Memphis, Tennessee. Extra charges are specified for deliveries beyond the corporate limits of said city.

(i) "Direct delivery or domestic" basis:

Stoker	8.45	4.48

(2) Maximum authorized service charges and required deductions—(i) Trimming. If buyer requests such service the dealer may not charge more than 30¢ per ton therefor.

(ii) Carry or wheel from curb. If buyer requests such service, the dealer may not charge more than 50¢ per ton therefor.

(iii) Carry up or down stairs. If buyer requests such service, the dealer may not charge more than $1.00 per ton therefor.

(iv) Sacking. If buyer requests such service, the dealer may not charge more than $2.00 per ton for the labor of sacking coal.

(v) Sacked coal at the yard. Dealer may charge not more than 60¢ for 85 lbs. of sacked coal from District No. 8, East Kentucky and Tennessee, and not more than 50¢ for 85 lbs. of sacked coal from District No. 9, West Kentucky, when sold at the yard. No deliveries are made in these quantities. The prices specified do not include sack, for which no charge in excess of the applicable maximum price may be made.

(vi) Yard sales. When buyer picks up coal at the dealer's yard, the domestic price must be reduced at least $1.00 per ton.

(vii) Quantity discounts. When a buyer purchases coal in quantities of thirty (30) tons or more, the dealer must reduce the domestic price at least 75¢ per ton. This discount is not applicable to stoker or slack coals.

(viii) Treated coals. If a dealer's supplier has subjected the coal to oil or calcium chloride treatment to allay dust or to prevent freezing and makes a charge therefor, the dealer selling such coal may add to the applicable maximum price set by this order the amount of such charge, not to exceed 10¢ per net ton on coals from District Nos. 8, 9, and 10, and not to exceed 15¢ per net ton on coals from District No. 13. Any such treatment charge shall be stated separately from all other items on the invoice.

(ix) Delivery zone. The dealer may make no extra charge for delivery within the corporate limits of Memphis, Tennessee. For deliveries beyond the free delivery zone thus described, the dealer may add not more than 10¢ per ton per mile and may make a minimum charge of 50¢ for such delivery. Such delivery charge, if added, must be stated separately from all other charges on the invoice.

(x) Terms for credit. The prices set out in the price list are for cash sales, and if the buyer does not make payment in full for all purchases of solid fuels covered by this order within three days from the date of delivery, the dealer may add a credit charge, not to exceed 50¢ per ton.

(d) Ex Parte 148 freight rate increase; transportation tax—(1) The freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 freight rate increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealer's freight rates are the same as those of December, 1941; therefore, no dealer may increase any price specified herein on account of freight rates.

(2) The transportation tax. Only the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be collected, in addition to the maximum prices set by this order. It may be collected only if the dealer states such tax separately from the price of the coal on the invoice. (The tax need not be stated separately on sales to the United States or any agency thereof—see amendment 12 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.) No part of this tax may be collected in addition to the maximum prices specified on sales of one-quarter ton or lesser amount of coal, or on sales of any quantity of bagged coal.

(e) Addition of increases in supplier's prices prohibited. The maximum prices set by this order may not be increased by a dealer to reflect increases in his purchase cost or in his supplier's maximum prices occurring after the effective date hereof, but increases in the maximum prices set hereby, to reflect such increases are within the discretion of the Administrator or of the Regional Administrator of Region IV.

(f) Power to amend or revoke. This order, or any provision thereof, may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time by the Administrator or by the Regional Administrator of Region IV.

(g) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of this order may file a petition for amendment with the Administrator in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, or in the alternative, may file such petition with the Regional Administrator, Region IV, Office of Price Administration, Candler Building, Atlanta, 3, Georgia. If such petition is filed with the Regional Administrator, action thereon shall be taken by him. When such a petition is filed with the Regional Administrator, all requirements of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, relative to the filing of such petitions, are applicable except the place of filing specified therein.

(h) Applicability of other regulations—(1) Licensing and registration. Every dealer subject to this order is subject to the licensing and registration provisions of sections 15 and 16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation. These sections provide, in brief, that a license is required of all persons selling, at retail, commodities for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for a license, but a dealer may later be required to register. A license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If a dealer's license is suspended, he may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(2) Effect of this order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. To the extent applicable, the provisions of this order supersede the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(i) Records and reports. Every person making sales of solid fuels for which maximum prices are established by this order shall keep a record thereof showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in this order. This record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made therefor.

(1) It is not necessary that these records or your maximum prices be filed with the War Price and Rationing Board.

(j) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) Each dealer subject to this order shall post all the maximum prices set hereby for all of his types of sales. He shall post his prices in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the purchasing public. He shall also keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person inquiring as to his prices for solid fuels.

(2) Every dealer selling solid fuels for the sale of which a maximum price is set by this order shall, within 30 days after the date of delivery of the fuel, give to the buyer a statement showing: the date of the sale, the name and address of the dealer and of the buyer, the kind, size, and quantity of the solid fuel sold, the price charged, and separately stating any item which is required to be separately stated by this order. This paragraph (j) (2) shall not apply to sales of quantities of less than one-quarter ton or to sales of bagged coal unless the dealer customarily gave such a statement on such sales.

(3) In the case of all other sales, every dealer who during December, 1941 customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. If a buyer requests of a seller a receipt showing the name and address of the dealer, the kind, size, and quantity of the solid fuel sold to him, or the price charged, the dealer shall comply with the buyer's request as made by him.

(k) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provisions of this order are subject to the civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violations of this order are urged to communicate with the nearest District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(l) Definitions and explanations. When used in this order the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any other government, or any agency or subdivision of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase", and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuels except producers or distributors making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, a coke oven, or a briquette plant.

(4) "Direct delivery" means dumping or chuting the fuel from the seller's truck directly into the buyer's bin or storage space; but, if this is physically impossible, the term means discharging the fuel directly from the seller's truck at a point where this can be done and at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(5) "Direct delivery" of bagged fuel or of any fuel in one-quarter ton or lesser lots always means delivery to the buyer's storage space.

(6) "Carry" and "wheel" refer to movement of fuel to the buyer's bin or storage space by wheel barrow, barrel, sack, or otherwise from the seller's truck or from the point of discharge therefrom when made in the course of "direct delivery".

(7) "Yard sales" means deliveries made by the dealer in his customary manner, at his yard, or at any place other than his truck.

(7) "District No." refers to the geographical bituminous coal producing districts as delineated and numbered by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, as they have been modified by the Bituminous Coal Division and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(8) "Lump, egg, stove, stoker, etc." sizes of bituminous coal refer to the size of such coal as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as prepared at the mine in accordance with the applicable minimum price schedule as promulgated by the Bituminous Coal Division of the United States Department of the Interior and in effect (or established) as of midnight, August 23, 1943, except that "run-of-mine" shall be that size sold as such by the dealer.

(9) Except as otherwise provided herein, or except as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein.

This order shall become effective September 1, 1944.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of this Order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

MALT BEVERAGES IN DESIGNATED SOUTHERN STATES

Region V Order G-1 under General Order 50, Amendment No. 1. Maximum prices for malt beverages in designated southern States.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Region V Order No. G-1 under General Order 50 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 4, paragraph (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) An establishment, except a new seller, (see definition in paragraph (e) of this section 4) unless it sold both Tables 1 and 2 brands of malt beverages at the same price, which price was not more than 17¢ per 12-ounce bottle, belongs in Group 2B if:

2. Section 4 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) An establishment belongs in Group 3B if:

(i) It does not qualify for either Group 1B or Group 2B, or

(ii) It sold one or more brands of malt beverages listed in Table 1 as well as one or more brands of malt beverages listed in Table 2, and its legal ceiling price under MPR 259 for all the brands listed in Tables 1 and 2 which it sold was the same, and that price was not more than 17¢ per 12-ounce bottle.

3. Section 4 (d) is amended by adding paragraph (7) to read as follows:

(7) An establishment which has been classified in Group 3B under section 4 (a) (4) (ii) may apply to the district office for reclassification if it can establish that during the sixty day period prior to July 31, 1944, 70% by volume of its sales of bottled malt beverages were of brands listed in Table 2. The application shall be supported by a statement of the applicant showing the total number of bottles of malt beverages sold by the establishment during the sixty day period, and the number of bottles of each brand listed in Tables 1 and 2 which it sold during that period. The District Director may require such additional evidence as he may deem necessary. The District Director in response to such application may, if he finds that over 70% by volume of the sales made by the establishment during the sixty day period prior to July 31, 1944, were of brands listed in Table 2, reclassify such establishment into Group 2B.

This amendment shall become effective July 26, 1944.

Issued this 25th day of July 1944.

MAX MCCULLOUGH,
Regional Administrator.

FABRICATED MEAT CUTS IN ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Order No. G-4 under section 5 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 336. Retail ceiling prices for pork cuts and certain sausage products. Maximum Price Regulation No. 355. Retail ceiling prices for beef, veal, lamb and mutton cuts and all variety meats and edible byproducts Maximum Price Regulation No. 394. Retail ceiling prices for kosher beef, veal, lamb, and mutton cuts.

Pursuant to section 5 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 336, Maximum Price Regulation No. 355 and Maximum Price Regulation No. 394, as incorporated by Amendment 15 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 336, and Amendment 17 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 355, and Amendment 6 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 394, the Regional Administrator of Region V, on his own motion, finds that the area contained within the corporate limits of the City of St. Joseph, Missouri, to be an area deficient in supplies of fabricated meat cuts for purveyors of meals, because the following conditions exist:

(1) Purveyors of meals within said area are unable to obtain fabricated meat cuts covered by the above named regulations in sufficient volume to supply their requirements as determined under Ration Order No. 16, during the two month period immediately preceding May 1, 1944;

(2) The dealers in the area selling fabricated meat cuts do not have adequate facilities or quotas to supply the requirements of purveyors of meals located in the area as determined under (1) above; and

(3) Purveyors of meals in the area customarily have relied upon, and find it necessary to continue to rely upon, local retail dealers for supplies of meat sufficient to fill their requirements.

Accordingly, the area within the corporate limits of the City of St. Joseph, Missouri, is hereby ordered and declared to be an area deficient in the supply of fabricated meat cuts covered by the above named price regulations for purveyors of meals within the intent and purposes of said section 5 (c) of each of the aforesaid maximum price regulations.

This order or declaration is subject to revocation, or amendment, at any time hereafter, either by special order or declaration, or by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any amendment or supplement issued to any price regulation, the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

This order shall become effective August 26, 1944.

(g) Maximum retail prices for sales of firewood in quantities less than a cord in the Counties of Anderson, Bell, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Clay, Cooke, Collin, Coryell, Dallas, Delta, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Franklin, Freestone, Grayson, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hill, Hood, Hopkins, Hunt, Jack, Johnson, Kaufman, Lamar, Lampasas, Limestone, Marion, McLennan, Montague, Morris, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Rains, Red River, Rockwall, Rusk, Smith, Tarrant, Taylor, Titus, Tom Green, Upshur, Van Zandt, Wise and Wood shall be:

(1) One-half of a cord: One-half the price of a cord, plus 25¢.

(2) One-third of a cord: One-third the price of a cord, plus 50¢.

(3) One-fourth of a cord: One-fourth the price of a cord, plus 50¢.

(4) One-twelfth of a cord (sometimes known as a bundle): One-tenth the price of a cord.

(h) Retail sale. (1) A retail sale is any sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user, the Army and Navy, the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions, and other than sales by truckers.

(i) Retail terms of sale. (1) Prices for retail sales, as established in this order, involving one or more cords, a half of a cord, a third of a cord, or a fourth of a cord, include delivery to the buyer's premises or a point designated by him; if the purchaser accepts delivery at the retailer's premises or designates such premises as the place of delivery, the maximum retail prices established by this order shall be reduced by the actual amount paid by the purchaser for having such wood transported to his (the purchaser's) premises.

(2) Retail prices established in this order do not include the service of stacking. When such service is supplied by the retailer, he may demand and receive as extra compensation for this service an amount not exceeding 50¢ per cord and 25¢ per half cord; in sales involving quantities of less than one-half cord no extra charge for stacking shall be made even if this service is supplied by the retailer.

(j) Maximum per cord prices for sales of firewood by truckers in Dallas and Tarrant Counties shall be:

(1) The sum of the geographically applicable retail per cord prices less $2.00.

(k) Maximum per cord prices for sales of firewood by truckers in the Counties of Anderson, Bell, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Clay, Cooke, Collin, Coryell, Delta, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Franklin, Prestone, Grayson, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hill, Hood, Hopkins, Hunt, Jack, Johnson, Kaufman, Lamar, Lampasas, Limestone, Marion, McLennan, Montague, Morris, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Rains, Red River, Rockwall, Rusk, Smith, Taylor, Titus, Tom Green, Upshur, Van Zandt, Wise and Wood shall be:

(1) The geographically applicable retail per cord price.

(1) One-half cord: One half the trucker's geographically applicable cord price plus 25¢.

(2) One-third cord: One-third the trucker's geographically applicable cord price plus 50¢.

(3) One-fourth cord: One-fourth the trucker's geographically applicable cord price plus 50¢.

(4) One-twelfth of a cord (sometimes known as a bundle): One-tenth the trucker's geographically applicable cord price.

(m) Definition of trucker. (1) A trucker is any seller who sells directly from a truck or other conveyance without first receiving and unloading the wood at a place of business established for the purposes of carrying on the business of selling firewood.

(2) If a seller makes a sale directly from a truck or other conveyance without first unloading it at his place of business, that seller, for the purposes of this order, shall be regarded as a trucker on such sales.

(3) A sale by a trucker to a commercial or industrial user or to a purchaser for resale shall be a sale at wholesale.

(n) Maximum per cord prices for sales of firewood to the Army and Navy and to the State of Texas or any of its political subdisivisions in all of the Counties covered by this order are established to be as follows: (1) Prices per cord on sales to the Army and Navy in the counties composing the Dallas, Texas and Fort Worth, Texas Districts of the Office of Price Administration:

(i) The sum of the local wholesale price plus $1.50 f. o. b. first rail terminal, or if shipped by truck, f. o. b. last loading point before delivery to the Army or Navy. If the Army or Navy purchases firewood for immediate delivery from the local yard, the maximum price shall be the retail price covering sales in that particular locality to retail purchasers.

(2) Prices per cord on sales to the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions, including but not limited to cities, towns, counties, school and road districts, in the counties composing the Dallas, Texas and Fort Worth, Texas Districts of t'.e Office of Price Administration:

(i) The applicable wholesale price plus $1.00 per cord, except that in purchases from local retail yards, for immediate delivery to the purchaser from such yards, the applicable retail maximum prices shall prevail.

(o) Maximum service charge for cutting. (1) In any instance where the seller sells wood over 24 inches in length and cuts it on order for the purchaser, the charge for this cutting shall be no more than the difference between the seller's maximum prices for wood "24 inches or under" and wood "over 24 inches." If there is no difference in the seller's maximum prices for the different lengths of wood, he may make a flat charge of $1.00 per cord for the cutting. No service charge for cutting shall be increased in relation to the number of times such wood is cut by the seller. The one service charge should apply for any and all cutting done for the customer.

(p) Lower prices. (1) Lower prices than those established herein for sales of firewood in the area covered by this order may be charged, offered, demanded or paid.

(q) Licensing, Posting and Sales Receipts—(1) Licensing. (i) A license to make sales of firewood is automatically granted to all persons who now or hereafter make such sales. But the granting of this license to any person whose license heretofore granted by the Office of Price Administration is under suspension shall become effective for sales to which the suspension applies only at the end of the period of suspension.

(ii) A license granted hereby may be suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for violations of the license or of one or more applicable maximum price regulations. The provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and all other such regulations are made a part of each license granted hereby, and a violation of any such provision is a violation of the license. A person whose license has been suspended may not during the period of suspension make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(iii) Every license heretofore granted by the Office of Price Administration and in effect when this order becomes effective, is merged and continued in the license granted by this order. The former license no longer continues as a separate license. If the former license is suspended by a pending license suspension proceeding, the license granted by this order is suspended to the same extent. Proceedings to suspend a license granted hereby may be begun and maintained without a further warning notice to any person to whom a warning notice under a previous license was sent.

(iv) No license is required of, or granted to, a farmer as a condition of selling an agricultural commodity produced by him, the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, its political subdivisions or agencies.

(2) Posting. (i) Every retail seller of wood or trucker covered by this Order shall post the maximum unit prices provided herein, covering all types and kinds of sales, in a place and manner prominent and conspicuous, with sufficient information to inform buyers of the maximum prices applying to his sales of firewood, giving the length, types of wood and prices of each.

(3) Sales slips and receipts. (i) Any seller of firewood covered by this order who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt or other similar evidence of purchase shall continue to do so.

(ii) Upon request from a purchaser any seller at retail, or any trucker, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date of sale, the name and address of the seller, whether the wood is hardwood or softwood, the length of the wood, the unit of sale and the price per unit.

(iii) Upon request from a purchaser any seller at wholesale shall give the purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing the date of sale, the seller's name and address, the name of the county in which the wood was felled, whether the wood is hardwood or softwood, the length of the wood, the unit of sale and the price per unit.

(r) Definitions—(1) Sale of firewood. (i) A sale of firewood shall be the sale of any wood of the size and quality set forth in this order, provided such wood is sold for use as a fuel for heating or cooking, or to dealers who will resell such wood for such purposes. "Firewood" includes slabs cut from logs, but does not include off-fall from lumber, kindling, and rotted or decayed lumber.

(2) Cord. (i) A cord is a quantity of wood which would occupy 128 cubic feet if cut in four feet lengths and stacked straight in a pile measuring 4 feet wide, 4 feet high and 8 feet long.

(ii) Any loss in volume resulting from cutting a cord of four foot wood into shorter lengths shall be borne by the purchaser and not by the seller, regardless of whether or not ownership (title) of the wood has passed from the seller to the buyer before the wood is cut: provided that such loss or shrinkage in volume shall not exceed twenty-four cubic feet when four foot wood is cut into two foot lengths and shall not exceed thirty-two cubic feet when four foot wood is cut into lengths less than two feet; and provided that no seller, selling firewood in lengths shorter than four feet, regardless of whether or not ownership (title) of the wood has passed from the seller to the buyer before the wood is cut, may deliver less than 104 cubic feet of firewood when cut in two foot lengths or less than 96 cubic feet of firewood when cut into lengths less than two feet, without a compensating reduction in the applicable per cord price for firewood established in this Revised Order No. G–7.

(3) Hardwood. (i) Hardwood is wood cut from any of the following deciduous trees: Ash, Beech, Butternut, Cedar, Dogwood, Elm, Gum, Hackberry, Hard Maple, Hickory, Locust, Oak, Osage Orange, Sycamore, Walnut.

(ii) All other woods for the purposes of this order are to be considered "softwoods."

(s) Insofar as this order establishes prices for sales of firewood in the counties of Anderson, Bell, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Clay, Cooke, Collin, Coryell, Dallas, Delta, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Falls, Fannin, Franklin, Freestone, Grayson, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hill, Hood, Hopkins, Hunt, Jack, Johnson, Kaufman, Lamar, Lampasas, Limestone, Marion, McLennan, Montague, Morris, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Rains, Red River, Rockwall, Rusk, Smith, Tarrant, Taylor, Titus, Tom Green, Upshur, Van Zandt, Wise and Wood, the "Order of Modification of Maximum Prices Established by the General Maximum Price Regulation for Firewood Sold at Wholesale and Retail in the State of Texas, as Amended," dated the 30th day of December, 1942, issued by the Regional Administrator of Region V, is revoked and superseded by the provisions of this Revised General Order No. G–7.

(t) This order is subject to revocation or amendment by the Price Administrator at any time hereafter, either by special order or by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any amendment or supplement hereafter issued as to any price regulation, the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

(u) Except as specifically provided in this order, the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended, are in no way affected and shall continue in full force and effect.

This order shall become effective on the 2nd day of September 1944.

(ii) The maximum price of one-third a cord shall be one-third the price of a cord, plus 50¢.

(iii) A bundle of wood shall consist of one-twelfth of a cord, and the maximum price shall be one-tenth the price of a cord.

(4) Retail sale. (i) A retail sale is any sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user, the Army and Navy, the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions, or sales by truckers.

(5) Retail terms of sale. (i) Prices for retail sales, as established in this order, involving one or more cords, or a fraction of a cord of firewood, include delivery to any point within the city limits of the town or city to which, or nearest which, the retailer's yard is located; if the purchaser accepts delivery at the retailer's premises or designated such premises as the place of delivery, the maximum retail prices established by this order shall be reduced by the actual amount paid by the purchaser for having such wood transported to his (the purchaser's) premises.

(ii) Retail prices established in this order do not include the service of stacking. When such service is supplied by the retailer, he may demand and receive as extra compensation for this service an amount not exceeding 50¢ per cord and 25¢ per half-cord; in sales involving quantities of less than one-half cord no extra charge for stacking shall be made even if this service is supplied by the retailer.

(iii) Retailers located within the city limits of San Antonio, Texas, or of any of the adjacent municipalities of Olmos Park, Terrell Hills, or Alamo Heights may not make any charge for delivery to any point within the city limits of any of the cities or municipalities above named. Deliveries by such retailers to points outside the city limits of the above named cities or municipalities may be made at the rate of ten cents per mile (one-way) based upon the number of road miles by the shortest route from the city limits of San Antonio, Olmos Park, Terrell Hills or Alamo Heights nearest the point of delivery to such point of delivery. Retailers in all other cities covered by this order must retain their March, 1942, practices as to deliveries beyond the limits of the city or town in which, or nearest which, they are located.

(c) Truckers price per cord in the counties composing the San Antonio, Texas District of the Office of Price Administration. (1) In Bexar and Travis Counties, the sum of the geographically applicable retail per cord price, less $2.00. In all other counties, the geographically applicable retail per cord price.

(2) Truckers price for one-half cord shall be one-half the truckers geographically applicable cord price, plus 25¢.

(3) Truckers price for one-third cord shall be one-third the truckers geographically applicable cord price, plus 50¢.

(4) Truckers bundle price shall be one-tenth the truckers geographically applicable cord price.

(d) Definition of trucker. (1) A trucker is any seller who sells directly from a truck or other conveyance without first receiving and unloading the wood at a place of business established for the purposes of carrying on the business of selling firewood. If a seller makes a sale directly from a truck or other conveyance without first unloading it at his place of business, that seller, for the purposes of this order, shall be regarded as a trucker on such sales.

(e) Prices per cord on sales to the Army and Navy in the counties composing the San Antonio, Texas District of the Office of Price Administration shall be: (1) The sum of the local wholesale price, plus $1.50, f. o. b. first rail terminal, or if shipped by truck, f. o. b. last loading point before delivery to the Army or Navy. If the Army or Navy purchases firewood for immediate delivery from the local yard, the maximum price shall be the retail price covering sales in that particular locality to retail purchasers.

(f) Prices per cord on sales to the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions, including but not limited to cities, towns, counties, school and road districts, in the counties composing the San Antonio, Texas District of the Office of Price Administration. (1) The applicable wholesale price plus $1.00 per cord, except that in purchases from local retail yards, for immediate delivery to the purchaser from such yards, the applicable retail maximum prices shall prevail.

(g) Service charge for cutting. (1) In any instance where the seller sells wood over 24 inches in length and cuts it on order for the purchaser, the charge for this cutting shall be no more than the difference between the maximum retail prices for wood "24 inches or under" and wood "over 24 inches." If there is no difference in the seller's maximum prices for the different lengths of wood, he may make a flat charge of $1.00 per cord for the cutting. No service charge for cutting shall be increased in relation to the number of times such wood is cut by the seller. The one service charge should apply for any and all cutting done for the customer.

(h) Licensing, posting and sales receipts—(1) Licensing. (i) A license to make sales of firewood is automatically granted to all persons who now or hereafter make such sales. But the grant of this license to any person whose license heretofore granted by the Office of Price Administration is under suspension shall become effective for sales to which the suspension applies only at the end of the period of suspension.

(ii) A license granted hereby may be suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, for violations of the license or of one or more applicable maximum price regulations. The provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and all other such regulations are made a part of each license granted hereby, and a violation of any such provision is a violation of the license. A person whose license has been suspended may not during the period of suspension make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(iii) Every license heretofore granted by the Office of Price Administration and in effect when this order becomes effective, is merged and continued in the license granted by this order. The former license no longer continues as a separate license. If the former license is suspended by a pending license suspension proceeding, the license granted by this order is suspended to the same extent. Proceedings to suspend a license granted hereby may be begun and maintained without a further warning notice to any person to whom a warning notice under a previous license was sent.

(iv) No license is required of, or granted to, a farmer as a condition of selling an agricultural commodity produced by him, the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, its political subdivisions or agencies.

(2) Posting. (i) Every retail seller of wood or trucker covered by this order shall post the maximum unit prices provided herein, covering all types and kinds of sales, in a place and manner prominent and conspicuous, with sufficient information to inform buyers of the maximum prices applying to his sales of firewood, giving the length, types of wood and prices of each.

(3) Sales slips and receipts. (i) Any seller of firewood covered by this order who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt or other similar evidence of purchase shall continue to do so. Upon request from a purchaser, any seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date of sale, the name and address of the seller, whether the wood is hardwood or softwood, the length of the wood, the unit of sale and the price per unit.

(ii) Sellers at wholesale and sellers of wood to the Army, Navy, State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions shall furnish the purchaser with a sales slip or receipt showing the date of sale, the seller's name and address, the name of the county in which the wood was felled, whether the wood is hardwood or softwood, the length of wood, unit of sale, and the price per unit.

(i) Definitions—(1) Sale of firewood. (i) The sale of firewood shall be the sale of any wood of the size and quality set forth in this order, provided such wood is sold for use as a fuel for heating or cooking, or to dealers who will resell such wood for such purposes.

(2) Cord. (i) A cord is a quantity of wood which would occupy 128 cubic feet if cut in four foot lengths and stacked straight in a pile measuring 4 feet wide, 4 feet high and 8 feet long.

(ii) Any loss in volume resulting from cutting a cord of four foot wood into shorter lengths shall be borne by the purchaser and not by the seller, regardless of whether or not ownership (title) of the wood has passed from the seller to the buyer before the wood is cut: Provided, That such loss or shrinkage in volume shall not exceed twenty-four cubic feet when four foot wood is cut into two foot lengths and shall not exceed thirty-two cubic feet when four foot wood is cut into lengths less than two feet; and provided that no seller, selling firewood in lengths shorter than four feet, regardless of whether or not ownership (title) of the wood has passed from the seller to the buyer before the wood is cut, may deliver less than 104 cubic feet of firewood when cut in two foot lengths or less than 96 cubic feet of firewood when cut into lengths less than two feet, without a compensating reduction in the applicable per cord price for firewood set out in this order.

(3) Hardwood. (i) Hardwood is wood cut from any of the following deciduous trees: Ash, Beech, Butternut, Cedar, Dogwood, Elm, Gum, Hackberry, Hard Maple, Hickory, Locust, Oak, Osage, Orange, Pecan, Sycamore and Walnut.

(ii) All other woods for the purposes of this order are to be considered "softwoods."

(j) This order is subject to revocation or amendment by the Price Administrator at any time hereafter either by special order or by any price regulation issued hereafter, or by any amendment or supplement hereafter issued as to any price regulation, the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

(k) Except as specifically provided in this order to the contrary, the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended, are in no way affected and shall continue in full force and effect.

This order shall become effective on the 2d day of September, 1944.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70-663]

ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC CO. AND MISSOURI SOUTHERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATIONS AND PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 4th day of September 1944.

Associated Electric Company, a registered holding company, and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Missouri Southern Public Service Company, having filed joint applications-declarations, as amended, pursuant to sections 9 (a), 10, and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, regarding the proposed sale by Missouri Southern Public Service Company of all its physical properties to New-Mac Electric Cooperative, Inc., for a base cash consideration of $170,000; the subsequent transfer by Missouri Southern Public Service Company of 40 shares of capital stock of Atlantic Utility Service Corporation and its other then remaining assets, subject to its liabilities, to Associated Electric Company, and the surrender to Missouri Southern Public Service Company of all its capital stock and indebtedness held by Associated Electric Company; and the dissolution of Missouri Southern Public Service Company; and

Applicants-declarants having requested that the Commission enter an order finding the sale of the physical properties of Missouri Southern Public Service Company is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and that such order conform to the definition of the term "order of the Securities and Exchange Commission" contained in section 373 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and that such order contain the recitals, specifications and itemizations required by section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice in which the security holders of applicants-declarants and other interested persons were afforded opportunity to be heard; and requests for findings, briefs and oral argument having been waived; and

The Commission having considered the record and having entered its findings and opinion herein, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant the applications, as amended, and permit the declarations, as amended, to become effective, and to grant the request of the applicants-declarants as to the suggested recitals;

It is hereby ordered, That, pursuant to the applicable provisions of said act, including sections 10, 11 (b) (1), and 12 thereof, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the aforesaid applications-declarations, as amended, be, and hereby are, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations of the act; and

It is further ordered, That the sale by Associated Electric Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Missouri Southern Public Service Company, of the electric properties and business owned by Missouri Southern Public Service Company in Barry, McDonald and Newton Counties, Missouri, as more fully described in the contract dated February 27, 1943, as amended, between Missouri Southern Public Service Company and New-Mac Electric Cooperative, Inc., the provisions of which are a part of the record in this proceeding in accordance with the provisions of these applications-declarations, as amended, is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and to effectuate and to comply with a certain divestment order issued by the Commission on August 13, 1942, pursuant to said section, in a proceeding entitled "In the Matter of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, as Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, Respondents, File No. 59-32".

HOPE ENGINEERING CO. AND TEXAS EASTERN OIL CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 5th day of September A. D. 1944.

Notice is hereby given that an application or declaration (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Hope Engineering Company ("Hope"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Texas Eastern Oil Company ("Texas").

All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

The applicants or declarants (or both) state that Texas has outstanding Five-Year 5% Registered Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $162,000 which mature September 15, 1944. $100,000 principal amount of such notes is held by Hope and the balance of $62,000 is held by 14 other parties, all of whom are stockholders of Texas.

As of December 31, 1943, Texas was also indebted to Hope as follows:

First mortgage notes	$80,000
Unpaid cash advance	40,000
Unpaid accounts payable	23,900
Total	143,900

It is proposed that the $62,000 of Registered Notes held by the public shall be extended for an additional period of five years so as to mature on September 15, 1949, with Texas reserving the right to retire these notes at any time prior to maturity.

Texas proposes to issue 243,900 shares of its common stock, par value $1 (increasing its capital stock to 253,900 shares), to Hope, and Hope proposes to accept said stock, in full payment of the $100,000 of Registered Notes held by Hope and the $143,900 of indebtedness set forth above.

Hope proposes, if such transactions are consummated, to cancel accrued interest in the amount of $32,174 stated to be due to it from Texas.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said application or declaration (or both) shall not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on September 18, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which the hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing copies of this order by registered mail to Hope Engineering Company and to Texas Eastern Oil Company; and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings, or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before September 14, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Texas shall give additional notice of said hearing to all known holders of its common stocks, by causing a copy of this notice and order for hearing to be mailed to such holders at their last-known addresses, such mailing to be made not less than ten days prior to the date of said hearing.

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application or declaration (or both), particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed issuance of securities is in conformity with the requirements of section 7 of the act;

(2) Whether the proposed action is fair and equitable to the public security holders of Texas and to the security holders of Hope;

(3) Whether the accounting entries in connection with the proposed transactions are in conformity with the standards of the Act and in accordance with sound accounting practice;

(4) Generally, whether in any respect, the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers or will tend to circumvent any provisions of the Act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder;

(5) Whether, if the proposed transactions are authorized, the imposition of terms and conditions is necessary and appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers and, if so, what terms and conditions should be imposed.

By the Commission.

PEOPLES LIGHT AND POWER CO., ET AL.

ORDER APPROVING APPLICATIONS AND PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 1st day of September A. D. 1944.

In the matter of Peoples Light and Power Company and subsidiary companies, applicants, File No. 54-67; Peoples Light and Power Company, California Public Service Company, Texas Public Service Company, Texas Public Service Farm Company, West Coast Power Company, respondents, File No. 59-64.

The Commission having, on March 9, 1943 instituted proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "Act") involving Peoples Light and Power Company ("Peoples"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiaries; and

Peoples and one of its subsidiaries, West Coast Power Company ("West Coast"), having filed declarations and applications pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to: (1) the sale by West Coast of its electric properties and assets in the State of Idaho, (2) the sale by West Coast of its water properties and assets in Hailey, Idaho, (3) the payment by West Coast to Peoples of a dividend out of earned surplus and a distribution of cash by West Coast to Peoples in partial liquidation, (4) the reduction by West Coast of the stated value of its 11,500 shares of no par value capital stock, (5) the modification of the indenture securing the first mortgage bonds of West Coast, and (6) the sale by Peoples of all of the outstanding capital stock of West Coast; such declarations and applications being represented to be part of a plan filed by Peoples pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act; and

The Commission having ordered that the proceedings with respect to the application heretofore filed by Peoples pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act and the proceedings instituted pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) thereof be consolidated; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice, and the Commission having considered the record and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein;

The applicants and declarants having requested that the order of the Commission include an order under the act conforming with section 373 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and contain the findings therein specified;

The Commission having found that the foregoing proposed transactions are necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of said Act and are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

It is ordered, That said applications and declarations be and the same hereby are granted and permitted to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U–24.

It is further ordered, That (a) the sale by West Coast of its electric properties and other related assets located in the State of Idaho, as more fully specified and itemized in the sales agreement with Idaho Power Company dated June 12, 1944, a copy of which was filed with this Commission on July 1, 1944 and made a part hereof by reference, (b) the sale by West Coast of its water properties and other related assets located in the City of Hailey, Idaho, as more fully specified and itemized in the sales agreement with the City of Hailey, Idaho dated July 11, 1944, filed with this Commission on July 19, 1944 and made a part hereof by reference, (c) the payment of a dividend of approximately $90,000 and the partial liquidating distribution of $450,000 by West Coast to Peoples, (d) the reduction of the stated value of the 11,500 shares of outstanding capital stock of West Coast from $650,000 to $200,000 and (e) the sale of all the outstanding shares of capital stock of West Coast by Peoples, are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. This paragraph is included in our order at the request of Peoples and West Coast in view of sections 371 and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended;

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved to consider all matters relating to these consolidated proceedings not disposed of by this order, to entertain such further proceedings, to make such further and supplemental findings and to take such additional and further action as may be found by the Commission to be appropriate in the premises in connection with the consummation of said plan and related and incidental transactions.

By the Commission.

EMPIRE DISTRICT ELECTRIC CO., ET AL.

ORDER SHORTENING PERIOD FOR INVITING BIDS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 5th day of September 1944.

In the matter of the Empire District Electric Company, Ozark Utilities Company, Lawrence County Water, Light & Cold Storage Company, Benton County Utilities Corporation, and Cities Service Power & Light Company, File No. 70–902.

The Empire District Electric Company, Ozark Utilities Company, Lawrence County Water, Light & Cold Storage Company and Benton County Utilities Corporation, public utility companies and subsidiaries of Cities Service Power & Light Company and Cities Service Company, registered holding companies, together with Cities Service Power & Light Company, having filed a joint application and declaration and amendments thereto proposing, among other things, the issuance and sale at competitive bidding by The Empire District Electric Company of $10,600,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, and the sale at competitive bidding by Cities Service Power & Light Company of 350,000 shares of the $10 par value common stock of The Empire District Electric Company; and

This Commission, by order dated August 1, 1944, having ordered that said application and declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective except, however, as to the terms and conditions of the proposed sales of securities at competitive bidding and private sale, and except with respect to fees, commissions and other remuneration to be paid in respect of the proposed transactions, as to which matters jurisdiction was reserved; and

The Empire District Electric Company and Cities Service Power & Light Company having filed a request, in connection with said proposed sales of securities at competitive bidding, that the ten-day period for inviting bids as provided in Rule U-50 (b) be shortened to a period of not less than six days; and

It appearing to the Commission that the requested shortening of said period would not be detrimental to the public interest or to the interests of investors;

It is ordered, That the ten-day period for inviting bids as provided by Rule U-50 (b), with respect to the proposed sales at competitive bidding of first mortgage bonds and common stock of The Empire District Electric Company, be shortened to a period of not less than six days.

It is further ordered, That the order in this proceeding dated August 1, 1944, and the reservations of jurisdiction therein contained, shall be and remain in full force and effect.

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION.

"STERLING"

DETERMINATION OF VESSEL OWNERSHIP

Notice of determination by War Shipping Administrator pursuant to section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943 (Pub. Law 17, 78th Cong.).

Whereas on June 22, 1942, title to the vessel "Sterling" (230454) (including all spare parts, appurtenances and equipment) was requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended; and

Whereas section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943 (Pub. Law 17, 78th Cong.), provides in part as follows:

(b) The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, may determine at any time prior to the payment in full or deposit in full with the Treasurer of the United States, or the payment or deposit of 75 per centum, or just compensation therefor, that the ownership of any vessel (the title to which has been requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or the act of June 6, 1941 (Public Law 101, Seventy-seventh Congress), is not required by the United States, and after such determination has been made and notice thereof has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than the title to such vessel shall be deemed to have been requisitioned for all purposes as of the date of the original taking: Provided, however, That no such determination shall be made with respect to any vessel after the date of delivery of such vessel pursuant to title requisition except with the consent of the owner. * * *;

and

Whereas no portion of just compensation for the said vessel has been paid or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States; and

Whereas the ownership of the said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States; and

Whereas the former owner of the vessel has consented to this determination and to the return of the vessel and the conversion of the requisition of title therein to a requisition of use thereof in accordance with the above-quoted provision of law;

Now therefore, I, Emory S. Land, Administrator, War Shipping Administration, acting pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of law, do hereby determine that the ownership of said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States, and that, from and after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than title thereto shall be deemed to have been requisitioned, for all purposes, as of the date of the original taking.

The President

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9478

AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR TO TAKE POSSESSION OF AND OPERATE THE MINES, COLLIERIES, AND PREPARATION FACILITIES OF CERTAIN COAL COMPANIES

WHEREAS after investigation I find and proclaim that there are interruptions of the operations of the mines, collieries, and facilities of the companies named in the list attached hereto and made a part hereof, located in the States of Pennsylvania and West Virginia, as a result of existing and threatened strikes and other labor disturbances; that the effective prosecution of the war will be unduly impeded or delayed by such interruptions; and that the exercise, as herein specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure, in the interests of the war effort, the operation of these mines, collieries, and facilities:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 892) as amended by the War Labor Disputes Act (57 Stat. 163), as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to take possession of the mines, collieries, and preparation facilities of the companies named in the list attached hereto and made a part hereof, and of any real or personal property, and other assets, used in connection with the operation thereof; to operate or arrange for the operation of such mines, collieries, and facilities in such manner as he deems necessary for the successful prosecution of the war; and to do all things necessary for, or incidental to, the production, sale and distribution of the coal produced, prepared, or handled by the said mines, collieries, and facilities.

2. The Secretary of the Interior shall operate the said mines, collieries, and facilities in accordance with the terms and conditions of employment which are in effect at the time possession thereof is taken, subject to the provisions of section 5 of the War Labor Disputes Act. He shall provide such protection of the employees as may be necessary to maintain production, and shall take such appropriate disciplinary action, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this order.

3. In carrying out this order, the Secretary of the Interior shall act through or with the aid of such public or private instrumentalities or persons as he may designate. All Federal agencies, including but not limited to the War Manpower Commission, the National Selective Service System, the War Department, and the Department of Justice, are directed to cooperate with the Secretary of the Interior to the fullest extent possible in carrying out the purposes of this order.

4. The Secretary of the Interior shall permit the managements of the mines, collieries, and facilities taken under the provisions of this order to continue with their managerial functions to the maximum degree possible, consistent with the aims of this order.

5. Possession of the mines, collieries, and facilities taken under this order shall be terminated by the Secretary of the Interior within sixty days after he determines that the productive efficiency of the mines, collieries, and facilities has been restored to that prevailing prior to the interruption of production referred to in the recitals of this order.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9479

AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 7021 OF APRIL 19, 1935, AUTHORIZING THE GOVERNOR OF THE PANAMA CANAL TO ARRANGE FOR THE OPERATION BY THE PANAMA RAILROAD COMPANY OF PANAMA CANAL PIERS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 51 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, the last paragraph of Executive Order No. 7021 of April 19, 1935, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 51 of title 2 of the Canal Zone Code, the Governor of The Panama Canal is hereby authorized to contract with the Panama Railroad Company for the operation by that Company of Piers Nos. 6 and 16 and Mindi Dock at the Atlantic terminal, and Piers Nos. 6, 7, 16, 18, and one-half of Pier 15 at the Pacific terminal of the Panama Canal (all of which are owned by The Panama Canal), such operation to be carried on with funds of that Company and upon such terms and conditions as the Governor of The Panama Canal may deem equitable to both The Panama Canal and the Panama Railroad Company."

Part 1206—Fertilizer

Chemical Fertilizer in Puerto Rico

Paragraph (g), § 1206.501, of War Food Order No. 41 (formerly Food Production Order No. 10) (9 F.R. 1073, 4319, 5033, 7919) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(g) Fertilizer requirements for sugarcane. Each grower's requirements for chemical fertilizer for use on sugarcane during any fertilizer year shall be determined on the basis of such grower's normal use of chemical fertilizer on sugarcane in terms of a basic formula of 14–6–10 or its nitrogen equivalent in any other formula prescribed by the Farm Rationing Committee. Normal use shall be deemed to be the average amount of chemical fertilizer per acre used by such grower during the base period January 1, 1940, to April 30, 1941, as determined from the Agricultural Adjustment Agency records, but shall not be deemed to be less than 600 pounds per acre. A grower's requirements for chemical fertilizer for any fertilizer year shall be the product of his normal use of chemical fertilizer and his acreage under active cultivation during such year, as determined by the Farm Rationing Committee. In issuing a ration card for the period September 1 to the end of the following February, however, the acreage actively cultivated during the preceding fertilizer year shall be used in calculating fertilizer requirements. In issuing a ration card for the period March 1 through August 31, the actual acreage under active cultivation during the fertilizer year shall be used in making this calculation; and, if the actual acreage figure differs from the acreage figure used for the preceding period, such adjustments as may be necessary shall be made.

Notification in Case of Death

Section 111.1 (8 F.R. 7301, 9 F.R. 1343) is amended by changing the third sentence of paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 111.1 Notification to nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency. * * * Such notification will include the fact, date, place and cause of death, and will, when early shipment of the remains is practicable, request the person notified to reply by telegraph whether it is desired to have the remains shipped home, and if such shipment is desired, to designate the name and address of the funeral director to whom the remains will be consigned and the name and address of the person who will incur and be responsible for interment expenses. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22). [Par. 6, AR 600-550, 14 May 1943, as amended by C2, 22 Aug. 1944]

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

Part 306—Claims Against the United States

Burial Expenses

In § 306.51 (8 F.R. 12123) paragraph (a) (6) (i) and (ii) and paragraph (b) (5) are amended to read as follows:

§ 306.51 Expenses allowable.
(a) * * *

(6) Interment expenses. (i) Expenses not to exceed $50 incident to interment.

(ii) When the remains are shipped to the home of deceased, the next of kin will engage the services of an undertaker to receive the remains and inter them. The Government will reimburse such next of kin or other persons who incur interment expenses for such expenses actually incurred up to but not exceeding the $50 maximum; any expenses over and above this amount must be borne by the next of kin or other persons who incurred the expenses. A certificate executed by the person incurring the interment expenses, of the amount actually incurred, should be submitted by such person to the purchasing and contracting officer who arranged for preparation and shipment of the remains. The purchasing and contracting officer concerned, upon receiving such certificate, will place it in line for payment by the disbursing officer.

* * * * *

(b) For components other than the Regular Army. * * *

(5) Interment expenses not to exceed $50.

Section 306.52 paragraph (a) (2) is rescinded and the following substituted as set forth below; subparagraph (3) is redesignated (4); new subparagraph (3) and (5) are added as follows:

§ 306.52 Burial services, how obtained—
(a) Within the continental limits of United States. * * *

(2) Where death occurs at decedent's regular post, camp, or station. (i) If a burial service contract is in effect, the remains will be prepared under such contract and payment will be made by the finance officer designated in the contract to make payments thereunder.

(ii) If no burial service contract is in effect, the purchasing and contracting officer or other supply officer will negotiate with a reputable funeral director for the required embalming, preservation, casket, outside box, and hearse service, in accordance with the specifications in the Uniform Burial Service Contract form, and forward the invoices for same, properly certified, to the local finance officer for payment.

(3) Where death occurs at place other than decedent's regular post, camp, or station, and military authorities nearest to place of death handle disposition of remains. (i) If a burial service contract is in effect at place of death the remains will be prepared under such contract and payment will be made by the finance officer designated in the contract to make payments thereunder.

(ii) If no burial service contract is in effect at place of death, the military authorities nearest to the place of death should be notified to take charge, and such military authorities will obtain through negotiation the services of a reputable funeral director, make necessary arrangements for the required embalming, preservation, casket, outside box, and hearse service. The costs in such cases will vary, depending upon circumstances and cause of death, condition of remains, local facilities, etc. However, costs should be kept to the minimum obtainable under the standard set forth in the Uniform Burial Service Contract form to insure the arrival of the remains at destination in an acceptable state of preservation. Properly certified, itemized invoices in quadruplicate, and a copy of the telegram or other communication from the next of kin (or other person named as emergency addressee in the event there is no surviving next of kin) designating the name and address of the person who will incur interment expenses, will be transmitted by the military authorities negotiating for the services to The Quartermaster General for evaluation and payment.

(iii) The military authorities arranging for preparation will also arrange for necessary transportation to destination and will select an escort from available troops at their station (if remains are to be sent with an attendant). Transportation and escort will not be requested from the decedent's home station.

* * * * *

(5) Next of kin not compelled to use services of contract funeral director. In any case, regardless of whether the decedent's death occurred at his regular post, camp, or station, or away therefrom, or whether or not there was a burial contract in effect under which the remains may be prepared, the next of kin may make their own arrangements and it is not compulsory for them to utilize the services of the contract funeral director. However, reimbursement can be made as set forth below. (52 Stat. 398; 10 U.S.C. 916–916d.) (See under act 15 June 1936 (49 Stat. 1507; 10 U.S.C. 455a–455d; 32 U.S.C. 164a–164c); act 8 July 1940 (54 Stat. 743) and E.O. 8557, 30 September 1940 (Bull. 30, W.D. 1940); act 14 May 1942 (56 Stat. 281); act 1 July 1943, Public Law 110, 78th Congress). TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Bureau

Subchapter A—Income and Excess-Profits Taxes

[T. D. 5402]

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

REORGANIZATION OF CERTAIN INSOLVENT CORPORATIONS

In order to conform Regulations 111 [Part 29, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, Cum. Supp.] to section 121 of the Revenue Act of 1943, enacted February 25, 1944, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.112 (a)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5356, approved April 19, 1944, is further amended as follows:

(A) By amending the first sentence of the second paragraph to read as follows:

Exceptions to the general rule are made by section 112 (b) (1) to (5), inclusive, section 112 (b) (10) and section 112 (1) in the case of certain specifically described exchanges of property in which at the time of the exchange particular differences exist between the property parted with and the property acquired, but such differences are more formal than substantial.

(B) By inserting in the fifth paragraph thereof immediately after "inclusive," the following: "section 112 (b) (10), and section 112 (l),".

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately after § 29.112 (b) (9)–1 the following:

SEC. 121. REORGANIZATION OF CERTAIN INSOLVENT CORPORATIONS. (Revenue Act of 1943.)

(a) Nonrecognition of gain or loss on certain reorganizations. Section 112 (b) (relating to recognition of gain or loss upon certain exchanges) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

(10) Gain or loss not recognized on reorganization of corporations in certain receivership and bankruptcy proceedings. No gain or loss shall be recognized if property of a corporation (other than a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended) is transferred, in a taxable year of such corporation beginning after December 31, 1933, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation—

(A) In a receivership, foreclosure, or similar proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under section 77B or Chapter X of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, to another corporation organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, in exchange solely for stock or securities in such other corporation.

* * * * *

(e) Effective date. Provisions having the effect of the amendments made by subsection (a), * * * shall be deemed to be included in the revenue laws respectively applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1933, but shall not affect any tax liability for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943. * * *

§ 29.112 (b) (10)–1 Transfer of property of insolvent corporation in reorganization in bankruptcy or receivership proceeding—(a) Exchange solely for stock or securities. Section 112 (b) (10) provides for the nonrecognition of gain or loss upon certain exchanges made in connection with the reorganization of an insolvent corporation, hereinafter referred to in these regulations as a "section 112 (b) (10) reorganization". The section does not apply with respect to a railroad corporation as defined in section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended. In order to qualify as a section 112 (b) (10) reorganization, the transaction must satisfy the express statutory requirements as well as the underlying assumptions and purposes for which the exchange is excepted from the general rule requiring the recognition of gain or loss upon the exchange of property.

Section 112 (b) (10) applies only with respect to a reorganization effected in one of two specified types of court proceedings: (1) Receivership, foreclosure or similar proceedings, or (2) bankruptcy proceedings under section 77B or Chapter X of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended. The specific statutory requirements are the transfer of property of a corporation, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of the corporation in such proceeding, to another corporation organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, in exchange solely for stock or securities in such other corporation. If the consideration for the transfer consists of other property or money as well as stock and securities, the gain, if any, is recognized in an amount not in excess of such other property and money (see section 112 (d)), but no loss is recognized (see section 112 (e)). As to the assumption of liabilities in an exchange described in section 112 (b) (10), see section 112 (k) and see §§ 29.112 (a)–2 and 29.112 (k)–1.

Section 112 (b) (10) and so much of section 112 (d) and (e) as relates to section 112 (b) (10) are applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1933, but do not operate to affect the tax liability for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943.

The application of section 112 (b) (10) is to be strictly limited to a transaction of the character set forth in such section. Hence, the section is inapplicable unless there is a bona fide plan of reorganization approved by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding and the transfer of the property of the insolvent corporation is made pursuant to such plan. It is unnecessary that the transfer be a direct transfer from the insolvent corporation; it is sufficient if the transfer is an integral step in the consummation of the reorganization plan approved by the court. By its terms, the section has no application to a reorganization consummated by adjustment of the capital or debt structure of the insolvent corporation without the transfer of its assets to another corporation.

As used in section 112 (b) (10), the term "reorganization" is not controlled by the definition of "reorganization" contained in section 112 (g). However, certain basic requirements, implicit in the statute, which are essential to a reorganization under section 112 (g), are likewise essential to qualify a transaction as a reorganization under section 112 (b) (10). Among these requirements are a continuity of the business enterprise under the modified corporate form and a continuity of interest therein on the part of those persons who were the owners of the enterprise prior to the reorganization. Thus, the nonrecognition accorded by section 112 (b) (10) applies only to a genuine reorganization as distinguished from a liquidation and sale of property to either new or old interests supplying new capital and discharging the obligations of the old corporation. For the purpose of determining whether the requisite continuity of interest exists, the interest of creditors who have, by appropriate legal steps, obtained effective command of the property of an insolvent corporation is considered as the equivalent of a proprietary interest. But the mere possibility of a proprietary interest is not its equivalent. The determinative and controlling factors are the corporation's insolvency and the effective command by the creditors over its property. The term "insolvent" as used herein refers to insolvency at any time during the course of the proceeding referred to in section 112 (b) (10), either in the sense of excess of liabilities over assets or in the sense of inability to meet obligations as they mature.

A short-term purchase money note is not a security within the meaning of section 112 (b) (10), and the transfer of the properties of the insolvent corporation for cash and deferred payment obligations of the transferee evidenced by short-term notes is a sale and not an exchange.

(b) Exchange for stock or securities and other property or money. If an exchange would be within the provisions of section 112 (b) (10) if it were not for the fact that the consideration for the transfer of the property of the insolvent corporation consists not only of stock or securities but also of other property or money, then, as provided in section 112 (d) (1), if the other property or money received by the corporation is distributed by it pursuant to the plan of reorganization, no gain to the corporation will be recognized. Property is distributed within the meaning of this section if it is paid over or distributed to shareholders or creditors who have by appropriate legal steps obtained effective command of the property of the corporation. If the other property or money received by the corporation is not distributed by it pursuant to the plan of reorganization, the gain, if any, to the corporation from the exchange will be recognized, under the provisions of section 112 (d) (2), in an amount not in excess of the sum of money and the fair market value of the other property so received which is not distributed. In either case no loss from the exchange will be recognized (see section 112 (e)).

For the proper treatment of a transaction involving an assumption of liabilities under so much of section 112 (d) or (e) as relates to section 112 (b) (10), see section 112 (k) and the regulations prescribed thereunder.

§ 29.112 (b) (10)–2 Records to be kept and information to be filed. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, each corporation a party to a section 112 (b) (10) reorganization shall furnish a complete statement of all facts pertinent to the nonrecognition of gain or loss in connection with the exchange, including:

(a) A certified copy of the plan of reorganization approved by the court in the proceeding, together with a statement showing in full the purposes thereof and in detail all transactions incident, or pursuant, to the plan;

(b) A complete statement of the cost or other basis of all property, including all stock or securities, transferred incident to the plan;

(c) A statement of the amount of stock or securities and other property or money received in the exchange, including a statement of all distributions or other disposition made thereof. The amount of each kind of stock or securities or other property shall be stated on the basis of the fair market value thereof at the date of the exchange;

(d) A statement of the amount and nature of any liabilities assumed upon the exchange.

The information required by this section shall be filed as a part of the corporation's return for its taxable year within which the reorganization occurred, except that in the case of a taxable year beginning in 1943 and ending before September 1, 1944, the statement containing such information shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., on or before December 15, 1944.

Permanent records in substantial form shall be kept by every taxpayer who participates in a tax-free exchange in connection with a corporate reorganization showing the cost of other basis of the transferred property and the amount of stock or securities and other property or money received (including any liabilities assumed upon the exchange), in order to facilitate the determination of gain or loss from a subsequent disposition of such stock or securities and other property received from the exchange.

(b) Recognition of gain or loss of security holders in connection with certain corporate reorganizations. Section 112 (relating to recognition of gain or loss) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

(1) Exchanges by security holders in connection with certain corporate reorganizations—(1) General rule. No gain or loss shall be recognized upon an exchange consisting of the relinquishment or extinguishment of stock or securities in a corporation the plan of reorganization of which is approved by the court in a proceeding described in subsection (b) (10), in consideration of the acquisition solely of stock or securities in a corporation organized or made use of to effectuate such plan of reorganization.

(2) Exchange occurring in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1943. If the exchange occurred in a taxable year of the person acquiring such stock or securities beginning prior to January 1, 1943, then, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, gain or loss shall be recognized or not recognized—

(A) to the extent that it was recognized or not recognized in the final determination of the tax of such person for such taxable year, if such tax was finally determined prior to the ninetieth day after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943; or

(B) in cases to which subparagraph (A) is not applicable, to the extent that it would be recognized or not recognized under the latest treatment of such exchange by such person prior to December 15, 1943, in connection with his tax liability for such taxable year.

* * * * *

(c) Effective date. * * * Provisions having the effect of the amendments made by subsection (b), * * * shall be deemed to be included in the revenue laws respectively applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1931.

§ 29.112 (l)–1 Exchange in connection with reorganization of insolvent corporation—(a) In general. Section 112 (l) and so much of section 112 (c) and (e) as relates to section 112 (l) prescribe the rules relative to the recognition of gain or loss upon certain exchanges made by the holders of stock or securities of an insolvent corporation in connection with a reorganization described in section 112 (b) (10) or so much of section 112 (d) or (e) as relates to section 112 (b) (10). Under the general rule prescribed in section 112 (l) (1), no gain or loss shall be recognized if, pursuant to the plan of reorganization, stock or securities in the insolvent corporation are exchanged solely for stock or securities in the corporation organized or made use of to effectuate such plan. If, in addition to such stock or securities, other property or money is received upon such exchange, gain is recognized to the extent of such other property or money (section 112 (c)), but no loss is recognized (section 112 (e)). Section 112 (l) (2) imposes limitations upon the application of section 112 (l) (1) and so much of section 112 (c) and (e) as relates to section 112 (l) (1) in certain cases in which the exchange occurred in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943. As to the basis of the stock or securities or other property acquired upon an exchange under section 112 (l), see section 113 (a) (6).

By thus characterizing as an exchange, and regarding as a single taxable event, the event or series of events resulting in the relinquishment or extinguishment of the stock or securities in the old corporation and the acquisition in consideration thereof, in whole or in part, of stock or securities in the new corporation, the Code secures uniformity of treatment for the participating security holders, regardless of the particular steps or the procedural devices by which such exchange is effected. Thus the transaction which qualifies as a reorganization under section 112 (b) (10) may take one of several forms. In a typical creditors' reorganization there may be a transfer of the property of the old corporation to its bondholders, or the bondholders committee, upon surrender of the bonds, followed by the transfer of such property to the new corporation in consideration of stock in the latter; or there may be a transfer of the bonds to the new corporation in exchange for its stock or securities, followed by the transfer of the property of the old corporation in consideration of the surrender of its bonds. In either event, section 112 (l) treats the result to the participating security holders as an exchange of the securities of the old corporation for securities of the new corporation. In order, however, to qualify as an exchange under section 112 (l) or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates to section 112 (l) the various events resulting in the relinquishment or extinguishment of the old securities and the acquisition of the new securities must be embraced within the plan of reorganization and must be undertaken for reasons germane to the plan. If the event, or series of events, qualifies as an exchange under section 112 (l) or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates to section 112 (l), no antecedent event necessarily a component of the relinquishment or extinguishment of the securities of the old corporation in consideration of the acquisition of the securities of the new corporation shall be considered a transaction or event having consequences for income or excess profits tax purposes.

(b) Exchange solely for stock or securities. Section 112 (l) (1) provides that no gain or loss shall be recognized upon an exchange consisting of the relinquishment or extinguishment of stock or securities in an insolvent corporation described in section 112 (b) (10), or so much of section 112 (d) or (e) as relates to section 112 (b) (10), in consideration of the acquisition solely of stock or securities in a corporation organized or made use of to effectuate the plan of reorganization.

As used in section 112 (l) and this section the term security does not include a short-term note.

(c) Exchanges for stock or securities to section 112 (l) (1), where such exchange would be within section 112 (l) if it were not for the fact that the property received in the exchange consists not only of stock or securities in the corporation organized or made use of to effectuate the plan of reorganization, but also of other property or money, then:

(1) As provided in section 112 (c) (1), the gain, if any, to the taxpayer will be recognized in an amount not in excess of the sum of money and the fair market value of the other property but

(2) The loss, if any, to the taxpayer from such an exchange is not to be recognized to any extent (see section 112 (e)).

If the distribution of such other property or money by or on behalf of a corporation in the course of a reorganization described in section 112 (b) (10) has the effect of the distribution of a taxable dividend, then, as provided in section 112 (c) (2), there shall be taxed to each distributee (1) as a dividend, such amount of the gain recognized on the exchange as is not in excess of the distributee's ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913, and (2) as a gain from the exchange of property, the remainder of the gain so recognized.

Consideration received in the form of an assumption of liabilities is to be treated as "other property or money" for the purposes of so much of section 112 (c) as relates to section 112 (l).

§ 29.112 (l)–2 Recognition of gain or loss upon exchange in taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943—(a) Final determination of tax liability prior to May 25, 1944. Section 112 (l) (2) prescribes special rules relative to the recognition of gain or loss upon an exchange described in section 112 (l) (1), or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates to section 112 (l) (1), where such exchange occurred in a taxable year of a taxpayer beginning before January 1, 1943. For such purposes the statute distinguishes between cases in which there was a final determination of the tax liability prior to May 25, 1944, and cases in which there was no such final determination.

Subparagraph (A) of section 112 (l) (2) provides that if an exchange described in section 112 (l) (1), or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates to section 112 (l) (1), occurred in a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943, and the tax liability of the taxpayer for such taxable year was finally determined prior to May 25, 1944, the recognition or nonrecognition or gain or loss upon such exchange shall be determined in accordance with the facts as to recognition or nonrecognition under such final determination. Gain or loss shall be recognized in the amount in fact recognized in such final determination. If no gain or loss was in fact recognized in such final determination, then no gain or loss shall be recognized under section 112 (l).

For the purposes of this section, there is a final determination of the tax liability for a taxable year if an adjustment of the tax for such taxable year is prevented by: (1) A decision of the Board of Tax Appeals or The Tax Court, which has become final; (2) a judgment, decree, or other order by any court of competent jurisdiction, which has become final; (3) a closing agreement under section 3760; (4) a compromise under section 3761; or (5) the expiration of the period of limitations upon the assessment of a deficiency and upon the refund or credit of an overpayment.

The date upon which a decision by the Board of Tax Appeals or The Tax Court becomes final is prescribed in section 1140.

The date upon which the judgment of a court becomes final must be determined upon the basis of the facts in the particular case. Ordinarily, a judgment of a United States District Court becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed for taking an appeal, if no such appeal is duly taken within such time; and a judgment of the United States Court of Claims becomes final upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari, if no such petition is duly filed within such time.

A determination under a closing agreement becomes final on the date of its approval by the Secretary, the Under Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary.

A determination under a compromise becomes final upon the date of mailing to the taxpayer, or his duly authorized representative, of the notice of acceptance of the offer in compromise.

For periods of limitation upon the assessment and collection of deficiencies, see sections 275 to 277, inclusive; and for periods of limitation upon the allowance of a refund or credit of an overpayment, see section 322.

The fact that an adjustment in the tax liability for the taxable year may be made under a special statute of limitations, as in the case of a claim for refund under section 322 (b) (5), or under a provision such as section 734 or 3801, does not prevent a determination from becoming final within the meaning of this section.

(b) No final determination prior to May 25, 1944. If an exchange described in section 112 (l) (1), or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates to section 112 (l) (1), occurred in a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943, and the tax for such taxable year was not finally determined prior to May 25, 1944, the recognition or nonrecognition of gain or loss shall depend upon the position last maintained by the taxpayer, prior to December 15, 1943, relative to the character of such exchange as one in which the entire amount of gain or loss is recognized or one in which all or a part of the gain or loss is not recognized. For the purposes of this section, such position must have been formally maintained by the taxpayer in his return or amended return for the taxable year, in a claim for refund, in a proceeding before a court or The Tax Court or the Board of Tax Appeals, or in some formal action taken in connection with a determination or proposed determination of his tax liability for such taxable year. If the taxpayer formally maintained that such exchange constituted a transaction upon which the entire amount of the gain or loss is recognized, then gain or loss, in the amount realized upon such exchange, shall be recognized. If the taxpayer formally maintained that such exchange constituted a transaction upon which all or a part of the gain or loss is not recognized, then gain or loss shall not be recognized except to the extent that gain is recognized under section 112 (c).

§ 29.112 (l)–3 Records to be kept and information to be filed. Every taxpayer who receives stock or securities and other property or money upon an exchange described in section 112 (l), or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates thereto, in connection with a corporate reorganization, shall furnish a complete statement of all facts pertinent to the recognition or nonrecognition of gain or loss upon such exchange, including:

(1) A statement of the cost or other basis of the stock or securities transferred in the exchange, and

(2) A statement in full of the amount of stock or securities and other property or money received from the exchange, including any liability assumed upon the exchange. The amount of each kind of stock or securities and other property (other than liabilities assumed upon the exchange) received shall be set forth upon the basis of the fair market value thereof at the date of the exchange.

If the exchange occurs in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1943, the statement shall be incorporated in the taxpayer's income tax return for such taxable year. If the exchange occurred in a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1944, then:

(1) If the information is pertinent to the determination of the tax liability for a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1944, the statement shall be furnished at the time the taxpayer claims the benefit of section 112 (l), or if no such claim is made, within 30 days from the date of a request by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative; or

(2) If the information is pertinent to the determination of the tax liability for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1943, the statement shall be incorporated in the taxpayer's income tax return for such taxable year.

Permanent records in substantial form shall be kept by every taxpayer who participates in an exchange described in section 112 (l), or so much of section 112 (c) or (e) as relates thereto, showing the cost or other basis of the transferred property and the amount of stock or securities and other property or money received (including any liabilities assumed upon the exchange), in order to facilitate the determination of gain or loss from a subsequent disposition of such stock or securities and other property received from the exchange.

(c) Basis. Section 113 (a) (relating to basis of property) is amended—

* * * * *

(3) By inserting after paragraph (21) the following:

(22) Property acquired on reorganization of certain corporations.—If the property was acquired by a corporation upon a transfer to which section 112 (b) (10), or so much of section 112 (d) or (e) as relates to section 112 (b) (10), is applicable, then, notwithstanding the provisions of section 270 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, the basis in the hands of the acquiring corporation shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the corporation whose property was so acquired, increased in the amount of gain recognized to the corporation whose property was so acquired under the law applicable to the year in which the acquisition occurred, and such basis shall not be adjusted under subsection (b) (3) by reason of a discharge of indebtedness pursuant to the plan of reorganization under which such transfer was made.

* * * * *

(e) Effective date. Provisions having the effect of the amendments made by * * * subsection (c) (3), * * * shall be deemed to be included in the revenue laws respectively applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1933, but shall not affect any tax liability for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943. * * *

§ 29.113 (a) (22)-1 Basis of property acquired by corporation as result of certain bankruptcy or receivership proceedings. If, as the result of a transaction described in section 112 (b) (10), or so much of section 112 (d) or (e) as relates thereto, the property of an insolvent corporation is transferred, in pursuance of a plan of reorganization, to a corporation organized or made use of to effectuate such plan, the basis of such property in the hands of the acquiring corporation is the same as it would be in the hands of the insolvent corporation, increased in the amount of gain recognized upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made. In any such case, the adjustments to basis provided by section 270 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, or section 113 (b) (3) of the Code, shall not be made in respect of any indebtedness cancelled pursuant to the plan of reorganization under which the transfer was made. If the transaction falls within the provisions of section 113 (a) (22), the basis of the property involved shall be determined pursuant to such provisions, notwithstanding that the transaction might otherwise fall within another provision of section 113 (a).

The provisions of section 113 (a) (22) are applicable in the determination of basis for all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1933, except that the basis so determined shall not be given effect in the determination of the tax liability for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1943. With the exception indicated, the basis so prescribed is applicable both for income and excess profits tax purposes from the date of acquisition of such property.

Example (1). On January 1, 1935, the Y Corporation, a taxpayer making its returns on the calendar year basis, acquired depreciable property from the X Corporation as the result of a transaction described in section 113 (a) (22). On January 1, 1935, the property had, in the hands of the X Corporation, a basis of $200,000, an adjusted basis of $150,000, a fair market value as of January 1, 1935, of $80,000, and an estimated remaining life of 20 years. The 1935 transaction was treated as a taxable exchange and, accordingly, the Y Corporation claimed and was allowed depreciation in the amount of $4,000 for each of the nine taxable years 1935 through 1943, inclusive. On June 30, 1944, the property was sold for $40,000, cash. The amount of the loss sustained upon the sale is computed as follows:

Basis to Y Corporation (section 113 (a) (22))		$200,000
Adjustment for depreciation in the hands of X Corporation (section 113 (b))		50,000
Adjusted basis for depreciation in the hands of Y Corporation		$150,000
Deduct: Depreciation sustained in amount of $7,500 per year (1/20 of $150,000) for nine and one-half years, from January 1, 1935, through June 30, 1944		71,250
Adjusted basis for computing gain or loss		78,750
Sale price		40,000
Loss sustained		38,750

For the taxable years 1943 and 1944, the Y Corporation is entitled to deductions for depreciation in respect of such property in the amounts of $7,500 and $3,750, respectively, in the determination of its tax liabilities for such years. But no change in the tax liability is authorized for preceding taxable years by reason of the difference between the $7,500 depreciation sustained and the $4,000 deduction previously allowed.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that the property acquired by the Y Corporation had a fair market value as of January 1, 1935, of $180,000, instead of $80,000, and that the Y Corporation claimed and was allowed depreciation in the amount of $9,000 for each of the 8 taxable years 1935 to 1942, inclusive, and in the amount of $7,500 for the taxable year 1943. In such case, the amount of the loss sustained upon the sale of the property would be computed as follows:

Adjusted basis for depreciation in the hands of Y Corporation as computed in example (1)		$150,000
Deduct:
(1) Depreciation allowed in the amount of $9,000 per year for eight years, January 1, 1935 to December 31, 1942	$72,000
(2) Depreciation allowable for taxable years 1943 and 1944 (1½ times $7,500)	11,250
		83,250
Adjusted basis for computing gain or loss		66,750
Sale price		40,000
Loss sustained		26,750

No change in the tax liability is authorized for taxable years preceding 1943 by reason of the difference between the $7,500 depreciation sustained and the $9,000 deduction previously allowed.

PAR. 19. Section 29.113 (b) (1)-1 is amended by striking out of the first paragraph "section 113 (a) (1) to (21)" and inserting in lieu thereof "section 113 (a) (1) to (22)".

PAR. 20. Section 29.113 (b) (1)-2 is amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

In addition to the adjustments provided in section 113 (b) (1) and § 29.113 (b) (1)-1 which are required to be made with respect to the cost or other basis of property, a further adjustment is required in certain cases in which there has been a cancellation or reduction of indebtedness in a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act, as amended. Except as otherwise provided in section 113 (a) (21) or (22), or 113 (b) (4), such further adjustment shall be made in any case in which there shall have been a cancellation or reduction of indebtedness in any proceeding under section 12, 74

(except in the case of a "wage earner", as defined in the Bankruptcy Act, as amended), or 77B or under Chapter X, XI, XII of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898, as amended.

PAR. 21. The first sentence of § 29.113 (b) (3)–1 is amended to read as follows:

In addition to the adjustments provided in section 112 (b) (1) and § 29.113 (b) (1)–1 which are required to be made with respect to the cost or other basis of property, and except as otherwise provided in section 113 (a) (21) or (22), or 113 (b) (4), a further adjustment shall be made in any case in which there shall have been an exclusion from gross income under section 22 (b) (9) on account of the discharge of indebtedness of a corporation during the taxable year.

PAR. 22. Section 29.115–11 as amended by Treasury Decision 5304, approved November 12, 1943, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after subparagraph (4) of the third paragraph thereof the following:

(5) The distribution, in a taxable year of the distributee beginning after December 31, 1931, by or on behalf of an insolvent corporation, in connection with a section 112 (b) (10) reorganization, of stock or securities in a corporation organized or made use of to effectuate the plan of reorganization, if under section 112 (1) no gain to the distributee from the receipt of such stock or securities was recognized by law.

(B) By striking out of the third paragraph thereof "or (4)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(4), or (5)."

(C) By striking out of the third paragraph thereof "or (3)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(3), or (5)".

PAR. 23. To the extent necessary to accord with section 121 of the Revenue Act of 1943 as applicable to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, the amendments to, or additions of, §§ 29.112 (a)–1, 29.112 (c)–1, 29.112 (l)–1, (l)–2, and (l)–3, 29.113 (a) (6)–1, and 29.115–11 of Regulations 111 (covering taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941), set forth in this Treasury decision are hereby made applicable to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and after December 31, 1931 (such years being covered by Regulations 103, 101, 94, 86, and 77); and the amendments to, or additions of, §§ 29.112 (b) (10)–1, 29.112 (e)–1, 29.112 (g)–1, 29.112 (k)–1, 29.113 (a)–1 and (a)–2, 29.113 (a) (7)–1, 29.113 (a) (22)–1, 29.113 (b) (1)–1 and (b) (1)–2, and 29.113 (b) (3)–1 of Regulations 111 set forth in this Treasury decision are hereby made applicable to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, and after December 31, 1933 (such years being covered by Regulations 103, 101, 94, and 86).

(Sec. 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U.S.C. 62), corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws, and sec. 121 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.))

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

PENALTIES IN CONNECTION WITH ESTIMATED TAX

In order to conform Regulations 111 [Part 29, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, Cum. Supp.] to section 118 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.), enacted February 25, 1944, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.58–1 added by Treasury Decision 5305, approved November 12, 1943, is amended by striking "294 (a)" from the next to the last sentence of paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof "294 (d)".

PAR. 2. Section 29.58–2, added by Treasury Decision 5305, is amended by striking from the second sentence of the second paragraph of paragraph (a) "taxable year", which occurs twice in such sentence, and inserting in lieu thereof "calendar year 1943".

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately after section 60 the following:

SEC. 118. PENALTIES IN CONNECTION WITH ESTIMATED TAX. (Revenue Act of 1943.)

* * * * *

(b) Technical amendment. Section 60 (b) (relating to the application of declarations of estimated tax to short taxable years) is amended by striking out "294 (a) (3), (4), and (5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "294 (d)".

(c) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately after section 294 the following:

SEC. 118. PENALTIES IN CONNECTION WITH ESTIMATED TAX. (Revenue Act of 1943.)

(a) In general. Section 294 (relating to additions to the tax) is amended by striking out paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of subsection (a) and inserting at the end thereof the following:

(d) Estimated tax—(1) Failure to file declaration or pay installment of estimated tax—(A) Failure to file declaration. In the case of a failure to make and file a declaration of estimated tax within the time prescribed, unless such failure is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, there shall be added to the tax 5 per centum of each installment due but unpaid, and in addition, with respect to each such installment due but unpaid, 1 per centum of the unpaid amount thereof for each month (except the first) or fraction thereof during which such amount remains unpaid. In no event shall the aggregate addition to the tax under this subparagraph with respect to any installment due but unpaid, exceed 10 per centum of the unpaid portion of such installment. For the purposes of this subparagraph each installment shall be considered to be an amount equal to the amount that would have been due and payable if a declaration showing an estimated tax in the amount of the correct tax had been timely filed, and one such installment shall be considered due on the fifteenth day of the last month of that quarter of the taxable year in which the declaration is required to be filed, and another such installment shall be considered due on the fifteenth day of the last month of each succeeding quarter of the taxable year.

(B) Failure to pay installments of estimated tax declared. Where a declaration of estimated tax has been made and filed within the time prescribed, or where a declaration of estimated tax has been made and filed after the time prescribed and the Commissioner has found that failure to make and file such declaration within the time prescribed was due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, in the case of a failure to pay an installment of the estimated tax within the time prescribed, unless such failure is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, there shall be added to the tax 5 per centum of the unpaid amount of such installment, and in addition 1 per centum of such unpaid amount for each month (except the first) or fraction thereof during which such amount remains unpaid. In no event shall the aggregate addition to the tax under this subparagraph with respect to any installment due but unpaid, exceed 10 per centum of the unpaid portion of such installment.

(2) Substantial underestimate of estimated tax. If 80 per centum of the tax (determined without regard to the credits under sections 32, 35, and 466 (e)), in the case of individuals other than farmers exercising an election under section 60 (a), or 66⅔ per centum of such tax so determined in the case of such farmers, exceeds the estimated tax (increased by such credits), there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to such excess, or equal to 6 per centum of the amount by which such tax so determined exceeds the estimated tax so increased, whichever is the lesser. This paragraph shall not apply to the taxable year in which falls the death of the taxpayer, nor, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, shall it apply to the taxable year in which the taxpayer makes a timely payment of estimated tax within or before each quarter (excluding, in case the taxable year begins in 1943, any quarter beginning prior to July 1, 1943) of such year (or in the case of farmers exercising an election under section 60 (a), within the last quarter) in an amount at least as great as though computed (under such regulations) on the basis of the taxpayer's status with respect to the personal exemption and credit for dependents on the date of the filing of the declaration for such taxable year (or in the case of any such farmer, or in case the fifteenth day of the third month of the taxable year occurs after July 1, on July 1 of the taxable year) but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on his return for the preceding taxable year.

* * * * *

(c) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

PAR. 5. Section 29.294–1, added by Treasury Decision 5305, is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.294–1 Additions to the tax—(a) General. Section 294 (d) provides for certain additions to the tax in the case of:

(1) Failure to file timely a declaration of estimated tax;

(2) Failure to pay within the time prescribed any installment of declared estimated tax; and

(3) Substantial underestimate of the estimated tax.

These additions to the tax are in addition to any applicable criminal penalties.

(b) Additions for specific failures on the part of the taxpayer with respect to the estimated tax—(1) Failure to file declaration. Section 294 (d) (1) (A) provides for an addition to the tax in the case of a failure to make and file a declaration of estimated tax within the time prescribed unless such failure is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. Such addition to the tax shall be in an amount equal to 5 percent of the unpaid amount of each installment and in addition 1 percent of the unpaid amount of the installment for each month (except the first) or fraction thereof during which such amount remains unpaid. Such addition to the tax with respect to any installment due but unpaid shall not exceed 10 percent of the unpaid portion of such installment. For the purpose of determining the addition to the tax under sections 294 (d) (1) (A) each installment shall be considered to be an amount equal to the amount that would have been due and payable if a declaration showing an estimated tax in the amount of the correct tax imposed by Chapter 1 for the taxable year had been timely filed, and one such installment shall be considered due on the 15th day of the last month of that quarter of the taxable year in which the declaration is required to be filed, and another such installment shall be considered due on the 15th day of the last month of each succeeding quarter of the taxable year.

The application of section 294 (d) (1) (A) for taxable years beginning in 1943 in the case of taxpayers not entitled to elect under section 60 (a), relating to farmers, may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). An individual filed a declaration on November 15, 1943, for the calendar year 1943, disclosing an estimated tax of $2,400, and paid installments of $700 each on November 15 and December 15, 1943. He had made payments of $500 each on March 15 and June 15, 1943, on account of tax for 1942 for which he claimed credit as payments on account of estimated tax. On March 15, 1944, he filed a return on Form 1040 showing a correct tax, without regard to section 6 of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943, of $4,000 and paid the balance of the tax due, $1,600. Examination of his return disclosed that his entire income consisted of dividends and interest. The failure to file a timely declaration was not due to reasonable cause. Hence the individual is subject to the penalty imposed by section 294 (d) (1) (A). Under the facts assumed, installments of tax in the amount of $1,500 each were due and payable on September 15 and December 15, 1943, that is, one-half of $3,000, the balance of correct tax remaining after taking into account the two payments of $500 each made on March 15 and June 15, 1943, respectively. The entire amount of the September installment of $1,500 remained unpaid for two months; $800 of the same installment remained unpaid for four months; and $800 of the December installment remained unpaid for three months. The addition to the tax under section 294 (d) (1) (A), subject to the limitation of 10 percent of the unpaid amount of each installment, is computed as follows:

Unpaid amount		Percentage	Penalty before limitation	10% limitation	Addition to tax
Sept.	$1,500	5% plus 1%	$90
	800	4 times 1%	32
			122	$150	$122
Dec.	800	5% plus 2%	56	80	56
Total addition to tax under section 294 (d) (1) (A).					178

Example (2). A and B, husband and wife, are each required to file a declaration of estimated tax on or before September 15, 1943, for the calendar year 1943, but without reasonable cause fail to do so until October 15, 1943. Upon the latter date A and B file separate declarations. On the same date and also on December 15 of such year A pays $200 and B pays $50 as installments of estimated tax. A claims $100 as payment on account of estimated tax for two installments of $50 each paid on March 15 and June 15, 1943, respectively, as installments of tax for 1942. B likewise claimed $50 as payment on account of estimated tax for two installments of $25 each paid on March 15 and June 15, 1943, respectively, as installments of tax for 1942. On March 15, 1944, A and B file a joint return for the calendar year 1943, showing a correct tax without regard to section 6 of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943 in the amount of $750 after credit for tax withheld at source. Under section 294 (d) (1) (A) the addition to such tax for failure to file declarations until October 15, 1943, would be $21, that is, the sum of (1) 5 percent of $300, the amount of the first installment of the correct tax which was unpaid for one month, (2) 5 times 1 percent of $50, the amount of the installment of the correct tax which was unpaid for six months, (3) 5 percent of $50, the amount of the second installment of the correct tax which was unpaid for one month, and (4) twice 1 percent of $50 the amount of the second installment of the correct tax which was unpaid for three months.

Example (3). On September 30, 1943, C and D file a joint declaration for the calendar year 1943. The delay was not due to reasonable cause. They file separate income tax returns for that year. C's correct tax for 1943, without regard to section 6 of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943, amounts to $550, and D's correct tax for that year, similarly determined, amounts to $250. C and D declared $900 as their estimated tax. They claimed $100 as payments on account of estimated tax for two installments of $50 each paid on March 15 and June 15, 1943, respectively, as installments of tax for 1942 on the basis of a joint return filed for that year. They paid two installments of estimated tax of $400 each on September 30 and December 15, 1943. C and D are jointly liable for the addition to the tax for failure to file a timely declaration in the amount of $17.50, computed as follows:

C's correct tax	$550
D's correct tax	250
Total	$800
Less: Payments made on account of tax for 1942	100
Balance	$700
Balance divided by 2 (number of installments due)	$350
Addition to the tax (5% of $350)	$17.50

(2) Failure to pay installment of declared estimated tax. Section 294 (d) (1) (B) provides for an addition to the tax in the case of the failure to pay an installment of the declared estimated tax within the time prescribed unless such failure is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. Such addition to the tax is applicable to delinquency in payment only (1) where a timely declaration of estimated tax has been made and filed or (2) where the Commissioner has found that the failure to make and file a timely declaration was due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. Such addition to the tax shall be in an amount equal to 5 percent of the unpaid amount of each installment of declared estimated tax and in addition 1 percent of such unpaid amount for each month (except the first) or fraction thereof during which such amount remains unpaid. The addition to the tax is limited with respect to any installment due but unpaid to 10 percent of the unpaid portion of such installment. Such addition to the tax is not applicable in cases to which the addition to the tax under section 294 (d) (1) (A) applies.

The application of section 294 (d) (1) (B) for taxable years beginning in 1943 in the case of taxpayers not entitled to elect under section 60 (a), relating to farmers, may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). For the calendar year 1943 E and F, husband and wife, file timely declarations. E's separate declaration discloses a balance of estimated tax in the amount of $200. Instead of making timely payment of one installment of $100, he pays such amount ten days after the due date. The delay in payment was not due to reasonable cause. F is similarly delinquent with respect to one installment of $50 of her balance of estimated tax of $100. On the joint return of E and F for 1943 the addition to the tax with respect to the delinquent installments of estimated tax will be $7.50, which is the sum of 5 percent of $100 and 5 percent of $50.

Example (2). The timely joint declaration of G and H for the calendar year 1943 discloses a balance of estimated tax in the amount of $250. G and H are delinquent without reasonable cause for a period of less than one month in the payment of one installment of $125. They file separate income tax returns for 1943. They are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the addition to the tax for delay in paying an installment of estimated tax. Such addition amounts to $6.25, that is, 5 percent of $125.

(3) Substantial understatement of estimated tax. Section 294 (d) (2) provides for an addition to the tax in the case of a taxpayer who makes a substantial underestimate of tax on his declaration. Such addition to the tax shall not apply to the taxable year in which falls the death of the taxpayer.

For taxable years beginning in 1943, except as hereinafter provided:

(i) In the case of individuals, other than those exercising the election under section 60 (a), relating to farmers, an addition to the tax under section 294 (d) (2) is applicable in the event that the amount of the estimated tax (increased by the amounts of the credits for taxes withheld at source under sections 143, 1622 and 466) is less than 80 percent of the tax imposed by Chapter 1 for the taxable year (determined without regard to such credits). In the event of a failure to file the required declaration, the amount of the estimated tax for the purposes of this provision is zero.

(ii) In the case of individuals exercising the election under section 60 (a), relating to farmers, the addition to the tax is applicable if the amount of the estimated tax increased by the amount of the credit for taxes withheld at source on wages and the credit under section 32 is less than 66⅔ percent of the amount of the tax (determined without regard to such credits).

(iii) The addition to the tax in any case in which there has been such underestimate as comes within the scope of section 294 (d) (2) is an amount equal to:

(a) The excess of 80 percent of the tax (or 66⅔ percent, in the case of farmers exercising the option under section 60 (a)) determined without regard to the credits under sections 32, 35, and 466 (e) over the amount of the estimated tax increased by the credits under such sections; or

(b) 6 percent of the excess of the tax determined without regard to the credit under sections 32, 35, and 466 (e) over the amount of the estimated tax increased by such credits, whichever ((a) or (b)) is the lesser.

The addition to the tax for substantial underestimate of the estimated tax shall not apply to the taxable year in which the taxpayer makes a timely payment of estimated tax within or before each quarter of such year in an amount at least as great as though such estimated tax were computed under the law applicable to the taxable year on the basis of the taxpayer's status with respect to the personal exemption and credit for dependents on the date of filing the declaration, or on July 1 where the 15th day of the third month of the taxable year occurs after July 1, and on the basis of the tax withheld, and reasonably expected on the date of the filing of the declaration to be withheld, on wages received during the calendar year ending with or within the taxable year, but otherwise as though such estimated tax were computed on the basis of the normal tax net income, the surtax net income, and the Victory tax net income, shown on the taxpayer's return for the preceding taxable year, adjusted to conform to the law applicable to the taxable year. The normal tax net income, the surtax net income, and the Victory tax net income, shown on the taxpayer's return for the preceding taxable year shall be considered to be zero for the purposes of this section if for such year the taxpayer did not file a return and was not required to file a return. In the case of farmers exercising an election under section 60 (a), such addition to the tax shall not apply to the taxable year in which the taxpayer makes a timely payment of estimated tax within the last quarter of such year in an amount at least as great as though computed under the law applicable to the taxable year on the basis of the taxpayer's status with respect to the personal exemption and credit for dependents on July 1 of the taxable year or if the taxable year does not include July 1, on the date of filing the declaration, but otherwise as though computed on the basis of the normal tax net income, the surtax net income, and the Victory tax net income shown on the taxpayer's return for the preceding taxable year, adjusted to conform to the law applicable to the taxable year. In the case of a taxable year beginning in 1943, those quarters of the taxable year which began before July 1, 1943, are excluded for the purpose of determining the application of the relief provision under section 294 (d) (2).

The application of section 294 (d) (2) for a taxable year beginning in 1943 in the case of taxpayers not entitled to elect under section 60 (a), relating to farmers, may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, a professional man, on January 10, 1943, made a return for the calendar year 1942 as the head of a family. On January 14, 1943, the facts making A the head of a family ceased to exist. On September 15, 1943, A filed a declaration of estimated tax on which estimated income and Victory tax for 1943 is shown in the amount of $8,000; estimated income and Victory tax withheld, none; estimated tax $8,000; total payments to collector in March and June, 1943, on account of 1942 tax, $3,044; and an unpaid balance of estimated tax, $4,956. He made payment of the unpaid balance of estimated tax in two installments of $2,478 each on September 15, 1943, and December 15, 1943. As a result of a transaction occurring on December 27, 1943, A received taxable income in an amount which made him subject to a combined normal tax, surtax, and Victory tax for the calendar year 1943 in the amount of $15,000. A's tax at 1943 rates on 1942 income, including $20,000 earned net income, amounts to $6,642, computed as follows:

Gross income shown on return for 1942	$24,624
Less: Deductions	6,724
Net income	$17,900
Less: Personal exemption	500
Income subject to surtax	$17,400
Less: Earned income credit	1,400
Income subject to normal tax	$16,000
Gross income (no Victory tax deductions)	$24,624
Less: Victory tax exemption	624
Victory tax net income	$24,000

Computation of tax:

Normal tax at 6% on $16,000	$960
Surtax on $17,400	4,782
Victory tax at 3.75 percent on $24,000	900
Estimated tax (computed on basis of 1942 income)	6,642
Less: Payments made on account of 1942 tax	3,044
Balance (½ to be paid on or before Sept. 15, 1943 and ½ on or before Dec. 15, 1943)	3,598

Since the installment which was timely paid within the third quarter of 1943 ($2,478) is at least as great one-half of $3,598, or $1,799, that is, one-half of $6,642 reduced by the amounts paid to the collector, or $3,044 (see section 6 (f) of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943), and since the installment which was timely paid within the fourth quarter of 1943 is also at least as great as one-half of $3,598, A is not subject to the penalty for underestimating the tax for 1943.

Example (2). C, a single individual, not the head of a family, and with no dependents, received a salary of $5,000 for the calendar year 1942. He had no other income for such calendar year. The only allowable deduction shown on C's income tax return for such calendar year was $200 for contributions. On September 15, 1943, at which time C's status for personal exemption and dependents had not changed, he filed a declaration of estimated tax for the calendar year 1943. In computing his estimated tax he used the gross income, deductions, and credits shown on his 1942 return, adjusted to conform to the law applicable to 1943, and computed a tax of $1,033.30 at 1943 rates, without regard to section 6 of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943. Since his salary had been increased to $6,000 per annum on January 1, 1943, he computed his estimated income tax withheld and to be withheld during the entire year on the excess of $6,000 over the exemption for withholding of $624 as $672, at the rate of 5 percent for the first half of the year and at the rate of 20 percent for the second half of the year. C's declaration showed an estimated tax of $361.30 and a balance of estimated tax of zero after taking into account the payments C made to the collector on account of tax for 1942 in the amount of $434.60. He received more income in 1943 than anticipated at the time he filed his declaration for 1943, and his correct tax liability for that year after deducting the amount withheld was $800, without regard to section 6 of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943. The amount reasonably estimated as tax to be withheld on 1943 income plus the amounts paid to the collector on account of C's tax for 1942 satisfied in full the tax computed on the basis of his 1942 income but under the law and at the rates applicable to 1943, and hence C is not subject to the addition to the tax for substantial underestimate of estimated tax, even though the estimate was less than 80 percent of his tax liability for 1943.

[SEAL] JOSEPH D. NUNAN, Jr.,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 3290[1]—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[General Preference Order M-37-d, as Amended Sept. 7, 1944]

RAYON YARN

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rayon yarn for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3290.246[1] General Preference Order M-37-d—(a) General effect of the order. This order has superseded Supplementary order M-37-c.

(b) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(c) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Rayon yarn" means continuous filament rayon yarn made by the viscose, cuprammonium, or acetate process.

(2) "Fine rayon yarn" means rayon yarn of 300 deniers or finer.

(3) "Reserved domestic yarn" means the fine rayon yarn set aside for domestic manufacturers pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this order.

(4) "Yarn-dyed silk" means silk which was fast dyed before being woven or knitted.

(5) "Producer" means any person who produces rayon yarn.

(6) "Domestic manufacturer" means any person who consumed silk, nylon or rayon in the first six months of 1941.

(7) "Fabric converter" means any person who prior to July 26, 1941, bought silk, nylon or rayon, and caused it to be woven or knit for him on commission.

(8) "Basic monthly poundage" for any month means a poundage in terms of 100 denier rayon yarn equal to the monthly average number of pounds of raw silk (or its thrown silk equivalent) and/or nylon consumed by a person during the first six months of the year 1941. In applying the above definition to a domestic manufacturer, poundage consumed shall refer to the poundage consumed by the domestic manufacturer on his own machinery. In the case of a fabric converter, it shall refer to the poundage knit or woven by others for his account.

(9) "Current factor" for any month means a percentage which shall be established from time to time by the War Production Board. Until such time as a different factor is established, such current factor shall be 85%.

(10) "Current monthly eligibility" means:

(i) A poundage calculated as follows: Multiply the basic monthly poundage by the current manthly factor; or

(ii) A monthly eligibility specifically assigned to a named person by the War Production Board.

(11) "The equivalent of the current monthly eligibility" means a poundage calculated as follows: Divide the current monthly eligibility by 100 and multiply the result by the denier desired, but in no event by more than 200.

(d) Allocation of certain types of viscose rayon yarn. No producer shall sell or deliver any rayon yarn of the following types produced by him on or after March 1, 1943, except to persons authorised by the War Production Board to receive delivery of such yarn:

Viscose rayon yarn qualifying as yarn of 250 denier or coarser and having an average tenacity designation of 31 or higher in accordance with Table of Designations attached hereto, irrespective of elongation, in tests made under the following conditions:

(1) Yarns with three turns per inch twist shall be used.

(2) Yarn shall be conditioned until it reaches a regain equilibrium, approached from the dry side, in an atmosphere of 70 degrees Fahrenheit and 57% relative humidity.

(3) The loading rate on a constant-rate-of-loading machine shall be from 30 to 35, inclusive, grams per denier per minute. The loading rate on a pendulum type machine shall not exceed 35 grams per denier per minute.

(4) A denier tolerance of 3%, plus or minus, on deniers of 250 to 300 shall be allowed, based on the average denier of the lot tested. A denier tolerance of 2%, plus or minus, on deniers coarser than 300 shall be allowed, based on the average denier of the lot tested.

Any person desiring to receive deliveries of any such yarn from a producer or from the Defense Supplies Corporation, shall file an application for an allocation for the calendar quarter in which such deliveries are desired on Form PD-739 not later than the fifteenth day of the month preceding the month before the quarter in which such deliveries are desired.

(e) Allocations of amounts of rayon yarn for domestic manufacturers. Each producer shall each day set aside, to the extent that he possesses spindles capable of producing such fine rayon yarns:

(1) An amount of fine viscose or cuprammonium yarn equal to the production of 17% of the total number of his active spindles producing viscose or cuprammonium yarns of any denier, excluding from such total the number of spindles the production from which is equivalent to that required for filling rated orders, and for producing rayon yarn of the types specified in paragraph (d).

(2) An amount of fine acetate yarn equal to the production of 6% of the total number of his active spindles producing acetate yarns of any denier, excluding from such total the number of spindles the production from which is equivalent to that required for filling rated orders, and for producing rayon yarn of the types specified in paragraph (d).

The reserved domestic yarn thus set aside shall be selected in various denier sizes so as to yield an average denier equal to or less than the average denier of the fine rayon yarn set aside for silk replacement prior to April 1, 1942.

(f) Disposition of reserved domestic yarn—(1) Specific allocations. (i) Until October 31, 1944 the amount of reserved domestic yarn set aside by each producer pursuant to paragraph (e) shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this order as amended January 27, 1943.

(2) Beginning November 1, 1944, the amounts of reserved domestic yarn set aside by each producer pursuant to paragraph (e) shall be made available by him immediately and without further action by the War Production Board to fill orders of persons having a current monthly eligibility bearing the certification specified in paragraph (f) (4), and such yarn may be delivered only on such orders, except upon written authorization by the War Production Board.

(3) No producer shall deliver any reserved domestic yarn to any fabric converter or domestic manufacturer, and no fabric converter shall deliver any reserved domestic yarn to any domestic manufacturer, except upon orders bearing the certification specified in paragraph (f) (4), and in case such purchaser is a fabric converter unless he shall have also filed with the producer a copy of the order received by him from each commission weaver or knitter who has a current monthly eligibility, and by whom such yarn is to be woven or knit.

(4) Each person who has a current monthly eligibility, or to whom a current monthly eligibility is or has been assigned by the War Production Board, is required to place the following written certification on each order placed by him for reserved domestic yarn:

The undersigned hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he has a current monthly eligibility of ---------- pounds of rayon (filled in) 1
yarn (under paragraph (c)(10)(i) of Order M-37-d) or (which was assigned to him by letter of the War Production Board, dated ----------) 2 (filled in)
and that he is entitled to have this order filled out of reserved domestic yarn in accordance with Order M-37-d, as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar, and that the total quantity of reserved domestic yarn purchased from all sources for delivery during the same month in which the yarn hereby purchased will be delivered does not exceed the equivalent of his current monthly eligibility.

Name of Purchaser

Address
By ---
Signature and title of duly authorized officer.
Date.

(Each person who has a current monthly eligibility because he has a basic monthly poundage as defined in paragraph (c) (8) shall insert statement (1) in the certification. Each person to whom an eligibility was or is assigned by letter of the War Production Board, or whose eligibility was or is at any time revised or determined by letter of the War Production Board, shall insert statement (2) in his certification, setting forth the date of the War Production Board letter.)

(5) The War Production Board will assign a current monthly eligibility to, or increase the current monthly eligibility of, persons who have been receiving allocations of reserved domestic yarn on Form GA-233 (formerly PD-112). The eligibility of each such person who previously had no current monthly eligibility will be established on the basis of the average monthly allocations made to him during the first quarter of 1944. The revised eligibility of each such person already having a current monthly eligibility will be established on the basis of the average monthly allocations made to him during the first quarter of 1944, plus his average monthly purchases of reserved domestic yarn on Form WPB-722 (formerly PD-113) during the same period.

(6) The War Production Board may on application filed by letter assign a current monthly eligibility on a quarterly basis or for a specified period to persons who have a current monthly eligibility and are suffering undue and unreasonable hardships by reason of their inability to procure rayon yarn. No application will be granted unless the applicant shows

(i) That he has procured all the yarn he is entitled to on his current monthly eligibility; and

(ii) That he is unable to procure yarn other than reserved domestic yarn formerly obtainable by him in quantities sufficient to maintain his operations at a rate equal to his average monthly rate during the second half of 1943.

(7) No person whose current monthly eligibility heretofore was, or hereafter is, transferred, revised, reduced, determined, or cancelled by the War Production Board (or Director General for Operations) shall, if his current monthly eligibility was or is wholly transferred or cancelled, order, purchase or accept delivery of any reserved domestic yarn, or, if his current monthly eligibility was or is determined, revised or reduced, order, purchase or accept delivery of any reserved domestic yarn in any month in excess of the current monthly eligibility last established for him by War Production Board letter.

NOTE: Paragraph (f) (2) (iii) redesignated (f) (8) and amended Sept. 7, 1944.

(f) (8) No producer or fabric converter shall make delivery of any such reserved domestic yarn to any person which he knows or has reason to believe will result in the receipt by such person in that calendar month of an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of such recipient's equivalent of his current monthly eligibility. No person shall order, purchase, or accept from all sources for delivery in any one calendar month an amount of reserved domestic yarn in excess of the equivalent of his current monthly eligibility. However, any person whose current monthly eligibility amounts to less than one case may purchase and receive one case of reserved domestic yarn in any calendar month, provided he deducts the excess poundage from his purchases of reserved domestic yarn during the next two calendar months.

NOTE: Paragraph (f) (2) (iv) redesignated (f) (9) Sept. 7, 1944.

(f) (9) In making deliveries of such reserved domestic yarn pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) hosiery manufacturers operating knitting machines of 51 gauge and finer producing full-fashioned hosiery, or machines of 360 needle and finer producing seamless hosiery, shall be given first preference in the 50 and 65 denier sizes, and those operating knitting machines of 45 gauge and finer, producing full-fashioned hosiery, or machines of 320 needle and finer, producing seamless hosiery, shall be given first preference in the 75 denier size, such preferences to be granted in the production of any one month on the basis of orders placed with the producer on or before the final date set by such producer for receiving orders to be filled out of such production for such month: Provided, however, That nothing in this subparagraph shall relieve the producers from reserving the proper proportions of such denier sizes pursuant to paragraph (e) above. Manufacturers claiming such preferences shall not use any reserved domestic yarn so obtained upon any machines other than those specified herein in granting such preferences.

(g) Prohibitions against discriminatory action by producers. In making sales or deliveries of any rayon yarn, no person shall make discriminatory cuts in amounts or quantities between former customers and new customers or between new customers, who meet such person's regularly established prices and terms, and, except as provided in paragraph (f) (9) no person shall discriminate between such former customers, new customers, and his own consumption of such rayon yarn in any capacity. In determining the regular eligibility for rayon yarn other than reserved domestic yarn of customers of any producer (i. e., the amount of the residual supply after providing for reserved domestic yarn which the producer will sell to such customer) in accordance with whatever method consistent with this paragraph is adopted by the producer, amounts of reserved domestic yarn to which any customer may be entitled shall not be considered in computing such regular eligibility nor shall such regular eligibility be diminished by the amounts of such reserved domestic yarn.

(h) Prohibitions against sale of reserved domestic yarn in yarn form. No reserved domestic yarn shall be resold or exchanged in yarn form by any domestic manufacturer or fabric converter except upon the specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(i) Disposition of reserved yarn not delivered in any month. All reserved domestic yarn set aside pursuant to the provisions of this order shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this order, or held by the producer until specifically disposed of or released by the War Production Board.

(j) Changes of machinery. In the event that knitting machines, looms or similar fabricating machines which consumed the basic monthly poundage of the domestic manufacturer in the first half of 1941, are, or have been, moved from one location to another, scrapped, their operation discontinued, or their ownership or operation changed, the person or persons concerned shall immediately advise the War Production Board, which shall thereupon take any necessary action in connection therewith, including any appropriate revisions of the basic monthly poundage and current monthly eligibility and the assignment of appropriate basic monthly poundages and current monthly eligibility to any new owners or operators thereof.

(k) Doubtful cases. Whenever there is reasonable doubt as to the eligibility of any person to receive reserved domestic yarn hereunder, the matter should be referred for determination to the War Production Board.

(l) Reports and records. (1) Each producer with whom Forms GA-233 (formerly PD-112) and WPB-722 (formerly PD-113) are filed in duplicate shall promptly forward to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., one duplicate of each such certificate endorsed as follows: "Supplied by our Order No. ----" filling in the number of such supply order, together with a copy of his letter, or other form, accepting the purchaser's order.

(2) Each producer shall file with the War Production Board monthly allocation reports on Form PD-103, monthly production reports on Form PD-104, and such other reports as may hereafter be required, giving information on the yarn produced, when so required, in terms of the attached table of designations. Each fabric converter and domestic manufacturer shall also file with the War Production Board such reports as may hereafter be required. Each person who has a current monthly eligibility shall report monthly to the War Production Board on Form WPB-3858 his receipts, consumption and inventory of all rayon yarn.

(3) All persons operating under this order shall keep and preserve such certificates and records, including a complete file of invoices covering deliveries of rayon yarn, for not less than two years, as will clearly and adequately show their methods and rates of operation hereunder.

(m) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports, applications, forms or communications required under or referred to in this order, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-37-d.

(n) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(o) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

In designating yarn in accordance with the above table, the tenacity designation (an odd number) should be given first and the elongation designation (an even number) should be given next. For example, a yarn of a tenacity of 2.45 grams per denier and with an elongation of 13.6% would be referred to in terms of the above table as Type 25-14.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1378—COMMODITIES OF MILITARY SPECIFICATIONS FOR WAR PROCUREMENT AGENCIES

[MPR. 157,[1] Incl. Amdts. 1–14]

SALES AND FABRICATION OF TEXTILES, APPAREL AND RELATED ARTICLES FOR MILITARY PURPOSES

This compilation of Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 includes Amendment 14, effective September 11, 1944. The text added by Amendment 14 is underscored.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales and fabrication of textiles, apparel and related articles used for military purposes at levels which differ from the prices at which such commodities were delivered during March 1942. Such action is required in order to adjust the maximum prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation[2] (a) to allow for certain increases in labor and material costs which were not reflected in the prices of these commodities being delivered that month, and (b) to allow for increases in all costs directly resulting from changes in specification requirements. The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Administrator, generally fair and equitable. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[3]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 is hereby issued.

Appendix A—Modification of maximum prices for certain commodities and transactions.

§ 1378.1 Sales and fabrication services covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157. (a) This Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall apply, except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, and the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply, to sales or fabrication of textiles, apparel and related articles pursuant to contract with:

(1) Any war procurement agency of the United States government; or

(2) Any person who contracts to sell the purchased or fabricated commodity or a commodity processed therefrom to any war procurement agency of the United States government or to any contractor or subcontractor who physically incorporates such commodity or a commodity processed therefrom in an article being processed for any such war procurement agency: Provided, That this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall not apply to any contract for the sale or fabrication of textiles, apparel or related articles unless, at the date of the delivery of goods or supply of fabrication service pursuant thereto, there is an existing contract with a war procurement agency or a subcontract with a prime contractor who has an existing contract with a war procurement agency, and such delivery or supply takes place with reference to the ultimate fulfillment of such existing contract or subcontract.

[Proviso added by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6004, effective 8-6-42]

(b) The maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall not apply to any sale or fabrication service for which a maximum price is in effect, at the time of such sale or delivery, under the terms of any other maximum price regulation, schedule or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, except the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) (1) As used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, the term "textiles, apparel and related articles" shall mean the following commodities when made in accordance with military specifications:

(i) Yarns, textiles and textile products, except surgical gauze, surgical dressings, medicated adhesive plaster, and related health supplies.

(ii) Leather, fur and products thereof;

(iii) Wearing apparel, including findings, and other individual, organizational, or ship's personnel equipment made in whole or in part of any of the materials listed in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph (1).

[Former subparagraph (iii) revoked, former (iv) redesignated (iii) and amended by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 7507, effective 6-17-43]

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 4, 7 F.R. 5716, effective 7-27-42 and as otherwise noted]

(2) If the contracting officer of any war procurement agency of the United States Government and a person who contracts to sell or supply to such agency any commodity or fabrication service, shall both certify to the Office of Price Administration that they are unable in good faith to determine whether such commodity or fabrication service falls within the term "textiles, apparel and related articles" as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c), then such commodity shall be deemed to be included in such term and shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157.

§ 1378.2 Prohibition against dealing in textiles, apparel and related articles at prices above the maximum. (a) On and after July 1, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation:

(1) No person shall sell or deliver any textiles, apparel or related articles or supply any fabrication service in any transaction subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, at a price in excess of the maximum prices established herein;

(2) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any textiles, apparel or related articles or fabrication service in any such transaction at a price in excess of the maximum prices established herein;

(3) No person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. But any person may sell or agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery or supply. However, if the maximum price at the time of delivery or supply is higher than the maximum price at the time of contract, that higher maximum price may be collected only for those commodities or services which, pursuant to the terms of the contract, are scheduled to be delivered or supplied on or after the date when the higher price became effective. Moreover, no person, except as provided in § 1378.2 (c), may deliver, supply, or agree to deliver or supply at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery or supply.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 11605, effective 12-7-43; Am. 12, 9 F.R. 1456, effective 2-5-44; and Am. 13, 9 F.R. 10493, effective 8-25-44]

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall not be applicable to any war procurement agency or any contracting officer thereof, and any such contracting officer or any paying finance officer shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(c) Any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a contract with any war procurement agency of the United States Government, or a subcontract under such contract, who believes that a maximum price established by this regulation impedes or threatens to impede production of any textile, apparel or related article which is essential to the war program, and which is or will be the subject of such contract or subcontract, may file an application for adjustment of the maximum price established by this regulation in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6 * issued by the Office of Price Administration. Upon the filing of an application for adjustment and pending the issuance of an order granting or denying such application, contracts or subcontracts may be entered into, or offered to be entered into, and deliveries may be made, at the price requested in such application or at a lower price subject to adjustment up to the price requested: Provided, That final settlement shall be made in accordance with the order, and, if required, refunds shall be made.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4618, effective 7-1-42; amended by Am. 13, 9 F.R. 10493, effective 8-25-44]

§ 1378.3 Maximum prices for sales or fabrication of textiles, apparel and related articles for military purposes. The seller's maximum price for any sale or fabrication service covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall be determined as follows:

(a) In those cases in which the seller delivered the same article or supplied the same fabrication service in the period between April 1, 1941 and March 31, 1942, both inclusive:

The maximum price shall be the highest price at which delivery or supply thereof was made during said period, plus if any, the seller's increases in material and labor costs as defined herein.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6004, effective 8-6-42]

(1) The seller's increase in material cost shall be the difference between (i) the actual cost of material embodied in the article delivered pursuant to the highest-priced contract mentioned above and (ii) the highest cost which he would have incurred for such materials if purchased from his customary or an equivalent source of supply for delivery at any time during March 1942: Provided, That, in the case of products manufactured by the seller in whole or in part from raw jute fiber, the seller's increase in material cost for raw jute fiber shall be the difference between the cost specified in (i), above, and the cost which the seller would have incurred for such raw jute fiber if purchased from Defense Supplies Corporation on August 20, 1943.

[Proviso added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 15600, effective 11-20-42]

(2) The seller's increase in labor cost shall be the difference between (i) his labor cost for the article or fabrication service computed on the basis of wage rates paid by the seller on the date of making the highest-priced contract mentioned above and (ii) such labor cost computed on the basis of wage rates paid by the seller on March 31, 1942, plus any increase subsequent thereto made pursuant to a collective bargaining contract or other wage agreement which contract or agreement (a) was entered into on or before April 27, 1942, and (b) provides for an unconditional increase in wage rates of a fixed amount or per cent.

* 9 F.R. 10622.

(3) The foregoing costs shall be determined in accordance with the customary accounting policy of the seller.

(b) In those cases in which the seller delivered an article or supplied a fabrication service in the period between April 1, 1941 and March 31, 1942, both inclusive, the same as the article or service to be priced except for differences due to changes in specifications, including those pertaining to delivery:

The maximum price shall be the price determined in paragraph (a) of this section adjusted up or down in an amount equal to actual increases or decreases, if any, in costs directly resulting from such changes in specifications.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6004, effective 8-6-42]

§ 1378.4 Sales or fabrication of textiles, apparel and related articles for military purposes temporarily exempted from price regulation. (a) In any case in which the seller certifies that such seller, during the period between April 1, 1941 and March 31, 1942, both inclusive, did not deliver the same article or supply the same fabrication service (or an article or fabrication service the same except for difference in specifications, including those pertaining to delivery), the sale of such article or the supply of such fabrication service by such seller shall not be subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, or the General Maximum Price Regulation.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6004, effective 8-6-42]

(b) The certification by the seller, referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall be effected as follows:

(1) If the sale is made to a war procurement agency, the seller shall furnish to such agency a written certificate, and furnish a copy thereof to the Office of Price Administration within 10 days after contracting to sell or supply each article or fabrication service.

(2) If the sale is made to any person other than a war procurement agency, the seller shall furnish to his purchaser a written certificate and furnish a copy to the Office of Price Administration within 10 days after contracting to sell or supply such article or fabrication service.

(c) Sales of textiles, apparel and related articles by a war procurement agency, shall not be subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 or to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 4541 effective 6-16-42]

(d) This Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 and the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply to any sale, delivery or fabrication of field jackets pursuant to a contract with a war procurement agency or a contractor or subcontractor thereof, if such contract was entered into prior to July 27, 1942.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 4, 7 F.R. 5716, effective 7-27-42 and amended by Am. 6, 7 F.R. 6424, effective 8-19-42]

§ 1378.4a Exceptions. (a) Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall not apply to sales or deliveries of any textiles, apparels, or related articles to any war procurement agency of the United States Government pursuant to emergency purchases made by such war procurement agency for immediate delivery: Provided, That the person making such emergency purchases on behalf of the war procurement agency of the United States Government files a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 5 days after a purchase is made, certifying that it was made in a situation in which it was imperative to secure the article immediately and in which it was impossible to secure, or unfair to require, immediate delivery at the applicable maximum price, and setting forth (1) the name and address of the seller, (2) date of purchase, (3) date of delivery, (4) description of article purchased, (5) quantity purchased, (6) price at which purchased, and (7) a brief statement of the facts giving rise to the emergency situation which necessitated the purchase at a price higher than the applicable maximum price.

[Above paragraph designated (a) and (b) added by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6004, effective 8-6-42. § 1378.4a added by Am. 3, 7 F.R. 5180, effective 7-7-42]

(b) Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall not apply to sales or deliveries of any textiles, apparel or related article manufactured pursuant to a contract or subcontract with a war procurement agency which is certified to the Office of Price Administration by such war procurement agency as being a secret or confidential contract: Provided, That after the Office of Price Administration shall have received notice from such war procurement agency that such contract or subcontract is no longer deemed to be secret or confidential, this exception shall not apply to all subsequent sales and deliveries of the article.

§ 1378.5 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1378.6 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to textiles, apparel, and related items, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or any other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1378.6a [Revoked.]

[§ 1378.6a added by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 3948, effective 4-1-43 and revoked by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 7507, effective 6-17-43]

§ 1378.7 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1378.7a Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[*] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[§ 1378.7a added by Supplementary Order 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43]

§ 1378.8 Records and reports. (a) Every person making any sales or supplying any fabrication services subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 on and after June 4, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of:

(1) Each such sale made or fabrication service supplied, showing the date thereof, the war procurement agency involved, the article sold or the nature of the service supplied, the quantity of goods sold or fabricated, and the price charged or received; and

(2) The highest price charged by such person during the period between April 1, 1941 and March 31, 1942 for delivery or supply for such article or service.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6004, effective 8-6-42]

(b) Such person shall keep such records in addition to or in lieu of the records required by this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1378.8a Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business have been or shall be transferred on or after April 28, 1942, and the transferee shall carry on the business, or continue to deal in the same type of commodities or services, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligations to keep, make available, prepare and file records shall be the same. The transferor shall either prepare and make available or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

[§ 1378.8a added by Am. 14, effective 9-11-44]

§ 1378.9 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this maximum price

[*] 8 F.R. 13240.

regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[§ 1378.9 amended by Supplementary Order 26, 7 F.R. 8948, effective 11-4-42]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1378.10 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, the term:

(1) "Person" indicates an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Labor cost" means the cost of labor which is properly chargeable to the article manufactured or the service supplied, determined pursuant to the seller's customary accounting policy, but shall not include executive salaries or profit.

(3) "Seller" means a person who makes a sale or supplies a fabrication service subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, and shall include any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with such person.

(4) "Sale" means an offer to sell, a contract of sale, or a delivery pursuant to a contract of sale, but shall not include the sale of any sample.

(5) "Fabrication" and "fabrication service" mean the manufacture of an article from materials supplied in whole or substantial part by the person to whom such article, when fabricated, is supplied or delivered.

(6) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Training Organization of the War Shipping Administration and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department of the United States, or any agency of any of the foregoing, and shall be deemed to include stores operated as army canteens, post exchanges or ships' service activities.

[Subparagraph (6) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 4541, effective 6-16-42 and Am. 12, 9 F.R. 1456, effective 2-5-44]

(7) "Field jackets" means military field jackets which meet Quartermaster Corps Tentative Specification PQD No. 20 (B) March 17, 1942, superseding PQD No. 20 (A) May 6, 1941.

[Subparagraph (7) added by Am. 4, 7 F.R. 5716, effective 7-27-42]

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1378.11 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 (§§ 1378.1 to 1378.11, inclusive) shall become effective July 1, 1942. [MPR 157 originally issued June 3, 1942]

In the event that the Office of Price Administration fixes a maximum price for 3.90 yard sanforized fine yarn shirting chambray in excess of 16 cents per yard, gross, then in the case of certain deliveries of shirts made from such chambray, the maximum price shall be the maximum price fixed by § 1378.3 plus an adjustment for the increased cost of chambray. The adjusted maximum price shall be applicable only on deliveries to the Department of the Navy or to the Training Organization of the War Shipping Administration during the period between December 11, 1943 and June 30, 1944, inclusive.

The adjustment per dozen for the increased cost of the chambray shall be an amount equal to the number of yards of chambray required to produce a dozen of the shirts multiplied by the difference between the net cost per yard of the chambray on the 16 cents per yard basis and the net cost per yard of the chambray at the new and higher maximum price.

[Appendix A added by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 17374, effective 12-24-43 and amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 1456, effective 2-5-44]

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

RENT REGULATIONS

NOTE: A supplementary statement to the rent regulations pertaining to changes in established rental practices was filed with the Division of the Federal Register, September 6, 1944, 4:28 p. m. as F.R. Doc. N.P. 44-10786.

PART 1301—MACHINE TOOLS

[MPR 67,[1] Amdt. 1]

NEW MACHINE TOOLS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 4 (d) (1) (i) to Maximum Price Regulation 67 is amended to read as follows:

(i) Maximum price. Where there is a comparable machine tool produced by the same manufacturer, the maximum manufacturer's price for a machine tool covered by this paragraph (d) shall be the maximum price established by this regulation for the most nearly comparable machine tool produced by the same manufacturer, adjusted to reflect increases or decreases in current manufacturing costs due to structural differences. If the manufacturer intends to distribute the machine tool through dealers, he shall add to this increase or decrease in factory cost the amount of the resale discount allocable to such change in factory cost. For example: Assuming a change in factory cost of $225, and a resale discount of 10%, the amount of the resale discount allocable to the change in cost is $25, which is added. The change in list price will be $250 which, upon sale through a distributor at the 10% discount, will return to the manufacturer $225, or the factory cost of the change.

This amendment shall become effective September 12, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[RO 1A[1] Amdt. 84]

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 1A is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.305 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) No board other than an Emergency Truck Tire Board shall issue a certificate for a truck tire with a cross-section size 8.25 or larger, unless it has been instructed to do so by an Emergency Truck Tire Board or a District Director. A District Director may act only when a decision as to the issuance of a certificate must be reached before an Emergency Truck Tire Board can be convened.

2. Section 1315.506 (a) (1) (i) and (ii) are amended to read as follows:

(i) An applicant may be granted a certificate only for a tractor-implement or a Grade III tire for such a vehicle, except that, when the vehicle cannot be operated with either type of tire, the applicant may be granted a certificate for a used truck-type tire.

(ii) In any area where recapping facilities are unavailable or inadequate, an applicant may be granted a certificate for a small tractor-implement tire or a Grade III tire for such a vehicle, even though the tire to be replaced is recappable; and if the vehicle cannot be operated with either type of tire, the applicant may be granted a certificate for a used truck-type tire.

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[Rev. RO 1C,[1] Amdt. 1]

TIRE RATIONING REGULATIONS FOR THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 1C is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4.4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4.4 Eligibility—List C. After all List A and List B applicants have been satisfied, but not before the 25th day of each month, a certificate authorizing the purchase or acceptance of delivery of new or used tires or new or used tubes may be granted, but only to the extent provided in section 4.1 (General proof of need) and otherwise provided in this order, to equip any vehicle, including animal drawn vehicles, not included in sections 4.2 (List A) and 4.3 (List B).

2. Section 5.10 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Use of certificate. A certificate properly executed and issued may be used by the person to whom it was issued within the time and for the purpose specified thereon. After the expiration date thereon, the certificate shall be void if in the applicant's hand (but not if in the dealer's hand) and the applicant shall surrender it to the issuing Board.

3. Section 5.11 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Delivery pursuant to certificate. If the foregoing requirements have been fulfilled, the dealer to whom the certificate has been surrendered, shall immediately deliver to the person indicated thereon, or to his agent, no more than the exact number, type and wheel or rim size of tires or tubes set forth on the certificates; except as otherwise provided for in section 6.3 (b).

This amendment shall become effective September 7, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

JACOB A. ROBLES,
Territorial Director,
Virgin Islands.

Approved:

GERALD A. BARRETT,
Acting Regional Administrator.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 120, Corr. to Amdt. 116]

BITUMINOUS COAL DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

Amendment No. 116 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 is corrected in the following respects:

1. In § 1340.221 (b) (1) in the column headed "Mine index numbers" of the table entitled "Prices and Size Group Numbers", No. 1216 is deleted and No. 1296 is inserted in lieu thereof.

2. In the same table in the column headed "Washed chestnut and egg", the word "egg" is deleted and the word "pea" is inserted in lieu thereof.

3. In § 1340.221 (b) (6) the numeral (6) is deleted and the numeral (5) is inserted in lieu thereof.

This correction to Amendment No. 116 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 shall be effective as of August 22, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 120,[1] Amdt. 119]

BITUMINOUS COAL DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1340.210 (a) (10) in the first paragraph the clause beginning with the word "except" is amended to read as follows "except as is otherwise provided in subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) below."

2. In § 1340.210 (a) (10) in the second paragraph the second sentence is amended to read as follows:

Provision is made in subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) below for the obtaining of such permission; subdivision (i) states how and by what persons such permission may be obtained with regard to shipments other than those by lake and tidewater, subdivision (ii) states the same generally with regard to lake and tidewater shipments and subdivision (iii) specifies the service charges that may be made on sales for the account of the Office of Foreign Economic Administration for Lend-Lease purposes.

3. In § 1340.210 (a) (10) a new subdivision (iii) is added to read as follows:

(iii) On sales to a procurement agency of the United States for the account of the Office of Foreign Economic Administration for purposes of Lend-Lease there may be added to any price established under this regulation the sum of five cents per net ton. Furthermore, on f. o. b. vessel transactions in the event the seller pays the inland transportation charges to the port of exit and assumes railroad demurrage charges he may add an additional 15 cents per net ton to the price established under this regulation.

This amendment shall become effective as of August 8, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 189,[1] Amdt. 25]

BITUMINOUS COAL SOLD FOR DIRECT USE AS BUNKER FUEL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 189 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1340.313 (f) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) This subparagraph sets forth a table of maximum prices for ex-lighter or ex-barge deliveries of bunker fuel to cargo or passenger vessels (except excursion steamers bunkering through pockets at loading piers). (i) Maximum prices in the table are in cents per gross ton and are f. a. s. (free alongside) the vessel to be bunkered.

The maximum prices per gross ton are:

Grade	A	B	C
Foreign vessels	740	730	720
Domestic vessels	750	740	730

(ii) If the coal is transported by steam lighter alongside the vessel to be bunkered, the supplier shall reduce the above prices by at least 20 cents if the coal is delivered from a lower pier, or by at least 24 cents if the coal is delivered from an upper pier. To such reduced price, the supplier shall add the steam lighterage charge to obtain the applicable f. a. s. maximum price, or the supplier may sell the coal at a maximum f. o. b. steam lighter price not in excess of such reduced price.

(iii) Permissible additions to f. a. s. prices. (a) In general the supplier may add to the applicable f. a. s. price certain costs incurred before placing the coal alongside of the vessel. Such costs include detention of men and equipment, lighterage charges for hauling and towing less than the lighter's minimum quantity, charges for special non-flotilla towing incurred through no fault of the supplier, and lighterage charges for lightering outside the "free harbor limits."

(b) The supplier may also add to the applicable maximum f. a. s. prices all costs incurred in placing the coal aboard the vessel. Such costs include stevedoring, overtime, detention of men and equipment, running lines, bunkering in stream, etc., as well as workmen's compensation and social security taxes on the first three items.

(c) When a certain tonnage ordered is rejected by the vessel for reasons other than that the quality of coal delivered is not the same as ordered or for other fault of the supplier, the supplier may charge the vessel, in addition to the maximum price for the coals placed aboard the vessel; towing charges incurred for transporting the rejected coals to the vessel and back to the supplier's loading piers.

(d) The supplier may make no additions to the applicable maximum f. a. s. price for administrative or selling expenses, costs of coal or transportation, except as provided in this paragraph (f).

2. In § 1340.313 (f) (2), the following is added:

If a supplier delivers tugboat bunker fuel from bins or pockets containing a mixture of grade A, B, and C coals, an application may be filed with the New York Regional Office for the establishment of a maximum price for such mixed coals to be effective during the ensuing three months or until a new price is established. This maximum price shall be the weighted average of the maximum prices of the coals entering the mixture and sold for tugboat bunker fuel during the previous three months. Upon the 10th of the fourth month following the filing of an original application, and every fourth month thereafter the supplier shall file with the New York Regional Office a list showing the origin of all coals entering his bins during the preceding three months, setting out the name of the producer, of the mine, the mine index number, size of the coal, the f. o. b. mine price, the freight rate paid on each car, the total tonnage of all coals sold for tugboat bunker fuel during the preceding three months, the total tonnages of unmixed coals of A, B, or C grade sold for tugboat bunker fuel during the preceding three months, and the total tonnage of coals mixed in the bins sold for tugboat bunker fuel during the preceding three months with a statement of the tonnage of each of the various grades entering the mixture.

3. In § 1340.313 (f) (3), the first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

The maximum prices in cents per gross ton for t. i. b., (trimmed in bunker) deliveries of bunker fuel made directly to cargo and passenger vessels, from the St. George Coal Piers, Staten Island, New York, are:

Grade	A	B	C
Foreign vessels	770	760	750
Domestic vessels	780	770	760

The maximum prices for tugboat bunker fuel deliveries from the St. George Coal Piers are those set out in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (f).

4. In § 1340.313 (f) (5) a new subparagraph (vii) is added to read as follows:

(vii) "Non-flotilla towing" refers to movement of coal by tows outside the regular flotilla movement.

5. Section 1340.313 (f) (7) is redesignated § 1340.313 (f) (8) and a new § 1340.313 (f) (7) is inserted to read as follows:

(7) All invoices for bunker fuel sold in New York harbor shall list the f. o. b., f. a. s., or t. i. b., sales price of the delivered coal and itemize all additional charges made in accordance with this paragraph (f). Where a special price for a mixture of different grades of tugboat fuel has been authorized by the New York Regional Office, the invoice covering sales of a mixture of different grades of tugboat bunker fuel shall state that the coal is a mixture of specified grades.

This amendment shall become effective September 7, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[MPR 475,[1] Amdt. 5]

DRIED FRUITS, 1943 AND LATER CROPS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 475 is amended in the following respects:

1. In the first sentence of section 2 (e) the word "packer" is substituted for the word "processor."

2. Section 2 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) All maximum prices, except for government sales and sales described in paragraph (j) of this section, include brokerage. The packer shall maintain his customary cash and quantity discounts to different classes of purchasers.

3. Section 2 (j) is added to read as follows:

(j) For dried prunes and raisins of the 1943 crop (other than Three Crown London Layer Muscats and Zante Currants), the base price to be used by the packer in determining his maximum export prices under Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [2] shall be the maximum prices respectively set forth in paragraphs (a) (4) (i) and (a) (5) (i) of this section for sales to government procurement agencies, in each case, plus an amount, based on those prices, equal to the discount customarily allowed in cash sales and the selling expense customarily included in prices in civilian sales, but not in excess of 5% for both selling expense and cash discounts. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to sales to government procurement agencies of the United States.

This amendment shall become effective September 12, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

PART 1364—FISH, CURED, AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS

[MPR 364,[1] Incl. Amdts. 1-20]

FROZEN FISH AND SEAFOOD

This compilation of Maximum Price Regulation 364 includes Amendment 20, effective September 11, 1944. The text amended by Amendment 11 is underscored. Redesignations and the amendments to the table are indicated by notes.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, that maximum prices be established for the sale by processors and wholesalers of frozen fish and seafood.

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has consulted and advised with representative members of the industry which will be affected by the regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices established are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the act. The prices established are not below the average price of frozen fish and seafood in the year 1941.

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

[Preamble amended by Supplementary Order 66, 8 F.R. 12563, effective 9-11-43]

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of the regulation has been issued herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

§ 1364.1151 Maximum prices for frozen fish and seafood. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 364 (Frozen Fish and Seafood), which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

13 Table of base prices for frozen fish and seafood.

ARTICLE I—PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF REGULATION

SECTION 1. What this regulation does—(a) Sales covered. This regulation fixes the maximum prices at which processors and wholesalers may sell frozen fish and seafood. These maximum prices are fixed according to species, grade, style of processing and size, as listed in section 13. The General Maximum Price Regulation applies to sales of frozen fish and seafood of any species or style of processing not listed in section 13. The provisions of this regulation do not apply to any sales at retail. A sale at retail is a sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user.

The maximum price at which a person may export frozen fish and seafood covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation and amendments.

(b) Prohibitions. On and after April 13, 1943, the effective date of this regulation, no processor or wholesaler may sell or deliver, and no person in the course of trade or business may buy or receive from any processor or wholesaler, any frozen fish or seafood listed in section 13 at prices higher than those established by this regulation; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. However, prices lower than those established by this regulation may be charged and paid.

[Section 1 amended by Am. 20, effective 9-11-44]

SEC. 2. How processors' maximum prices are fixed—(a) General rule. The processor's maximum price for sales of frozen fish or seafood, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) of this section, is the applicable listed base price in section 13, with any appropriate adjustment for kind of package as provided in section 12, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4. This is the maximum price f. o. b. shipping point nearest freezer or other warehouse.

(b) Branch warehouse sales. Where the processor receives frozen fish or seafood in carload lots at a warehouse remote from the original freezer and sells and delivers such frozen fish or seafood in less-than-carload lots from the stock of such warehouse, his maximum price f. o. b. shipping point nearest warehouse for such sales to wholesalers, government agencies, retailer-owned cooperatives or chain store warehouses is the applicable listed base price in section 13, with any appropriate adjustment for kind of package as provided in section 12, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (a) (1), plus a mark-up of 15 percent applied to the sum of the foregoing, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (a) (2).

However the price established in paragraph (b) may be charged by such processor only if he has two or more full time employees stationed in the city where such warehouse is located, and such employees are engaged in selling frozen fish or seafood and performing services solely for such processor. Furthermore, the price established in paragraph (b) applies only to sales of those species of frozen fish or seafood which such processor, during the greater portion of the year preceding April 13, 1943, received at such warehouse for the most part in carload lots and sold and delivered from such warehouse for the most part in less-than-carload lots.

(c) Cash and carry sales to retailers and purveyors of meals. The processor's maximum price for sales of frozen fish and seafood ex freezer, platform or other warehouse to individual retailers or purveyors of meals is the applicable listed base price in section 13, with any appropriate adjustment for kind of package as provided in section 12, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (a) (1), plus a mark-up of 15 percent applied to the sum of the foregoing, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (a) (2).

(d) Service and delivery sales to retailers and purveyors of meals. The processor's maximum price for sales of frozen fish and seafood to individual retailers or purveyors of meals, where the processor delivers such fish or seafood in his own motor truck or wagon or in a motor truck or wagon used solely for his own deliveries from his established place of doing business to the individual retail store or to the place of doing business of the purveyor of meals, is the applicable listed base price in section 13, with any appropriate adjustment for kind of package as provided in section 12, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (a) (1), plus a mark-up of 25 percent applied to the sum of the foregoing, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (a) (2).

(e) Special provisions applicable to processors' sales of frozen halibut. The processor in determining his maximum price for frozen halibut under the provisions of paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section 2 shall use as the base price plus any transportation allowance the lowest amount determined by the application of the following three: (1) The appropriate base price listed in section 13 for frozen halibut which was originally landed fresh on the Pacific Coast of the Continental United States plus the rail rate for frozen fish for the type of shipment used from Seattle, Washington, to the processor's distribution point; (2) the appropriate base price listed in section 13 for frozen halibut which was originally landed fresh on the Pacific Coast of Canada plus the rail rate for frozen fish for the type of shipment used from Prince Rupert, British Columbia, to the processor's distribution point or (3) the appropriate base price listed in section 13 with respect to the point of landing plus the transportation allowance provided in section 4.

[Sec. 2 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566 effective 4–26–43; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4–22–44, except that with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers, both located west of the Mississippi River effective 5–11–44; Am. 18, 9 F.R. 5163, effective 5–20–44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44 and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894; 8 F.R. 1312, 3702) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

[NOTE: Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (8 F.R. 12404) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to procurement agencies of the United States.]

SEC. 3. How wholesalers' maximum prices are fixed—(a) General instructions. Each wholesaler's maximum price for the kind of frozen fish or seafood listed in section 13 is found by multiplying his "net cost", as defined in the following paragraph (b), by the appropriate percentage mark-up figure, set out in the following paragraphs (c) and (d), adding the result to the net cost, and adding thereto the allowance in section 4 (b) (2) for transportation between warehouses of the same wholesaler, when such transportation is involved.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44 and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(b) Net cost. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph the wholesaler's "net cost" is the amount he paid for the particular item of frozen fish or seafood delivered at his established place of doing business, plus or minus any appropriate package differentials listed in section 12, less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment, and excluding all charges for local trucking, hauling and handling.

When a wholesaler buys frozen fish or seafood in a style of processing for which a base price is listed in section 13 and further processes it in a style of processing for which a different price is listed, he may add to his net cost the difference between the two base prices.

(2) The wholesaler's "net cost" must not exceed the sum of the following: (i) the applicable listed base price in section 13, plus or minus (ii) any appropriate package differentials listed in section 13 added or subtracted by previous handlers of the fish or seafood, plus (iii) allowable transportation costs added by previous handlers of the fish or seafood, plus (iv) the appropriate mark-up, if any, allowed his supplier, plus or minus (v) any package differentials listed in section 13 for repackaging, if any, by the wholesaler, plus (vi) allowable transportation costs for delivery of the frozen fish or seafood to the wholesaler's established place of doing business, from his supplier's place of business, exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges.

(3) Net cost for sales of halibut. The wholesaler, in determining his "net cost" for sales of frozen halibut in accordance with the provisions of section 3 (b) (1) and (2), shall use as the base price plus any transportation allowance permitted him or his supplier the lowest amount determined by the application of the following three: (1) The appropriate base price listed in section 13 for frozen halibut which was originally landed fresh on the Pacific Coast of the Continental United States plus the rail rate for frozen fish for the type of shipment used from Seattle, Washington, to his established place of business; (2) the appropriate base price listed in section 13 for halibut which was originally landed fresh on the Pacific Coast of Canada plus the rail rate for frozen fish for the type of shipment used from Prince Rupert, British Columbia, to his established place of business; (3) the appropriate base price listed in section 13 with respect to the point of landing plus the transportation allowance permitted him or his supplier in section 4.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 16998, effective 12–17–43; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4–22–44, except that with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers, both located west of the Mississippi River, effective 5–11–44; Am. 18, 9 F.R. 5163, effective 5–20–44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44; and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(c) Wholesaler's mark-up for different classes of sales. Mark-up is the percentage over net cost set forth hereinafter for the type of sale involved. To obtain the selling price, multiply the net cost by the percentage mark-up figure; the result added to the net cost is the selling price. The mark-up which applies in any particular sale depends on the class in which the buyer and seller fall and the kind of service performed in the particular sale. The classes, types of service, and mark-ups are set forth in the following paragraph (d).

No wholesaler who purchases frozen fish or seafood from another wholesaler or from a processor whose sales are governed by section 2 (b) may sell such frozen fish and seafood to other wholesalers at a price higher than his supplier's maximum price plus transportation cost allowable under section 4 (b).

In no event shall the price charged for a sale to an individual retailer or purveyor of meals include more than one mark-up of either 7 percent or 12 percent, as the case may be (regardless of whether the mark-up is taken pursuant to this section or section 2), and one retailer-owned cooperative or cash and carry or service and delivery wholesaler mark-up.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566, effective 4–26–43; Am. 10, 9 F.R. 183, effective 1–8–44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44; and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(d) Classes of sales at wholesale for the purpose of this regulation. Depending upon the type sale to be made, a wholesaler will fall within one of the following classes. After the proper class is determined, the wholesaler will apply the mark-up provided for that class of sale:

(1) Primary wholesalers. Primary wholesalers with respect to any species of fish or seafood listed in the table of base prices of section 13 are wholesalers who buy frozen fish or seafood from processors in carload lots and distribute it for resale to other wholesalers, government agencies, retailer-owned cooperatives or chain store warehouses in less-than-carload lots, and who, during the greater part of the year preceding April 13, 1943, bought the greater portion of the frozen fish or seafood they sold in carload lots and distributed the greater portion of such fish or seafood in less-than-carload lots. In the sale of frozen fish or seafood which has been unloaded, stored and warehoused in the regular course of his business, the primary wholesaler's mark-up is 12 percent. In the case of sales of fish or seafood which has not been stored and warehoused, the primary wholesaler's mark-up is 7 percent. In the case of sales involving delivery from the processor's cold storage warehouse to the primary wholesaler's customer, there is no mark-up. Sales to wholesalers, government agencies, retailer-owned cooperatives, or chain store warehouses by wholesalers other than those who qualify as primary wholesalers as defined in this section shall be at prices no higher than their supplier's ceiling prices plus transportation costs allowable under section 4 (b), except for such less-than-carload lot sales to government agencies to which subparagraphs (3) and (4) of section 3 (d) are applicable.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 16998, effective 12–17–43; Am. 10, 9 F.R. 183, effective 1–8–44; Am. 11, 9 F.R. 946, effective 1–24–44; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4–22–44, except that with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers, both located west of the Mississippi River, effective 5–11–44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44; and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(2) Retailer-owned cooperative wholesalers. This class includes wholesalers which are either non-profit organizations or corporations of which 51% or more of the stock is owned by its retailer customers and which generally sell and deliver from a cold storage warehouse to affiliated retail stores. The mark-up for this class of wholesaler is 10% to affiliated retail stores.

(3) Cash and carry sales. Cash and carry sales are sales of frozen fish or seafood to individual retailers and purveyors of meals by wholesalers and whose sales are made ex freezer or platform. The mark-up for this class of sale is 15 percent.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44; and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(4) Service and delivery sales. Service and delivery sales are sales of frozen fish or seafood by wholesalers to individual retailers or purveyors of meals where the wholesaler delivers such frozen fish or seafood in his own motor truck or wagon or in a motor truck or wagon used solely for his own deliveries from his established place of doing business to the individual retail store or to the place of doing business of the purveyor of meals. The mark-up for this class of sale is 25%.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 16998, effective 12–17–43; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44; and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(5) Broken lots. An allowance of 10 percent may be added to the mark-up for the classes of sales specified in the regulation by a processor or wholesaler who sells frozen fish or seafood, other than fillets or steaks, in broken lots to retailers or purveyors of meals: Provided, That no such allowance may be added for fish or seafood sold or delivered from the place where it has been frozen. A sale of a broken lot of fish or seafood is a sale of a partial lot of fish or seafood which the processor or wholesaler has broken or separated from the original content of the immediate container in which the product had been packed by the processor and which partial lot the processor or wholesaler sells and delivers to a customer apart from the remainder of the original content of the immediate container.

[Subparagraph (5) amended by Am. 18, 9 F.R. 5163, effective 5–20–44]

(6) Country trade shipments. Processors or wholesalers who ship to retailers and purveyors of meals located in rural areas or outlying points may add to their permitted mark-ups the actual cost of any special shipping cases and the cost of any extra refrigerant used for the shipment. Such processors or wholesalers must denote separately on invoices to customers the actual cost of the cases and the refrigerant.

[Subparagraph (6) amended by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44]

(e) Imported frozen fish and seafood. The maximum price at which a wholesaler, including any agent of a foreign shipper, may sell any frozen fish or seafood listed in section 13 which he imports is the applicable listed base price in section 13, plus or minus the appropriate differential for packaging provided in section 12, plus transportation cost allowable under section 4 (c) plus the appropriate mark-up provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of section 3 applied to the sum of the foregoing, plus any transportation cost allowable under section 4 (b) (2) for transportation between warehouses of the same wholesaler.

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566, effective 4–26–43; Am. 9, 8 F.R. 16998, effective 12–17–43; Am. 10, 9 F.R. 183, effective 1–8–44; Am. 11, 9 F.R. 946, effective 1–24–44; Am. 13, 9 F.R. 3388, effective 4–3–44; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4–22–44, except with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers, both located west of the Mississippi River effective 5–11–44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44; and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(f) (1) Sales to government agencies. The maximum price for sales to war procurement agencies shall be determined by reference to the class of sale and kind of service performed. Wholesalers or processors who had executed contracts prior to April 13, 1943 for the sale and delivery of frozen fish and seafood to war procurement agencies may continue to sell and deliver at prices set in the contracts for a period of forty-five days after April 13, 1943.

[Paragraph (f) added by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566, effective 4–26–43; designated (f) (1) and heading amended by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 3424, effective 3–28–44]

(2) Sales of dressed smelts (Columbia River Eulachon) (Thaleichthys pacificus or any Argentinidae species). The maximum price for sales of dressed smelts (Columbia River Eulachon) (Thaleichthys pacificus or any Argentinidae species) to any government agency is 21½ cents per pound. This price is f. o. b. the shipping point for dressed smelts packed in a container of the customary size and kind meeting specifications of the buying government agency. No transportation, container or other charge may be added to this maximum price. This item may be sold only to government agencies.

[Subparagraph (2) added by Am. 15]

SEC. 4. Allowance for transportation—(a) When a processor may add transportation costs—(1) Fresh fish transportation. If a processor freezes a species of fish or seafood in any place other than a port where fish or seafood of that species is landed ex-vessel or shipped in by a producer, he may include as part of his maximum price the actual per pound transportation cost, not to exceed the carload rail freight rate per pound for fresh fish, if such rate is available, from the port of entry to the freezing point. Where a carload rail freight rate is not available such per pound transportation cost must not exceed the lowest available common carrier rate. However, no such transportation allowance may be added in the case of fish listed in Schedule No. 11 (g) (Petrale sole—Pacific), 17 (Lingcod—Pacific), 40 (Dover sole), 40A (English sole), 40B (Sand sole), 40C (Turbot sole), 62 (Flounder—Pacific) or 67 (Rex sole), if any of these varieties has been landed fresh ex-vessel at any of the following ports of entry in California: Half Moon Bay, Point Reyes, Bodega Bay, Crescent City, Trinidad or Shelter Cove, and it is frozen in California, Washington, or Oregon.

[Subparagraph 1 amended by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(2) Frozen fish transportation. If a processor ships frozen fish or seafood to a warehouse or other distribution point remote from the original freezer, such processor may include as part of his maximum selling price, for sales from such warehouse or other distribution point, the actual transportation cost. Such transportation cost shall not include charges for local trucking, hauling and handling, and shall not exceed the common carrier rate for the type of transportation used.

(b) When a wholesaler may add transportation costs. (1) Any wholesaler who buys frozen fish or seafood from a processor or other wholesaler may include as part of his net cost the actual transportation cost from his supplier's shipping point to his established place of business.

(2) Any wholesaler who ships frozen fish or seafood from one of his warehouses to a remote warehouse or other distribution point may add to his maximum price the actual transportation cost from the shipping point nearest the first warehouse to such remote warehouse or other distribution point.

(3) The actual transportation cost referred to in paragraph (b) (1)and (2) shall not include local trucking, hauling and handling charges and shall not exceed the common carrier rate for the type of shipment used.

(c) Transportation allowance for imported frozen fish. Any importer or agent of a foreign consignor of any frozen fish or seafood except frozen Atlantic Coast smelts and frozen Canadian lake fish covered in Schedules Nos. 70–77, inclusive, in the table of base prices in section 13 may add as a transportation allowance the lowest amount determined on the following three bases:

(1) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) from the seller's shipping point to the importer's receiving point:

(2) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) to the importer's receiving point from the point at which the frozen fish or seafood entered the United States or the carload rail rate for frozen

fish or seafood from the point in the United States nearest the foreign shipper's shipping point, whichever is designated on the invoice by the importer.

(3) The actual cost of transportation (exclusive of local trucking, hauling and handling charges) to the importer's receiving point from the nearest domestic port from which a substantial volume of that species is shipped.

However, with respect to the species listed hereinafter the cost of transportation shall not exceed the cost for the type of shipment used from the ports listed for that species.

Species:	Port
Cod, haddock, pollack, hake, cusk, yellowtail, blackback, lemon sole, gray sole, sea dab, mackerel, rosefish	Boston, Mass.

(4) In determining the transportation allowance, provided in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this paragraph (c), common carrier rates shall be used. The importer may add the allowance only when he records it on an invoice to the customer purchasing the fish or seafood, designating which of the three bases he is using.

Where frozen Atlantic Coast smelts are imported for resale in the United States the freight from the point of shipment to the wholesaler's warehouse, not to exceed the carload rail freight rate, may be added.

Where frozen Canadian lake fish covered in Schedules Nos. 70–77, inclusive, in the table of base prices in section 13 are imported for resale in the United States, there may be added the actual transportation cost (excluding local trucking, hauling and handling charges) from the point of shipment in Canada to the destination point in the United States, but in no event more than the carload rail freight rate for frozen fish from the City of Winnipeg in the Province of Manitoba, Canada, to the destination point in the United States.

[Section 4, formerly 3a, added by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44 and redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

SEC. 5. Where the regulation applies. The provisions of this regulation shall apply to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

[Sec. 5, formerly 4, amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566, effective 4–26–43 and redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

ARTICLE II—RECORD KEEPING AND ENFORCEMENT

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) Every processor making a sale and every person making a purchase or frozen fish or seafood in the course of trade or business or otherwise dealing therein, other than a purchaser at retail, after April 13, 1943, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and of the seller, the price contracted for or received, the quantity, species, size, grade, style of processing of pack of frozen fish or seafood, and the container type and size, and indicating that the fish or seafood is frozen.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 2023, effective 2–26–44]

(b) Such person shall, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

(c) Every processor shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, such records as he has which reflect his inventories as of September 1, 1943, and October 20, 1943, of frozen fish and seafood to which footnote 3 is attached in the table of base prices in section 13.

(d) Every processor shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, such records as he has which reflect his inventories as of October 1, 1943, and October 20, 1943, of frozen fish and seafood to which footnote 4 is attached in the table of base prices in section 13;

[Paragraphs (c) and (d) added by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 14079, effective 10–20–43 and amended by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(e) Every person making a sale of any frozen fish or seafood subject to this regulation shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of delivery a written statement setting forth the date of the sale; the name and address of the buyer and seller; the species sold; a notation that the fish or seafood is frozen; the quantity, sizes, grades and styles of processing of frozen fish or seafood where price differences exist in the table of base prices in section 13 because of these factors, and the prices charged therefor, including a separate statement of the container differentials, if any, as provided in section 12, and allowable transportation cost, if any. If the statement furnished a purchaser at the time of delivery does not identify the size, grade and style of processing, where price differences exist in the table of base prices in section 13 because of these factors, the maximum price which may be charged for the frozen fish and seafood involved in the sale is the maximum price for the lowest priced size, grade and style of processing of the species of frozen fish and seafood sold. If the seller fails to note on the statement that the fish or seafood is frozen, and if a price is listed in Maximum Price Regulation No. 418[8] for the species in the particular style of processing or dressing sold, the maximum price which may be charged for the fish or seafood involved in the sale is the lower of the prices listed in Maximum Price Regulation No. 418 and this Maximum Price Regulation No. 364.

[Paragraph (e) added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 15662, effective 11–30–43; amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 2023, effective 2–26–44; and Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4–22–44, except that with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers, both located west of the Mississippi River, effective 5–11–44 and Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

(f) Authorization to regional offices to modify invoice provisions. Any Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration may, by order, alter, modify or suspend any of the requirements in paragraph (e) of this section if in his judgment such action is necessary in order that fish may be marketed efficiently within his jurisdiction and is consistent with the effective enforcement of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 364. The Regional Administrator may alter, modify or suspend such requirements with reference to such types of sales and such localities within his jurisdiction as he may designate, but only in the case where the buyer and seller are both located within his jurisdiction. He may make such provisions for posting the items required in paragraph (e) as in his judgment are necessary to prevent the circumvention or evasion of this regulation. The Regional Administrator may issue such order on his own initiative or upon application for adjustment of the requirements in paragraph (e) by any person subject to them. Subpart B of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 shall apply to such applications for adjustment.

[Paragraph (f) added by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44]

[Sec. 6, formerly 7, redesignated by Am. 20 effective 9–11–44]

SEC. 7. Indirect price increases. No person shall evade any of the provisions of this regulation by any scheme or device and no person shall indirectly charge or receive for frozen fish or seafood a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation. No person shall as a condition of selling any frozen fish or seafood require a purchaser to buy any other frozen fish or seafood or any other product.

[Sec. 7 formerly 8 redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

SEC. 8. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[9] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 9. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[7] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[Sec. 9 formerly 10 redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (9 F.R. 10628) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, excepting those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

SEC. 10. Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

[Sec. 10 formerly 11 redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

SEC. 11. Definitions. (a) When used in this maximum price regulation the term:

"Artificially frozen" means fish which are frozen by any method other than by exposure to the elements.

"Carload box" means a shipment of not less than 24,000 pounds of frozen fish or seafood.

"Cellophane wrapped" means fish or fillets which are wrapped in cellophane.

"Center cut" or "Cut—center" means a cross section cut (not a head cut or tail cut) from the middle portion of and not exceeding ⅓ the length of the dressed fish.

"Chunk" or "Cut" means a cross section cut from the dressed fish not exceeding in thickness ⅓ the length thereof.

"Count", as applied to shrimp and prawn, means the number of processed shrimp or prawn to the pound.

"Cry-o-vac wrapped" means fish or fillets which have been packed in a bag of cry-o-vac composition or like material.

"Drawn fish" means a fish from which the viscera or entrails have been removed.

"Dressed" means fish from which the head and viscera have been removed or any portion of such fish not otherwise designated.

[7] 9 F.R. 10476.

"Fillet" means the heavily meated section or strip of fish cut from along the backbone and outside the rib bones, extending from the nape and gills to the tail.

"Frozen fish" means fish that are naturally or artificially frozen.

"Frozen seafood" means shellfish and mollusks that are naturally or artificially frozen.

"Government agency" means the United States Government or any department, agency, commission, corporation or other such instrumentality of the United States Government.

"Grade" means any qualification of the name of the fish or seafood listed in the table of base prices in section 13.

"Gutted" means fish from which the viscera or entrails have been removed.

"Head cut" or "Cut-head" means a cross section cut from the head end of the dressed fish.

"Headless" means shrimp and/or prawn from which the head has been removed.

"Headless and veined" means shrimp and/or prawn from which the head and alimentary canal (sand vein) have been removed.

"Head-on" means shrimp and/or prawn as it comes from the water.

"Individually frozen" means fish which are singly frozen.

"Layer pack" means fish which have been placed in a container in layers that are divided by sheets of paper before they are frozen.

"Naturally frozen" means fish which are frozen by exposure to the elements for preservation.

"Pan frozen" means fish which are frozen in pans, trays, or similar receptacles in a solid cake or block.

"Parchment wrapped" means fish or fillets individually wrapped in parchment paper.

"Peeled" means shrimp and/or prawn from which the head and shell have been removed.

"Peeled and veined" means shrimp and prawn from which the head, shell, and alimentary canal (sand vein) have been removed.

"Price per pound" means the price for 16 net ounces of frozen fish.

"Processor" means the person who owns the fish or seafood at the time they are frozen, or the person who becomes the owner before they leave the original freezing point.

"A retailer" is a person other than a purveyor of meals or a chain store warehouse who buys frozen fish or seafood and resells more than 80 percent of such fish or seafood to ultimate consumers.

"Round" fish or seafood means fish or seafood as it comes from the water.

"Saddles" means the pectoral fins and the connecting cartilaginous strip of a rajafish.

"Scaled" means fish from which the scales have been removed but the skin left intact.

"Skinned" means fish from which the skin is removed.

"Steak" or "Slice" means a cross section not exceeding in thickness its largest diameter or 4 inches whichever is smaller cut from the dressed fish after the tail, fins and collar bone (nape bone) have been removed.

"Tail cut" or "Cut-tail" means a cross section cut from the tail end of the dressed fish.

"Wings" means the pectoral fins of a rajafish.

"A wholesaler" is a person who buys frozen fish or seafood and resells 20 percent or more of such frozen fish or seafood to persons other than ultimate consumers.

[Sec. 11 formerly 12 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566, effective 4–26–43; Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12792, effective 9–23–43; Am. 7, 8 F.R. 15191, effective 11–8–43; Am. 12, 9 F.R. 2023, effective 2–26–44; Am. 13, 9 F.R. 3388, effective 4–3–44; Am. 15, 9 F.R. 3424, effective 3–28–44; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4–22–44, except that with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers, both located west of the Mississippi River, effective 5–11–44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44 and redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

ARTICLE IV—BASE PRICES AND PACKAGE DIFFERENTIALS

SEC. 12. Table of package differentials. This section sets out the amount which may be added to, or which must be subtracted from, the base price listed in section 13 when the frozen fish or seafood is packed in containers of sizes and kinds herein listed or when the frozen fish or seafood is not packed in boxes or other containers.

[Introductory paragraph added by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7–1–44 and amended by Am. 20, effective 9–11–44]

[1] The base prices listed for this seafood apply only when packed in containers of more than one pound to and including 10 pounds. When packed in containers of one pound or less, 1¼ cents per pound may be added to the listed prices.

[Footnote 1 added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 12023, effective 9-4-43 and amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12792, effective 9-23-43]

[2] When scallops are frozen in scallop bags, deduct 2 cents per pound from the listed prices.

[Footnote 2 added by Am. 5]

[3] No processor shall sell any fish of this species and style at the prices listed until he shall have sold at or below the prices applicable to this item before October 20, 1943, an amount equal to that part of his October 20, 1943 inventory of that species and style which he froze before September 1, 1943. No importer shall sell any fish of this species and style frozen before September 1, 1943 outside any of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia at prices higher than those applicable to this item before October 20, 1943.

[4] No processor shall sell any fish of this species and style at the prices listed until he shall have sold at or below the prices applicable to this item before October 20, 1943, an amount equal to that part of his October 20, 1943 inventory of that species and style which he froze before October 1, 1943. No importer shall sell any fish of this species and style frozen before October 1, 1943 outside any of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia at prices higher than those applicable to this item before October 20, 1943.

[Footnotes 3 and 4 added by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 14079, effective 10-20-43; and amended by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 15662, effective 11-20-43]

[5] The maximum prices listed for this species of fish apply only to fish caught in Lake Superior, Lake Michigan, Lake Huron, and waters tributary thereto, except Saginaw Bay.

[Footnote 5 added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 15662, effective 11-20-43]

[6] These prices apply to this species caught or landed in Canada except that they do not apply to fish caught in Lake of the Woods and any other body of water east of that lake which is partly in Canada and partly in the State of Minnesota or which constitutes the boundary line between Canada and the State of Minnesota; Lake Superior, Lake Huron, Lake St. Clair, Lake Erie, Lake Ontario and any of the waters connecting these five lakes; and the St. Lawrence River where it constitutes the boundary line between New York State and Canada.

To these prices may be added duty. Any person who processes this species may add to his selling price an amount which will recover the full amount of duty which he paid for the particular lot of fish involved in the processing.

[7] The processor shall deduct 3½ cents from the base price if he does not either wash and repack the smelts in layers or wash and individually freeze the smelts.

[Footnote 9 added by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 3424, effective 3-28-44]

[8] The base prices listed for halibut apply to frozen halibut originally landed fresh on the Pacific Coast of the Continental United States. For frozen halibut originally landed fresh in Canada or Alaska, deduct the following amounts from the listed prices:

Style of dressing:	Deductions cents
Dressed	2½
Steaks	3½
Fillets	4
Round	2½
Drawn	2½

For frozen halibut originally landed fresh in the Atlantic Coast of the United States, add ½ cent to the listed prices.

[Footnote 10 amended by Am. 19, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7-1-44]

[11] The base price listed for these fillets apply only if they are wrapped and marked as gray sole or lemon sole, whichever is the case; otherwise the applicable base price is that listed for Item No. 3 of Schedule No. 11 (c), Dab (Yellowtail).

[Footnotes 10 and 11 added by Am. 16, 9 F.R. 4182, effective 4-22-44, except that with respect to sales made by sellers to buyers both located west of the Mississippi River effective 5-11-44]

[Sec. 13 formerly 14 redesignated by Am. 20, effective 9-11-44]

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective in the United States on April 13, 1943. [MPR 364 originally issued April 7, 1943]

[Effective date amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 5566, effective 4-26-43]

NOTE: The reporting and recording provisions of this regulation are approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

6. Section 14 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Peddler truck selling addition. On a peddler truck sale involving delivery of not more than 50 pounds of variety meats and edible by-products in a total delivery of not more than 150 pounds of meats and meat products in any one day from such peddler truck to any buyer's store door, a peddler may add to the prices specified in section 13 (a) (1) the sum of $1.50 per hundredweight. If such sale involves a delivery of more than 50 pounds of variety meats and edible by-products or a total delivery of more than 150 pounds of meats and meat products, the peddler may add to the price specified in section 13 (a) (1), an amount not in excess of $0.75 per hundredweight applicable to the total delivery of variety meats and edible by-products in the one day from such peddler truck to the buyer's store door. These additions shall be in lieu of any local delivery and/or transportation charges.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

7. Section 14 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Wholesalers' selling addition. On sale of variety meats and edible by-products not obtained through custom slaughtering, a person, who at the time of the sale is a wholesaler, may add $1.00 per cwt. to the applicable zone price: Provided, however, That no person shall charge the addition permitted by this section 14 (g) unless such person shall have filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration a certified statement that the person (1) is engaged in the business of buying variety meats and edible by-products for resale other than at retail; (2) does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and is not owned or controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in whole or in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities; and (3) is not a hotel supply house or peddler truck seller within the meaning of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 398. The filing of such a statement shall not preclude investigation by the Office of Price Administration of the fact relating to the nature of the business carried on by the person filing the statement, or any action or proceeding arising from such investigation.

8. The definition of "Hotel supply house" in section 16 (a) is amended to read as follows:

"Hotel supply house" means a separate selling establishment which is not physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment; which is engaged in the fabrication of meat cuts and the sale of fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals, including the sale of beef carcasses and/or beef wholesale cuts, ground beef and miscellaneous beef items, variety meats and edible by-products and sausage to purveyors of meals, and in the sale of retail meat cuts, variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products to ultimate consumers pursuant to the provisions of § 1364.416 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169; and which during the period of September 15 through December 15, 1942, sold and/or delivered to purveyors of meals, not less than 70 percent of the total volume by weight of all meats, variety meats and edible by-products and/or sausage and similar products thereof, sold or delivered by it, other than to war procurement agencies. The status of any selling establishment as a hotel supply house shall not be affected where such establishment is physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment, but is not owned or controlled by, or does not own or control such packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment. "Own or control" within the meaning of this definition means to own or control directly or indirectly a partnership equity or in excess of 10% of any class of outstanding stock or to have made loans or advances in excess of 5% of the other person's monthly sales. Any selling establishment which satisfies the definition herein contained and which in addition sells or delivers frozen boneless beef (Army specifications) and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items to any purchasing agency of a war procurement agency and/or which sells fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration specifications) shall nevertheless be deemed to be a hotel supply house.

9. Subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of the definition of "purveyor of meals" contained in section 16 (a) are hereby revoked.

10. Subdivisions (iv) and (v) of the definition of "purveyor of meals" contained in section 16 (a) are redesignated (ii) and (iii).

11. The definitions of "Variety meats and edible by-products" "Cheek meat, lips on", "Livers, beef, unblemished", "Livers, veal or calf, unblemished", "Tongues, beef" and "Tongues, lamb" appearing in section 16 (b) are amended to read as follows:

"Variety meats and edible by-products" means any by-product of hog, cattle, calf, sheep and lamb slaughter which is listed in any form in section 13 and is clean, sound, has at all times been handled in a sanitary manner, and is free from foreign material, mucus, hair, and wool. Referring to variety meats and edible by-products derived from livestock slaughter, the term:

"Cheek meat, lips on" of cattle or calves means the lean muscle on the inside and outside of the lower jaw, with the lip attached.

"Livers, beef, unblemished" means all livers of any weight that have bright uniform color, light to chocolate brown, obtained from the slaughter of cattle other than calves.

"Livers, veal or calf, unblemished" means all livers of bright uniform color, short and plump and fine grained in texture, free from cuts or mutilations, weighing not more than 5½ pounds obtained from the slaughter of calves.

"Tongues, beef", means tongues from cattle, cut off at a point that leaves the epiglottis on the tongue. The entire gullet including the soft palate shall be removed and the hinge bone shall not protrude over the end of the tongue. One-half inch of fat may be left on the underside of the tongue, which shall be trimmed smooth in removing the glands. This grade of tongue may have a single mutilation not over 2½ inches in diameter or 1½ inches in depth, or three mutilations not over the size of a half dollar in circumference or one inch in depth. The tip may be cut off up to a point where cross section thickness does not exceed one and one-half inches.

"Tongues, lamb" means lamb or sheep tongues, scalded, skinned and trimmed so as to leave the epiglottis on the tongue. The hinge bones are to be cut flush with the butt end of the tongue. All fat is to be trimmed from the base of the tongue.

12. The definitions of "Feet" and "Livers, beef, calf, blemished" contained in section 16 (b) hereby are revoked.

13. The definitions of "Feet, green", "Feet, scalded", "Head, beef, skinned", "Livers, beef, blemished", "Livers, veal or calf, blemished", and "Livers, calf, overweight" are added in their alphabetical order in section 16 (b) to read as follows:

"Feet, green", means cattle or calf feet with hair and hooves on.

"Feet, scalded" means clean scalded cattle or calf feet, hooves removed.

"Head, beef, skinned", means a skinned beef head with the tongue removed.

"Livers, beef, blemished" means (i) all black, blemished, discolored or mutilated livers obtained from the slaughter of cattle other than calves, and (ii) all black, blemished, discolored or mutilated livers weighing more than 5½ pounds obtained from the slaughter of calves.

"Livers, veal or calf, blemished" means all black, blemished, discolored or mutilated livers weighing not more than 5½ pounds obtained from the slaughter of calves.

"Livers, calf, overweight" means all livers of bright uniform color, short and plump and fine grained in texture, free from cuts or mutilations, weighing more than 5½ pounds, but not more than 7½ pounds, obtained from the slaughter of calves.

This amendment shall become effective September 12, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATION

A rationale accompanying this amendment issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

Section 1394.7851 (b) (2) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) To carry persons to and from the polls for the purpose of voting in public elections (including primary elections); or to act as duly appointed election officials or poll watchers; or by a duly qualified and bona fide candidate for public office for purposes essential to the prosecution of his candidacy; or by the duly appointed principal campaign manager of a duly qualified and bona fide candidate for a state or federal public office, for the purpose of managing the political campaign of such candidate.

(a) When application is made for a special ration for the principal campaign manager of a duly qualified and bona fide candidate for a state or federal public office, the candidate shall certify to the Board that travel by the applicant is necessary to conduct the campaign, and that such applicant has been duly appointed his principal campaign manager. Only one campaign manager for each such candidate during any one period of time may be issued a ration under this subdivision.

No ration shall be issued, under this subdivision, for use by the principal campaign manager which will allow an average mileage in excess of the maximum set forth below:

1. If application is made in Area A, the maximum mileage is 400 miles per month.

2. If application is made in Area B, the maximum mileage is 475 miles per month.

3. If application is made in the gasoline shortage area, the maximum mileage is 325 miles per month.

The total mileage that may be issued for the purpose, as a special ration or supplemental ration or both, may not exceed the maximum set forth in this subdivision.

(b) Where the law requires a person to satisfy certain conditions before his name may be placed on the ballot in an election (including a primary election), he is not a duly qualified candidate until he has met all those conditions. However, if the payment of a fee is one of those conditions and the fee has not been fixed sixty days before the election, the applicant is a duly qualified candidate within the meaning of this subdivision if the application is filed not earlier than sixty days before the elec-

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[RMPR 165,[1] Supp. Service Reg. 34]

HAND LAUNDRIES IN FLINT, MICH. AREA

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 34 has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* For the reasons set forth in that statement and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, Supplementary Service Regulation No. 34 is hereby issued.

§ 1499.2269 Hand laundries in the Flint, Michigan area—(a) Dollars-and-cents maximum prices established for hand laundry services sold by hand laundries in the Flint, Michigan area. (1) The maximum prices established by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, for hand laundry services sold by hand laundries in the Flint, Michigan area are hereby modified and henceforth shall be the prices set forth in Appendix A.

(2) Definitions. As used in this supplementary service regulation the term:

"Hand laundry" means a retail laundry establishment receiving and distributing laundry, generally finishing wearing apparel by hand ironing done on the premises, giving only limited, if any, delivery service and employing 10 or less employees.

"Flint, Michigan area" means the corporate limits of Flint, Michigan.

"Shirts" as used in Appendix A means all shirts except the following:

Shirts made of silk, wool, rayon and other artificial fibers; gabardine shirts; full dress shirts.

The prices of shirts included within the above exceptions shall be the prices for these items which were filed by the individual laundry with the OPA. If no such prices have been filed, the maximum price to be charged for all shirts shall be the price established for shirts by Appendix A.

"Overall pants" as used in Appendix A means blue denim overall pants.

(3) Posting requirements. Within 30 days after the issuance of this supplementary service regulation, every hand laundry located in the Flint, Michigan area shall post on its premises in a place and manner so that it is plainly visible to the purchasing public, a placard or card setting forth the maximum prices established in Appendix A.

(4) Elimination of individual adjustments. On and after the effective date of this Supplementary Service Regulation the provisions of section 16 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 shall no longer be available to sellers covered by this regulation. On and after the effective date of this regulation, all surcharges and percentage surcharges made by hand laundries located in the Flint, Michigan area shall cease and all percentage adjustments granted by the Office of Price Administration to hand laundries located in the Flint, Michigan area are hereby revoked.

(5) Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

(6) Other services supplied by hand laundries. Laundry services not listed in Appendix A performed by hand laundries shall be governed by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 6639]

GEORGIA BROADCASTING CO.

NOTICE OF HEARING

In re application of F. R. Pidcock, Sr. and James M. Wilder, d/b as Georgia Broadcasting Company (New); date filed, May 1, 1944; for construction permit; class of service, broadcast; class of station, broadcast; location, Savannah, Georgia; operating assignment specified: frequency, 1400 kc; power, 250 w; hours of operation, unlimited time. File No. B3-P-3606.

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the application in the above-entitled case and has designated the matter for hearing to be consolidated with the applications of A. C. Neff, Docket No. 6640; Chatham Broadcasting Company, Docket No. 6641; and J. W. Woodruff & J. W. Woodruff, Jr., d/b as Albany Broadcasting Co. (WGPC), Docket No. 6642, for the following reasons:

1. To determine the legal, financial, technical and other qualifications of the applicant partnership, and of its members, to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain primary broadcast service from the operation of the proposed station and what other broadcast services are available to these areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of the program service which applicant may be expected to render and the extent to which such service is now being rendered by any other station or stations serving the proposed service area in whole or in part.

4. To obtain full information concerning applicant's proposals with respect to the employment of personnel to construct and operate the proposed station and concerning the background, experience and qualifications of such proposed employees.

5. To determine the nature, extent and effect of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station and the operation of Station WMBR, Jacksonville, Florida, as well as the areas and populations which would be affected thereby and the nature of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the granting of this application would serve an outstanding public need or national interest, within the meaning of the Commission's supplemental statement of policy of January 26, 1944.

7. To determine whether the granting of this application would be otherwise consistent with the policies announced by the Commission in its memorandum opinion of April 27, 1942 and supplements thereto.

8. To determine whether the granting of this application would tend toward a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service, as contemplated by section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

9. To determine whether, in view of the facts adduced under the foregoing issues, as well as under the issues in Dockets Nos. 6640, 6641 and 6642, public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant of this application, or the application of A. C. Neff (File No. B3–P–3628; Docket No. 6640), or the application of Chatham Broadcasting Company (File No. B3–P–3656; Docket No. 6641), or the application of J. W. Woodruff and J. W. Woodruff, Jr., d/b as Albany Broadcasting Company (File No. B3–P–3643; Docket No. 6642), or any of them.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of § 1.382 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Persons other than the applicant who desire to be heard must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the provisions of § 1.102 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The applicant's address is as follows: F. R. Pidcock, Sr., and James M. Wilder, d/b as Georgia Broadcasting Company, care of James M. Wilder, P. O. Box 305, Moultrie, Georgia.

[Vesting Order 3857]

SHOICHI AND SHIZU ASAMI

In re: Real property, household furniture and furnishings, property insurance policy and bank account owned by Shoichi and Shizu Asami, husband and wife.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned after investigation, finding:

1. That the last known address of Shoichi Asami and Shizu Asami is Japan, and that they are residents of Japan and nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. That Shoichi Asami and Shizu Asami are the owners of the property described in subparagraphs 4-a, 4-b and 4-c hereof;

3. That Shoichi Asami is the owner of the property described in subparagraph 4-d hereof;

4. That the property described as follows:

a. Real property situated in the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, together with all hereditaments, fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto and any and all claims for rents, refunds, benefits or other payments arising from the ownership of such property,

b. Certain household furniture and furnishings presently located on the premises described in subparagraph 4-a hereof and in the custody of Jane Ayako Takamura, also known as Jane Fukao,

c. All right, title and interest of Shoichi Asami and Shizu Asami, and each of them, in and to fire insurance policy No. 214672, issued by The Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which policy insures the improvements to the property described in subparagraph 4-a hereof, and

d. That certain bank account with the Bishop National Bank of Hawaii, Honolulu, T. H., which is due and owing to and held for and in the name of Shoichi Asami, and is identified on the records of said Bishop National Bank of Hawaii as Savings Account No. 43142, and any and all security rights in and to any and all collateral for all or part of such account, and the right to enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States owned or controlled by nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

And determining that the property described in subparagraphs 4-c and 4-d hereof is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely, that property described in subparagraph 4-a hereof) belonging to the same nationals of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to section 2 of said Executive order;

And further determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

And having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification required by law, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 4-a hereof, subject to recorded liens, encumbrances and other rights of record held by or for persons who are not nationals of designated enemy countries, and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraphs 4-b, 4-c and 4-d hereof.

All such property so vested to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account, or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall this order be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on June 28, 1944.

[SEAL] JAMES E. MARKHAM,
Alien Property Custodian.

VISIBLE INDEX CORP.

ORDER FOR AND NOTICE OF HEARING

Whereas, by Vesting Order No. 27 of June 18, 1942 (7 F.R. 4629) and by Vesting Order No. 1983 of August 17, 1943 (8 F.R. 13849), the Alien Property Custodian vested, among other things, United States Patents Nos. 2,192,178 and 1,975,566, respectively, registered in the United States Patent Office in the name of Elder & Krische, O. H. G., as the property of a national of a designated enemy country (Germany); and

Whereas, Visible Index Corporation has filed notices of claim, Nos. 1586 and 1587, which assert respectively that said Visible Index Corporation is the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to said patents Nos. 2,192,178 and 1,975,566, and said Visible Index Corporation has amended its said claims to assert exclusive licenses under the said patents, and said Visible Index Corporation asserts that it is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York and having its principal place of business in said State and that all of its stock has been and now is owned by citizens of the United States.

Now therefore, it is ordered, Pursuant to the regulations heretofore issued by the Alien Property Custodian, as amended, (8 F.R. 16709), that said claims be consolidated for hearing and that a hearing thereon be held before the Vested Property Claims Committee or any member or members thereof on Thursday, September 21, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., eastern war time, at the Office of the Alien Property Custodian, Room 614, National Press Building, 14th and F Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., to continue thereafter at such time and place as the Committee may determine. It is further ordered, That copies of this notice of hearing be served by registered mail upon the claimant and upon the persons designated in paragraph 2 of the said notices of claim, and be filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Any person desiring to be heard either in support of or in opposition to the claims may appear at the hearing, and is requested to notify the Vested Property Claims Committee, Office of Alien Property Custodian, National Press Building, 14th and F Streets, N. W., Washington (25), D. C., on or before September 17, 1944.

The foregoing characterization of the claims is for informational purposes only, and shall not be construed to constitute an admission or an adjudication by the Office of Alien Property Custodian as to the nature or validity of the claims. Copies of the claims and of the said vesting orders are available for public inspection at the address last above stated.

By authority of the Alien Property Custodian.

VESTED PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMITTEE,

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS IN UTAH

Pursuant to the act of May 31, 1941, as amended by the Second War Powers Act, 1942, Executive Orders 8989, as amended, and 9156, and War Production Board Directive 21; and in order to secure maximum use of existing transportation facilities; to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, material, and supplies; to prevent possible traffic congestion, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war; and being satisfied that the fulfilment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage of transportation materials and facilities for defense and for private account, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The Salt Lake & Utah Railroad Corporation shall suspend service of its local routes within Provo, Utah; within Orem, Utah; and of its local or shuttle bus service route from Provo, Utah, to Orem, Utah, and from Orem, Utah, to Provo, Utah. The said Salt Lake & Utah Railroad Corporation shall continue its present main bus-line operations from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Payson, Utah, with full rights to transport local passengers between any intermediate points on its present main-line schedules, and forthwith shall file with the Public Service Commission of the State of Utah and any other appropriate state regulatory body, a notice describing the operations to be suspended in compliance herewith.

2. Gronway R. Perry, doing business under the name and style of Geneva Transportation Company, shall honor all outstanding tickets issued by the Salt Lake & Utah Railroad Company between Provo, Utah, and Orem, Utah, and shall perform all of the services required to be performed under the operating rights of Salt Lake & Utah Railroad Corporation within Provo, Utah; within Orem, Utah; from Provo, Utah, to Orem, Utah; and from Orem, Utah, to Provo, Utah.

3. The carriers forthwith shall file with the Public Service Commission of the State of Utah, and any other appropriate regulatory body, and publish in accordance with law and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or appropriate supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in the fares, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of each carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order, together with a copy of this order; and forthwith shall apply to said Commission of the State of Utah, and any other necessary regulatory body of said State for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

4. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Highway Transport Department, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C., and should refer to "Special Order ODT B-57".

This Special Order ODT B-57 shall become effective September 5, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of September 1944.

[Max. Import Price Reg., Order 40]

AMERICAN IMPORT CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Orders No. 9250 and 9328, it is ordered:

(a) Effect of this order. This order establishes maximum prices at which the importer may sell and maximum prices at which wholesalers and retailers may buy and sell, cotton rag rugs imported from Mexico by The American Import Company, 62 First Street, San Francisco 5, California, hereinafter called the "importer".

(b) Maximum prices on sales by the importer to wholesalers and retailers. The importer may sell such imported cotton rag rugs to wholesalers at a price not exceeding 10½ cents per square foot, f. o. b. port of entry, and to retailers at 12 cents per square foot, f. o. b. port of entry. No wholesaler or retailer may pay the importer higher prices.

(c) Maximum wholesale and retail prices. No wholesaler or retailer may charge, and no person buying from him may pay prices higher than the following for such imported cotton rag rugs:

Class of seller:	Maximum price
Sales by wholesalers, f. o. b. seller's California shipping point	$0.132 per sq. ft.
Sales by retailers	$0.21 per sq. ft.

(d) Importer to notify wholesalers. The importer shall furnish a copy of this order to each wholesaler to whom such imported cotton rag rugs are sold and shall also include on the invoice the following statement:

The enclosed Order No. 40 issued under the Maximum Import Price Regulation by the Office of Price Administration, establishes your maximum selling prices for the imported cotton rag rugs, and requires you to notify your customer what his maximum price is as stated in the Order.

(e) Importer and wholesaler to notify retailers. The importer or wholesaler selling such imported cotton rag rugs to retailers shall include on his invoice to each retailer the following statement:

Your maximum selling price for the imported cotton rag rugs as established by Order No. 40 under the Maximum Import Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration, is 21¢ per square foot.

(f) Reduction of prices. Whenever the total landed costs to the importer, on which the above maximum prices are established, decrease by 5% or more, he shall immediately notify the Export-Import Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., of the extent of the reduction, and the Price Administrator may then establish new maximum prices for these imported cotton rag rugs.

(g) Revocation and amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time.

THE NEW RIVER CO., ET AL.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 968 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 120. Bituminous coal delivered from mine or preparation plant. Order establishing maximum prices and price classifications.

For the reasons set forth in an accompanying opinion, and in accordance with § 1340.210 (a) (6) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, It is ordered:

Producers identified herein operate named mines assigned the mine index numbers, the price classifications and the maximum prices in cents per net ton, for the indicated uses and shipments as set forth herein. All are in District No. 7. The mine index numbers and the price classifications assigned are permanent but the maximum prices may be changed by an amendment issued after the effective date of this order. Where such an amendment is issued for the district in which the mines involved herein are located and where the amendment makes no particular reference to a mine or mines involved herein, the prices shall be the prices set forth in such amendment for the price classifications of the respective size groups. The location of each mine is given by county and state. The maximum prices stated to be for truck shipment are in cents per net ton f. o. b. the mine or preparation plant and when stated to be for rail shipment or for railroad locomotive fuel are in cents per net ton f. o. b. rail shipping point. In cases where mines ship coals by river the prices for such shipments are those established for rail shipment and are in cents per net ton f. o. b. river shipping point. However, producer is subject to the provisions of § 1340.218 and all other provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120.

LACKNER COMPANY, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 2236 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Approval of maximum prices for sales of an electric alarm clock manufactured by Lackner Company, Inc.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 2236 establishes maximum prices for sales of a new electric alarm clock manufactured by the Lackner Company, Inc., Lackner Building, Cincinnati 14, Ohio, and described in an application dated August 9, 1944.

(1) For sales to wholesalers the maximum price is $3.82 per clock, f. o. b., Cincinnati, Ohio and is subject to a discount of 1% for payment within 10 days.

(2) For sales to retailers, the maximum price is $4.77 per clock, f. o. b., seller's city.

(3) For sales at retail the maximum price is $7.95 per clock, exclusive of the federal excise tax.

(b) The manufacturer shall plainly mark each clock with the retail ceiling price before shipping it to a purchaser for resale. This may be done by marking the case or by attaching a tag or label.

(c) On and after September 7, 1944, at the time of the first invoice, the manufacturer shall notify in writing each wholesaler and each wholesaler shall notify in writing each retailer who purchases from him of the maximum prices established by this order. This written notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) This Order No. 2236 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

This Order No. 2236 shall become effective September 7, 1944.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

FRANK J. RICHTIG

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 2237 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than price. Approval of maximum prices for sales of knives manufactured by Frank J. Richtig.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) The maximum prices for all sales and deliveries by Frank J. Richtig, Clarkson, Nebraska, of knives of his manufacture, as described in his application dated February 25, 1944 after such articles became subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, are as follows:

Article	Model	To jobbers or distributors who stock the knives	Maximum price to retailers
		Per doz.	Per doz.
Hunting knife or dagger with sheath.	#2—6" blade	$55.08	$81.20
	#3—6" blade	55.08	81.20
	#4—6" blade	55.08	81.20

These maximum prices are f. o. b. Clarkson, Nebraska and are subject to a cash discount of 2% ten days, net thirty days.

(b) The maximum prices for all sales and deliveries at wholesale for the knives described in paragraph (a) above shall be the prices set forth below as follows:

Article	Model	Maximum price to retailers
		Per dozen
Hunting knife or dagger with sheath.	#2—6" blade	$61.20
	#3—6" blade	61.20
	#4—6" blade	61.20

(c) The maximum prices for a sale at retail by any person of the knives described in paragraph (a) above shall be as follows:

Article	Model	Maximum price to consumers
		Each
Hunting knife or dagger with sheath.	#2—6" blade	$8.50
	#3—6" blade	8.50
	#4—6" blade	8.50

(d) On each knife shipped to a purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail selling price.

(e) At the time of the first invoice, the manufacturer shall notify in writing each purchaser who buys from it of the maximum prices established by this order for resales by the purchaser. Since this order also establishes maximum prices for sales by all jobbers to jobbers and retailers, each jobber who resells any commodity covered by this order must notify his purchaser of the maximum prices established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This written notice may be given in any convenient form.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(g) This Order No. 2237 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This Order No. 2237 shall become effective on the 7th day of September 1944.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

NICRO STEEL PRODUCTS, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 2238 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Approval of maximum prices for sales of skillets manufactured by the Nicro Steel Products, Inc.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of three metal skillets manufactured by Nicro Steel Products, Inc., 1308 Elston Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

(1) (i) For all sales and deliveries since the effective date of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, by the manufacturer to retailers, by the manufacturer to persons who stock the pan, and by the manufacturer to persons, other than retailers, who resell the article from the manufacturer's stock, the maximum prices are those set forth below:

Article	Model No.	Maximum price to stocking jobbers	Maximum price to nonstocking jobbers	Maximum price to retailers
		Each	Each	Each
Metal skillet	6"	$0.132	$0.14	$0.165
	8"	.21½	.23	.27
	12"	.33½	.35½	.42

These prices are for the sales and delivery of the articles described in the manufacturer's application. They are f. o. b. factory and subject to a cash discount of 2% for payment within ten days net thirty days.

(ii) For all sales and deliveries by the manufacturer to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, the maximum prices shall be those determined by applying to the prices specified in subdivision (1) (i) of this paragraph (a), the discounts, allowances, and other price differentials made by the manufacturer, during March 1942, on sales of the same type of article to the same class of purchaser and on the same terms and conditions. If the manufacturer did not make such sales during March 1942 he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington D. C. under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of a maximum price for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) (i) For all sales and deliveries on and after the effective date of this order to retailers by persons, other than the manufacturer, who sell from the manufacturer's stock, or by persons who stock the pan, the maximum price is that set forth below, f. o. b. factory:

Article	Model No.	Maximum price to retailer
		Each
Metal skillet	6"	$0.165
	8"	.27
	12"	.42

These prices are subject to cash discounts and terms no less favorable than those customarily granted by the seller.

(ii) For all sales and deliveries by persons who sell from the manufacturer's stock, or by persons who stock the pan, to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, the maximum prices shall be those determined under the applicable provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) At the time of or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser, other than a retailer, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser for resale of the maximum prices and conditions established by subparagraph (a) (2) of this order for such resales. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 7th day of September 1944.

Issued this 6th day of September 1944.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of August, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of Linwood Sales Co., Inc., and Bernard Abrams and Abe S. Willner, Individually and as Officers of Linwood Sales Co., Inc.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondents, in which answer respondents admit all material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and state that they waive all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts; and the Commission having duly made and issued its findings as to the facts, conclusion and order to cease and desist dated February 7, 1939; and the Commission having further considered said order to cease and desist heretofore issued, and being of the opinion that the public interest requires that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued in said cause; and the Commission having given due notice to the respondents to show cause on July 24, 1944, why this case should not be reopened for the purpost of modifying said order to cease and desist; and the Commission having considered the matter and the record herein, and having issued its order modifying said order in certain respects, issues this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondents Linwood Sales Co., Inc., its officers, and Bernard Abrams and Abe S. Willner, individually, their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of razor blades, watches, china and silverware, clocks, cosmetics, dresser sets, umbrellas, bedding, or any other articles of merchandise in commerce as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Supplying to or placing in the hands of others, pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon or other lottery devices for the purpose of enabling such persons to dispose of or sell any merchandise by the use thereof.

(2) Mailing, shipping or transporting to their agents or to distributors or to members of the public pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon or other lottery devices so prepared or printed as to enable said persons to sell or distribute any merchandise by the use thereof.

(3) Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by the use of pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon or any other lottery device.

(4) Using the term "free", or any other term of similar import or meaning, to describe or refer to articles offered as compensation for distributing respondent's merchandise.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission, upon complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondent, testimony and other evidence taken before Edward E. Reardon, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint, and in opposition thereto, brief filed herein by S. Brogdyne Teu, II, counsel for the Commission (the respondent having filed no brief and not having requested oral argument); and the Commission having duly made and issued its findings as to the facts, conclusion and order to cease and desist dated November 15, 1939; and the Commission having further considered said order to cease and desist heretofore issued, and being of the opinion that the public interest requires that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued in said cause; and the Commission having given due notice to the respondent to show cause on July 24, 1944, why this case should not be reopened for the purpose of modifying said order to cease and desist; and the Commission having considered the matter and the record herein, and having issued its order modifying said order in certain respects, issues this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondent Abraham Starr, individually and trading as Superior Textile Mills, or trading under any other name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of fabrics or wearing apparel in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, through the use of the word "Mills" in respondent's trade name or of the term "direct from mills to wearer," or any words or terms of similar import or meaning, or through any other means or device, or in any manner that said respondent is the manufacturer of the products sold by him unless and until such respondent actually owns and operates or directly and absolutely controls the manufacturing plant wherein said products are manufactured by him.

2. Representing that any article regularly included in a combination offer with other articles is "free" or that the sale thereof constitutes a "free merchandise sale."

3. Representing, designating or describing any articles or merchandise delivered only upon the condition that some other articles be purchased and paid for as "free," or in any other manner indicating that the said articles or merchandise is a gift or gratuity.

4. Representing that respondent's business was established in 1905, or at any time other than the date of its actual establishment.

5. Representing that any offer of merchandise is limited as to time or otherwise unless such offer is in fact so limited.

6. Using the term "free," or any other term of similar import and meaning, to describe, designate or refer to any merchandise which is not a gift or gratuity and delivered to the recipient thereof without cost and unconditionally.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of August, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of K & S Sales Company, a Corporation, and Mrs. Fannye Cohn, an Individual

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and upon testimony with respect to the dissolution of the corporate respondent K & S Sales Company, and upon the answer of the individual respondent Mrs. Fannye Cohn, in which answer said respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and states that she waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having duly made and issued its findings as to the facts, conclusion and order to cease and desist dated August 12, 1939; and the Commission having further considered said order to cease and desist heretofore issued, and being of the opinion that the public interest requires that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued in said cause; and the Commission having given due notice to the respondent to show cause on July 24, 1944, why this case should not be reopened for the purpose of modifying said order to cease and desist; and the Commission having considered the matter and the record herein, and having issued its order modifying said order in certain respects, issues this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Mrs. Fannye Cohn, her representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of any sales stimulator plan, including certificates, coupons, and cards, redeemable in chinaware or other merchandise, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing that certificates, coupons or trading cards will be redeemed with certain articles of merchandise unless the merchandise described is delivered to the holders of such certificates, coupons or trading cards without cost or condition, except the actual cost of packing, handling, and transportation.

(2) Representing that respondent supplies to her customers or to other persons circulars, pamphlets, or other advertising matter relating to said sales stimulator plan when such is not the fact.

(3) Misrepresenting that any specified sum is the actual cost to respondent of said chinaware or other merchandise or is the actual cost of packing, handling and distributing said products, or misrepresenting in any other manner the actual cost to respondent of said products or the actual cost of packing, handling and distributing said products.

(4) Representing that the respondent will make refunds to the purchaser of said sales stimulator plan upon presentation of a specified number of said certificates, coupons or trading cards for redemption, unless said certificates, coupons or trading cards are redeemed without cost to the holders thereof and unconditionally, and said refund is made to said purchaser upon the redemption of the specified number of certificates, coupons or trading cards.

(5) Representing that the general sales of respondent's customers will be increased by reason of their use of respondent's sales stimulator plan.

(6) Representing merchandise delivered in redeeming certificates, coupons, or trading cards as "free" or as a gift or gratuity or as delivered without cost to the holders of said certificates, coupons or trading cards, when said merchandise is not in fact delivered to the holders of said certificates, coupons or trading cards without cost and unconditionally.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon her of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which she has complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That this case be, and the same hereby is, closed as to the corporate respondent K & S Sales Company, without prejudice to the right of the Commission, should future facts so warrant, to reopen the same and resume prosecution thereof in accordance with the Commission's regular procedure.

By the Commission.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter VIII—Coal Mines Administration

[Order 1977]

LIQUIDATION OF COAL MINES ADMINISTRATION

Liquidation of the Coal Mines Administration; transferring of records and functions of that agency to the Solid Fuels Administration for War.[1]

By Executive Orders Nos. 9340 of May 1, 1943 (8 F.R. 5695) and 9393 of November 1, 1943 (8 F.R. 14877) the President of the United States authorized and directed the Secretary of the Interior to take possession of the coal mines of the Nation and conferred upon him certain authority and responsibilities in connection therewith. Those duties have been carried on by the Coal Mines Administration[2] of the Department of the Interior which is now in the process of terminating Government possession of the coal mines. Possession by the Government of all but two bituminous coal mines has been terminated as the result of governmental approval of wage contracts and resumption of normal production.

[1] See Order 1982, infra.

[2] See Order 1847, Sec. Int., 8 F.R. 10578.

Accordingly, I order that, effective at the close of business August 31, 1944:

1. The Coal Mines Administration is discontinued and shall cease to be in effect.

2. All designations of officials of other Bureaus and Offices of the Department to serve as officials of the Coal Mines Administration are terminated.

3. All records of the Coal Mines Administration, both in its Washington and field offices, are hereby transferred to the Solid Fuels Administration for War, Department of the Interior.

4. All authority and responsibilities conferred upon the Secretary of the Interior by Executive Orders Nos. 9340 and 9393 shall cease to be discharged by the Coal Mines Administration and, in lieu thereof, shall be discharged by the Solid Fuels Administration for War.

5. The Solid Fuels Administration for War is authorized to liquidate the accumulated and currently accrued annual leave of those employees of the Coal Mines Administration who are not transferred to other agencies of the Department of the Interior or of the Federal Government.

Dated: August 16, 1944.

PART 3274[1]—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES

[Limitation Order L-145, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

AIRCRAFT CONTROL AND PULLEY BEARINGS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of anti-friction aircraft control and pulley bearings for defense, for private account and for export; manufacturers of these bearings now make a large number of sizes of this type bearing in small quantities only; concentration in a single producer of the manufacture of a group of these sizes now made in small quantities will permit larger "runs" of such sizes, thereby effecting a large saving in time formerly spent in setting up and taking down production machinery and will release many hours of highly skilled machine setters' time urgently needed for other operations in the producer's plant; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3274.66[1] Limitation Order L-145—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Producer" means any person, firm, corporation or other form of enterprise engaged in producing any anti-friction aircraft control and pulley bearings.

(b) Limitation on acceptance of orders for aircraft control and pulley bearings. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (b) (2), on and after June 10, 1942, no producer may accept any purchase order for aircraft control or pulley bearings of any of the sizes specified on Exhibit A hereto attached unless such producer is designated on Exhibit A as an "authorized producer" of such size.

(2) If on and after June 10, 1942, a producer is requested to accept a purchase order for aircraft control or pulley bearings of any size on Exhibit A as to which he is not designated an "authorized producer" but such producer has on hand completed bearings or partially or wholly completed parts for such bearings sufficient to fill such order partially or in full, then he may deliver the completed bearings on hand, or complete such bearings out of the parts on hand and deliver the same, against such order.

(c) Maintenance of equipment by producers other than authorized producers. Any producer who manufactured any of the sizes specified on Exhibit A during 1941 but who is not therein designated as an authorized producer of such size, is prohibited from disposing of tools and equipment used by him in manufacturing such size and shall keep such tools and equipment in such condition that whenever the War Production Board deems it necessary to name him an authorized producer he can resume production of aircraft control and pulley bearings of such size one month after notice by the War Production Board.

(d) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(f) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of material conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-145, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Ref.: L-145.

(h) Applicability of Priorities Regulation 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

PART 3274—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES

[Limitation Order L-145-a, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

ANTI-FRICTION BEARINGS

The fulfilment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of anti-friction bearings for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3274.67 Limitation Order L-145-a—

(a) Limitation on production of anti-friction bearings. No person engaged in the production of anti-friction bearings shall hereafter make bearings of any of the sizes specified on Schedule A attached to this order unless he is designated as an "authorized producer" of such size.

A person who is not designated as an "authorized producer" of a particular size listed in Schedule A may refer persons seeking to place orders with him to those who are designated as "authorized producers"; or if he wishes to continue selling this size he may accept orders for such bearings and arrange to have them made by an "authorized producer."

(b) Maintenance of equipment by persons other than "authorized producers". Any person who produced any of the sizes specified on Schedule A in 1943 but who is not designated as an "authorized producer" of such size is prohibited from disposing of tools and equipment used by him to make such size and he shall keep these tools and equipment in such condition that whenever the War Production Board deems it necessary to name him an "authorized producer" he can resume production of bearings of such size one month after notice by the War Production Board.

(c) Exceptions. The provisions of this order do not apply to:

(1) The production of any bearings listed on Schedule A for which purchase orders have been placed prior to February 19, 1944, even though the person holding such orders is not designated as an "authorized producer";

(2) To any person whose monthly shipments in November 1943 of all anti-friction bearings did not exceed $60,000.

(d) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(e) Appeals. Any appeals from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priorities control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Communications. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications, concerning this order, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Tools Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-145-a.

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS

[Limitation Order L–236, Schedule IV, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

TACKLE BLOCKS

Section 3284.85 Schedule IV to Limitation Order L–236 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3284.85 Schedule IV to Limitation Order L–236—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, fabricates or assembles tackle blocks, with or without attached fittings.

(2) "Tackle block" means a product consisting of one or more free pulleys or sheaves mounted in a portable frame or shell, and used for moving objects by means of rope passing over the pulleys or sheaves.

(3) "Attached fittings" means beckets, hooks, shackles, swivels, and other similar devices attached in the process of manufacture or assembly as an integral part of the tackle block.

(b) Simplified practices. This schedule is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L–236. No producer shall manufacture, fabricate, or assemble any tackle blocks except the kinds named in the tables of Appendix A and in conformity with the types, designs, sizes, standards, grades, and other provisions set forth in this Schedule IV, including Appendix A. Exceptions to this rule are stated in paragraph (f).

(c) Limitations on design. (1) There are three kinds of tackle blocks described in Appendix A, and a separate table is devoted to each kind. Each table lists several permitted types, each provided with several kinds of bearings and bushings, sheaves of various sizes, and other specifications, all of which are permitted. However, no producer shall manufacture, fabricate, or assemble more than one design for each of the permitted types of tackle blocks in Tables I through III.

(2) No producer shall manufacture, fabricate or assemble any tackle blocks designed for use on pleasure boats.

(d) Restrictions on metals. The only metals which may be used in the manufacture of tackle blocks and attached fittings are aluminum, magnesium, and ferrous metals exclusive of stainless steel. However, copper base alloys may be used for bushings as specified in Tables I through III.

(e) Galvanizing. Galvanizing is permitted on metal blocks and on metal parts of wood blocks, and on attached fittings.

(f) Exceptions. This schedule does not apply to:

(1) (i) Tackle blocks with plain ferrous metal bearings or steel roller bushings with a capacity under 250 pounds per pair of single blocks, 500 pounds per pair of double blocks, and 750 pounds per pair of triple blocks.

(ii) Tackle blocks with a capacity of over 50 tons per pair of quadruple sheave blocks.

(2) Tackle blocks manufactured, fabricated, or assembled in establishments wholly owned and operated by the U. S. Navy.

(3) Tackle blocks specified in the Standard Plan issued by the Bureau of Ships of the U. S. Navy. (This exemption does not apply to tackle blocks specified in plans which are not designated as Standard Plan by the Bureau of Ships.)

(4) Parts manufactured, fabricated or assembled for maintenance or repair of tackle blocks.

(5) Tackle blocks manufactured, fabricated or assembled from parts in the possession of the producer on or before December 21, 1943.

(6) Tackle blocks and attached fittings specially designed and constructed for use in the operation or equipment of life boats and life rafts.

(7) Snatch blocks specially designed and constructed for use in logging, mining and oil field operations.

(8) Conductor stringing snatch blocks.

(9) Chain hoists or manila rope hoists.

(10) Hay loading and lifting blocks.

(11) Gin blocks.

(12) Skidder blocks.

(13) Special blocks manufactured, fabricated or assembled as component and replacement parts for skyline equipment, drag scrapers, and cableway excavators.

(14) Purse seine blocks.

(15) Special extra heavy weighted steel plate blocks, 25 tons and up.

(16) Tackle blocks manufactured, fabricated or assembled to fill an order received before December 21, 1943 when such order has been scheduled for any delivery date under the provisions of Scheduling Order M–293.

(17) Oil field Crown blocks, traveling blocks, rotary drilling blocks.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A—PERMITTED TYPES OF TACKLE BLOCKS

TABLE I—WOOD BLOCKS FOR MANILA ROPE

(a) Regular mortise, inside iron strapped; single, double and triple.
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—3", 4", 5", 6", 7", 8", 10", 12".
(2) Steel Roller Bushings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—3", 4", 5", 6", 7", 8".
(3) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—3", 4", 5", 6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
One design only shall be used for all three.

(b) Heavy wide mortise, double cross bolted, inside iron strapped; single, double and triple.
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
(2) Steel roller bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8".
(3) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
One design only shall be used for all three.

(c) Snatch blocks, double cross bolted, iron strapped. (May be equipped with drop link, or with safety locking device).
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20", 22".
(2) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20", 22".
One design only shall be used for both.

TABLE II—METAL BLOCKS FOR MANILA ROPE

(a) Steel shell blocks, single, double and triple, oval design.
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—4", 5", 6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
(2) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—4", 5", 6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
One design only shall be used for both.

(b) Heavy steel shell blocks, single, double and triple, oval design.
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—4", 5", 6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
(2) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—4", 5", 6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16".
One design only shall be used for both.

(c) Steel shell snatch blocks. (May be equipped with drop link, or with safety locking device.)
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20", 22".
(2) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves; shell sizes—6", 7", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20", 22".
One design only shall be used for both.

TABLE III—METAL BLOCKS FOR WIRE ROPE

(a) Standard steel plate blocks; single, double and triple.
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
(i) Diamond design, cast iron sheaves.
Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10", 12", 14".
(ii) Oval design, cast iron sheaves.
Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10", 12", 14".
(2) Self-lubricating, bronze bushings:
(i) Diamond design, cast iron or steel sheaves.
Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10", 12", 14".
(ii) Oval design, cast iron or steel sheaves.
Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10", 12", 14".

(b) Standard extra heavy steel plate blocks; single, double and triple.
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
(i) Diamond design, cast iron sheaves.
Sheave diameters—8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18".
(ii) Oval design, cast iron sheaves.
Sheave diameters—8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18".
(2) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
(i) Diamond design, cast iron or steel sheaves.
Sheave diameters—8", 10", 12" 14", 16", 18", 20".
(ii) Oval design, cast iron or steel sheaves.
Sheave diameters—8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20".

(c) Special extra heavy steel plate blocks, 25 to 50 ton capacity.
(1) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
(i) Diamond design, cast iron or steel sheaves. Sheave diameters—14", 16", 18", 20", 22", 24".
(ii) Oval pattern, cast iron or steel sheaves. Sheaves diameters—14", 16", 18", 20", 22", 24".
(2) Pressure lubrication:
(i) Diamond design, cast iron or steel sheaves. Sheaves diameters—14", 16", 18", 20", 22", 24".
(ii) Oval design, cast iron or steel sheaves. Sheave diameters—14", 16", 18", 20", 22", 24".

(d) Steel cargo hoisting blocks, single.
(1) Cast steel or malleable iron shell, steel sheaves, steel roller bearings, pressure lubrication. Sheave diameters—12", 14".

(e) Steel plate snatch blocks (May be equipped with drop link, or safety locking device).
(1) Plain ferrous metal bearings:
Cast iron sheaves. Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10".
(2) Self-lubricating bronze bushings:
Cast iron or steel sheaves. Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20".
One design only shall be used for both.

(f) Special extra heavy steel plate snatch blocks (Trucking, oil field, or stevedore types).
(1) Steel sheaves with pressure lubrication or self-lubricating bronze bushings with sheave diameters of 6", 8", 10".

(g) Malleable iron snatch blocks (Equipped with pin type cross head).
(1) Self-lubricating bronze bushings, cast iron or steel sheaves. Sheave diameters—6", 8", 10", 12", 14", 16", 18", 20".

TABLE IV—ATTACHED FITTINGS FOR TACKLE BLOCKS

(a) The only attached fittings which are permitted for manila rope blocks are as follows:
(1) Shackle
(2) Loose Side Hook
(3) Loose Swivel Hook
(4) Stiff Swivel Hook
(5) Loose Oblong Link
(6) Swivel Eye
(7) Trip Hook
(8) Becket
(9) Sister Hooks

(b) The only attached fittings which are permitted for wire rope blocks are as follows:
(1) Shackle
(2) Loose Side Hook
(3) Loose Oblong Link
(4) Stiff Swivel Hook
(5) Swivel Hook in Yoke
(6) Oblong Swivel Eye
(7) Drilled Swivel Eye
(8) Jaw or Yoke (with or without swivel)
(9) Becket
(10) Heel Block

[Order L–335, Direction 9, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

LIMITATIONS ON RECEIPTS OF CERTAIN SPECIES AND GRADES OF LUMBER

Direction No. 9 to Order L–335 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Limitation on receipts of lumber for specified uses. No person shall receive the following types of lumber for use as ship dunnage or in bracing, blocking, shoring in freight cars or trucks, or for use in producing an item listed on Schedule I below: #2, 3, and 4 common grades of Ponderosa pine, Idaho white pine, sugar pine, lodgepole pine, white fir, Engelmann spruce, produced in the States of Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, or South Dakota.

(b) Limitation on receipts of lumber for use in making hardwood flooring. No person shall receive for use in manufacturing hardwood flooring any species of lumber other than birch, beech, maple, pecan, and oak.

(c) Deliveries by sawmills prohibited. No sawmill shall sell, ship or deliver, or cause to be sold, shipped or delivered, any lumber which he knows or has reason to believe will be received or used in violation of the provisions of this direction or any order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(d) Appeals. Any appeals from the provisions of this direction shall be made by mailing a letter to the Lumber and Lumber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–335.

SCHEDULE I

Farm machinery, implements, and equipment which include any item controlled by Order L–257 but not including wooden farm pumps.

Boats, pleasure (sail boats, row boats, and motor boats).

Caskets, burial cases and other morticians' equipment (excluding shipping cases).

Fixtures, commercial.

Furniture.

Stepladders.

Ladders (except ships' ladders and ladders manufactured for use on motorized fire or rescue apparatus).

Lockers and shelving, industrial or commercial.

Millwork, building woodwork (window sash and door frames; windows; sash; doors; interior trim; stairs; cabinets; blinds; mouldings; porchwork and exterior trim; window and door screens).

Mobile houses (house trailers and expansible mobile houses).

Prefabricated buildings and structures and fabricated parts of buildings and structures.

Plumbers woodwork and fixtures (toilet seats, towel racks).

Radio and phonograph cabinets.

Refrigerators (except walk-in) and refrigerating equipment.

Scenery and display signs.

Toys, games, children's vehicles.

Trunks, valises, trunk lockers.

Woodenware and novelties (coat hangers, gavels, trays, umbrellas, buttons, cases, etc.)

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[General Conservation Order M–356, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

SYNTHETIC FIBERS, YARNS AND FABRICS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supplies of synthetic fibers, yarns and fabrics for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

Nylon

§ 3290.326 General Conservation Order M–356—(a) Definitions. (1) "Nylon" means synthetic fiber-forming polymeric amides having a protein-like chemical structure, derivable from coal, air and water, or other substances, and characterized by extreme toughness and strength and the peculiar ability to be formed into fibers (yarns and fabrics) and into various shapes, such as bristles, sheets, etc. "Nylon" also means fibers, yarn, thread and fabrics made of nylon.

(2) "Nylon waste" means waste, noils and garnetted or reclaimed fibers (including scraps and clippings, generated in the manufacture of thread, fabrics, rope, braiding or other material containing nylon) the total nylon content of which is 95% or more by weight.

(b) Restrictions on nylon. (1) No person shall sell or deliver nylon except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(2) No person shall knowingly purchase, accept delivery or commercially use nylon contrary to any restriction of the War Production Board.

(c) Restrictions on nylon waste. No person shall sell, purchase, deliver, accept delivery, process or commercially use nylon waste except to recover nylon flake. No person shall mix nylon waste with any other waste material having less than 95% nylon content by weight.

Export of Fine Rayon Yarn and Rayon Fabrics

(d) Definitions. (1) "Rayon fabrics" mean broad woven synthetic fabrics (over 24 inches in width) made from continuous filament viscose yarn, cuprammonium yarn or cellulose acetate yarn, from viscose or acetate staple fiber, or from combinations or blends containing more than 50 per cent by weight of any such synthetic yarns. The term shall not include velvets, plushes, and other pile fabrics, upholstery, drapery and tapestry fabrics, and jacquard woven fabrics.

(2) "Fabric producer" means a person who wove, or caused to be woven for him on commission, an average of more than 25,000 yards of rayon fabrics per week during the three months' period ending September 30, 1943. Wherever the words "his total yardage production" or "produced by him" are used in paragraph (g), they refer to the yardage of rayon fabrics manufactured for, as well as by, the fabric producer.

(3) "Procurement orders" mean orders for rayon fabrics placed by the Army or Navy of the United States (including military exchanges and service departments when the order bears the appropriate endorsement referred to in paragraph (c) of Priority Regulation 17), the Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(4) "Export orders" means, with respect to fine rayon yarns as defined in General Preference Order M–37–d, orders bearing a preference rating of AA–3 or higher, and with respect to rayon fabrics, orders bearing a preference rating of AA–5 or higher, for material which is covered by or the subject of one of the following:

(i) An export license issued by Foreign Economic Administration.

(ii) A release certificate issued by or pursuant to the authority of Foreign Economic Administration in connection with a program license of the Foreign Economic Administration.

(iii) A United States Treasury Procurement Division contract or requisition placed for Foreign Economic Administration.

(iv) A purchase by The Canadian Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation.

(v) An order from a manufacturer, who has accepted orders for garments or materials covered by export orders defined in subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) above, for goods to be incorporated in such garments or materials.

Deliveries to or for United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, and deliveries to Canada, other than on orders referred to in subdivision (iv), are not exports for the purpose of this order.

(e) (1) No preference rating applied or assigned in connection with any export order as defined in paragraph (d) (4) shall be valid, used, or given any effect unless the preference rating is applied and extended as provided in Priorities Regulation 3 and, in addition, substantially one of the following notations (whichever is appropriate) is placed on the order:

(i) The goods hereby ordered will be exported (or will be incorporated in materials to be exported) under export license No. ------ (fill in) issued by Foreign Economic Administration.

(ii) The goods hereby ordered will be exported (or will be incorporated in materials to be exported) under release certificate No. ------ (fill in) issued by or pursuant to the authority of Foreign Economic Administration.

(iii) The goods hereby ordered are (or will be incorporated in material that is) the subject of United States Treasury Procurement Division Contract No. ---------- (fill in)

(iv) The goods hereby ordered will be delivered to or for the account of The Canadian Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation.

(When this is done the requirements of M–328 are met, and it is unnecessary to use any other notation.)

(2) No person shall purchase, accept delivery of, deliver or knowingly sell for delivery for export any rayon yarn or rayon fabric, without a preference rated export order as defined in paragraph (d) (4), except rags or pieces of fabric shorter than ten yards.

(f) Establishment of export quotas for fine rayon yarn. (1) An export quota system is hereby established for the producers of fine rayon yarn as defined in General Preference Order M–37–d. Such export quotas will be established from time to time by the War Production Board within which quotas the Foreign Economic Administration will be authorized to assign preference ratings. Until further notice from the War Production Board, each producer of fine rayon yarn shall, regardless of preference ratings, each day set aside an amount of such yarn equal to the production of 4% of his active spindles producing viscose or cuprammonium yarn and 4% of his active spindles producing acetate yarn. The number of active spindles producing high tenacity tire-type rayon yarn shall not be included in computing the above percentages. The yarn thus set aside shall be known as "export yarn," and shall be set aside, as nearly as practicable, in such denier sizes as will fill the producer's orders on hand for such yarn at the time the producer sets his production schedule. No producer of fine rayon yarn shall be compelled to export or accept an order for export of fine rayon yarn in excess of the export quota so established for him: Provided, That no such producer shall be prohibited from exporting or accepting an order for export of fine rayon yarn in excess of such quota, unless specifically prohibited by the War Production Board.

(2) Disposition of export yarn not booked or delivered. All export yarn set aside from the production of any one month, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (f) (1) and which has not been delivered or booked during said month, shall be immediately available for sale to any person otherwise eligible to purchase such yarn.

(3) [Deleted Feb. 8, 1944]

(g) Establishment of export quota for rayon fabrics. (1) An export quota system is hereby established for rayon fabrics. Pursuant to such system export quotas will be fixed from time to time by the War Production Board. Until further notice from the War Production Board, each fabric producer must accept and fill export orders for rayon fabrics until they aggregate for the current calendar quarter four per cent of his total yardage production of rayon fabrics (excluding yardage produced by him to fill procurement orders) during the preceding calendar quarter. No fabric producer is required to accept or fill export orders for more than the established export quota, nor for more than fifteen per cent of any particular construction of rayon fabrics produced by him during the current calendar quarter. However, he is not prohibited from doing so, unless compliance with other orders or regulations of the War Production Board would forbid it.

(2) Unfilled export quota to be carried over to next quarter. If a fabric producer does not fill his entire export quota of rayon fabrics in any calendar quarter, the unfilled portion hall be added to his quota for the next succeeding quarter. The portion so carried over which is not filled in such succeeding quarter may be dropped. To illustrate: if the export quota of a fabric producer for the second quarter of 1944 is 100,000 yards and he books or delivers only 75,000 yards during that quarter, the remaining 25,000 yards shall be added to his quota for the third quarter of 1944. If his quota for that quarter is also 100,000 yards, he is required to accept and fill export orders aggregating 125,000 yards during the third quarter. Any part of the 25,000 yards not delivered during the third quarter is thereafter free from the rpstrictions of this order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(h) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, and General Conservation Order M–328, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(3) Reports. Each producer of rayon fabrics shall forward to the War Production Board each week a copy of every export order accepted by him during the week. Each producer of rayon fabrics shall file with the War Production Board quarterly production reports on Form WPB–658–C within the time specified on said form. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(4) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–356.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1

ALL PRODUCERS OF RAYON FABRICS REQUIRED TO REPORT

Although "fabric producer" is defined in paragraph (d) (2) to mean a person who wove or caused to be woven for him on commission an average of more than 25,000 yards of rayon fabric per week during the three months' period ending September 30, 1943, paragraph (h) (3), the reports paragraph, refers to each producer of rayon fabrics regardless of the quantity he produces. Accordingly, all producers of rayon fabrics are required to report. (Issued May 26, 1944.)

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–64, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

CASKETS, SHIPPING CASES AND BURIAL VAULTS

§ 3291.245 General Limitation Order L–64.—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Casket" means a container in which it is intended to place a human corpse for interment.

(2) "Burial vault" means a container in which it is intended to place a casket containing a human corpse for interment, and shall include burial boxes.

(3) "Shipping case" means a container in which it is intended to place a casket containing a human corpse for shipment and to which handles have been attached in accordance with railroad shipping regulations.

(4) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the production, upholstering, finishing or lining of caskets, shipping cases, burial vaults or parts made specifically for incorporation into those products.

(5) "Metal liner" means a metal container which is inserted into a wooden casket or burial box in order to provide hermetical sealing.

(6) "Metal" means metal or metallic substances in any form except metallic substances contained in powders, sprays, paints and pastes (see Conservation Orders M–1–g and M–9–c–3).

(7) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(8) "Handle hardware" means hardware attached to the outside of a casket or shipping case for carrying purposes.

(9) "Design" means the construction essentials of a casket which distinguish that casket from another casket. For the purposes of this order, two or more caskets identical in every respect other than species of wood, size, handle hardware, interior linings, upholstery, textile coverings or color of wood finishes shall be considered one design. Two or more caskets identical in every respect but containing different contours of moldings, pilasters or corners shall be considered two or more designs.

(10) "Preferred order" means any order, contract or subcontract placed by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(b) Restrictions on production of caskets. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of caskets, or process, fabricate, work on or assemble any caskets containing any metal, except

(i) Handle hardware for caskets consisting of

(a) Assemblies of bars, ears, arms or tips containing antimony, lead, aluminum or zinc which were completely fabricated and assembled prior to March 28, 1942; and

(b) Handle arms containing antimonial lead and steel fabricated on or after March 28, 1942, in compliance with the provisions of M–38–c as amended or any appeal granted under that order provided that not more than three pounds of antimonial lead, and 14 ounces of steel shall be used per casket.

(ii) Nameplates manufactured from secondary antimonial lead weighing not more than 14 ounces; and

(iii) Any metal parts which have been manufactured under an appeal from this order or any other order granted after June 30, 1942.

(iv) Not more than 10 pounds of iron and steel per casket of which not more than 7 pounds may be contained in handle hardware.

(2) On and after May 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall

(i) Cut a portion out of the body of the casket so as to make a dropside style;

(ii) Cut the ogee top so as to make a full couch style;

(iii) Cut panels on basic and half couch caskets except at center of panel or two inches or less off center of panel in length;

(iv) Use backing strips or filler strips on base moldings;

(v) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(vi) Use any interior fitting except what is known as basic or regular, half couch or hinged top fittings; or

(vii) Process or fabricate parts for elliptic end caskets.

(3) On and after May 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on, assemble, finish or upholster any caskets, or parts for caskets, which do not conform to the specifications contained in Schedule A attached to this order, except that

(i) Plastic caskets produced from molds or forms completed prior to March 3, 1943 need not conform to the specifications on size of caskets contained in Schedule A but shall conform to all other specifications contained in Schedule A, and

(ii) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(4) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble more designs of caskets than the following:

(i) Twelve designs of adult caskets (five feet six inches or more in inside bottom length);

(ii) One design of children's caskets (less than five feet six inches in inside bottom length);

(iii) One additional institution or hospital design (including both children and adults' sizes);

(iv) One design of still born containers; and

(v) Any other designs specifically authorized by the War Production Board pursuant to an application for permission to manufacture, fabricate or assemble substitute designs in place of designs produced on or after May 1, 1943.

(c) Restrictions on production of metal liners. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of metal liners or produce any metal liners containing any metal, except

(i) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(ii) Lead to be used for soldering purposes, provided that such lead shall not contain more than 30% of tin by weight;

(iii) [Deleted Sept. 8, 1944]

(iv) Not more than fifty pounds per metal liner of iron and steel or galvanized steel not exceeding 26 standard gauge in thickness, provided that any manufacturer who possessed in his inventory prior to March 28, 1942, iron and steel, galvanized steel, terne sheet, or copper bearing steel exceeding 26 standard gauge in thickness may use more than fifty pounds of such steel per metal liner.

(2) No person shall use a metal liner except when hermetical sealing is required.

(i) To comply with federal, state or local government laws and regulations for the transportation or interment of a human corpse; or

(ii) In fulfillment of preferred orders.

(3) No manufacturer or jobber shall sell or otherwise dispose of a metal liner to any person unless such person furnishes the manufacturer or jobber with a certificate in substantially the following form, manually signed by that person or his authorized agent:

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to ----------, ---------- (Name of seller) ----------, and ---------- (Address) to the War Production Board that the metal liners received by reason of this sale will be used by the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration or to comply with federal, state or local government laws and regulations which require hermetic sealing for the transportation or interment of a human corpse.

(ii) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(2) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(3) On and after May 1, 1943, except in fulfillment of preferred orders, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any shipping case, or parts for shipping cases, which do not conform to the specifications contained in Schedule A, attached to this order.

(e) Restrictions on production of burial vaults. (1) No manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any metal for use in the production of burial vaults, or process, fabricate, work on or assemble any burial vaults containing any metal, except not more than two pounds of iron and steel per burial vault and not more than 15 pounds of iron and steel for reinforcing purposes for a concrete vault.

(i) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(ii) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(2) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(3) No manufacturer shall receive any iron or steel (including wire mesh) for use as reinforcing metal in the production of concrete burial vaults unless it is made from rerolled rail stock, "top cuts" or scrap iron or steel.

(4) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(5) On and after May 1, 1943, except in fulfillment of preferred orders, no manufacturer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any burial vaults or parts for burial vaults which do not conform to the specifications contained in Schedule A attached to this order.

(f) Restrictions on use and transfer of caskets which exceed the dimensions specified in Schedule A. On and after June 1, 1943, no manufacturer or jobber shall sell, deliver or otherwise dispose of a casket which exceeds the dimensions specified in Schedule A attached to this order to any person unless such person furnishes the manufacturer or jobber with a certification in substantially the following form, manually signed by that person or his authorized agent.

(i) [Deleted Mar. 16, 1944]

(j) Reports. (1) Each manufacturer of caskets shall file with the War Production Board a catalogue illustration, photograph, snap shot (post card size) or sketch of each design which he proposes to produce under paragraph (b) (4) showing the casket closed and no lining, except that head lid lining may be shown. Each design shall be identified by the factory catalogue number or other distinguishing identification which may be placed on the reverse side of each illustration submitted, together with the manufacturer's name and address.

(2) [Deleted Sept. 8, 1944]

(k) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form WPB–1477 and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board of the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(m) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-64.

(n) Applicability of regulations and other orders. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of caskets, metal liners, shipping cases or burial vaults to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

SCHEDULE A

Restrictions on size	Maximum dimension (shown in inches)					Maximum inside dimensions of wood burial vaults and shipping cases used with caskets specified (shown in inches)			Net amount of lumber which may be contained in finished product (shown in board feet)
	Length		Width		Height
	Inside bottom edge	Overall outside length	Inside top edge	Overall outside width	Overall outside height	Length	Width	Depth	Casket specified	Burial box	Shipping case
Institution caskets	75	81	22	24¾	16	84	26¼	17	46	65	69
Octagon and flaring square caskets without base and rail moldings	75	81	22	24¾	20	84	26¼	21	56	71	75
Octagon and flaring square caskets with base and rail moldings	75	81	22	25½	20	84	26½	21	63	73	77
Vertical square caskets	75	81	22	25½	20	84	26½	21	67	73	77

Burial boxes and shipping cases exceeding these dimensions may be produced for plastic or extra size caskets provided that such caskets are not produced in violation of any rule, regulation or order of the War Production Board. No manufacturer shall produce or accumulate extra size caskets in excess of the minimum amount necessary to satisfy demands made pursuant to paragraph (f) of this order. Extra size caskets, burial vaults and shipping cases may contain an additional net amount of lumber of 2½ board feet for each three inches of additional length and three board feet for each two inches of additional width.

Extra size caskets may be made in only three designs in addition to an institution or hospital casket design and shall be produced in multiples of three inches additional length and two inches in additional width.

A tolerance of one-half inch in length and one-fourth inch in width is permitted from the specifications of caskets and burial boxes contained in this schedule.

	Caskets	Burial vaults and shipping cases
Restrictions on lumber, laminated lumber and plywood.	Not more than 1" thick before milling operations, except: (1) 1½" before milling operations for ogee molding provided no backing strip is used on ogee. (2) 2" before milling operations for combined side and base or rail molding.	Not more than 1" thick before milling operations. Not more than 1 thickness of wood on any part, except: (1) top battens not exceeding 3" in width and 1" in thickness. (2) corner cleats not exceeding 2¼" in width and 1" in thickness, and (3) 2 skids not exceeding 1" in width and thickness respectively.
Finishing restrictions	Not more than: One coat of stain. One coat of wood filler, and One coat of sealing primer. Not more than: Two coats of varnish or similar coating material for transparent finishes or Two coats of varnish or similar coating material for artificial grain finishes or Two coats of enamel for opaque finishes. Not more than: Two different colors of transparent finishes for each species of wood used, and Two different colors of opaque finishes for each design. Two colors or artificial grain finishes may be used in place of transparent finishes, if desired.	Not more than 1 coat of varnish, paint or similar coating material. No nitro-cellulose lacquers.
Restrictions on linings, covering materials, pillows and foot rolls.	No materials in counter linings (upholstery) except cotton fabric. Maximum quantities of rayon lining materials for casket: 9 yards with hinged top fitting 7 yards with half couch fitting and 5¼ yards with basic fitting. A manufacturer may increase the amount of yards used in the above fittings by 10% when used in extra size caskets (for the purpose of this schedule each yard contains 1296 square inches). No rayon lining material in the foot half of basic or half couch caskets. No rayon materials as a bed covering in any casket. No aprons on basic caskets. No plus effects on lids (panels) or ogees on any casket. No foot rolls in any casket nor more than 1 pillow in any casket.	Not applicable.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Conservation Order M-150, As Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

AROMATIC SOLVENTS

Section 3293.171 Conservation Order M-150 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of aromatic solvents for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3293.171 Conservation Order M-150—(a) Definitions. (1) "Aromatic solvents" means Class A solvents, Class A blends, Class B solvents or Class B blends as defined herein.

(2) "Class A solvents" means xylene range solvents or alternate blended solvents or naphthas containing more than 30 per cent by volume of aromatic hydrocarbons, regardless of source, as determined by the analytical procedure described in "Approximate Analysis of Hydrocarbon Thinners" published in the Scientific Section Circular No. 568 of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, November, 1938, pages 381 and 388, and having an A. S. T. M. 50% distillation point lower than 330° F. (165.5° C.). The term shall include solvents containing some combined or commercially inextractable benzene or toluene when such are inherently present in fractionated distillates. The term does not include benzene as defined in Order M-300, Schedule 22, toluene as defined in M-300, Schedule 21, or xylene as defined in M-300, Schedule 23, or solvents of the toluene range, which are defined below as "Class B solvents".

(3) "Class A blends" means any mixture of solvents prepared by admixing Class A solvents with other solvents in any proportion.

(4) "Class B solvents" means toluene range solvents from petroleum or coal tar origin having a distillation range of 200° F. to 285° F. (93° C. to 140° C.), and containing more than 30 per cent by volume of aromatic hydrocarbons, as determined by the analytical procedure described in paragraph (a) (2) above. The term does not include benzene as defined in Order M-300, Schedule 22, toluene as defined in M-300, Schedule 21, or xylene as defined in M-300, Schedule 23, or solvents containing xylene which are defined as Class A solvents.

(5) "Class B blends" means any mixture of solvents prepared by admixing Class B solvents with other solvents in any proportion and includes mixtures of Class A and Class B solvents.

(6) "Military order" means (i) any order for the purchase of a product to be delivered to, or to be used on, or incorporated in, material or equipment delivered to or to be delivered to the U. S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, or to or for the account of any foreign country under the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act), or (ii) any order calling for the servicing of material or equipment to be delivered to the U. S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(7) "Coatings" means any liquid organic coating, thinner, or remover which is normally applied to any surface by brush, spray, dip, roller coat, or other method of application. The term includes but is not limited to paint, varnish, lacquer, dope, coating for fabric, printing ink, stain, coating thinner and coating remover. The term does not include adhesive or cement.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries of aromatic solvents. No person who produces aromatic solvents or who buys aromatic solvents for resale, shall deliver such solvents unless he furnishes his customers with the notification set forth in Schedule C. This notification must be given in writing, either on the invoice or separately. In no event, however, shall he deliver such solvents if he knows or has reason to believe that they will be used for purposes prohibited by this order.

(c) Restrictions on use of Class A solvents and Class A blends. The use of Class A solvents and Class A blends is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) Use as dry cleaning fluid or type washes. No person engaged in the business of dry cleaning or printing and publishing may use Class A solvents or Class A blends in the form in which they are received as a dry cleaning fluid (use as spotting fluid excepted) or as printing press and type washes.

(2) Use in production of dry cleaning fluid or type washes. No person may use Class A solvents or Class A blends for the production of any dry cleaning fluid (except spotting fluid and soap) or printing press and type washes.

(3) Use in production of coatings. Except to fill military orders for coatings, no person may use Class A solvents or Class A blends for the production of coatings for the end uses shown on Schedule A. This applies to a coating made by a producer for his own consumption as well as those he makes for sale.

(4) Use as a coating. Except to fill military orders, no person engaged in the business of making products or rendering service (for example, a furniture manufacturer or an automobile repair and refinishing establishment) may use Class A solvents or Class A blends either in the form in which the solvents or blends were received, or after further mixing by him with other materials, as a coating for the end uses shown on Schedule A.

(d) Restrictions on use of Class B solvents and Class B blends. No person engaged in the business of making products or rendering service (for example, a coating manufacturer, a toy manufacturer, a public utility, or a research laboratory) may use Class B solvents or Class B blends except for the following purposes:

(1) The production of Class B blends.

(2) The production or processing of products shown on Schedule B.

(3) Research and experimental purposes, provided that not more than an aggregate quantity of 55 gallons of Class B solvents or Class B blends is used by any person in any calendar month for such research and experimental purposes.

(e) Changes in Schedules A and B. The War Production Board may from time to time make whatever changes it may deem necessary in the end uses listed on Schedule A or in the products and end uses listed on Schedule B.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(g) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications to War Production Board. All communications concerning this order, unless otherwise directed, shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–150.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE B—CLASS B SOLVENTS AND CLASS B BLENDS

List of permitted products referred to in paragraph (d) (2) of this order:

1. Coatings for aircraft including instruments and parts.
2. Barrage balloon fabric.
3. Synthetic rubber.
4. Interior coatings for cans and metal closures and interior liners for metal closures where such cans and closures are to be used for the packaging of foods, drugs and pharmaceuticals.
5. Lacquers, saturants and fillers for cable, and impregnating varnishes for coils and wound apparatus.
6. Bonded mica for insulation purposes.
7. Vinyl coatings (on military orders only) where spray application is required.
8. Specification coatings (on military orders only) where the specification states that the use of Class B solvents is required.
9. Brake lining, clutch facing, and coated abrasives.
10. Any product for any end use (on military orders only) provided that not more than an aggregate quantity of 55 gallons of Class B solvents is used by any manufacturer in any calendar month for all such end uses.
11. Zinc chromate primer (on military orders only) for aluminum or magnesium surfaces.

SCHEDULE C—CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to paragraph (b) of this order, notification in substantially the following form must be sent to all customers purchasing aromatic solvents:

The _____ of _____ (quantity) (trademark or designation of solvents or blends) _____ being delivered to you on your order #_____, dated _____, is a Class A solvent, Class A blend, Class B solvent, Class B blend (strike out inapplicable terms) as defined in War Production Board Order M-150, and may not be used for purposes prohibited by that order.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M-300, Schedule 45]

SODIUM CYANIDE

§ 3293.1045 Schedule 45 to General Allocation Order M-300—(a) Definition. "Sodium cyanide" means all grades and mixtures of sodium cyanide and solutions of sodium cyanide which contain 20% or more sodium cyanide by weight, except 25% mixture with crude calcium cyanide and except 90-91% mining grade sodium cyanide produced from calcium cyanide.

(b) General restrictions. Sodium cyanide is subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M-300 as an Appendix A material. The initial allocation date is February 1, 1944, when sodium cyanide was first put under allocation by Order M-366 (revoked). The allocation period is the calendar month. The small order exemption (effective September 8, 1944) is 400 pounds (computed on 96% basis) per person per month.

(c) Special interim provisions. Use, delivery and acceptance of delivery prior to October 1, 1944, will be authorized on the basis of application filed in the form heretofore prescribed in Order M-366 (revoked). Any person who received sodium cyanide prior to September 8, 1944, under the small order exemption of Order M-366 may use it without restriction under this schedule.

(d) Suppliers' applications on WPB-2946. Each supplier seeking authorization to deliver shall file application on Form WPB-2946 (formerly PD-601). Filing date is the 20th day of the month before the requested allocation month. A consolidated set of forms may be filed for all plants and warehouses of the applicant. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-45. The unit of measure is pounds (specify per cent sodium cyanide contained in the material, such as 96%, 35%, etc.). An aggregate quantity may be requested, without specifying customers' names, for delivery on exempt small orders. In Column 7 report total small order shipments for latest month for which figure is available and specify the month. In Table II, producers shall fill in Columns 8 through 14, and resellers, Columns 8, 10, 12 and 13.

(e) Customers' applications on Form WPB-2945. Each person seeking authorization to use or accept delivery shall file application on Form WPB-2945 (formerly PD-600). Filing date is the 15th day of the month before the requested allocation month. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M-300-45, and one copy (reverse side blank) to the supplier. The unit of measure is pounds (specify per cent sodium cyanide contained in the material, such as 96%, 35%, etc.). In Column 1 specify what grade, mixture or solution of sodium cyanide is sought and in Column 2 specify pounds requested for each use specified in Columns 3 and 4 of the application.

Do not request quantities in excess of actual requirements for the month for which allocation is requested. Fill in Column 3 in terms of the following:

Barbiturates
Floting
Case hardening
Flotation reagents
Plating
Other primary product (specify)
Export (as sodium cyanide)
Inventory (as sodium cyanide)
Resale (as sodium cyanide)

Specify end use in Column 4 as required by paragraph (11-a) of Appendix E of Order M-300 (indicate as far as possible whether for direct or indirect Army, Navy or Lend-Lease orders, but do not specify contract numbers).

Fill in Tables II and III, as indicated. Leave Tables IV and V blank.

(f) Budget Bureau approval. The above reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. Communications concerning this schedule shall be addressed to War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300-45.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Allocation Order M-366, Revocation]

CYANIDE

Section 3293.581 Allocation Order M-366 is hereby revoked. This revocation does not affect any liabilities incurred under the order.

Sodium cyanide is subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M-300 as an Appendix A material, subject to Schedule 45 issued simultaneously with this revocation.

Use, delivery and acceptance of delivery of sodium cyanide (as defined in Schedule 45 under M-300) prior to October 1, 1944, will be authorized on the basis of applications filed in the form heretofore prescribed in Order M-366.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[RPS 40, Amdt. 27]

RESALE OF IRON OR STEEL PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1306.165 (a) (13) is amended to read as follows:

(13) Prohibition of the use of factors not specifically set forth in this section—(i) Restrictions. Only the base prices, extras or other factors which are expressly permitted by this § 1306.165 shall be included in the computation of a maximum delivered price. No other factors may be used unless specific permission is obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(ii) Application for other factors. A seller may apply by letter for permission to use factors not included in the computation of a maximum delivered price under this section if the factors requested were in effect or were used by him on April 16, 1941. The Office of Price Administration may approve, disapprove or modify the factors requested. Appropriate conditions may be imposed upon the use of factors granted. Such application shall be addressed to the attention of the Iron and Steel Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

This amendment shall become effective September 13, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

[MPR 543,[1] Amdt. 2]

CERTAIN BARIUM CHEMICALS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 543 is amended in the following respects:

1. By adding at the end of section 10 (a) (4) thereof the following sentence: "In the event an applicant under section 11 hereof is a producer of both barium carbonate and barium chloride, the Price Administrator may consider the factory costs of the combined carbonate-chloride operations."

2. By adding the following new subparagraphs to section 10 (a):

(7) "General administrative and selling expenses per unit" means general administrative and selling expenses per unit as they existed during the first six months of 1944, or as of the date an application for adjustment is filed, whichever is lower.

(8) "Total cost per unit" means factory cost per unit plus general administrative and selling expenses per unit.

3. By deleting from the first paragraph of section 11 thereof the following words: "since his current maximum price was established".

4. By amending section 11 (b) (4) thereof to read as follows:

(4) Notwithstanding limitations on the amount of adjustment heretofore indicated, no adjusted price shall exceed factory or total cost per unit if historically applicant has sold such barium chemical at not more than factory or total cost per unit.

This amendment shall become effective September 13, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

[1] "No. 1 mixed paper" consists of wastepaper which does not have the uniform or distinctive qualities required for classification as any other grade.

[2] "No. 1 news" consists of waste newspapers.

[3] "Overissue news" consists of unused over-run newspapers from a newspaper office. Dealers' returns constitute a lower quality of this grade. Optional method of packing—securely tied bundles.

[4] "Old corrugated containers" consist of used corrugated or solid fibre containers, including any combination or mixture of 'jute', double lined Kraft, and 100% Kraft.

[5] "Extra manilas" of the highest quality consist of unprinted manila paper. Lower qualities may contain printing.

[6] "Mixed books" consist of books or magazines, including cutthrow, which may in no event exceed 20% of the total weight of the packing. Packings which contain in excess of 20% outthrow may not be sold at a price in excess of the maximum price for "No. 1 Mixed Paper."

[7] "No. 1 heavy books and magazines" consist of used and overissue books and magazines, stitchless stock, quire waste and similar printed matter. The packing may contain up to 5% outthrow. A shipment containing more than 5% outthrow but not more than 10% outthrow must be rejected or paid for only after adjustment to eliminate any payment for outthrow in excess of 5%; in such shipment the excess of outthrow becomes the property of the purchaser. When a shipment invoiced as No. 1 heavy books and magazines contains outthrow of more than 10%, such shipment must be rejected as No. 1 heavy books and magazines and may be accepted only as "No. 1 Mixed Papers," even though it would otherwise meet the definition of "Mixed books". A deduction of at least $5.00 per ton from the maximum price must be made if the material is not packed in machine compressed bales weighing not less than 500 lbs., in air compressed bales, or on skids.

[8] "No. 1 mixed ledger (colored ledger)" consists of ledger sheets, bond, and writing papers, white and colored. It must contain no more than 2% outthrow, and must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of ledger sheets, bond and writing papers which were free from groundwood prior to the present war. Deliveries which fail to meet the requirement as to outthrow must be rejected or paid for only after adjustment to eliminate any payment for the excessive outthrow.

[9] "No. 1 white ledger" consists of ledger sheets, bond and writing papers, all white. It must contain no more than 2% outthrow, and must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of ledger sheets, bond and writing papers which were free from groundwood prior to the present war. Deliveries which fail to meet the requirements as to outthrow must be rejected or paid for only after adjustment to eliminate any payment for the excessive outthrow.

[10] "Mill wrappers" consist of paper used as outside wrappers for rolls or bundles of finished paper stock and may contain sulphite or kraft screenings, groundwood fiber or chemical woodpulp fiber.

[11] "New corrugated cuttings" consist of new corrugated or solid fiber container board cuttings.

[12] "Boxboard cuttings" consist of new cuttings of paperboard which is used in the manufacture of folding paper cartons, set-up boxes and similar boxboard products.

[13] "White blank news" consists of unprinted cuttings or sheets of white newsprint paper.

[14] "New manila envelope cuttings" consist of new cuttings or sheets of unprinted manila paper of the quality used in the manufacture of manila envelopes.

[15] "One cut new manila envelope cuttings" consist of new one cut cuttings or sheets of unprinted manila paper of the quality used in the manufacture of manila envelopes.

[16] "Manila tabulating cards, free from groundwood" consist of new or used printed manila cards which have been manufactured for use in automatic tabulating machines. Must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of manila cards which were free from groundwood prior to the present war. Lower qualities of this grade may include tabulating cards of similar stock having colors other than manila. Optional method of packing—bags or box s.

[17] "Manila tabulating cards, groundwood" consist of new or used printed manila cards, containing groundwood, which have been manufactured for use in automatic tabulating machines. Lower qualities of this grade may include tabulating cards of similar stock having colors other than manila. Optional method of packing—bags or boxes.

[18] "No. 1 hard white shavings" consist of new bond or writing paper shavings of sulphite or rag fiber content, free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of bond or writing papers of sulphite or rag fiber content which were free from groundwood prior to the present war. The highest quality of this grade consists of all white shavings. Lower qualities may contain rulings or light colored stock.

[19] "Hard white envelope cuttings" consist of new cuttings from bond or writing papers of the quality used in the manufacture of envelopes. The fiber content of the stock shall be sulphite, rag, or bleached sulphate, free from printed matter and free from groundwood except in the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of bond or writing papers of the quality used in the manufacture of envelopes which were free from groundwood prior to the present war.

[20] "One cut hard white envelope cuttings" consist of new one cut cuttings from bond or writing papers of the quality used in the manufacture of envelopes. The fiber content of the stock shall be sulphite, rag, or bleached sulphate, free from printed matter and free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of bond or writing papers of the quality used in the manufacture of envelopes which were free from groundwood prior to the present war.

[21] "No. 1 soft white shavings" consist of unprinted, all white shavings from book and similar printing papers, free from printed matter and containing not in excess of 10% of coated paper stock or heavily filled papers. Must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of book and similar printing papers which were free from groundwood prior to the present war.

[22] "One cut soft white shavings" consist of unprinted, all white, one cut shavings from book and similar printing papers, free from printed matter and containing not in excess of 10% of coated paper stock or heavily filled papers. Must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of book and similar printing papers which were free from groundwood prior to the present war.

[23] "Miscellaneous soft white shavings" consist of unprinted all white shavings from book and similar printing papers, free from printed matter but not limited with respect to coated or filled paper stock. Must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of magazines, catalogs, and similar printed matter which were free from groundwood prior to the present war. Solid color and beater-dyed papers constitute a lower quality of this grade. Shavings of novel news or newsprint grades may not be included in the packing.

[24] "No. 1 fly leaf shavings" consist of the trim of magazines, catalogs, and similar printed matter. It may contain the bleed of cover and insert stock but must be free from groundwood except to the extent that groundwood is used in the furnish of magazines, catalogs, and similar printed matter which were free from groundwood prior to the present war. Solid color and beater-dyed papers constitute a lower quality of this grade. Shavings of novel news or newsprint grades may not be included in the packing.

[25] "No. 1 groundwood fly leaf shavings" consist of the trim of magazines, catalogs and similar printed matter, not limited with respect to groundwood, and may contain the bleed of cover and insert stock, but shall be free from beater-dyed papers, solid or other color printing, and coated stock.

[26] "No. 2 mixed colored groundwood shavings" consist of the trim of magazines, catalogs and similar printed matter, not limited with respect to groundwood or coated stock, and may contain the bleed of cover and insert stock as well as beater-dyed papers and solid and other color printing.

[27] "No. 1 assorted kraft (old kraft)" consists of kraft paper waste, free from corrugated waste of any kind.

[28] "Triple sorted No. 1 brown soft Kraft" consists of old, soft, natural color kraft papers completely free from papers other than those containing 100% sulphate fiber.

[29] "Mixed Kraft envelope and/or bag cuttings" consist of new cuttings from sulphate envelope or bag-stock free from groundwood and other non-sulphate fiber except to the extent that groundwood or other non-sulphate fiber is used in the furnishing of sulphate envelope or bag-stock which was free from groundwood and other non-sulphate fiber prior to the present war.

[30] "Kraft envelope cuttings" consist of new cuttings from kraft envelope stock, free from other fiber except to the extent that such other fiber is used in the furnishing of kraft envelope stock which was free from such other fiber prior to the present war.

[31] "New 100% Kraft corrugated cuttings" consist of cuttings from new corrugated or solid fiber container stock of 100% sulphate fiber content. A lower quality of this grade consists of cuttings from new corrugated stock composed of two liners which are 100% sulphate fiber with a corrugated filler of other fiber. Unless both of the liners are of 100% sulphate fiber, the material must not be sold as a price in excess of the maximum price of "New corrugated cuttings."

This amendment shall become effective September 11, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE REGULATION

SECTION 1. Explanation of the regulation. The purpose of this regulation is to establish maximum prices for purchases and sales of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco (Type No. 62). The regulation applies to you if you are a grower, packer or jobber of this tobacco, or if you buy this tobacco from any grower, packer or jobber. It fixes maximum prices for sales and purchases of the tobacco in the continental United States. The maximum prices and pricing methods may be found in sections 3, 4, 5, and 6.

SEC. 2. Certain definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term

(1) "Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco" means United States Type No. 62, as specified in Regulatory Announcement No. 118 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture.

(2) "Grade" means a subdivision of the type of tobacco according to group and quality, and according to color when color is treated as a separate factor.

(3) "Size" means length of the leaf.

(4) "Priming" means a picking of tobacco.

(5) "Green weight" means the weight of the tobacco at its first weighing after being cured in a barn.

(6) "Selling weight" means the weight of the tobacco when invoiced.

(7) "1942 crop" means tobacco grown during the 1942 growing season.

(8) "1943 crop" means tobacco grown during the 1943 growing season.

(9) "Crop year" means the year in which the growing season occurs.

(10) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or a legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States Government, any other government, or any political subdivision or agency of the foregoing.

(11) "Packer" means a person who, with respect to the tobacco being priced, sweats, sorts, sizes, bales or otherwise processes such tobacco for use by a manufacturer of tobacco products. A manufacturer shall be deemed a packer of any tobacco with respect to which he performs, or causes to be performed for his account, any of these functions.

(12) "Jobber" means any person other than a packer or a manufacturer who, with respect to the tobacco being priced, purchases it in packed form and holds or offers such tobacco for resale.

(13) "Seller of the same class" means a seller of the same type (packer, jobber or manufacturer), performing the same primary function (packing, reselling or manufacturing), dealing in the same type of tobacco, and selling to the same class of purchaser.

(14) "Purchaser of the same class" means a purchaser of the same type (packer, jobber, manufacturer or Government agency) for whom the seller has adopted a practice of setting different prices depending upon the quantity purchased, the grades purchased, the area within which the purchaser is located, or other condition of sale.

(15) "Affiliate" means a person so related to another by reason of the method of or circumstances surrounding its organization or operation as to make it reasonable to believe that its affairs will be managed or operated in the interests of the other. Existence of common officers, directors, stockholders or membership, or the existence of common ownership through a holding company or companies, or voting trust or trusts, shall be deemed to create a rebuttable presumption of affiliation.

(16) "Initial credit terms" means terms fixing the time for payment of the purchase price agreed to by a seller and purchaser at or prior to delivery of the tobacco being priced.

(17) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, deliver and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase" and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(18) "Net delivered cost" means the amount you paid for the tobacco delivered at your customary receiving point, less all discounts except that for prompt payment. No charges for local hauling or trucking shall be included.

(19) "Records" means written evidence of transactions, including books of account, price lists, sales lists and slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, copies of letters requesting establishment of maximum prices, or reports to the Office of Price Administration, and other papers or documents necessary to determine prices charged or paid.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

ARTICLE II—PRICES AND PRICING METHODS

SEC. 3. Maximum prices for purchases of unsized and unsorted Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco from growers. (a) If you are a purchaser, your weighted average purchase price during the marketing season for unsized and unsorted Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco of any particular year's crop shall not exceed $1.23 per pound green weight.

The term "weighted average purchase price" means the total purchase price you paid for tobacco of a particular crop year divided by the number of pounds you purchased.

"Total purchase price" means (1) all compensation, including commissions and fees, paid to the seller or to another person at the seller's instance or request, and all profit or gain realized by a grower from a resale of his tobacco by any person; but (2) excludes all prices or charges paid or computed by you for tobacco grown on a farm owned or operated by you or an affiliate.

NOTE: Inability to make under-ceiling purchases will not excuse your exceeding the weighted average purchase price provided by this section. You are warned not to exceed $1.23 per pound for any purchase without assurance of your ability to make subsequent purchases at prices permitting you to maintain the prescribed weighted average purchase price.

(b) If you are a purchaser of unsized and unsorted Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco, you shall, on or before September 15 of each crop year, file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a signed statement setting forth the total number of pounds of such tobacco purchased by you and the total purchase price paid therefor. This statement shall exclude the number of pounds of tobacco grown on a farm owned or operated by you or your affiliates and all prices or charges paid or computed therefor.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for sales of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco by packers—(a) Maximum prices for sales of sized and sorted leaves fourteen inches or more in length—(1) Listed grades. If you are a packer, your maximum price per pound, selling weight, for sized and sorted leaves fourteen inches or more in length of a particular grade listed in Table I shall be as follows:

TABLE I

Grade	Maximum price per pound selling weight
Prime lights	$3.50
Light wrappers	2.75
L. L.	2.25
No. 2 Lights (slightly torn)	2.00
L. C.	1.75
K-2	.90
Bright and fleshy lights	2.25
"B" lights or medium lights	1.25

(2) Grades not listed. If you are a packer, your maximum price per pound, selling weight, for sized and sorted leaves fourteen inches or more in length of a particular grade not listed in Table I shall be:

(i) The highest price you charged a purchaser of the same class for the same size and grade of tobacco of the 1942 crop; or

(ii) If your maximum price for a size and grade cannot be determined under (i), your maximum price shall be the highest price charged by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class for the same size and grade of tobacco of the 1942 crop; or

(iii) If your maximum price for a size and grade cannot be determined under (i) or (ii), your maximum price shall be the highest price you charged a purchaser of the same class for the most closely comparable size and grade of tobacco of the 1942 crop; or

(iv) If your maximum price for a size and grade cannot be determined under (i), (ii) or (iii), your maximum price shall be the highest price charged by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class for the most closely comparable size and grade of tobacco of the 1942 crop.

(b) Maximum prices for sales of sized and sorted leaves less than fourteen inches in length. If you are a packer, your weighted average selling price for all your sales of sized and sorted leaves less than fourteen inches in length of any year's crop shall not, at any time, exceed $1.25 per pound, selling weight.

NOTE: This provision does not permit you to charge more than $1.25 per pound for a sale of sized and sorted leaves less than fourteen inches in length of any year's crop unless you have previously sold at prices under $1.25 per pound enough sized and sorted leaves less than fourteen inches in length of the same year's crop to maintain your weighted average selling price at that amount.

The term "weighted average selling price" means the gross dollar-and-cent amount you charged for sized and sorted leaves less than fourteen inches in length of the particular year's crop divided by the total number of pounds of such leaves you sold. The gross dollar-and-cent amount charged shall include all commissions, fees or other compensation paid by or for the purchaser to another person at your instance or request.

(c) Maximum prices for sales of sorted and unsized tobacco—(1) Listed grades. If you are a packer, your maximum price per pound, selling weight, for sorted and unsized tobacco of a grade listed in Table II shall be as follows:

TABLE II

Grade	Maximum price per pound
XL	$0.75
Broken backs	1.35
Green Lights	1.50
XL[1]	.25
Loose leaves	.10

(2) Grades not listed. If you are a packer, your maximum price per pound, selling weight, for sorted and unsized tobacco of a grade not listed in Table II shall be:

(i) The highest price you charged a purchaser of the same class for the same grade of sorted and unsized tobacco of the 1942 crop; or

(ii) If your maximum price for a grade cannot be determined under (i), your maximum price shall be the highest price charged by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class for the same grade of sorted and unsized tobacco of the 1942 crop; or

(iii) If your maximum price for a grade cannot be determined under (i) or (ii), your maximum price shall be the highest price you charged a purchaser of the same class for the most closely comparable grade of sorted and unsized tobacco of the 1942 crop; or

(iv) If your maximum price for a grade cannot be determined under (i), (ii) or (iii), your maximum price shall be the highest price charged by a seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class for the most closely comparable grade of sorted and unsized tobacco of the 1942 crop.

(d) Maximum prices for sales of string grades. If you are a packer, your maximum price per pound, selling weight, for string grades listed in Table III shall be as follows:

TABLE III

Grade	Maximum price per pound selling weight
No. 1 String wrappers (lights and thinner)	$2.00
No. 2 String wrappers (medium and heavier)	1.60
String throwouts	.40
String tops	.40

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco by jobbers. (a) If you are a jobber, your maximum price per pound, selling weight, for a grade, or for a priming sold sorted or unsorted (whether the tobacco being priced be sized or unsized) shall be determined as follows:

(1) Determine the highest price per pound you charged for this tobacco of the 1942 crop of the same grade (and size, if sized), or of the same priming and condition, sold by you during the period October 1, 1942 through May 31, 1943 to a purchaser of the same class. If you did not sell tobacco of the 1942 crop of the same grade (and size, if sized), or of the same priming and condition, to a purchaser of the same class during the period October 1, 1942 through May 31, 1943, you shall determine the highest price per pound you charged for the most closely comparable tobacco of the 1942 crop sold to a purchaser of the same class during that period.

(2) Subtract from the price you determined in (1) your net delivered cost per pound for that tobacco of the 1942 crop; and

(3) Add the figure you obtain in (2) to your net delivered cost per pound of the tobacco being priced.

(b) If your maximum price for the tobacco to be priced cannot be determined under (a) above, your maximum price shall be the maximum price of your most closely competitive jobber to a purchaser of the same class for tobacco of the same crop year and of the same grade (and size, if sized), or of the same priming and condition.

SEC. 6. Maximum prices for sales of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco by manufacturers. If you are a manufacturer, your maximum prices for sales of this tobacco packed by you shall be determined in the manner provided in section 4, as if you were a packer. If you resell in packed form tobacco purchased by you in packed form, your maximum price shall be your net delivered cost per pound for the tobacco.

SEC. 7. Maximum prices for sellers unable to price under sections 4, 5 or 6. If you are required to price under section 4, 5, or 6, but cannot determine your maximum price for a sale of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco to a purchaser, you shall apply by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., requesting that a maximum price be established for the sale. The application should state (a) the name and address of the purchaser; (b) a description of the tobacco sufficient to identify it for pricing purposes; and (c) the reasons for your inability to determine a maximum price under sections 4, 5 or 6.

After receipt of the application, the Office of Price Administration will, by order, establish a maximum price, or prescribe a method of determining it. Until a maximum price is established or a method of determining it prescribed, you may deliver the tobacco, but you may not receive payment.

SEC. 8. Customary discounts and allowances. If you are a seller, you shall continue to grant your customary discounts and allowances with respect to sales of the 1942 crop to the particular purchaser. If you made no sales of the 1942 crop to that purchaser, you shall continue to grant your customary discounts and allowances on sales by you of the 1942 crop to purchasers of the same class. If you made no sales of the 1942 crop, you shall grant the discounts and allowances customarily allowed on sales of the 1942 crop by a seller of the same class to purchasers of the same class.

SEC. 9. Adjustable pricing. You may agree to sell this tobacco at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery, but you may not, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by it after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request to establish a maximum price or for a change in a maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to establish the price or to act upon the pending request for a change in price. The authority above will be given by order except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated action will be the granting of an individual application for establishment of a maximum price.

ARTICLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 10. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable in the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 11. Export sales. The maximum prices at which you may export tobacco covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Regulation,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 12 Records. If you buy or sell any tobacco covered by this regulation, you must keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, records showing the prices you charged, received or paid in those sales and the manner in which they were figured (which records may be of the same kind as you have customarily kept if your customary records supply that information). Specifically, those records shall show:

(a) The date of each sale or purchase, the date of delivery, the name of the seller or purchaser, the total number of pounds of each grade purchased or sold, the prices paid or received for each grade purchased or sold, and the amount of any discounts, commission, fee or other compensation allowed or paid to or by you in the transaction.

(b) With respect to any sale of tobacco covered by this regulation for which a specific dollar-and-cent ceiling is not provided, all data used as a basis for determining maximum prices in the manner provided by this regulation.

SEC. 13. Compliance with regulation—(a) No buying or selling above maximum prices. On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, you shall not

(1) Buy or receive unsized and unsorted Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco at a price above the appropriate maximum price established by this regulation.

(2) Sell or deliver, or buy or receive in the course of trade or business, sized and sorted leaves fourteen inches or more in length, sorted and unsized leaves, or string grades of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco at a price in excess of the appropriate maximum price established by this regulation.

(3) Sell or deliver any leaves less than fourteen inches in length of sized and sorted Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco at a price in excess of the appropriate maximum price established by this regulation.

(4) Agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

However, you may charge, demand, pay or offer prices lower than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation.

(b) Evasion. (1) The provisions of this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

(2) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices in the marketing of Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco are prohibited:

(i) You shall not sell or buy this tobacco other than as a grade or in a condition for which maximum prices are or may be established under sections 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7.

(ii) If you are a seller, you shall not alter or deviate from the grading practices observed by you with respect to the 1942 crop, normal variations excepted.

(iii) If you are a seller, you shall not eliminate or reduce the initial credit terms allowed by you on sales of the 1942 crop to a particular purchaser or, if you made no sales of the 1942 crop to the particular purchaser, you shall not eliminate or reduce the initial credit terms allowed by you on sales of the 1942 crop to purchasers of the same class.

(iv) If you are a seller, you shall not eliminate or reduce any commission, allowance, fee or other compensation customarily paid by you on similar sales of the 1942 crops.

(v) If you are a seller, you shall not sell Florida and Georgia shade grown tobacco purchased by you from an affiliate at a higher price than that which you paid the affiliate for the same tobacco.

(c) Penalties for violation. If you violate any provisions of this regulation, you are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

[1] 8 F.R. 4132, 5987, 7662, 9996, 15193.

[1] 8 F.R. 13240.

(d) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[1] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, apply to you if you are a seller subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of a price schedule or a regulation. If your license is suspended you may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which your license has been suspended.

SEC. 14. Petitions for amendment. If you seek a general modification of this regulation, you may file a petition for amendment as provided in Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 15. Application for exemption of sales to and purchases from affiliates. (a) If you are engaged in the business of manufacturing tobacco products and purchase this tobacco for your own use from an affiliate, you may, jointly with your affiliate, apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for permission to make those sales and purchases without regard to the maximum prices established by this regulation if:

(1) Sales and purchases for which you seek such permission will be made in accordance with the business practices established by you and your affiliate prior to March 31, 1942, and since observed. Those practices must include, but are not limited to, purchases by you of all this tobacco sold by your affiliate, except insignificant portions or by-products;

(2) Compliance with the maximum price limitations established by this regulation requires or threatens to require substantial changes in the standard accounting practices used by you and your affiliate prior to and since March 31, 1942, as applied to the records of your transactions with such affiliates; and

(3) The tobacco to be sold and purchased is to be used by you solely in the manufacture of tobacco products for which maximum prices are established by a regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Form of application. The application must be in writing, signed by you and your affiliate, and must state all information necessary to substantiate the existence of the conditions required in (a) above. After receipt of your application, the Office of Price Administration may, by order, grant the requested permission if, in its judgment, that action will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. This permission, if granted, may be revoked at any time.

(c) Permission granted under this section may not be used as justification for any increase in maximum prices established for manufactured tobacco products.

This regulation shall become effective at 12:01 a. m. September 8, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

Approved: September 5, 1944.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[RMPR 26,[1] Amdt. 10]

DOUGLAS FIR AND OTHER WEST COAST LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 26 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 16 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Combination grades. Lumber sold on combination grades may not be sold above the maximum price for the lowest grade in the combination. For example, the maximum price for lumber sold as No. 2 and better is the maximum price fixed for No. 2. It is, however, permissible to quote with specified higher or lower grades developed to be shipped at the respective maximum price for each grade actually developed. Where shipments are made in this manner, each piece (or bundle if bundled) shall bear some symbol of grade identification, and each grade shall be separately invoiced and the identification symbol used on the lumber shall be shown opposite the respective grade on the invoice. Alternatively, shipper may separate grades in loading and clearly identify by symbol the grade of each separate lot in the shipment and on the invoice. Shop grades when sold to millwork manufacturers and items priced in Tables 16, 17, 18 and 19 when sold for direct mill shipment and only where final delivery is to railroad car builders, railroad car and equipment repair shops, railroad companies, or other operators, builders, or repairers of essential transportation or communication facilities are exempt from the requirements of this paragraph insofar as it pertains to the use of grade symbols on lumber and invoices.

2. In section 23, Table 10, the price of 1 x 12", D—Flat or Mixed Grain, is changed from $45 to $49.

3. In section 23, Table 11, footnote 5 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) For random lengths where a specified average of not over 20' nor under 14' is required, the price shall be the 4/20' R/L price plus the specified length addition applicable to the length specified as an average. If the average required is longer than 20' the price shall be the 4/20' R/L price plus 75% of the specified length addition applicable to the length specified as an average. No addition may be made for the elimination of shorts in either case.

4. In section 23, Table 12, footnote 7 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) For random lengths in any specified range with an average length 14' or longer required, the price shall be the appropriate bracket price (the bracket in which the average falls) plus 75% of the specified length addition for the length specified as an average. No addition is permissible under Footnote 4.

If an average less than 14' is specified or when a definite average is not specified on order at time of placement, the lengths shipped must be priced at the bracket price in which they fall.

5. In section 25, General notes, Notes XVI, XIX, and XXII are amended to read as follows:

XVI. Extra Standard Surfacing: When required by buyer, surfacing standard nominal rough sizes, as shown in WCLA Grading and Dressing Rules No. 12, thicker or wider than A. L. S. finished sizes, add $2.00 per M except that this charge may not be made where surfacing is "Hit and Miss" or where machine is set for both width and thickness to full nominal rough size as shown in WCLA Grading and Dressing Rules No. 12.

NOTE: Wherever the application of this note would conflict with a footnote under any price table, the table footnote governs.

XIX. For stenciling when required by the buyer, on 10 percent or more pieces, bundles or packages, of any shipment, to an extent beyond grade marking and/or the simple identification of pieces or lots, add fifty cents per M feet to price of items on which stenciling is required. This charge may not be made for grade marking or for grade or lot identification even though a stencil is employed for such marking.

XXII. For any surfacing that does not remove the item surfaced from being classified as rough lumber, no charge may be made for surfacing if rough weight is used. Alternatively, mill may charge for surfacing (where table permits) but in doing so freight charges must be estimated on net surfaced size under Shipping Weight Formula for Sizes Not Listed.

6. In Article VI the parenthetical expression under paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

[Prices stated are per M'BM (or per M'SM where provided for in the list) FAS vessel at mill's customary loading point. All transportation costs and other charges (if any) incident to placing lumber FAS vessel at mill's customary loading point are for the account of the mill. Where delivery is required at a point other than mill's customary loading point, deduct from the prices in this Article VI the transportation cost and other charges (if any) which would be incurred if the same lumber were sold FAS vessel at mill's customary loading point; then add actual transportation costs necessary to place lumber f. o. b. car or f. o. b. barge at such non-customary loading point, thus arriving at f. o. b. car or f. o. b. barge prices at delivery point other than mill's customary loading point. The wharfage and other charges incurred if price is FAS vessel (instead of f. o. b.) other than mill's customary loading point may be added. All such charges shall be shown in detail on the invoice.]

7. In Article VII, Tables of Estimated Weights, wherever the term "rough or S1E" appears, it is amended to read: "rough, S1E or S2E to A. L. S. or heavier."

This amendment shall become effective September 8, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 13,[1] Amdt. 53]

PROCESSED FOODS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 13 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 15.12 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 15.12 Tokens may not be used after certain dates. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this order:

(a) On or after September 17, 1944, no retailer, wholesaler, country shipper, or processor may use tokens to give change to consumers or to industrial or institutional users.

(b) On or after September 17, 1944, no retailer, wholesaler, country shipper, or processor may acquire tokens from any ration bank.

(c) Between September 17 and September 30, 1944, inclusive, consumers may give (but not sell) tokens to other consumers without acquiring processed foods therefor, for the purpose of making up quantities of ten, or multiples of ten, for the acquisition of processed foods.

(d) On or after October 1, 1944, no consumer may use tokens to buy or acquire processed foods.

(e) On or after October 10, 1944, no person at all may use tokens to buy or acquire processed foods.

(f) On or after October 10, 1944, no person may deposit tokens in any ration bank account or exchange tokens for stamps, certificates, ration coupons or ration checks.

2. Section 15.13 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 15.13 Special provisions for exchanging and depositing tokens between October 1 and October 9, 1944. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this order:

(a) Between October 1 and October 9, 1944, inclusive, any person, other than a consumer, may surrender tokens, in quantities of less than 250, to his board and receive certificates or ration coupons in exchange.

(b) Between October 1 and October 9, 1944, inclusive, any retailer, wholesaler, country shipper, or processor who has a ration bank account, may deposit tokens in that account, in quantities of less than 250, in sealed envelopes (OPA Form R-132). He must write on the face of the envelope his business name and address, that the tokens are deposited under the processed foods rationing program, and the number of tokens enclosed. He must also sign his name on the face of the envelope. His signature shall constitute a certification as to the truth of the statements written on the envelope.

This amendment shall become effective September 8, 1944.

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[MPR 536,[1] Amdt. 1]

WESTERN FENCE POSTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 536 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 3, paragraphs (b) (1) (i) and (b) (2) (i), paragraph (c), and paragraph (d) (1) (i) and (d) (2) (i), where the phrase "maximum price" occurs, it is changed to read "f. o. b. railroad car maximum price".

2. In section 3 (d) the first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

(d) Maximum prices for retail yard sales. A "retail yard" under this regulation is a wholesale or retail lumber yard or other retail business which maintains a stock of lumber, building material or other material in addition to fence posts; which gets fence posts from producers, concentrators, or wholesalers; unloads, stores, and resells them to consumers; which sells mostly for local delivery by truck; and which has been located at its particular site in order to be near a consuming area. The maximum prices for retail yard sales of fence posts, treated or untreated, shall be determined as follows:

3. In section 4, in the first textual paragraph, the last sentence is amended to read "If a delivered price on posts is to be quoted see section 5 for the permitted transportation addition; for transportation additions on split redwood stakes see special rules in paragraph (b) of this section 4."

4. In section 4, immediately above the heading of Table 1, the following is inserted: "(a) Fence posts:"

5. In section 4, Table 1, the column heading "F. o. b. cars railroad loading-out point (price per 100 pcs.)" is amended to read "F. o. b. railroad cars railroad loading-out point (price per 100 pcs)."

6. In section 4, Table 2, the column heading "F. o. b. cars railroad loading-out point (price per post)" is amended to read "F. o. b. railroad cars railroad loading-out point (price per post)".

7. In section 4, Table 3 is deleted and in its place a new paragraph (b) is added, to read as follows:

---

NOTES

Truckers' sales—1. Transportation addition. In the case of split redwood stakes hauled by truck, the permissible transportation addition shall be computed by multiplying the amounts per mile per M stakes in Table 4 by the actual highway mileage from the basing point (Scotia, California) to the point of delivery.

2. To retailers, delivered to yard. The maximum price on sales by truckers delivered to a retail yard is the f. o. b. truck loading point price in table 4 plus transportation addition conforming to Note 1.

3. Delivered to consumers. A trucker who buys split redwood stakes from producers and hauls them to the consuming area may add a mark-up of 15 percent to the producers' f. o. b. truck price (exclusive of transportation) in Table 4 when he makes delivery to the final user. This mark-up may be made regardless of whether the trucker sells the stakes to a retail yard and makes delivery to the user on their order or sells the stakes direct to the user. Note, however, that the retail yard delivery charges permitted by section 3 (d) (4) may not be made.

Producer-consumer sales—4. On f. o. b. truck sales to a consumer who hauls stakes from the production point the producer may add 5 percent to the prices in this table 4.

8. In section 5, in the first textual paragraph, the phrase "in paragraph (d) of this section" is changed to read "in section 4 (b)".

9. In section 5 (a) (1), in last sentence, the word "tables" is substituted in place of "appendices".

10. Section 5 (d) is deleted.

This amendment shall become effective September 13, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

DETERMINATION OF MAXIMUM COMMISSIONS OF EXCLUSIVE SALES AGENCIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1499.2263 (a) is amended by adding thereto an undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

If during October 1943 you were the exclusive sales agent for all sales made from a mine and you are now the exclusive sales agent for the same mine you have the option of determining your maximum commission by one of the following methods. (1) You may determine your October 194 commission in cents per net ton as set forth in the first paragraph of this paragraph (a) or (2) you may determine your maximum commission in cents per ton by calculating the weighted average of maximum October 1943 commissions on all sales of all sizes of coal from the same mine. Once you have made an election between method one and two you connot change unless authorized to do so by the Price Administrator.

This amendment shall become effective September 13, 1944.

[Docket No. FDC 29 (b)]

CREAM CHEESE

PROPOSAL TO AMEND DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY

In the matter of a proposal to amend the definition and standard of identity for cream cheese. (Docket No. FDC 12-29).

It is proposed that by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, 21 U.S.C. 341, 371, 1940 ed.); the Reorganization Act of 1939 (53 Stat. 561 ff, 5 U.S.C. 133-133v (Supp. V, 1939); and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234)); and upon the basis of evidence of record at the above-entitled hearing duly held pursuant to the notice issued on March 18, 1944 (9 F.R. 3042, R. Exh. 1, p. 4), the following order be made:

Findings of fact.[1] 1. The fat and moisture content of cream cheese, conforming to the existing standard, varies considerably, the fat content ranging from about 33% to 49%, and the moisture content ranging from about 55% to 41%.[2] (R. Exh. 9, p. 360; Exh. 10, p. 386; Exh. 17, p. 861; Exh. 18, p. 885; 381-383, 519-530, 532-533, 536-537, 541-542, 265-266; Record of previous hearing 651-652, 1916-1917, incorporated at 1035-1036.)

2. Cream cheese conforming to the existing standard is made by either the "cold pack" or "hot pack" process as described in findings 9, 11, and 24 promulgated with the standard (7 F.R. 10755, 10756, R. Exh. 2, p. 6).

3. Cream cheese consists essentially of moisture, milk fat, and nonfat solids. The nonfat solids consist of the casein of the milk or cream in the starting mix which has been coagulated in the manufacturing process, lactic acid formed during such process, soluble components of milk and cream, salt added for seasoning, and gum or other moisture-retaining agent. (R. 234-236, 440, 497, 602, 664; findings 3, 9 promulgated in connection with the existing standard, 7 F.R. 10755, Exh. 2, p. 6)

4. The physical characteristics of cream cheese made by the cold pack method result from the amount of fat, moisture and nonfat solids contained in the finished product, the characteristics of such nonfat solids, and the manufacturing technique employed. Since the characteristics of nonfat solids vary, different batches of cream cheese of similar fat and moisture content may exhibit substantial differences in taste, texture and manner of spreading. (R. 436, 419, 476, 496-497, 598-599, 602-603)

5. Quantitative differences in fat and moisture content of cream cheeses manufactured by the cold pack process result from the use of starting mixes containing different quantities of fat (see finding 11 promulgated with the standard) and the extent to which the whey has been removed in draining the curd. The quantity of fat in the starting mix fixes within narrow limits the percentage of fat in the dry matter of the resulting curd. By the use of a starting mix of an appropriate fat content and removing a predetermined quantity of whey, the manufacturer can produce cream cheese containing the proportions of fat and moisture he desires. (R. 341, 892, 671, 690-693, 407-416; Exh. 7, p. 260; Exh. 11, p. 412; Record of previous hearing 2174-2178, incorporated at 260)

6. Cream cheese containing about 33% fat and 55% moisture can be manufactured from a starting mix containing about 10% fat, depending upon the characteristics of the milk and cream in the starting mix. By using such starting mix, no undue difficulty is encountered in making cream cheese by the methods prescribed in the standard containing the minimum quantity of fat and the maximum quantity of moisture permitted by the standard. Cream cheese of such fat and moisture content contains approximately 73% of fat in its solids, and was occasionally marketed before the promulgation of the standard. (R. 361-370, 372-373, 375-376, 378, 381-383, 407-416, 419, 659-660, 690-691; 191, 193-194, 261-263, 892, 22; Exh. 7, p. 260; Exh. 11, p. 412; Exh. 9, pp. 359-360; Exh. 4, p. 77; Record of previous hearing 651-652, 791-792, 1916-1917, incorporated at 1035-1036; Record of previous hearing 2174-2178, incorporated at 259).

7. The manufacture of cream cheese of predetermined fat and moisture content is less difficult by the hot pack process than by the cold pack process, since in the manufacture of hot pack cream cheese the maker can and usually does start with a cold pack cream cheese of known fat and moisture content and can adjust the fat and moisture by the addition of fixed quantities of milk or cream or both. (See finding 27 promulgated with the standard, 7 F.R. 10756, R. Exh. 2, p. 6) (R. 442-443, 148, 259).

8. Cream cheese containing about 36% to 39% of fat and about 51% to 55% of moisture, with about 77% to 80% of fat in the dry matter, is generally considered to be of better quality than cream cheese of the composition described in finding 6. (R. 97, 104-106, 261-262, 279, 909-910, 297-306, 856-869, 618-619, 722-723, 191-192, 202-203, 209, 212-213, 733-734; Exh. 17, p. 861; Exh. 8, p. 355; Record of previous hearing, 1917, incorporated at 1036).

9. The consistency of cream cheese is related to the texture of the product and the manner in which it spreads. Smoothness or texture and ease of spreading are properties desired by some consumers. A good quality cream cheese is neither very soft nor very firm. While the proportion of fat in the dry matter in cream cheese made by the cold pack process is a material factor in controlling texture and manner of spreading, this proportion in cream cheese of like fat and moisture made by the hot pack process is not as important in this respect, since the hot pack process, unlike the cold pack process, affords an opportunity to manipulate the curd so as to obtain the desired consistency. (R. 119, 138-140, 209, 942-943, 277, 385-389, 394-418, 419-421, 424-425, 445, 500-501, 682-683, 694-697; Exh. 10, p. 386; Exh. 11, p. 412)

10. The consistency of soft uncured cheese sold as cream cheese and the manner in which such products spread vary considerably. Such characteristics of cream cheese containing about 33% of fat and not in excess of 55% of moisture, are within the range of the degrees of consistency and manner of spreading exhibited by soft uncured cheese sold as cream cheese. (R. 385-389, 394-419, 450-451, 546-550, 558-562, 565-567, 585, 587, 590-593, 595, 597, 603-605, 608, 613-614, 262, 328, 869-870, 901, 941-942, 737-738, 740-741, 820-821; Exh. 10, p. 386; Exh. 11, p. 412; Record of previous hearing 352, 376-377, 1916-1917, 1920, 791-792, 794, incorporated at 1033, 1035, 1036, 1037)

11. A large proportion of cream cheese containg about 36% to 39% of fat and 55% or less of moisture. A starting mix containing approximately 13% fat is commonly employed in the manufacture of such cream cheese. If a mix of such fat content is employed and less whey is drained from the curd, soft uncured cheese having a fat content of 33% and a moisture content of 57% to 58% can be manufactured. Soft uncured cheese of such composition contains more whey

[1] The page references to certain relevant portions of the record are for the convenience of the reader; however, the findings of fact are not based solely on that portion of the record to which reference is made, but on consideration of all the evidence in the record.

[2] On December 22, 1942 an order was promulgated by the Federal Security Administrator establishing the definition and standard of identity for cream cheese, which among other things, fixes a minimum milk fat content of 33% and a maximum moisture content of 55% for such product and prescribes the process of manufacture. The standard does not prescribe a maximum limit for fat content, nor a minimum limit for moisture content. (7 F.R. 10758, 10759, Sec. 19.515, Title 21 CFR, Cum. Supp. Sec. 19.515, R. Exh. 2, p. 6.) The enforcement of the standard was stayed pending the termination of judicial proceedings to review the order. (See Columbia Cheese Co. et al. v. McNutt, Federal Security Administrator, 137 F. (2d) 576, Certiorari denied, 64 S. Ct. 618, February 28, 1944.)

than normally remains in cream cheese made from a starting mix containing about 13% fat. (R. 192, 224, 250, 267–268, 276–278, 289–290, 319–321, 348, 856–858, 860–866, 867–869, 381–382, 436–438, 519–530, 532–533, 536–537, 541–542; Exh. 7, p. 260; Exh. 10, p. 386, Exh. 17, p. 861; Record of previous hearing 2174–2178, incorporated at 259)

12. The consistency, smoothness and manner of spreading of soft uncured cheese containing 33% fat and 57% or 58% of moisture are similar to the corresponding properties of cream cheese of better quality described in finding 8. The soft uncured cheese containing 33% fat and 57% or 58% of moisture is cheaper to manufacture than such cream cheese, is of less nutritional value, and is more likely to exude moisture (whey) to an undesirable extent unless gum or other moisture-retaining agent is incorporated. (R. 68, 97, 103–106, 128, 139–140, 157, 191–192, 194–196, 203, 209–212, 727–728, 730–732, 741–742, 756–758, 257–258, 269–271, 274, 277–279, 297–303, 856–866, 880, 939, 461, 481–482, 502–503; Exh. 8, p. 355)

13. Where gum is used to hold the excess whey, soft uncured cheese containing about 33% fat and 57% to 58% moisture is likely to simulate cream cheese of higher fat and lesser moisture content. Under ordinary conditions of purchase, the consumer is not able to detect such replacement of fat by moisture. (R. 481–482, 449, 469, 471–472, 963, 137–140, 104–105, 82–83, 1006–1009, 1021, 257–258, 349)

14. In the commercial manufacture of cream cheese by the hot pack process, gum or other moisture-retaining agent is universally incorporated into the product in order to prevent excessive leakage of moisture, as described in findings 14, 15, and 16 promulgated with the standard (7 F.R. 10755, 10756; R. Exh. 2, p. 6). However, it is not the general commercial practice to incorporate such an agent in cream cheese manufactured by the cold pack process. (R. 195, 210–211, 889–890, 305, 866–868, 438–441, 381–384, 501, 510)

15. Because of the use of gum or other moisture-retaining agent, soft uncured cheese containing approximately 33% fat and 57% or 58% moisture made by the hot pack process, is less likely to display undesirable leakage of whey than soft uncured cheese of similar composition made by the cold pack process. (R. 954, 501, 504, 581, 963, 730–732, 756–757, 1006–1009, 1021, 195–196, 210–211)

16. No material distinction has ever been made between hot pack and cold pack cream cheese in the labeling of such products and consumers are not generally aware of the differences. Although the two types of cream cheese can generally be distinguished by experts, they cannot readily be distinguished by consumers. (R. 137–138, 273, 405–406, 448–449)

17. Before the standard for cream was promulgated, most of the so-called cream cheese then manufactured by the hot pack process contained approximately 23% to 30% of fat and approximately 60% to 65% of moisture, as stated in finding 26 promulgated with the existing standard. As recently as April 1944, soft uncured cheese of approximately such composition was also marketed as cream cheese. While this product resembles cream cheese in general appearance (see finding 25 promulgated with the standard, 7 F.R. 10756, R. Exh. 2, p. 6), its consistency, because of its high moisture content, is quite soft. Such product is in fact neufchatel cheese, for which a definition and standard of identity has been promulgated.[1] (R. 448, 880, 1021–1022, 101–102; Record of previous hearing 1574–1589, incorporated at 1040, 1048; Exh. 18, p. 885)

Conclusions. On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that:

(a) No material difficulty exists in manufacturing cream cheese to conform to the existing standard.

(b) Cream cheese containing the minimum quantity of fat and the maximum quantity of moisture permitted by the standard does not differ in identity from cream cheese of higher fat and lower moisture, although the latter product is generally of better quality due to the greater content of fat.

(c) It is likely that some consumers confuse neufchatel cheese with cream cheese as a result of former pratices of marketing soft uncured cheeses. Since the standard for cream cheese has been in force for only a brief period it is not likely that consumers have become generally aware of the differences in the identity of such soft uncured cheeses.

(d) Authorization to increase the moisture content of cream cheese to 57% or 58% would tend to encourage the production of cream cheese at the minimum fat content permitted by the standard, which would simulate a large proportion of cream cheese now being made of a substantially higher fat content. In effect, such authorization would permit the substitution of moisture for part of the fat, by the abuse of the function of gum or other moisture-retaining agent, contrary to the proper use of such agent in cream cheese, thus cheapening the product and lowering its food value. Such cheapened product would be deceptive to consumers.

(e) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interests of consumers to amend the existing standard for cream cheese so as to permit an increase in the maximum amount of moisture.

Wherefore, It is ordered, That the regulation promulgated December 22, 1942 (Title 21, CFR, Cum. Supp., sec. 19.515), fixing and establishing a definition and standard of identity for cream cheese be not amended.

Any interested person whose appearance was filed at the hearing may, within 20 days from the date of publication of this proposed order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Hearing Clerk of the Federal Security Agency, Office of the Assistant General Counsel, Room 4148 South Building, 12th Street and Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written exceptions thereto. Exceptions shall point out with particularity the alleged errors in the proposed order, and shall contain specific references to the pages of the transcript of the testimony or to the exhibits on which each exception is based. Such exceptions may be accompanied with a memorandum or brief in support thereof. Exceptions and accompanying memoranda or briefs should be submitted in quintuplicate.

[Vesting Order 500B–1]

COPYRIGHTS OF CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that all of the persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof [the names of which persons are listed (a) in Column 3 of said Exhibit A as the authors of the works, the titles of which are listed in Column 2, and the copyright numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (b) in Column 4 of said Exhibit A as the owners of the copyrights, the numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, and the titles of the works covered by which are listed in Column 2, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (c) in Column 5 of said Exhibit A as others owning or claiming interests in such copyrights] are nationals of foreign countries, namely, either (i) those countries, if any, (in the cases of the persons whose names appear in the aforesaid Column 3 as authors) which are specified in said Column 3, or (ii) those countries, if any, (in the cases of the persons whose names appear in the aforesaid Column 4 as owners) in which the addresses specified in said Column 4 are located, or (iii) those countries, if any, (in the cases of persons whose names appear in neither Column 3 nor Column 4 but do appear in Column 5 of the aforesaid Exhibit A) which are indicated in said Column 5;

2. Finding that the property hereinafter described in subparagraph 3 is owned by one or more of the aforesaid persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of said Exhibit A;

3. Determining, therefore, that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each and all of the persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of said Exhibit A in, to and under the following:

a. Each and all of the copyrights, if any, described in said Exhibit A;

b. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright in each and all of the works described in said Exhibit A and in every issue, edition, publication, republication, translation, arrangement, dramatization and revision thereof, in whole or in part, of whatsoever kind or nature, and of each and all other works designated by the titles therein set forth, whether or not filed with the Register of Copyrights or otherwise asserted, and whether or not specifically designated by copyright number;

c. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing, excepting the rights of any person to renew any or all of the copyrights arising in, from or under any or all of the foregoing;

d. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

e. All rights of reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing; and

f. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing; is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries;

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise; and

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest; hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States; Provided, however, That this order shall not vest any right of any person to renew any copyright in any or all of the works to which reference is hereinbefore made.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on May 11, 1943.

[Vesting Order 2041]

CHINOIN CHEMICAL AND PHARMACEUTICAL WORKS CO., LTD.

In re: Drugs, chemicals, and packing materials owned by Chinoin Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Co., Ltd.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

1. That Chinoin Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Co., Ltd. is a corporation organized under the laws of Hungary, having its principal place of business at Ujpest, Hungary, and that it is a national of a designated enemy country (Hungary);

2. That Chinoin Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Co., Ltd. is the owner of the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. That the property described as follows:

a. The fine drugs, particularly described in Exhibit A hereto attached and by reference made a part hereof, owned by Chinoin Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Co., Ltd., and held on consignment by The Treemond Company, 165 Montague Street, Brooklyn, New York, presently stored in bond at Baker & William Warehouse, 114 Leroy Street, New York, New York, under Custom House Bond Numbers 78794, 98855, and 20307, and

b. The fine drugs, chemicals, and assorted packing materials, particularly described in Exhibit B hereto attached and by reference made a part hereof, owned by Chinoin Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Co., Ltd., in the possession of Campbell Products, Inc., 79 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Hungary);

And determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Hungary);

And having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification required by law, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account, or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall this order be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take ony one, or all, of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

ANNA ZIEGLER

In re: Estate of Anna Ziegler, deceased; File No. D–28–2530; E. T. sec. 4367.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Heinrich Peper, Hertha Wenke, Joachim Peper and Heinrich Meyer, and each of them, in and to the estate of Anna Ziegler, deceased, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Heinrich Peper, Germany.
Joachim Peper, Germany.
Hertha Wenke, Germany.
Heinrich Meyer, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by Paul Hanelt, as Administrator of the Estate of Anna Ziegler, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court of Kings County, New York;

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany;

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Matilde Molt, also known as Mathilda Molt, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Maria Heist, Rosa Zimmerman, also known as Rose Zimmerman, Christian Kaimbach, Karl Kaimbach, Berta Roth, also known as Bertha Roth, Anna Binkele, Frieda Knoller, also known as Frieda Knoeller, Marie Finkbeiner, Friederike Gassler, also known as Friederike Gaessler, Franziska Haas, Rosine Mast, Maria Mast, Fritz Mast, Anna Ruoff, nee Mast, Wilhelm Schoffel, also known as Wilhelm Schoeffel, Otto Schoffel, also known as Otto Schoeffel, Albert Schoffel, also known as Albert Schoeffel, Max Schoffel, also known as Max Schoeffel, Sofie Kuhbach, also known as Sofie Kubach, Willie Harle, also known as Willi Haerle, Karoline Buhrle, also known as Karoline Buehrle, Luise (Louise) Harle, also known as Luise (Louise) Haerle, Emma Harle, also known as Emma Haerle, Marie Nestle, Julie Leistner, and Matilde Molt, also known as Mathilda Molt, and each of them in and to the Estate of William Molt, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: September 1, 1944.

[Vesting Order 4084]

FERDINAND LEUTZ

In re: Estate of Ferdinand Leutz, deceased; File 017–9989.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows: Certificate No. 17 for forty-five shares of the capital stock of the Security Bank of Hebron, Hebron, North Dakota, together with all rights incident to the ownership thereof, and any and all accretions thereon; also all right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Helene Leutz and Greta (Gretel) Leutz, and each of them, in and to the estate of Ferdinand Leutz, deceased, including but not by way of limitation all rights, claims, demands and causes of action, at law or in equity of any kind or nature whatsoever growing out of the administration of said estate, which said persons, or either of them, may have against Fred Schwenk, as executor of said estate or individually, or against P. S. Jungers in his capacity as attorney for said executor or individually, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Helene Leutz, Germany.
Greta (Gretel) Leutz, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by Fred Schwenk, Hebron, North Dakota, as Executor of the Estate of Ferdinand Leutz, acting under the judicial supervision of the County Court, County of Morton, North Dakota.

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on September 4, 1944.

FERDINAND LEUTZ

In re: Trust under the Will of Ferdinand Leutz, deceased; File 017–9989.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows: All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Helene Leutz and Greta (Gretel) Leutz, and each of them, in and to the trust estate created under the Last Will and Testament of Ferdinand Leutz, deceased, including but not by way of limitation all rights, claims, demands and causes of action, at law or in equity, of any kind or nature whatsoever growing out of the administration of said trust estate, which said persons, or either of them, may have against P. S. Jungers, as trustee of said trust estate or individually, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Helene Leutz, Germany.
Greta (Gretel) Leutz, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by P. S. Jungers, Hebron, North Dakota, as Trustee under the Will of Ferdinand Leutz, deceased, acting under the judicial supervision of the District Court, Sixth Judicial District, County of Morton, North Dakota;

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1, a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on September 4, 1944.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 313]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS IN GEORGIA

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 2793, 3264, 3357, 6778), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. Withdrawal of a carrier from participation in the plan for joint action hereby approved shall not be made without prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation.

7. The provisions of this order shall be binding upon any successor in interest to any carrier named in this order. Upon a transfer of any operation involved in this order, the successor in interest and the other carriers named in this order forthwith shall notify, in writing, the Office of Defense Transportation of the transfer and, unless and until otherwise ordered, the successor in interest shall perform the functions of his predecessor in accordance with the provisions of this order.

8. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

9. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the supplementary order number which appears in the caption hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Highway Transport Department, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C.

This order shall become effective September 12, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of September 1944.

[Order 37 Under 19a]

DENVER FIRE CLAY CO., ET AL.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 37 under § 1499.19a of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Refractory products. Order authorizing adjustable pricing.

Petition for amendment of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 has been filed by producers of refractory products with plants located in Colorado and Utah for the purpose of increasing maximum prices for that part of the industry. Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, which governs maximum prices for these commodities, incorporates § 1499.19a of the General Maximum Price Regulation. This order is applicable to the following producers:

The Denver Fire Clay Company, Denver, Colo.
Denver Sewer Pipe and Clay Company, Denver, Colo.
The Diamond Fire Brick Company, Canon City, Colo.
The Golden Fire Brick Company, Golden, Colo.
The Standard Fire Brick Company, Pueblo, Colo.
The Trinidad Brick and Tile Company, Trinidad, Colo.
Utah Fire Clay Company, Salt Lake City, Utah.

It has been shown that authorization to use adjustable pricing, pending action on the petition for amendment is necessary to promote the production of such refractory products and that such authorization will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328. Therefore, in accordance with § 1499.19a of the General Maximum Price Regulation, which is made a part of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as amended, by incorporation, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Pending final determination by the Office of Price Administration of the petition for amendment now on file, such producers as are covered by this order are hereby authorized to sell and any person may buy from such producers such refractory products at prices not in excess of the maximum prices established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as amended: Provided, however, That any such producer may agree with any purchaser in any contract for the sale of refractory products that the contract price may be adjusted to conform to the final determination of the Price Administrator upon the petition for amendment, and: Provided further, That such producers may not receive and their purchasers may not pay an amount in excess of the maximum prices established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as amended, until final action is taken on the petition for amendment now pending and unless such final action permits an increase of such maximum prices.

(b) This order shall be automatically revoked upon the establishment by the Office of Price Administration of maximum prices for such refractory products higher than the maximum prices now prevailing or upon denial of the petition for amendment. It may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(c) This order shall become effective September 8, 1944. Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

WAYNE PUMP CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 291 under Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended. Machines and parts, and machinery services. The Wayne Pump Company, Docket No. 3136-472.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, and pursuant to § 1390.25a of Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended, It is ordered:

(a) The Wayne Pump Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana, shall determine its maximum prices for the reciprocating air compressors that it manufactures, by multiplying by 114% the maximum price to each class of purchasers duly in effect just prior to the issuance of this order.

(b) Purchasers from the Wayne Pump Company, who buy reciprocating air compressors for resale, shall determine their maximum prices by adding to their maximum prices to each class of purchasers duly in effect just prior to the issuance of this order, the dollars-and-cents amounts by which the resellers' costs have been increased due to the adjustment in maximum prices granted to the Wayne Pump Company by this order.

(c) The Wayne Pump Company shall give written notification to its customers who buy its reciprocating air compressors mentioned in paragraph (a) for resale, of the amounts by which this order permits resellers to increase their maximum prices.

(d) Within 30 days after the issuance of this order, the Wayne Pump Company shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a copy of the written notification required to be given in pursuance of paragraph (c).

(e) All requests not granted herein are denied.

(f) This order may be amended or revoked by the Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective September 8, 1944. Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

C. B. ATKIN CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 9 under Order No. 1052 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Adjustment of maximum prices for sales of wood household furniture manufactured by C. B. Atkin Company.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328; It is ordered:

(a) This order permits the manufacturer, C. B. Atkin Company, Knoxville 17, Tennessee, to adjust its maximum prices for sales of wood household furniture (as defined in Order No. 1052) established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 by the amount specified below. This order also authorizes purchasers for resale of these articles of wood household furniture to adjust their maximum prices by adding the dollar-and-cents amount of the adjustment granted the manufacturer by this order and for which they have become obligated.

(1) Manufacturer's maximum prices. C. B. Atkin Company may adjust its maximum prices for sales and deliveries of wood household furniture (as defined in Order No. 1052) of its manufacture by an amount not to exceed 1.5% of its maximum prices for such sales as established in Order No. 1052. The permitted adjustment of 1.5% may be made only if separately stated.

(2) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. Any purchaser for resale of an article of wood household furniture for which the manufacturer's maximum price has been thus adjusted may add to his properly established maximum price, in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this order, the dollar-and-cents amount of the adjustment charge allowed by this Order No. 9 for which he has become obligated, provided the amount of such adjustment is separately stated on sales to persons other than ultimate consumers.

(b) At the time of or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser (other than an ultimate consumer) of an article covered by this order, the seller must furnish such purchaser with a written notice stating the number of this order and fully explaining its terms and conditions. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 8th day of September 1944. Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

Glass table	734	$11.34	$13.35
	728	9.13	10.75
	730	8.42	9.91

These prices are f. o. b. factory and are subject to a cash discount of one percent for payment within ten days, net thirty days, and are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application of April 22, 1944.

(ii) For all sales and deliveries by the manufacturer to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, the maximum prices shall be those determined by applying to the prices specified in subdivision (1) (i) of this paragraph (a), the discounts, allowances, and other price differentials made by the manufacturer, during March 1942, on sales of the same type of article to the same class of purchaser and on the same terms and conditions. If the manufacturer did not make such sales during March 1942 he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., under the fourth pricing method, § 1499.158, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) (i) For all sales and deliveries on and after the effective date of this order to retailers by persons, other than the manufacturer, who sell from the manufacturer's stock, the maximum prices are those set forth below, f. o. b. factory:

Article and model No.:	Maximum price to retailers (each)
Glass table, 734	$13.35
Glass table, 728	10.75
Glass table, 730	9.91

These prices are subject to a cash discount of one percent for payment within ten days, net thirty days and are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application dated April 22, 1944.

(ii) For all sales and deliveries by persons who sell from the manufacturer's stock, to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, the maximum prices shall be those determined under the applicable provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) At the time of or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser, other than a retailer, who resells from the manufacturer's stock, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser for resale of the maximum prices and conditions established by subparagraph (a) (2) of this order for such resales. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 8th day of September 1944. Issued this 7th day of September 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[2d Rev. Gen. Order 3]

REPRESENTATION OF ADMINISTRATOR IN COURT PROCEEDINGS

SERVICE OF PROCESS

Revised General Order No. 3 is revised and amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Act of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 676) as amended, and Executive Orders 9125, 9250, 9280, and 9328, the following order is prescribed:

(a) Institution of and intervention in civil proceedings. The General Counsel or the Acting General Counsel, the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Enforcement, or the Acting Deputy Administrator in Charge of Enforcement, the Director of the Litigation Division or the Acting Director of the Litigation Division, the Regional Enforcement Executives or the Acting Regional Enforcement Executives, the Regional Litigation Attorneys or the Acting Regional Litigation Attorneys, the District Enforcement Attorneys or the Acting District Enforcement Attorneys are each authorized to institute and/or intervene in, and to conduct appropriate civil actions or proceedings, in the name of the Price Administrator; and any of the foregoing may authorize any other attorney employed by the Office of Price Administration to institute and/or intervene in, and to conduct appropriate civil actions or proceedings in the name of the Price Administrator. Except as herein provided, no other officer or employee of the Office of Price Administration, whether employed in the principal office in Washington, D. C., or in any regional or field office, has authority to institute or intervene in proceedings on behalf of the Price Administrator.

The Price Administrator does hereby ratify, approve and confirm all acts done and all proceedings had or taken by an attorney-at-law regularly admitted to practice in any state, territory, or district, purporting to act in the name of or on behalf of the Price Administrator in any suit, action or proceeding heretofore at any time brought or purporting to be brought by the Price Administrator in any court of the United States or of any state, territory or district, said ratification, approval and confirmation to have the same force and effect as if specific authority to institute and conduct such suit, action or proceeding had been expressly granted by the Price Administrator to such attorney immediately prior to the commencement of such suit, action or proceeding. Without in any manner limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Price Administrator does hereby ratify, approve and confirm all acts done and all proceedings had or taken by any such attorney in instituting, maintaining and prosecuting any and all suits, actions and proceedings of whatsoever nature heretofore at any time brought or purporting to be brought in the name of the Price Administrator under the provisions of section 205(a) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 to enjoin violations of said act or any order, schedule or regulation thereunder, or under the provisions of section 205(e) of said act as originally enacted, or as amended, to enforce any liability created by said section, or under the provisions of section 205(f) of said act to revoke the license of any person licensed under said act, or under section 202 of said act to enforce compliance or obedience to any subpoena, order or requirement issued or purporting to be issued under said section, or under subdivision 6 of subsection (a) of section 2 of the Act of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 676) as amended, to enforce compliance with, or obedience to, or to enjoin violations of, or to enforce any liability or duty created by, any rule, regulation, order, or subpoena issued under said subsection (a).

(b) Service of process upon the Administrator. Service of process upon the Price Administrator may be made by serving him personally, or by leaving a copy thereof at the Office of the Secretary, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. In actions commenced outside of the District of Columbia to obtain judicial review of rationing suspension orders issued under Procedural Regulation No. 4, service of process upon the Price Administrator may be made by personal service thereof upon the District Director, or, in the latter's absence, upon the Acting District Director of the Office of Price Administration for the OPA district in which the administrative proceedings resulting in the suspension order were originally instituted. No other officer or employee of the Office of Price Administration, whether employed in the principal Office in Washington, D. C., or in any regional or field office, is authorized to accept service of process on behalf of the Price Administrator or enter his appearance in any action or proceeding, except as herein provided.

(c) Appearance for the Administrator in defensive suits. The General Counsel or the Acting General Counsel and the Associate General Counsel or the Acting Associate General Counsel in charge of the Court Review, Research and Opinion Division are each authorized to appear for and represent the Price Administrator or the Office of Price Administration in any action or proceeding instituted against the Price Administrator or the Office of Price Administration in the Emergency Court of Appeals and in proceedings for the review of determinations of the Emergency Court of Appeals in the Supreme Court; and any of them may specifically authorize any attorney employed by the Office of Price Administration to appear for and represent the Price Administrator or the Office of Price Administration in any such action or proceedings. The General Counsel or the Acting General Counsel, the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Enforcement, or the Acting Deputy Administrator in Charge of Enforcement, the Director of the Litigation Division or the Acting Director of the Litigation Division are each authorized to appear for and represent the Price Administrator or the Office of Price Administration in any other action or proceeding instituted against the Price Administrator or the Office of Price Administration; and any of them may specifically authorize any attorney employed by the Office of Price Administration to appear for and represent the Price Administrator or the Office of Price Administration in any other such action or proceeding.

Issued and effective this 7th day of September 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

AMERICAN LIGHT & TRACTION CO., ET AL.

ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO LEGAL FEES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 5th day of September, A. D. 1944.

In the matter of American Light & Traction Company, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, American Production Company, American Michigan Pipe Line Company, and Waverly Company, File No. 70-816.

The Commission having by orders dated December 20, 1943 and March 20, 1944 approved, among other things, the refunding of the outstanding funded debt and preferred stock of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, a subsidiary of American Light & Traction Company; and having by said orders reserved jurisdiction over attorneys' fees incurred, and fees for advisory services rendered, in connection with the said financing; and

A supplemental application having been filed, containing various data with respect to legal services performed in connection with the transactions and a statement of legal fees incurred in the total amount of $48,500, such total consisting of $22,500 to Sidley, McPherson, Austin & Burgess, $15,000 to Angell, Turner, Dyer & Meek, $8,500 to Clare J. Hall and $2,500 to Bodman, Longley, Bogle, Middleton & Armstrong; and

It appearing to the Commission that such legal fees are not unreasonable and that jurisdiction over them should now be released; and

It appearing also to the Commission that the record is incomplete with respect to a fee of $30,000 for advisory services rendered to Michigan Consolidated Gas Company by Dillon, Read & Co. in connection with the various transactions and that jurisdiction with respect to the reasonableness of said fee should be reserved;

It is hereby ordered, That the jurisdiction reserved in the orders heretofore entered herein on December 20, 1943 and March 20, 1944 with respect to the reasonableness of the legal fees incurred and to be paid by applicants and declarants in connection with said transactions be, and the same is hereby, released.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction is reserved with respect to the reasonableness of fees for advisory services rendered in connection with the transactions by Dillon, Read & Co.

By the Commission.

ARKANSAS POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 5th day of September, A. D. 1944.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly under section 6 (b) and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder, by Arkansas Power & Light

Company ("Arkansas"), an Arkansas corporation and a utility subsidiary of Electric Power & Light Corporation ("Electric"), a registered holding company, which is itself a subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, also a registered holding company; and

All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Arkansas proposes to issue and sell at public sale, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U-50, $30,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds to mature in 1974, the bid or bids for such securities to fix the interest rate and the price to be paid to the company which shall not be less than 102% of the principal amount. The proceeds of the sale of the First Mortgage Bonds are to be applied, together with treasury cash, to the repayment, at the contract redemption price, of all of Arkansas' presently outstanding First and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds in the aggregate principal amount of $32,108,000 plus accrued interest to the date of redemption.

The issue and sale of said First Mortgage Bonds will, according to the filing, be expressly authorized by the Department of Public Utilities of Arkansas.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application and that said application shall not become effective or be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission thereunder to be held on September 19, 1944 at 10.00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such day, the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing a copy of this order to the Department of Public Utilities of Arkansas and to the applicant herein; and that notice of said hearing be given to all other persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings, or proposing to intervene herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before September 16, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed issue and sale of bonds by Arkansas are solely for the purpose of financing the business of said company and have been expressly authorized by a State Commission of the State in which Arkansas is organized and doing business.

(2) What terms and conditions, if any, are necessary or appropriate in the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers to insure compliance with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or any rules, regulations, or orders promulgated thereunder.

By the Commission.

GENERAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 5th day of September 1944.

Declaration of dividends out of capital surplus. Declaration by registered holding company pursuant to section 12 (c) and Rule U-46 permitted to become effective with respect to the payment of dividends to prior preferred shareholders out of capital surplus where no prejudice to security holders or public is found.

General Gas & Electric Corporation (hereinafter called Gengas), a registered holding company, which is a subsidiary of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation (hereinafter called Trustees), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration pursuant to section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the Act), in which it proposes to declare out of capital or unearned surplus a quarterly dividend for the period ending September 15, 1944 of $1.25 per share, on its $5 Prior Preferred Stock, no par value.

The entire issue outstanding is 60,000 shares, of which 27,889.1 shares are held by the Trustees, who have, by a letter dated August 16, 1944, waived their right to collect such quarterly dividend, until further order of the Commission. The number of shares in the hands of the public is 32,110.9 (of which 8.9 shares are held in scrip, and such scrip will not receive a dividend), so that $40,127.50 will be required to make the dividend payment.

After appropriate notice a public hearing was held. No one appeared at the hearing to oppose the proposed dividend payment. Having considered the record therein, the Commission makes the following findings:

As at June 30, 1944, the assets of Gengas, per books, available for security holders totalled $28,501,248. The only securities of, or claims against, Gengas which, according to its books, are senior to the $5 Prior Preferred Stock, consist of certain obligations payable to the Trustees. These obligations, including interest thereon, aggregate $3,250,521.

The books of Gengas, as of June 30, 1944, reflect an earned surplus deficit of $3,739,839; the capital surplus is shown as $12,921,373.

Net income of Gengas for the twelve months ended June 30,1944, amounted to $594,500. As at June 30, 1944, Gengas had cash on hand in the amount of $661,957 and United States Treasury Certificates costing $3,500,000.

A cash forecast for the twelve months ending December 31, 1944, submitted by the company in connection with the filing, indicates that Gengas will be able to meet all its cash requirements, continue to maintain an adequate cash balance, and pursue its present dividend policy. The forecast contemplates that at the end of the period the cash balance will be $857,848, plus United States Treasury Certificates costing $3,500,000.

This is the eleventh time that Gengas has filed a declaration to declare a dividend on its publicly held Prior Preferred Stock out of capital surplus. We have on each occasion considered that the assets of Gengas were substantial in relation to the size of the proposed dividend, and that the Prior Preferred Stock is, by its terms, entitled to be paid dividend arrearages in full before dividends can be paid on the other preferred stocks. These same factors are equally cogent with regard to the present declaration.

We make no adverse findings under the applicable sections of the act and rules promulgated thereunder.

It is therefore ordered, That, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the said declaration, as amended, be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations.

By the Commission.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 5th day of September 1944.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Philadelphia

Electric Company, a subsidiary of The United Corporation, a registered holding company. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions herein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Philadelphia Electric Company proposes to issue and sell at public sale, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U-50, $65,000,000 principal amount of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 2¾% Series, due 1969, and $65,000,000 principal amount of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 2¾% Series, due 1974, the bid or bids for such bonds to fix the price to be paid to the Company. The proceeds of the sale of these bonds are to be applied, together with treasury cash or cash acquired by means of short-term bank loans, to redeem $130,000,000 principal amount of the company's First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series, due 1967, at the redemption price of 106% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued interest to the date of redemption.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on September 22, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as the hearing room clerk in room 318 will at that time designate. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceeding shall file with the Commission on or before September 19, 1944, a written request relative thereto, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission; and

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobinger, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice; and

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by such application otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed issue and sale of bonds by Philadelphia Electric Company are solely for the purpose of financing the business of the company and have been expressly authorized by the State Commission of the State in which the company is organized and doing business.

(2) Whether the fees, commissions or other remunerations to be paid in connection with the proposed issue and sale of bonds are for necessary services and are reasonable in amount.

(3) Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose terms and conditions with reference to the proposed transactions, and if so, what the terms and conditions should be.

It is further ordered, That notice of the aforesaid hearing be given to the applicant and to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission by registered mail and to all other persons by general release of this Commission, which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Act and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

COMMONWEALTH & SOUTHERN CORP. (DEL.)

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 5th day of September, A. D. 1944.

The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation (Delaware) (Commonwealth), a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 12 (c) thereof and Rule U-46 thereunder regarding the proposed payment of a dividend of $1.25 per share (payable on the 28th day after approval by this Commission to stockholders of record at the close of business on the 14th day thereafter) on its 1,482,000 shares of preferred stock outstanding, the aggregate amount of such dividend payment being $1,852,500; and

Said declaration having been filed on August 22, 1944 and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in the said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission regarding the proposed payment as similar in principle to those proposed by Commonwealth and permitted by the Commission's orders of June 24, September 13, November 28, 1943, March 8 and June 3, 1944 (Holding Company Act Release Nos. 4383, 4562, 4709, 4933 and 5084) and, as in the case of said prior dividend payments, as being made out of capital; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration to become effective; and

Commonwealth having requested that the effective date of the declaration be accelerated to facilitate the prompt payment of the proposed dividends to the preferred stockholders and the Commission deeming it appropriate that such request for acceleration be granted;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the condition that Commonwealth accompany the dividend checks with a statement indicating that the dividend is being paid out of capital.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9430

AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF WAR TO TAKE POSSESSION OF AND OPERATE THE PLANTS AND FACILITIES OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY BRASS WORKS, INC., LOCATED AT MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA

WHEREAS, after an investigation, I find and proclaim that the plants and facilities of the Twentieth Century Brass Works, Inc., located in and around Minneapolis, Minnesota, are equipped for the manufacture and production of articles and materials that are required for the war effort, or that are useful in connection therewith; that there are existing interruptions of the operation of said plants and facilities as a result of a labor disturbance; that the war effort will be unduly impeded or delayed by such interruptions; and that the exercise, as hereinafter specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure, in the interests of the war effort, the operation of these plants and facilities:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including Section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, it is hereby directed as follows:

1. The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed, through and with the aid of any persons or instrumentalities that he may designate, to take possession of the plants and facilities of the Twentieth Century Brass Works, Inc., located in and around Minneapolis, Minnesota, and, to the extent that he may deem necessary, of any real or personal property and other assets wherever situated, used in connection with the operation thereof; to operate or to arrange for the operation of the plants and facilities in any manner that he deems necessary for the successful prosecution of the war; to exercise any contractual or other rights of the Twentieth Century Brass Works, Inc. and to continue the employment of, or to employ, any persons, and to do any other thing that he may deem necessary for, or incidental to, the operation of the said plants and facilities and the production, sale and distribution of the products thereof; and to take any other steps that he deems necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this order.

2. The Secretary of War shall operate the said plants and facilities pursuant to the provisions of the War Labor Disputes Act, and during his operation of the plants and facilities shall observe the terms and conditions of the Directive Order of the National War Labor Board dated May 30, 1944, provided that the Secretary of War is authorized to pay the wage increases specified in said Directive Order, which accrued prior to the taking of possession of said plants and facilities under this order, only out of the net operating income of said plants and facilities during the period of their operation by the Secretary of War. In the event that it appears to the Secretary of War that the net operating income of said plants and facilities will be insufficient to pay the foregoing accrued wage increases, the Secretary shall make a report to the President with respect thereto.

3. The Secretary of War is authorized to take such action, if any, as he may deem necessary or desirable to provide protection for the plants and all persons employed or seeking employment therein.

4. Possession, control, and operation of any plant or facility, or part thereof, taken under this order shall be terminated by the Secretary of War within 60 days after he determines that the productive efficiency of the plant, facility, or part thereof prevailing prior to the existing interruptions of production, referred to in the recitals of this order, has been restored.

PART 1470—FOOD STORAGE FACILITIES

DESIGNATION OF RESTRICTED, EXCLUDED, LIMITED-STORAGE, AND CEILING INVENTORY COMMODITIES AND REQUIREMENT OF REPORTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by War Food Order No. 111, issued August 31, 1944 (9 F.R. 10761), and to effectuate the purposes of such order, War Food Order No. 111–1, issued August 31, 1944 (9 F.R. 10762), is amended as follows:

1. By deleting § 1470.6 (b) (12) thereof and substituting therefor the following provision:

(12) Dried and evaporated fruits during the period commencing at 12:01, a. m., e. w. t., September 30, 1944, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., January 1, 1945, when stored within the District of Columbia or within the following states:

California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Virginia, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.

2. By deleting § 1470.6 (g) (1) thereof.

3. By amending § 1470.6 (h) (1) thereof to read as follows:

On Form 111–1, within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of this order, the total quantity in pounds now held in freezer space in such facility of all commodities designated in item (10) of the list of paragraph (c) hereof.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this order have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record-keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of, Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1510—YEAST

ACTIVE DRY YEAST

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of active dry yeast for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1510.1 Restrictions relative to active dry yeast—(a) Definitions. (1) "Active dry yeast" means dried, live, leavening yeast, usually grown on a molasses wort; Provided, That dried yeasts containing cereals or grains for use primarily as carriers are excluded from this definition.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who produces active dry yeast for delivery to others, or for his use in manufacturing other products.

(4) "Government agency" means (i) the War Food Administration (including but not being limited to, any corporate agency thereof); (ii) the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States (excluding, for the purposes of this order, United States Army post exchanges, sales commissaries, United States Navy ships' service departments, United States Marine Corps post exchanges, and similar organizations); and (iii) any other agency or instrumentality of the United States designated by the Director.

(5) "Deliver" means the transfer of the title to active dry yeast from the manufacturer thereof to government agency, or to some other person; and such delivery may be evidenced by execution of bill of lading, receipt, or other document acceptable to the Director.

(6) "Director" means the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration.

(7) "Order Administrator" means the person designated by the Director, pursuant to the provision hereof, to serve as the administrator of this order.

(8) "Alternate Order Administrator" means the person designated by the Director, pursuant to the provisions hereof, to serve as the alternate administrator of this order.

(b) Restrictions. (1) Without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts, or payments made, every manufacturer who owns and has in his possession active dry yeast on the effective date of this order, and every manufacturer who produces active dry yeast on or after the effective date of this order, shall promptly set aside 100 percent of said active dry yeast and thereafter hold such active dry yeast for sale and delivery to government agency. However, any manufacturer who produced active dry yeast during August 1944 may, during the remainder of the calendar year 1944 after the effective date of this order, use active dry yeast in the manufacture of other products, or deliver active dry yeast to persons other than government agency, either or both, in a total quantity not in excess of 10 percent of the quantity of active dry yeast which he produced during the calendar month of August 1944, or 10,000 pounds of active dry yeast, whichever is the lesser.

(2) No manufacturer shall use, in the manufacture of any product, active dry yeast which contains more than 8 percent of moisture by weight. No manufacturer shall deliver active dry yeast to government agency, or to others, which contains more than 8 percent of moisture by weight.

(c) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records, and other writings, premises or stocks of active dry yeast of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the Director's discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order,

(d) Records and reports. (1) Within 15 days after the effective date of this order, each manufacturer shall report to the Director, on Form FDO 112–1, the following information, separately: (i) The total quantity (in pounds) of active dry yeast which he produced during the calendar month of August 1944; and (ii) the total quantity (in pounds) of active dry yeast which he owned and had in his possession at the effective time of this order.

(2) Each manufacturer shall submit reports, on Form FDO 112–2, for the month during which this order becomes effective, and for each month thereafter, showing: (i) The total quantity (in pounds) of active dry yeast which he produced during such month; (ii) the total quantity (in pounds) of active dry yeast which he delivered to government agency during that month; and (iii) the total quantity (in pounds) of active dry yeast which he owned and had in his possession at the end of that month. The report for each month shall be sent to the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: War Food Order No. 112, in time to reach him on or before the tenth day of the month following the month for which such report is made and it shall contain the information required by the Director.

(3) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such additional information from, and require such additional reports, and the keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the Director's discretion, to the enforcement or the administration of the provisions of this order.

(4) Every person subject to this order shall, for at least two years (or for such period of time as the Director may designate), maintain an accurate record of his production of and transactions in active dry yeast.

(e) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship on him may file a petition for relief with the Order Administrator. Such petition shall be addressed to Order Administrator, War Food Order No. 112, Special Commodities Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C. Petition for such relief shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Order Administrator may take any action with reference to such petition which is consistent with the authority delegated to him by the Director. If the petitioner is dissatisfied with the action taken by the Order Administrator on the petition, he shall obtain, by requesting the Order Administrator therefor, a review of such action by the Director. The Director may, after said review, take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final. The provisions of this paragraph (e) shall not be construed to deprive the Director of authority to consider originally any petition for relief from hardship submitted in accordance herewith. The Director may consider any such petition and take such action with reference thereto that he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(f) Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this order may, in accordance with the applicable procedure, be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using the material subject to priority or allocation control pursuant to this order. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(g) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate to any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture any or all of the authority vested in him by this order; and one such employee shall be designated by the Director to serve as Order Administrator, and one such employee shall be designated by the Director to serve as Alternate Order Administrator.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise provided herein or in instructions issued by the Director, be addressed to the Order Administrator, WFO 112, Special Commodities Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(i) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., September 16, 1944.

PART 1600—OILSEEDS

RESTRICTIONS ON PURCHASES AND USE OF COTTONSEED

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of cottonseed for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1600.10 Restrictions on purchases and on use of cottonseed—(a) Definitions. (1) "Processor" means any person engaged in the business of producing cottonseed oil.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of producing cottonseed products other than oil.

(3) "Seed dealer" means any person engaged in the business of buying and selling cottonseed for planting purposes.

(4) "Recognized handler" means any person regularly engaged prior to August 1, 1943, in the business of purchasing and selling cottonseed.

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, including the States of the United States, their political subdivisions and agencies.

(6) "Purchase" means to purchase, acquire by barter or exchange, or to contract to do any of the foregoing. The term "sell" shall be construed accordingly.

(7) "Cottonseed" means whole or ground cottonseed.

(8) "Damaged cottonseed" means cottonseed which has been damaged by any casualty, risk, or event insured against and may include undamaged cottonseed which, as a result of the casualty, risk, or event insured against, or of the salvage process, is so commingled with damaged cottonseed or foreign substances as to make separation impracticable.

(b) Limitation on inventory and use of cottonseed by processors, manufacturers and seed dealers. No processor, manufacturer or seed dealer shall purchase or accept delivery of cottonseed of the 1944 crop in a total quantity which, taken in conjunction with the quantity of his existing supply of cottonseed, would be in excess of his processing, manufacturing, and seed sales requirements for the period ending August 15, 1945; and no cottonseed of the 1944 crop shall be used by a processor, manufacturer or seed dealer except for meeting his processing, manufacturing and seed sales requirements, or for sale to persons eligible to purchase or accept delivery of such cottonseed under this subsection or under paragraph (c) or (d) hereof.

(c) Limitation on ginner's and recognized handler's inventory of cottonseed. No ginner or recognized handler shall purchase or accept delivery of cottonseed of the 1944 crop if such action would result in his having on hand at any time a quantity of cottonseed of the 1944 crop exceeding the quantity for which he has contracts to sell to processors, manufacturers, and seed dealers but which he has not yet delivered, plus the greater of (1) the quantity of cottonseed of the 1944 crop purchased by him during the immediately preceding 30 days or (2) 30 tons of such cottonseed.

(d) Restrictions on purchase of cottonseed by other persons. No person other than a processor, a manufacturer, a seed dealer, a ginner, or a recognized handler shall purchase or accept delivery of cottonseed of the 1944 crop in a total quantity in excess of the quantity necessary to meet his planting requirements.

(e) Prohibition on purchase and use of cottonseed for feed and fertilizer. No person shall purchase or accept delivery of cottonseed for use as or for manufacture into feed or fertilizer, and no cottonseed purchased by or delivered to any person shall be used as or manufactured into feed or fertilizer. This restriction applies only to cottonseed in whole or ground form.

(f) Purchase and sale of damaged cottonseed by insurers. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, an insurer of cottonseed which is damaged by any casualty, risk or event insured against, and any person acting on behalf of such insurer (all hereinafter called "such insurer"), may purchase and accept delivery of such damaged cottonseed. In the event that such damaged cottonseed is unsuitable for processing, manufacturing, seed sale, or planting purposes, such insurer may sell and deliver and any other person may purchase and accept delivery of such damaged cottonseed from such insurer and from any owner subsequent to such insurer for use as, manufacture into, and resale as feed or fertilizer.

(g) Prohibition on sales. No person shall sell cottonseed to any person if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchase thereof would be in violation of this order.

(h) Existing contracts. The restrictions imposed by this order shall be effective without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts, or payments made.

(i) Audits and inspections. The President of the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or stocks of cottonseed of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(j) Records and reports. (1) The President of the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be entitled to obtain such information from, and require such reports and the keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary, or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(2) Every person subject to this order shall, for at least two years (or for such period of time as the President of the Corporation may designate), maintain an accurate record of his transactions in cottonseed.

(k) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing for relief to the President of the Commodity Credit Corporation, setting forth in such petition all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The President of the Commodity Credit Corporation may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, which action shall be final.

(l) Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this order may, in accordance with the applicable procedure, be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using the material subject to priority or allocation control pursuant to this order. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(m) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the President of the Commodity Credit Corporation. The President of the Commodity Credit Corporation is authorized to redelegate to any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture any or all of the authority vested in him by this order.

(n) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the President of the Commodity Credit Corporation, be addressed to the President of the Commodity Credit Corporation, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: WFO 113.

(o) Effective date. This order shall become effective on 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., September 8, 1944.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423; E.O. 9392, 8 F.R. 14783)

NOTE: All record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record-keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of, Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

PART 223—FINANCING OF WAR PRODUCTION AND WAR CONTRACT TERMINATION

This regulation is based upon and issued pursuant to the Executive Order of the President, No. 9112 (7 F.R. 2367), dated March 26, 1942 (herein called the Executive Order), section 7 of the Act of June 11, 1942, 50 U.S.C. (Appendix) 1107, the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, approved July 1, 1944 (herein called the Settlement Act) and various provisions of the Federal Reserve Act, and has been approved by the Director of Contract Settlement.[1]

Sec.
223.1 Objective of the Federal Reserve System.
223.2 Operations of the Federal Reserve Banks.
223.3 Rates.
223.4 Responsibility and expenses of Federal Reserve Banks.
223.5 Reports.

AUTHORITY: §§ 223.1 to 223.5, inclusive, issued under sec. 7, 56 Stat. 355; Pub. Law 395, 78th Cong.; 58 Stat., Chap. 358; sec. 11 (i) and (j) 38 Stat. 262; sec. 15, 38 Stat. 265; sec. 1, 48 Stat. 1105 as amended by sec. 323, 49 Stat. 714; 50 U.S.C. App. 1107; 12 U.S.C. 248, 391, 352 (a) and Supp., and E.O. 9112, Mar. 26, 1942, 7 F.R. 2367.

NOTE: §§ 223.1 to 223.5, inclusive, contained in Regulation V, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, revised effective September 11, 1944.

§ 223.1 Objective of the Federal Reserve System. The objective of the Federal Reserve System in carrying out the purposes of the applicable provisions of the Executive Order and of the Settlement Act is to facilitate and expedite the financing of contractors, subcontractors and others in connection with war production and in connection with claims arising out of the termination of war contracts or operations. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Banks will cooperate fully in order to achieve this objective. The Federal Reserve Banks have heretofore been designated as fiscal agents of the United States by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the terms of the Executive Order and are authorized by the Settlement Act to act on behalf of the contracting agencies[2] as fiscal agents of the United States in carrying out the purposes of the Act.

§ 223.2 Operations of the Federal Reserve Banks. The operations of the Federal Reserve Banks pursuant to the provisions of the Executive Order and of the Settlement Act will be conducted, under the supervision of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, in accordance with such instructions as may be issued by the contracting agencies.

§ 223.3 Rates. Rates of interest, guarantee and commitment fees, and other charges with respect to loans made or guaranteed in whole or in part by any contracting agency through the agency of any Federal Reserve Bank will from time to time be prescribed, either specifically or by maximum limits or otherwise, by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System with the concurrence of the Director of Contract Settlement.

§ 223.4 Responsibility and expenses of Federal Reserve Banks. No Federal Reserve Bank shall have any responsibility or accountability except as agent in taking any action under the Executive Order, the Settlement Act, or this regulation. In any case in which any Federal Reserve Bank shall make or participate in making any loan, discount, advance, guarantee or commitment as agent of any contracting agency under authority of the Executive Order or of the Settlement Act, all such funds as may be necessary to carry out any obligation assumed on behalf of such contracting agency shall be supplied by and disbursed under authority from such agency in accordance with such procedure as it may require. Each Federal Reserve Bank shall be reimbursed by each contracting agency for all expenses and losses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and expenses of litigation) incurred by such Federal Reserve Bank in acting as fiscal agent of the United States on behalf of such contracting agency under or pursuant to the Executive Order or the Settlement Act.

§ 223.5 Reports. Each Federal Reserve Bank shall make such reports as the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System shall require with respect to its operations pursuant to the terms of the Executive Order or the Settlement Act and of this regulation.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of August, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of Premio Sales Company, Inc., a Corporation, and Rose Sommers, Individually and as an Officer of Premio Sales Company, Inc.

This proceeding having been heard by The Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondents, in which answer respondents admit all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and state that they waive all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts; and the Commission having duly made and issued its findings as to the facts, conclusion and order to cease and desist dated February 7, 1939; and the Commission having further considered said order to cease and desist heretofore issued, and being of the opinion that the public interest requires that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued in said cause; and the Commission having given due notice to the respondents to show cause on July 24, 1944, why this case should not be reopened for the purpose of modifying said order to cease and desist; and the Commission having considered the matter and the record herein, and having issued its order modifying said order in certain respects, issues this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Premio Sales Company, Inc., a corporation, its officers and Rose Sommers, individually and as an officer of Premio Sales Company, Inc., and their respective representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of, clocks, watches, cameras, bedding, clothing, cigarette lighters and cases, silverware, chinaware, jewelry, dolls, kitchenware, pocketknives, pen and pencil sets, cosmetics, razor blades, or any other articles of merchandise in commerce as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Supplying to or placing in the hands of others, pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon or any other lottery device for the purpose of enabling such persons to dispose of or sell any merchandise by the use thereof.

2. Mailing, shipping, or transporting, to their agents, or to distributors, or to members of the public, pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon or any other lottery device so prepared or printed as to enable said persons to sell or distribute any merchandise by the use thereof.

3. Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by the use of pull cards or circulars having pull tabs thereon or any other lottery device.

[1] 8 F.R. 2710, 4 F.R. 988.

4. Using the term "free," or any other term of similar import or meaning, to describe or refer to articles offered as compensation for distributing respondents' merchandise.

It is further ordered, That the said respondents shall within sixty (60) days from the date of the service of this order upon them, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied therewith.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

Authority: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1942, 8 F.R. 6727.

Part 3290—Textile, Clothing and Leather

[Conservation Order M-91, Direction 1]

Inventories of Duck in the Hands of Distributors or Users

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order M-91:

Each person, other than a United States Government agency or a producer of duck, who has in inventory more than 500 yards of Army Duck, Numbered Duck, Flat Duck or Shelter Tent Duck, shall, not later than September 16, 1944, report in writing to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., his holdings of such fabrics, stating the number of yards of each type and construction he has. He may not use any part of such inventory, except for incorporation into products to fill orders of the Army or Navy, nor may he sell or deliver any part of such inventory, except to the Army or Navy, unless he has offered his entire inventory of such fabrics for sale to the Army or Navy and has received written rejections of his offer from both the Army and Navy, or unless he is expressly authorized in writing by the War Production Board to use or dispose of all or part of such inventory. However, railroad companies may use their stocks for locomotive cab curtains, harvesting machine manufacturers may continue to use their stocks, and other persons requiring filters listed in part III of Schedule A of Order M-91 may continue to use their stocks of numbered duck for these purposes; but they must, nevertheless, report their inventory by September 16, 1944.

Note: The reporting requirements of this direction have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

Part 921—Aluminum and Magnesium

[Supplementary Order M-1-g, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

Aluminum Pigment and Aluminum Composition

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of aluminum for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 921.9 Supplementary Order M-1-g—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order.

(1) "Aluminum pigment" means any material containing aluminum which is manufactured, acquired, or disposed of for use, or which is used in making paint, ink, or other coatings, or liquid welding compound.

(2) "Aluminum composition" means any paint, ink, or other coating, or liquid welding compound, in the making of which aluminum pigment is used.

(3) "Producer" means the department of Aluminum Company of America, Reynolds Metals Company, Metals Disintegrating Company, Aluminum Bronze Powder Company, Premier Bronze Powder Works, Malone Bronze Powder Works, Inc., U. S. Bronze Powder Works, Inc., Magna Manufacturing Company, which produces aluminum pigment, and any other person who may be so designated by the War Production Board.

(4) [Deleted Sept. 11, 1944.]

(b) Restrictions upon delivery of aluminum pigment by a producer. No producer shall deliver any aluminum pigment except pursuant to an order endorsed with a CMP allotment number in the S-2955 series, Z-2955 series or V-9 and the form of certification provided in either CMP Regulation No. 1 or 7 or in Order P-43. Such an order is an authorized controlled material order under CMP Regulations. Persons seeking to obtain aluminum pigment from a producer should apply to the War Production Board, Aluminum and Magnesium Division, on Form WPB-2360 (formerly Form CMP-13), except that where aluminum pigment is to be acquired for research, developmental or experimental activities under Order P-43, no application is necessary. A producer may refuse to accept an order for less than 100 lbs.

(c) Deliveries of aluminum pigment and aluminum composition by any person other than a producer. A person other than a producer may make delivery on rated or unrated purchase orders subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(d) [Deleted Sept. 11, 1944.]

(e) [Deleted Sept. 11, 1944.]

(f) [Deleted Sept. 11, 1944.]

Note: Paragraphs (d) (e) and (f) formerly (g), (h) and (i) redesignated Sept. 11, 1944.

(d) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Aluminum and Magnesium Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-1-g.

(e) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(f) Violations. Any person who willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-610]

E. M. FLAVIN

E. M. Flavin of 5632 Gunnison Street, Chicago, Illinois, is a broker engaged in the business of buying and selling copper wire and other metals. During the period from September 4, 1942, to October 16, 1942, respondent sold and delivered copper wire of the value of $594.18 on orders which did not bear preference ratings as required by General Preference Order M-9-a. During the period from March 21, 1943, to July 16, 1943, while operating as a "warehouse" as defined by CMP Regulation 4, respondent sold and delivered copper wire of the value of $16,852.78 on orders which were neither authorized controlled material orders, nor did they bear preference ratings of AA-5 or higher as required by CMP Regulation 4. During the period from September 4, 1942 to July 16, 1943, respondent failed to keep accurate and complete records of inventories, of materials, and of details of transactions in those materials, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1. E. M. Flavin was familiar with the provisions of General Preference Order M-9-a, CMP Regulation 4, and Priorities Regulation No. 1, and his actions constituted wilful violations of these orders.

These violations have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1010.610 Suspension Order No. S-610. (a) E. M. Flavin, individually or doing business under any other name, his successors and assigns, shall not accept delivery of, sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal in any copper or copper base alloy wire or cable as governed by Copper Order M-9, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve E. M. Flavin, individually or doing business under any other name, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on September 8, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

Issued this 1st day of September 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-616]

DORIS LACHMAN JOSPEY

Doris Lachman Jospey of 5636 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, between January 1 and May 15, 1944, began construction at that address on premises owned by her. She had received permission from the War Production Board to expend $3,500 in such construction. Notwithstanding this limitation, she expended $10,000 in construction on the premises. Doris Lachman Jospey was aware of Conservation Order L-41, and her doing this construction in excess of the authorization constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L-41.

This violation of Conservation Order L-41 has diverted critical materials and facilities to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States of America. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.616 Suspension Order No. S-616. (a) Neither Doris Lachman Jospey, her successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises at 5636 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, including putting up or altering the structure, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Doris Lachman Jospey, her successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-618]

MRS. J. C. BLACKWELL

Mrs. J. C. Blackwell of 1139 South Water Street, Wichita, Kansas, in November of 1943, began and thereafter continued construction of a new family residence at 4309 South Broadway, Wichita, Kansas, without authorization from the War Production Board. The estimated cost of this construction was in excess of $1,500, which amount exceeded the limit of $200 permitted by Conservation Order L-41, and was in violation of that order. Mrs. J. C. Blackwell was aware of the War Production Board restrictions on construction and the beginning and carrying on of this construction without authorization constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L-41.

This violation of Conservation Order L-41 has diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.618 Suspension Order No. S-618. (a) Neither Mrs. J. C. Blackwell, her successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises at 4309 South Broadway, Wichita, Kansas, including putting up or altering the structure unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board and the Federal Housing Administration.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Mrs. J. C. Blackwell, her successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 8th day of September 1944.

PART 984—LEAD

[General Preference Order M-38, as amended Sept. 9, 1944]

§ 984.1 General Preference Order M-38—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Lead" means and includes lead metal (including antimonial lead) in refinery shapes, whether produced from foreign or domestic ores, from scrap or drosses, or from any other lead-bearing material.

(2) "Lead base alloy" means any alloy containing 50% or more of lead metal by weight.

(3) "Refiner" means any person who produces lead as hereinbefore defined and includes any person who has such lead produced for him under toll agreement.

(4) "Dealer" means any person who procures lead either by importing or from domestic sources for sale or resale without change in form, whether or not such person receives title to or physical delivery of the material, and includes selling agents, warehousemen, and brokers.

(b) Directions as to deliveries—(1) Delivery schedules. The War Production Board may from time to time issue special directions requiring any refiner or dealer to file a report showing a schedule of his proposed deliveries of lead.

(2) Withheld deliveries. The War Production Board may from time to time require each refiner to set aside from his production of lead during any calendar month or other specified period (including therein lead produced for him by others under toll agreement, but excluding lead produced by him for others under toll agreement) a quantity to be determined and specified by the War Production Board and to be delivered by such refiner only pursuant to the specific written authorization of the War Production Board. Any amount so set aside shall be excluded from the refiner's schedule of proposed deliveries filed under the provisions of subparagraph (b) (1) above.

(3) Lead from Metals Reserve Company. Any person unable to obtain lead from regular sources of supply and wishing to procure lead from the Metals Reserve Company, must make application by written communication to the War Production Board.

(4) Allotment of purchase orders. The War Production Board may in its discretion require any person seeking to place a purchase order for lead to be delivered by a refiner or dealer to place the same with one or more particular refiners or dealers.

(c) Reports. After January 1, 1944, a quarterly report shall be filed on the 20th of April, July, October and January on Form WPB 95 by each dealer in pig lead or manufacturer of lead-bearing products who either sold or consumed forty tons or more of lead during the preceding calendar quarter, or had in his possession or under his control twenty tons of lead on the last day of the preceding calendar quarter. However, manufacturers of lead-bearing products shall file, not later than the 20th of January, 1944, a report on Form WPB 95, covering December, 1943, where required to do so by instructions on such form.

(d) Prohibited uses of lead. No person shall use lead or lead base alloy in the manufacture of any item on List A of this order or in the manufacture of any component material or part of such item, or for any purpose specified on List A.

(e) Exceptions, appeals and communications—(1) Exceptions under Priorities Regulation 25. All requests for exceptions from the restrictions on use of lead in paragraph (d) and List A (except for use of foil in packaging specified in item (11) (a) of List A) must be filed under Priorities Regulation 25. Some other orders of the War Production Board contain restrictions on the use of lead or lead base alloys. An authorization granted under Priorities Regulation 25 will not waive the other restrictions unless the order containing them or a direction to Priorities Regulation 25, states that it will. In the absence of such a statement, it is also necessary to get relief from the restrictions of the other order in the manner provided in that order. Attention is called especially to the restrictions on the use of lead alloys containing tin in Order M–43, cadmium in Order M–65, and bismuth in Order M–276.

(2) Appeals. Exceptions from the delivery restrictions of paragraph (b) or the reporting requirements of paragraph (c) may be requested only by filing an appeal. Appeals are also the only means of getting exceptions from the prohibition of the use of lead foil for packaging purposes described in Item (11) (a) of List A. Appeals must not be filed as to any other items on List A. An appeal shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. The appeal shall be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(3) Other communications. All other communications about this order should be addressed to the War Production Board, Tin-Lead-Zinc Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–38.

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) [Deleted Sept. 9, 1944]

NOTE: These reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Limitation Order L–317 as Amended Sept. 9, 1944]

FIBRE SHIPPING CONTAINERS; MANUFACTURE AND USE

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supply of materials entering into the production of fibre shipping containers for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3270.6 Limitation Order L–317—(a) "Fibre shipping container". For purposes of this order, the term "fibre shipping container" means the following items:

(1) Any box, crate, case, basket, inner carton, hamper or sleeve in set-up or knock-down form which is made in whole or in part from solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre and which is used for the delivery or shipment of materials. This does not include the following: trunks, luggage, or military locker boxes; fibre cans, tubes or drums. It also does not include combination wood-and-fibre shipping containers consisting of fifty per cent or more wood (by area).

(2) Any solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre sheet or any corrugated fibre roll to be used for wrapping, packaging, or otherwise protecting a product or material for shipment. This does not include corrugated or solid fibre sheets produced for delivery to plants, of the type commonly referred to in the container manufacturing industry as "sheet plants" for their use in manufacturing fibre shipping containers. It also does not include corrugated or solid fibre sheets produced for delivery to cleated box manufacturers for use in manufacturing shipping containers made of corrugated or solid fibre sheets attached to wooden cleats.

(3) Any solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre interior fitting which is cut to size for use in any type of container to provide content protection, structural strength, or both. This includes, but is not limited to, the following: partitions; pads; liners; sun bursts; corrugated wrappers (single-faced, double-faced, double-walled).

(b) "User". The term "user" means any person who uses fibre shipping containers for the shipment or delivery of materials in connection with his business.

(c) "Containerboard content". The term "containerboard content" means the amount of solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre containerboard in a fibre shipping container. This amount is computed both in terms of weight and in terms of square feet.

Manufacture and Delivery Prohibitions

(d) General. No person shall manufacture or deliver any new fibre shipping container which he has reason to believe will be used or accepted in violation of any provision of this order. No person shall deliver any new fibre shipping container (including "reshippers" defined in paragraph (m)) to any user except the Army or Navy unless the user furnishes with each purchase order a certification, signed as provided in Priorities Regulation 7, in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that he is familiar with Order L–317 of the War Production Board, and that the fibre shipping containers (or reshippers) covered by this purchase order will not be accepted or used in violation of the terms of that order.

If the user places a rated order, instead of the foregoing certification he may add to the certification of the rating (paragraph (v) of P–146) the following sentence: "The undersigned also certifies that the fibre shipping containers (or reshippers) covered by this purchase order will not be accepted or used in violation of the terms of Order L–317". The person receiving either certification shall be entitled to rely on it as a representation of the user unless he knows or has reason to know that it is false. The standard certification in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used instead of the certification required by this paragraph.

(e) Prohibited types (Schedule I). No person shall manufacture, from solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre, any container of the types listed in Schedule I of this order.

Use Prohibitions

(f) Prohibited uses—(1) Schedule II. Schedule II of this order lists certain products which may not be packed in new fibre shipping containers and certain other products which may not be packed in less than specified quantities, in new fibre shipping containers. No user shall accept or use any new fibre shipping container for any product in violation of Schedule II. This restriction does not apply to (i) containers used for wholesalers' or retailers' deliveries (as defined in Schedule III of this order), (ii) empty containers used by the Army or Navy, or (iii) containers which are quota exempt under paragraph (t) below.

(2) Carlining. No person shall use in the shipping of any product any new solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre sheet or roll as carlining except where needed for door-blocking. When such sheet or roll is used for door-blocking, only the necessary practicable minimum quantity shall be used.

(g) V-boxes and W-boxes. No user shall use any new V-box or W-box for packing any product except for delivery against military or Lend-Lease orders which specify that V-boxes or W-boxes be used. No user shall accept delivery of any V-boxes or W-boxes unless he has reason to believe that he will need them for the use permitted in this paragraph. The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to empty V-boxes or W-boxes used by the Army or Navy. The term "V-boxes and W-boxes" means shipping containers of the types designated as V–1, 2, 3 and W–5 and 6, in joint Army and Navy Specifications JAN–P–108 dated June 30, 1944, and parallel specifications; and in War Food Administration Export Packing Specification FSC No. 1742–E.

Quota Restrictions

(h) Quota products (Schedule III). Schedule III of this order lists certain products, and certain types of container uses. Beginning as of October 1, 1943, users are permitted to accept delivery of or use only a limited amount of new fibre shipping containers for packing any of the listed products (or for any of the listed uses), during each 3-month period (exclusive of amounts which are quota-exempt under paragraph (t) below). The limited amounts are called "quotas". The 3-month periods are called "quota periods". As explained below, there are two types of quotas—"footage quotas" and "tonnage quotas".

(h–1) [Deleted Aug. 4, 1944.]

(i) Quota restriction. During any 3-month quota period, the total containerboard content of the new fibre shipping containers accepted or used by any user for packing any Schedule III product (or for any Schedule III use) shall exceed neither his footage quota nor his tonnage quota. Quotas are to be computed in accordance with the next five paragraphs below. (The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to empty containers used by the Army or Navy or to containers which are quota-exempt under paragraph (t) below).

(i–1) General rules pertaining to quota computations—(1) Interchanging of quotas. Quotas are not interchangeable as between separately listed Schedule III items. However, where several products are included within the same Schedule III item (as for instance "CDGS–651–Jewelry, Toilet Sets, Cigarette Holders, etc.—50%") the user may distribute his quota for that item among those products as he sees fit. In computing his quota for any Schedule III item (other than "retailers' or wholesalers' deliveries" as defined in Schedule III) the user must not include in his base, the amount of containerboard used during the base period for packing any Schedule II product which is included in the item.

(2) Quota bases. It will be noted that alternative quota bases may be selected under paragraphs (j) through (m). A user must use the same quota base for all purposes, for the same Schedule III item. For instance, he cannot use the corresponding calendar quarter of the base year for figuring his footage quota under paragraph (j) and twenty-five per cent of the entire base year for the purpose of figuring his tonnage quota for the same item under paragraph (k). Likewise a user may not change his method of computing his quota in the course of any calendar year except that he may switch from the quarterly to the calendar year base for the third and fourth quarters of 1944; Provided, That he does this for both quarters.

(j) Computing footage quotas. A user's "footage quota" for any calendar quarter for any Schedule III item (or use) shall be computed by applying the quota percentage listed in Schedule III for that item (or use) to either of the two following bases at the user's option:

(1) The containerboard content (in terms of square feet) of the new fibre shipping containers, used by him during the corresponding three-month period in 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

(2) Twenty-five per cent of the containerboard content (in terms of square feet) of the new fibre shipping containers used by him during all of 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

(k) Computing tonnage quota. A user's "tonnage quota" for any calendar quarter for any Schedule III item (or use) shall be computed by applying the quota percentage listed in Schedule III for that item (or use) to either of the two following bases at the user's option:

(1) The containerboard content (in terms of weight) of the new fibre shipping containers used by him during the corresponding three-month period in 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

(2) Twenty-five per cent of the containerboard content (in terms of weight) of the new fibre shipping containers used by him during all of 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

In the case of a Schedule III item, the amount resulting from the computation required by this paragraph may be increased to the extent permitted in the next paragraph.

(l) Minimum pack allowance. In order to take advantage of this paragraph a user must waive the privilege, given to him by paragraph (i–1) of this order, of distributing his quota for an item among the several products included in the item as he sees fit. He must distribute his quota (both footage and tonnage) among those products in exactly the same proportion as he did during the base period he has selected. If he does this, and if his tonnage quota for any particular product (within the item) is not enough for a "minimum pack" of that product, his tonnage quota for that product is increased to the extent needed for a "minimum pack". However, the footage quota for that product is not increased.

"Minimum pack" means the amount of a particular Schedule III product (within an item) packed in new fibre shipping containers by the user during the corresponding three-month period of the base year applicable to that product (or twenty-five per cent of the amount so packed during the entire base year if he has chosen this base for his tonnage and footage quotas) multiplied by the quota percentage listed in Schedule III for that product.

(m) Adjustments for "reshippers". For quota purposes, "reshippers" shall be treated as though they were new fibre shipping containers. Accordingly, the containerboard content of all reshippers used by a user during the corresponding quarter of the base year (or twenty-five per cent of that used by him during the entire base year if he has chosen this method of computing his footage and tonnage quotas) for packing the products included in a Schedule III item may be included in figuring his footage and tonnage quotas for that item (paragraphs (j) and (k) above). Likewise, the containerboard content of all reshippers accepted or used by a user during any quota period for packing the products in any Schedule III item shall be charged to his footage and tonnage quotas for that item. The term "reshippers" means new fibre shipping containers in which empty inner containers (such as glass jars, cans, etc.) are shipped to a packer and which are then used by the packer for shipping or delivering inner containers packed by him with some product. Paragraph (d) prohibits any person from delivering reshippers to any user unless the user furnishes with each purchase order the certification required by that paragraph.

Packing specifications

(m-1) Packing specifications for certain products—Schedule IV. Schedule IV lists products which may only be packed in new fibre shipping containers in accordance with the provisions of that schedule. No user (except a "small user"—see paragraph (s)) shall pack those products in new fibre shipping containers except in accordance with those provisions.

Furthermore, no user shall use for packing any Schedule IV item, any new fibre shipping container of a style or design requiring the use of more containerboard, per unit packed, in its manufacture than those he most commonly used for that item during the season when he last packed it. The only exceptions to this paragraph (m–1) are the following:

1. Any fibre shipping container which was in process of manufacture on or before August 4, 1944 may be used to pack any Schedule IV product without regard to the provisions of that schedule or of this paragraph.

2. The provisions of this paragraph and those of Schedule IV do not apply to the use of fibre shipping containers to make deliveries to the Army, the Navy, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or any United States agency making Lend-Lease purchases, when packaging specifications received in connection with such deliveries require deviations from the standards set forth in that schedule.

3. The provisions of this paragraph and of Schedule IV do not apply to the use of empty containers by the Army or the Navy.

Inventory Restrictions

(n) Inventory restrictions. No person shall accept delivery of, or have set aside for his account, any containers which will increase his inventory of unfilled new fibre shipping containers (including those held by others for his account as well as those he has on hand) to more than his maximum permitted inventory. He may figure his maximum permitted inventory in either (but not both) of two ways—"over-all" basis or "individual-item" basis.

(o) Over-all basis. On the over-all basis, his maximum permitted inventory of all sizes and types shall be no more than a combined total of 1½ carloads.

(p) Individual-item basis. On the individual-item basis he figures a separate inventory for each "container item class." In each class he figures how many he will need to meet his reasonably anticipated requirements in the next 30 days (as restricted by a quota on Schedule III, if any). If that is more than 1200 complete sets of that class his inventory for that class is his 30-day requirement; if not, it is 1200. The total of all his classes figured in this way will be his maximum permitted inventory, which he may divide among his several sizes and types as he sees fit. A "container item class" includes all new fibre shipping containers of the same or similar sizes and types currently being used by him. (A variation in size or type which does not make a container unsuitable for shipping the same amount of a product in substantially the same shape and form shall not be considered as representing a different size or type.)

(q) Seasonal-foods and military exceptions. The 30 day supply maximum in paragraph (p) above shall not apply to requirements for packing seasonal foods or to the Army's or Navy's requirements for empty new fibre shipping containers. Instead the "practicable minimum working inventory" provision in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1 (and Interpretation 1a of that regulation) shall apply in those cases.

Multiple-Unit Organizations

(r) Multiple-unit organizations. Any user who uses new fibre shipping containers at more than one place may choose to apply the quota and inventory restrictions and the percentage specifications of Schedule IV of this order either to the operations of each place separately or to the collective operations of all his places. The same choice as to the inventory restrictions is available to any container-distributor who deals in new fibre shipping containers at more than one place. After making his choice, no person shall thereafter change it unless authorized by the War Production Board. Any user or container-distributor organization which consists of a parent corporation and one or more wholly-owned subsidiary corporations may consider itself as a single user or distributor for the purposes of this paragraph.

Exceptions and Exemptions

(s) Small-user exception. The quota restrictions of paragraph (i) and the packing specifications of paragraph (m–1) above do not apply to any user during any calendar year in which he accepts no more than a total of $500 worth (cost price to him) of new fibre shipping containers for all products (whether or not on Schedule III or IV).

(t) Use and quota exemptions for certain government orders. The use prohibitions of paragraph (f) above and the quota restrictions of paragraph (i) above do not apply to new fibre shipping containers which are used by any user (whether a manufacturer or a distributor) for delivering any product to any of the following persons or which are used by any user for delivering any product to be redelivered by another party (without further processing, fabrication, or incorporation into any other product, exclusive of wholesalers' and retailers' minor finishing or decorative operations as mentioned in Schedule III) to any of the following persons:

(1) The U. S. Army or Navy (exclusive of post exchanges or ship's service departments located within the 48 states and the District of Columbia).

(2) The Maritime Commission; the War Shipping Administration; or to other persons pursuant to authorization by the Maritime Commission on Form WPB–646 (formerly PD–300).

(3) Any U. S. agency making Lend-Lease purchases.

New fibre shipping containers used for those purposes may be regarded as being in addition to the user's quota for the product involved.

(u) Exceptions for stocks in transit or on hand. Any user may use for the purpose for which he acquired them any new fibre shipping containers which were in his possession or which were in transit to him on or before October 11, 1943. In the case of any product added to Schedule II after that date he may use for that product the containers which he had acquired or which were in transit to him for that product on or before the date on which the item was added to the schedule. These exceptions are subject to the quota restrictions of paragraph (i).

Miscellaneous Provisions

(v) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(w) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–317.

(x) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(y) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE I—PROHIBITED TYPES OF CONTAINERS

Paragraph (e) of Order L–317 prohibits the manufacture of the following types of containers from solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre.

a. Bottle and can carry-outs
b. Counter boxes
c. Display-shippers
d. Laundry boxes and laundry shells
e. Retail gift boxes

SCHEDULE II—PROHIBITED USES

NOTE: Schedule II amended Sept. 9, 1944.

Pursuant to paragraph (f) of Order L–317, users' acceptance or use of new fibre shipping containers for packing the products listed below (or, where specified below, for packing less than a specified quantity of certain products listed below) is prohibited. Some exceptions from this prohibition are allowed in paragraphs (t) and (u) of the order. In addition, paragraph (f) specifies that its prohibition does not apply to containers used for wholesalers' or retailers' deliveries (as defined in Schedule III). However, new fibre shipping containers so used for any product below must be charged to the wholesaler's or the retailer's over-all quota under Schedule III.

a. Paper products:
  Catalogues.
  Magazines, including house organs.
  Posters.
  Punch boards.
b. Fresh fruits and vegetables, except apples, grapes, limes, mushrooms, pears, tomatoes and rhubarb.
c. Building Materials:
  Building brick (except glass brick).
  Cement—except household.
  Corks—except pipe coverings and insulation board.
  Flooring, wood, molding, mopboards, trim and wainscoting.
  Insulation board, rigid (except insulating tile and panel and cork insulation board.
  Non-rigid insulation—(except blocks, batts, blankets, and formed and/or metal-encased insulation)
  Plaster—cement, lime, gypsum (this does not include dental, orthopedic, and industrial-mold grades)
  Sash and doors, except glazed, not finished further than primed
  Shingles (except asbestos siding shingles and asphalt shingles which are on Schedule III)
  Tile—except acoustical, asphalt, and glazed or unglazed floor, wall or facing tile
d. Textiles (except clothing):
  Awnings
  Blankets and comforters—less than 6 per package
  Carpets and carpeting
  Mattresses—less than 4" thick
  Rugs
  Tents
  Waste wiping rags
e. Hardware:
  Buckets and pails—wood or metal (except metal pails manufactured solely for use as dairy and milk pails and except porcelain-enameled pails)
  Cans—refuse, garbage
  Garden and farm tools, 18" or more in length—including but not limited to: Hose, rakes, shovels Handles, 18" or more in length—including but not limited to: shovels, picks, axes, etc.
  Wash tubs—wood or metal
f. Glass products:
  1-pt. home canning jars—less than 24 per case
g. Horticultural items:
  Bulbs
  Ornamental shrubs
  Seeds (flower)
h. Miscellaneous:
  Advertising displays of all kinds, including but not limited to floor, window and counter displays, dispenser type displays and sign boards.
  Athletic uniforms
  Ball bats
  Baskets—wicker, splint, etc.
  Bridles
  Brooms and broom handles, except as listed on Schedule III.
  Charcoal—except activated carbon
  Coal
  Cones—fir or pine
  Fertilizers
  Furniture—lawn and porch (except glass parts)
  Furniture—unfinished, set-up (except glass parts)
  Horse collars
  Hose—rubber and fabric, except wire inserted
  Ironing boards
  Ladders
  Linoleum and printed floor coverings—rugs and rolls
  Mops—except oil mops
  Nuts: unshelled, except soft shelled English Walnuts (of Mayette, Willson Wonder, Klondike, Bijou, and Momnoth Mayette varieties), Schley Pecan and Non-pareil Almonds.
  Peanuts, unshelled
  Peat moss
  Rope, string and twine
  Rope, string and twine
  Saddles
  Trunks (in carload lots)
  Whips and crops

SCHEDULE III—PRODUCTS AND USES SUBJECT TO QUOTAS

NOTE: Schedule III amended Sept. 9, 1944.

Paragraph (i) of Order L–317 places quotas on the amount of new fibre shipping containers (including reshippers as defined in paragraph (m) of the order) that may be accepted or used for packing the products or for the types of uses listed below. The percentage listed opposite the item is to be used in figuring the quotas. The base year is 1942, unless another year is specified in the schedule, for example, "Mirrors (1943)". As explained in paragraphs (i–1) through (m), alternative bases (100 per cent of the corresponding three-month period in the base year or twenty-five per cent of the entire base year) may be selected for quota computations.

Code numbers in front of some items (for example, CDGS–429 Batteries: dry cell) refer to the code numbers on the Official CMP Product List set out in "Products and Priorities" published monthly by the War Production Board, the latest copy of which may be found in any War Production Board office or obtained from the United States Government Printing Office. Each such item covers every product listed under that code number and group name in the list. In order to find out whether any product is covered by a code number, follow the directions in the front of "Products and Priorities". The restrictions of this order apply to the product even though it may not contain copper, steel or aluminum (controlled materials). An asterisk indicates that there is no code number for the product.

Quotas must be computed and kept separately for each separately listed item in this Schedule. They may not be transferred from one such item to another. However, where a listed item covers several different products (as is the case with most code numbered items and some asterisked items) quotas may be computed for the item as a whole and distributed among the various products within the item as the user sees fit. For further rules which must be followed in figuring and making charges against quotas, see paragraphs (h) through (m).

The products listed below do not include repair parts, which are not restricted by the order.

NOTE: Items marked with an asterisk cover products that are not covered by code numbers.

Restricted Uses	Quota (percent)
Wholesalers' deliveries	70
Retailers' deliveries: mail, express and common carrier	70
Retailers' deliveries: other than mail, express and common carrier	60

These "restricted uses" items relate only to deliveries made by persons who have not produced the products delivered nor done any fabrication or processing work on them other than minor finishing or decorative operations usually performed by wholesalers and retailers (such as assembly of knocked-down furniture, monogramming of linen and jewelry, alteration of clothing). "Retailers' deliveries" means deliveries made by any such person who sells exclusively or predominantly at retail. "Wholesalers' deliveries" means deliveries made by any such person who sells exclusively or predominantly at wholesale. The quota for each type of use represents the maximum total amount of containers which can be so used for all products (whether or not listed in Schedule III). The quota takes the place of a separate quota for each Schedule III product.

SCHEDULE IV—PACKING SPECIFICATIONS

NOTE: Tables amended Sept. 9, 1944.

TABLE I—SPECIFICATIONS OF FIBRE SHIPPING CONTAINERS (SOLID OR CORRUGATED) PERMITTED FOR PACKING MEAT AND OTHER PACKING HOUSE PRODUCTS

A user may choose to limit himself to a quota of 85 per cent of his 1943 new fibre shipping container usage (computed in accordance with paragraphs (h) through (m) of this order) for packing all of the products listed in this table. If he does this, he need not pay any attention to the rest of this schedule; but can pack said products in fibre shipping containers of any "specification" and size he sees fit. Users must decide, once and for all, whether they will limit their usage of fibre shipping containers under this paragraph or under the balance of this table; for they may not change from one method of operation to another.

Subject to the preceding paragraph and the exceptions listed in paragraph (m–1) of this order, the products listed below may only be packed in fibre shipping containers in accordance with the provisions of this table. The provisions listed under "Class A" apply to all shipments from processing or manufacturing units to units other than retail stores, and the provisions listed under "Class B" apply to all shipments to retailers from processing or manufacturing units. Except where otherwise specified, listed percentages and other provisions of this table are applicable to each class separately.

Unless an exception is provided in Column 7, the products listed in this table may not be shipped in new fibre shipping containers in any amounts except those listed for the product in Columns 1 and 4. Likewise they may not be packed in new fibre shipping containers exceeding the maximum specifications in Columns 2 and 5. However, solid fibre containers may be substituted for corrugated wherever the former have an equivalent or lower Mullen test than those of the specified corrugated containers. (In this connection, attention is called to Direction 2 to Order M–290 which restricts the manufacture of solid fibre containers.)

No containerboard interior packing or fittings may be used except as specifically indicated in Column 7.

Percentage figures appearing in Columns 3 and 6 mean that no more than the indicated percentage of the amount of the affected product which a user packs in new fibre shipping containers during the period between August 4 and September 30, 1944, and during each calendar quarter after that, may be packed in new fibre shipping containers of the capacity and specifications to which the percentage applies. Attention is called to various exceptions from this table set forth in paragraph (m–1) of Order L–317. Percentages should be computed without regard to any shipments made in accordance with these exceptions.

"Specifications" indicate the Mullen test and type of containerboard which may be used. "COR" means corrugated fibre. "F" means solid fibre.

INTERPRETATION 1

The restrictions of L-317 (§ 3270.6) are applicable only to new fibre shipping containers. A question has arisen as to the status of such containers which have been rejected during the course of manufacture or upon delivery because of errors in size, printing, etc. Such containers are new containers and subject to the restrictions contained in the order until they have been used for the packing of a product. (Issued Nov. 6, 1943)

INTERPRETATION 2

APPLICABILITY OF INVENTORY RESTRICTIONS TO V-BOXES

(a) Applicability of inventory restrictions to V-boxes. It has been called to the attention of the War Production Board that there is, in certain quarters, a misimpression to the effect that V-boxes are exempted from the Inventory Restrictions of Order L-317. This impression is completely unfounded. Inventories of V-boxes are controlled to the same extent as other fibre shipping containers by the provisions of paragraph (n) through (q) of Order L-317 and paragraph (b) of Direction 1 of that order.

(b) Cancellation of excessive V-box orders. V-box orders are also subject to the restrictions against placing excessive orders set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d) of Direction 1 of Order L-317. Therefore, all orders for V-boxes in excess of the amount which a person would be entitled to receive within these inventory limitations must be cancelled immediately.

(c) Responsibility of box manufacturers. Attention is called to the fact that box manufacturers share responsibility for seeing to it that no V-boxes (as well as other fibre shipping containers) are delivered which will cause a customer to exceed his permitted inventory, because under paragraph (d) of Order L-317 they are prohibited from manufacturing, selling, or delivering any new fibre shipping containers which they know or have reason to believe will be used or accepted in violation of the order. (Issued May 26, 1944)

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Limitation Order L-317, Interpretation 8]

EXEMPTIONS APPLICABLE TO QUOTA ALTERNATIVE IN SCHEDULE IV

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Limitation Order L-317:

Paragraph (m-1) of Order L-317 states that the meat products listed in Schedule IV may be packed in fibre shipping containers only in accordance with that Schedule. Schedule IV permits packers to elect either to limit themselves to a quota of 85 per cent of their 1943 new fibre shipping container usage (computed in accordance with paragraph (h) to (m) of the order) or to follow the specifications provided in the Schedule IV Tables.

The exemption provided by subparagraph (1) of paragraph (m-1) (fibre shipping containers which were in process of manufacture on or before August 4, 1944) only applies to packers who elect to follow the specifications in Schedule IV in their use of fibre shipping containers for the products listed in Schedule IV. It does not apply to those who avail themselves of the above-described quota alternative. They must compute their quotas in accordance with paragraphs (h) to (m) of the order in exactly the same manner as if their products were covered by Schedule III. This means that the containerboard content of all new fibre shipping containers (or reshippers) used for these products must be charged against quotas regardless of when the containers were manufactured or when they were acquired by the packer. Of course, the exemptions available to products limited by Schedule III (such as that provided for certain government deliveries by paragraph (t) are available to packers of Schedule IV products who operate under the quota rather than the specification provisions of that Schedule.

PART 3288—PLUMBING AND HEATING EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L-42, as Amended Sept. 8, 1944]

PLUMBING AND HEATING SIMPLIFICATION

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and facilities necessary for the manufacture of plumbing and heating equipment for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3288.11 Limitation Order L-42—(a) Issuance of schedules of simplification of lines. The War Production Board may from time to time issue schedules establishing simplified practices with respect to the types, sizes, forms, specifications or other qualifications for any plumbing or heating products, or other similar products which may be used in any other line. From and after the effective date of any such schedule, no such product shall be produced, fabricated, assembled, delivered or accepted except those that conform to the issued schedule, and except as specifically permitted by such schedule.

(b) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. The provisions of Priorities Regulation 25 shall apply to any direction or schedule issued under this order to the extent allowed in such direction or schedule.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order or of any direction or schedule issued under it, other than from restrictions or limitations which may be waived or modified by application for permission to do so under Priorities Regulation 25, shall be filed on Form WPB–1477 with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(c) Applicability of regulations. All persons and transactions affected by this order and by any direction or schedule issued under it, are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(d) Communications. All communications concerning this order, except appeals, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. L–42.

(e) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or of any direction or schedule issued under it, or who, in connection with this order (or any such direction or schedule) willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 3288—PLUMBING AND HEATING EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L–42, Schedule V, as Amended Sept. 9, 1944]

PLUMBING FIXTURE FITTINGS AND TRIM

§ 3288.16 Schedule V to Limitation Order L–42—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule:

(1) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy.

(b) Limitations. Pursuant to Limitation Order L–42, the following restrictions are established for the manufacture, assembly and finishing of plumbing fixture fittings and trim:

(1) No person shall use copper or copper base alloy, except in the items specified on List A.

(2) No person shall use zinc, except in the items specified on List B, but zinc may be used for plating, coating or galvanizing.

(3) No person shall use cadmium, chromium or nickel for plating or coating.

(4) No person shall use any metal other than aluminum in the items specified on List C.

(c) General exceptions. The restrictions of this schedule do not apply to the production of articles or parts not available in the producers inventory for use in ships, boats, planes or advance bases (when required by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, or Coast Guard, or by rules and regulations promulgated by the Coast Guard for merchant vessels), or for use in chemical and research laboratories, abattoirs, food packing and processing plants, hospitals and all buildings in a hospital group, clinics, dispensaries and railroad cars.

(d) Special exception.—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to obtain increased allotments of materials to enable him to produce greater quantities of plumbing fixture fittings and trim (including a person who has obtained no allotment or who has not produced any plumbing fixture fittings and trim) may apply for such increased allotments as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply for allotments of materials in accordance with the provisions of CMP Regulation 1. Any person who in manufacturing plumbing fixture fittings and trim wants to incorporate in such plumbing fixture fittings and trim more metal (other than copper, copper base alloy, cadmium, chromium or nickel) than is permitted under paragraph (b), or wants to produce plumbing fixture fittings and trim restricted by paragraph (b) (using other than copper, copper base alloy, cadmium, chromium or nickel) may apply for permission to do so as is explained in Priorities Regulation 25.

LIST A—COPPER AND COPPER BASE ALLOY

Copper base alloy may be used for the following items. Castings shall be made without the use of any primary copper or tin and shall be of no higher grade than Alloy 5A of American Society of Testing Materials Specification B–145–42–T.

Number and item:

1. Drinking fountain bubbler, guard, regulator and self closing valve (to be made according to the minimum requirements of the U. S. Public Health Service)
2. Glass filler faucet
3. Upper and lower lift wires
4. Spud or insert (for flush balls and floats)
5. Flush valves for high tanks
6. Ball cock complete, including hush tube and refill tube, but not including float and float rod
7. Ring, for lead traps—not including plugs or covers

The use of copper and copper base alloy in the following items is limited to valve stems, valve seats, bonnets, disc and disc screws, or valve trimming units combining these separate parts into one unit, and springs for self-closing faucets, provided it does not exceed the weight specified for each item.

	Ounces
8. Bathtub filler (½" I. P. S.) exposed	8.0
9. Bathtub filler (½" I. P. S.) concealed	21.0
10. Combination tub and shower supply assembly (½" I. P. S.)	30.0
11. Lavatory supply fittings (combination)	9.0
12. Lavatory faucet (single)	4.0
13. Laundry tray combination faucet (½" I. P. S.)	9.0
14. Laundry tray faucet (single)	5.0
15. Service sink combination faucet (½" I. P. S.)	11.0
16. Shower, two-valve (exposed ½" I. P. S.)	11.0
17. Shower, two-valve (concealed ½" I. P. S.)	21.0
18. Sink faucet, single (plain, hose and solid flange ½" and ¾" I. P. S.)	8.0
19. Sink faucet (deck, swinging, rigid, and concealed ½" I. P. S.)	11.0
20. Self-closing faucet or stop	12.0
21. Self-closing stop for shower	12.0

Copper and copper base alloy may be used in the manufacture of the following items, provided it does not exceed the weight specified for each item:

	Ounces
22. Automatic high tank supply valve—¾"	8.0
23. Automatic high tank supply valve—1" or larger	13.0
24. Automatic high tank supply valve—1¼" or larger	16.0
25. Flushometer valve, stop and backflow preventor	13.0
26. Wash fountain trim	16.0

LIST B—ZINC PERMITTED IN THE FOLLOWING ITEMS

Number and item:

1. Clean-out plugs (fixture traps).
2. Escutcheon holders (thimbles).
3. Flush tank trip lever assembly.
4. Nuts (lock, slip, coupling or bonnet).
5. Spuds or inserts (for handles).
6. Handles, faucet.

LIST C—NO METAL EXCEPT ALUMINUM PERMITTED

NOTE: Heading of List C amended Sept. 9, 1944.

Number and item:

1. Floats (ball cock), except for spud.
2. Flush balls, except for spud and inserts.
3. Pop-up wastes.
4. Trip-lever wastes, or other mechanical waste assembly.
5. Escutcheons.

PART 3288 [1]—PLUMBING AND HEATING EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L–42, Schedule XII, as Amended Sept. 9, 1944]

PLUMBING FIXTURES

§ 3288.24 [1] Schedule XII to Limitation Order L–42—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, processes or fabricates plumbing fixtures.

(2) "Plumbing fixture" means any bathtub, bidet, bath (foot sitz), drain pool (for a septic tank system), drain board, fountain (drinking, wash), lavatory, laundry tray, sink (except a scullery sink, with or without drain boards), sink and laundry tray combination, sink leg, shower receptor, shower stall and receptor combination, septic tank, water closet bowl (including frostproof bowl), urinal, urinal tank, water closet tank (other than a pressure tank for a frostproof closet); but it does not include any plumbing fixture trim not specifically named in this schedule:

[1] Formerly Part 1076, § 1076.14.

(b) Limitations. Pursuant to Limitation Order L-42 the following limitations are established for the manufacture of plumbing fixtures:

No metal may be used in the manufacture of plumbing fixtures except that:

(1) Any person may incorporate into any plumbing fixture the minimum quantity of metal which is required for coating, nuts, bolts, screws, clamps, rivets and other items of joining hardware, excluding chair carriers, which are necessary for the construction, assembly or installation of the plumbing fixture, provided that such use is not prohibited by any other order of the War Production Board.

(2) In addition, any person may incorporate into any of the following named plumbing fixtures the metals specified in quantities not exceeding those designated, provided that such use is not prohibited by any other order of the War Production Board:

(i) Into any non-metallic wash fountain, (a) the maximum of one pound of copper or copper base alloy, (b) ferrous metal as required for reinforcement, trap, column, interior piping, foot rails and levers, and fixture trim.

(ii) Into any cement or concrete laundry tray, one ounce of zinc for waste plug in each outlet and ferrous metal as follows: one compartment, one and a half pounds for reinforcement, one and a half pounds for cast-in waste fitting; two compartments, two pounds for reinforcement, two and a half pounds for cast-in twin waste fitting; three compartments, three pounds for reinforcement, four pounds for one single cast-in waste fitting and one cast-in twin waste fitting;

(iii) Into any cement or concrete shower receptor and cast-in drain, six pounds of ferrous metal;

(iv) Into any shower stall and receptor combination, twenty-four pounds of ferrous metal (only secondary quality of sheet steel, including the rejects and trimmings, may be used);

(v) Into any concrete septic tank, ferrous metal required for reinforcement only, inlet or outlet connection, internal syphon and internal syphon pipe connection;

(vi) Into any water closet bowl that is to be supplied with water through a diaphragm or a piston type flush valve or a pressure tank, one pound of ferrous metal for spud;

(vii) Into any water closet bowl that is to be supplied with water from a water closet tank, one pound of ferrous metal for spud;

(viii) Into any component working parts of any tank for water closet (other than a pressure tank for a frostproof closet), four pounds of metal;

(ix) Into any urinal, one pound of ferrous metal for spuds;

(x) Into any component working parts of any tank for urinal, having ¾" automatic flush valve, five pounds of metal; having 1" automatic flush valve, seven pounds of metal; having 1¼" or larger automatic flush valve, ten pounds of metal.

(3) The restrictions of this order shall not apply to the use of aluminum or lead.

(c) General exceptions. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this schedule shall not apply to the use of metal in the manufacture of any plumbing fixture or any part thereof which is being produced:

(1) Under a specific contract or subcontract for use in chemical plants, research laboratories or hospitals, where and to the extent that the physical, chemical and aseptic properties make the use of other materials impracticable. This exception, however, does not include any plumbing fixture used in private rooms or nurses' or attendants' quarters in any plant, laboratory or hospital.

(2) Under a specific contract or subcontract for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel other than a pleasure craft where the use of other material is impracticable: Provided, however, That no monel metal shall be used in the manufacture of any trough urinal.

(3) Under a specific contract or subcontract specifying trough urinals for delivery to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration for use outside the continental United States (the several States and the District of Columbia): Provided, however, That no monel metal shall be used in the manufacture of any such trough urinal.

(d) Special exception—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to obtain increased allotments of or authorization to obtain more materials to enable him to produce greater quantities of plumbing fixtures (including a person who has obtained no allotments or has not produced any plumbing fixtures) may apply for such increased allotments as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. He may still, of course, apply for allotments of materials in accordance with the provisions of CMP Regulation 1. Any person who in manufacturing plumbing fixtures wants to use metal where not permitted by paragraph (b), or who wants to incorporate in plumbing fixtures more metal (other than copper, copper base alloy, cadmium, chromium, nickel, or monel metal) than is permitted under paragraphs (b) (1) or (b) (2) may apply for permission to do so as is explained in Priorities Regulation 25.

[General Limitation Order L-274 Interpretation 1]

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

NYLON HOSIERY

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-274:

Order L-274 provides that no person shall "put into production" women's hosiery not conforming with Schedules A, B, D or E (except for the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration). The schedules provide only for cotton and rayon women's hosiery. Thus, to put women's nylon hosiery into production is prohibited. The term "put into production" includes all stages of production. Accordingly, a commission hosiery dyer or finisher may not dye or finish any nylon hosiery except for the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, unless the manufacture of the hosiery has been specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. The dyer or finisher is not justified in assuming that the hosiery is for military account or that its manufacture was specifically authorized. He should obtain a specific statement to that effect from his customer. He may rely on such a statement, unless he knows or has reason to believe that it is false.

However, women's hosiery that was knitted prior to May 15, 1943, may be dyed or finished.

[General Conservation Order M-310, Direction 7]

PROCESSING OF RAW GOATSKINS AND CABRETTAS

The following direction is issued pursuant to General Conservation Order M-310:

In computing his quota under paragraph (h) (2) of General Conservation Order M-310 of wettings of raw goatskins and cabrettas during the three months period commencing August 1, 1944, a tanner of cabretta glove leather to be delivered against military orders (as directed by Direction No. 8, dated April 24, 1944) may count three skins of the following types as only two skins:

South African Cape Hairsheepskins.
Nigerian Hairsheepskins.
Soudan Hairsheepskins.
Brazil Cabrettas.

Monthly wettings of all types must be reported as usual on Form WPB–1437 and the actual wettings of the types computed as directed above must be reported in the "Remarks" column.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–595]

MAX N. TOBIAS BAG COMPANY, INC.

Max N. Tobias Bag Company, Inc., of 328 North Cortez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, is a corporation engaged in the manufacturing of burlap and cotton bags. During the period from May 1, 1943, to March, 1944, the corporation increased its inventory of burlap from approximately 432,000 yards to 904,000 yards. During that period, its current rate of operation was not in excess of 100,000 yards per month. Conservation Order M–47 prohibits the purchase of burlap in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory at the purchaser's then current rate of operation. The quantity of burlap which Max N. Tobias Bag Company, Inc., purchased and had in inventory on March 31, 1944, was approximately nine months' supply, which is in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory at its then current rate of operation. The responsible officers of Max N. Tobias Bag Company, Inc., were aware of Conservation Order M–47 and its actions must be deemed to have constituted a wilful violation of the order.

This violation of Conservation Order M–47 has interfered with the controls established by the War Production Board for the allocation of critical materials, and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States of America. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.595 Suspension Order No. S–595. (a) No allocation or allotment of burlap as defined in or governed by Conservation Order M–47, as amended from time to time, shall be made to Max N. Tobias Bag Company, Inc., until its inventory of burlap is reduced to 250,000 yards unless hereafter otherwise specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Max N. Tobias Bag Company, Inc., its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on September 9, 1944.

Issued this 2d day of September 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–612]

REPUBLIC FUEL & BURNER CO.

The Republic Fuel & Burner Company, 42 South 40th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a corporation engaged chiefly in the selling and servicing of oil burning heating equipment. In April and May, 1944, it delivered five Class B oil burners for new installations in violation of General Limitation Order L–74. The responsible officers of Republic Fuel & Burner Company were aware of General Limitation Order L–74 and its actions constituted wilful violations of the order.

These violations of General Limitation Order L–74 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States of America. In view of the foregoing, it is ordered, that:

§ 1010.612 Suspension Order No. S–612. (a) Republic Fuel & Burner Company, its successors or assigns, shall not accept or make delivery of any oil burner or parts thereof or fittings therefor as defined in or governed by General Limitation Order L–74, as amended from time to time, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) The provisions of this suspension order shall not apply to material or parts to the minimum extent necessary to enable Republic Fuel & Burner Company, its successors or assigns, to repair equipment.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Republic Fuel & Burner Company, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on September 9, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

PART 1293—HAND TOOLS SIMPLIFICATION

[Limitation Order L–157, Schedule I, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

HAND SHOVELS, SPADES, SCOOPS, TELEGRAPH SPOONS AND SNOW SHOVELS

§ 1293.2 Schedule I to Limitation Order L–157—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, stamps, forges, or otherwise fabricates hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons, or snow shovels.

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order L–157, no producer shall manufacture any hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons or snow shovels except the kinds named in Tables I through IV of Appendix A in conformity with the sizes, standards, types and varieties set forth in Appendix A.

(c) Restrictions on material. There are some specific items appearing on the Tables contained in this schedule which shall be manufactured only out of steel which is obtained from idle or excess inventories, pursuant to specific authorization from the War Production Board in accordance with Priorities Regulation 13 or CMP Regulation No. 1. In such cases, a footnote will appear in the table, referring to this paragraph, designating the specific items which are governed by it, and in only those cases does this paragraph apply. Such specific items will also be marked with an *.

(d) Records. Each producer shall keep and preserve in his files accurate and complete records showing his inventory of raw materials, and his production of hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons, and snow shovels, and such records shall be kept readily available and open to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

APPENDIX A

Explanations and limitations—(1) Grades. Alloy A, B, and C designate qualities of complete hand shovels, spades, scoops, or telegraph spoons; alloy and A designating the best quality. Alloy and A-grade tools are equipped with grade XX or SA handles; B-grade tools are equipped with grade X or SB handles. C-grade tools are equipped with No. 1 or SC handles. SA, SB, and SC grades are approximately equivalent to XX, X, and No. 1, respectively, which are the handle-grade designations commonly employed by the shovel industry. Grades SA, SB, and SC are defined in Simplified Practice Recommendation R76, Ash Handles issued by the United States Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards.

Nothing in this provision shall be construed as prohibiting the substitution for ash of other suitable species of wood having characteristics as nearly comparable as possible to the respective grades of ash for which they are substituted; Provided, That the buyer consents, and all handles other than ash be marked with the name of the species of wood of which they were made.

(2) [Deleted March 10, 1944]

(3) Blade finishes. Black or natural finish is obtained by dipping the blade in its natural state, except that it may be wire brushed to remove scale or rust, in lacquer, or lacquer with an asphaltum base, or other suitable protective coating; the blade shall not be pickled before being wire brushed. Full polished finish is obtained by pickling the blade, finishing on roughing and finishing polishing wheels, and dipping it in lacquer, lacquer with an asphaltum base, or other suitable protective coating. No hand shovels, spades, scoops, telegraph spoons, and snow shovels shall be finished in other than black or natural finish, except moulders' shovels and grain scoops, which may be full polished on the face only, and except shovels delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, which shovels shall be finished in accordance with the procurement specification of the War Department or Navy Department as the case may be.

(4) Gauges. The gauges referred to are the steel manufacturers' standard gauges, and are subject to the manufacturers' standard tolerances. The gauge of blades is to be determined by averaging five measurements taken as specified in Federal Specification GGG–S–626.

(5) Handle finish. Neither long handles, nor the stems of D handles, shall be painted or otherwise finished than by sanding and waxing, except all shovels delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, which shovels shall be painted in accordance with specifications of the War Department or the Navy Department as the case may be. Any metal used in the construction of D handles may be given a protective coating, or the entire D may be so coated, but only so far along the stem as is necessary to cover any metal used in the construction of the D.

(6) Handle lifts. Each kind and size of hand shovel, spade, scoop, telegraph spoon, and snow shovels shall be manufactured with only one lift, which shall be in accordance with the individual manufacturer's present standard practice, except corrugated coal shovels, which may be made with lifts of 21, 17, 14, and 11 inches, and eastern pattern scoops, which may be made with lifts of 21 and 13 inches, also in low lift of approximately 10 inches.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

PART 3133—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[General Limitation Order L-188, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

LOOSE LEAF METAL PARTS AND UNITS, AND MECHANICAL BINDINGS

§ 3133.45 General Limitation Order L-188—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Binder" means a blank book, loose leaf book or cover.

(2) "Unit" means a complete device, including mechanical bindings, designed to hold together loose leaves, covers, paper products or other materials in a binder.

(3) "Part" means a component used in the construction of a unit.

(4) "To fabricate" means to change the shape or form of metal in any manner.

(5) "To assemble" means to combine parts into completed units. It does not mean to attach completed units to binders.

(b) Allotments. In any calendar quarter, it is the intention of the War Production Board to allot iron or steel to a fabricator of loose leaf metal parts and units in an amount equal to 18¾ percent by weight of metal fabricated by him into metal parts and units in the calendar year 1941.

(c) Order M-126. Conservation Order M-126 does not apply to binders.

(d) Restrictions on materials. No metal other than iron, steel, aluminum or zinc may be used in fabricating metal parts or units for binders. Zinc may be used only for the purpose of applying a protective coating or plating.

(e) How to get materials. Persons who wish to get materials to fabricate units or parts may get them pursuant to CMP regulations, or Priorities Regulation 13. In addition, they may apply under Priorities Regulation 25.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing Form WPB-1477 (PD-500), referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-188.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 4, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

SALES OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS BY WAREHOUSES AND DISTRIBUTORS

§ 3175.4 CMP Regulation 4—(a) Purpose and scope. This regulation describes the procedure to be followed by warehouses and distributors in delivering controlled materials from stock (including consigned stock) except that in the case of steel, deliveries from one distributor to another are governed by Orders M-21-b-1 and M-21-b-2.

Steel

(b) Definitions with respect to steel. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purpose of any other CMP regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Steel" means carbon steel, alloy steel, and wrought iron, in the forms and shapes listed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Distributor" means any person (including a warehouse, jobber, dealer or retailer) who is engaged in the business of receiving steel for sale or resale in the form received or after performing such operations as cutting to length, shearing to size, torch cutting or burning to shape, sorting and grading, pipe threading, or corrugating or otherwise forming sheets for roofing and siding; but a person who, in connection with any sale, bends, punches or performs any fabricating operation designed to prepare steel for final use or assembly shall not be deemed a distributor with respect to such sale.

(c) Rejection of orders. (1) A distributor must reject all orders except those which he is required or permitted to fill under paragraph (d).

(2) [Deleted Jan. 13, 1944.]

(3) A distributor must not deliver any steel on an authorized controlled material order bearing a specific allotment number except in the period for which the allotment was made or within 15 days before or 30 days after such period. For example, a distributor receiving an order bearing the allotment number N-1-4Q43 may fill the order at any time during the period September 15, 1943, through January 31, 1944. Orders bearing symbols such as MRO which do not have to bear any quarterly identification are not subject to this provision.

(4) A distributor may reject any order for steel on which the customer does not specify immediate delivery. Even if he elects to accept an authorized controlled material order calling for future delivery, he is not allowed to set aside the steel covered by such order. He must deliver it on any order calling for immediate delivery that he is required to fill under paragraphs (d) (1), (2) or (3), and may deliver it on any order calling for immediate delivery that he is permitted to fill under paragraph (d) (4).

(5) A distributor may reject any order calling for the delivery of steel which he does not have in stock or which he does not know is in transit to his stock.

(6) A distributor may reject all or any part of an order which the War Production Board specifically authorizes him to reject. If a delivery would deplete his stock to a point where his function in the distribution of steel would be seriously impaired, he may apply to the War Production Board for authority to reject the order and may delay filling the order until his application is acted upon.

(d) Orders which must be filled. A distributor must fill the following kinds of orders unless he is required or permitted to reject them under paragraph (c):

(1) A distributor must fill all authorized controlled material orders.

(2) A distributor must fill orders for delivery to farmers as required by Priorities Regulation No. 19.

(3) A distributor must fill orders bearing preference ratings of AAA.

(4) A distributor may fill other orders as follows, but is not required to do so regardless of whether rated or not:

(i) Orders in amounts of $25 or less. No endorsement is required on such orders.

(ii) Orders calling for delivery to one customer during any calendar quarter of not more than 10 tons of carbon steel, 1,000 pounds of stainless steel and 2 tons of other alloy steel, providing such deliveries of any one product group and type to one customer do not exceed the amounts shown below:

	Quantities in pounds per quarter unless otherwise stated
	Carbon (including wrought iron)	Stainless	Alloy (Other than stainless)
Tool steel, including drill rod	300	-------	300
Mechanical tubing	1,000*	100*	300*
Wire rope and strand	300*	-------	-------
Music Wire	300	-------	-------
All other steel products	20,000	1,000	4,000

*Feet per quarter.

Each order placed under this paragraph (d) (4) (ii) must be accompanied by or endorsed with both the standard form of certification in CMP Regulation No. 7 and the following sentence: "This order is placed under paragraph (d) (4) (ii) of CMP Regulation No. 4."

The purpose of this paragraph (d) (4) (ii) is to permit persons using small quantities of steel to obtain their requirements without the use of allotments; it is not to allow users of large quantities to obtain steel in addition to their purchases on authorized controlled material orders. Therefore, a person who buys any steel under this paragraph (d) (4) (ii) cannot receive any kind or type of steel from producers or distributors in any quarter in excess of the amounts shown in the above table whether it is received on authorized controlled material orders or otherwise. Consequently, in general, a person should plan to buy all his steel either under this paragraph or on authorized controlled material orders, but not both. Purchases of steel from persons other than producers or distributors do not affect the amount which can be bought under this paragraph. Such purchases are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation 13 and paragraph (u) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

Copper

(e) Definitions with respect to copper. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purpose of any other CMP regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Copper wire mill product" means bare, insulated or armored wire or cable for electrical conduction made from copper or copper base alloy or copper-clad steel containing more than 20% copper by weight.

(2) "Brass mill product" means sheet, wire, rod or tube made from copper or copper base alloy. This does not include copper wire mill products.

(3) "Warehouse" means any industrial supplier, mill supplier, plumbing supply house, electrical wholesaler or other person engaged in the business of distributing brass mill products or copper wire mill products to industry or trade otherwise than as a controlled materials producer and includes warehouses owned by mills.

(4) "Item of copper wire mill product" means any wire or cable made from copper, copper base alloy or copper-clad steel containing more than 20% copper by weight for electrical conduction which is different from all other items of that form by reason of one or more differences of its specifications, such as size, alloy or insulation. Differences in temper or length do not differentiate items.

(5) "Item of brass mill product" means sheet, wire, rod or tube made from copper or copper base alloy, which is different from all other items of that form, by reason of one or more differences of its specifications, such as size, shape, gauge, thickness or alloy. Differences in temper or length do not differentiate items except in the case of copper and brass sheet, where differences in temper will constitute different items.

(6) "Warehouse stock" means brass mill or copper wire mill products physically located in warehouse inventories, whether owned or held on consignment by the warehouse.

(f) Delivery of brass mill or copper wire mill products—(1) Delivery from warehouse stock. (i) A warehouse shall fill authorized controlled material orders for brass mill or copper wire mill products, in accordance with this regulation, if it can fill the orders from its stock. In no case, however, may a warehouse fill an order for brass mill or copper wire mill products unless the purchaser has the right to accept delivery under the provisions of this paragraph (f) which limit the amount of brass mill and copper wire mill products which a purchaser may get from a warehouse. A warehouse is entitled to rely on a certificate furnished by any of its customers under paragraph (f) (1) (iv) of this regulation, unless it knows or has reason to believe the certificate to be false.

(ii) Beginning May 15, 1944 no person shall place orders for delivery from warehouse stock of any item of brass mill product to any one destination, during any calendar week which aggregates more than 500 pounds gross weight, or, effective immediately, for delivery, during any one calendar month, which aggregate more than 2,000 pounds gross weight and no person shall accept any delivery in excess of these amounts. However, the 500 pound limitation does not apply to a single continuous length of rod, tube, pipe, sheet or strip and neither the 500 pound nor the 2,000 pound limitation applies to condenser tubes or to the resale of brass mill products obtained by brass mill warehouses through an authorization issued by a Regional Office of the War Production Board or by the Copper Recovery Inventory Branch, War Production Board, 350 5th Avenue, New York City, New York.

(iii) No person shall place orders for delivery from warehouse stock of any item of copper wire mill product to any one destination during any one calendar month, which aggregate more than 3,000 pounds copper content and no person shall accept any such delivery in excess of this amount, except that this limitation does not apply to the resale of copper wire mill products obtained by copper wire mill warehouses through an authorization issued by a Regional Office of the War Production Board or by the Copper Recovery Inventory Branch, War Production Board, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York City, New York.

(iv) No person shall place an order under this paragraph (f) (1) and no warehouse shall accept an order unless it is accompanied by, or endorsed with, a certificate in the form provided in CMP Regulation No. 7 (or a certificate prescribed by any regulation or order of the War Production Board for use in placing an authorized controlled material order), signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7.

(2) Shipments direct to customer or to fill under paragraph (f) (1) or (f) (2) to order material to fill a specific authorized controlled material order of a customer instead of filling it from stock, it may order the material either for direct shipment to the customer or for shipment via the warehouse, by placing on its order the customer's name and allotment number or symbol. Such an order is to be treated as an authorized controlled material order. The warehouse may not treat the delivery to the customer as made from stock and may not request a replacement. However, in the case of brass mill products, a warehouse may order from another warehouse only if it does not have the material in inventory and needs it for immediate delivery to a customer on an authorized controlled material order. It must state these facts on its order.

(3) Rejection of orders. (i) A warehouse must not fill any order for brass mill or copper wire mill products except those which it is required or permitted to fill specific orders. If a warehouse wants above.

(ii) A warehouse must not deliver any brass mill or copper wire mill product on an authorized controlled material order except in the quarter for which the allotment appearing on the order is valid. Orders bearing symbols such as "MRO" or "SO" which do not have to bear any quarterly identification may be filled during any quarter, but such orders must indicate when delivery is required if for other than immediate delivery.

(iii) A warehouse may reject any order calling for immediate delivery of brass mill or copper wire mill products which it does not have in stock or know to be in transit to its stock.

(iv) A warehouse may reject an order calling for future delivery. If it elects to accept the order, it must not set aside or hold any material to fill it.

Aluminum

(g) Definitions with respect to aluminum. The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this regulation and for the purpose of any other CMP Regulation unless otherwise indicated:

(1) "Aluminum" means aluminum in any of the forms and shapes constituting controlled material as defined in CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Distributor" means any person who has received or proposes to receive physical delivery of aluminum into his stock for sale or resale in the same form, or after performing such operations as cutting to length, shearing to size, sorting and grading.

(h) (1) Deliveries of aluminum by distributors. Each distributor shall, to the extent of his available stock, fill authorized controlled material orders, orders bearing the symbol AM, and orders which he has been specifically directed in writing by the War Production Board to fill (i) except that he may reject any such order calling for delivery at any one time, to any one person at any one destination, of more than 2,000 lbs. of any gage, alloy and size of aluminum sheet, or more than 900 lbs. of any alloy, shape and size of aluminum wire, rod or bar, or more than 600 lbs. of any alloy, size or shape of aluminum tubing, extrusions or structural shapes and (ii) except that he also may reject any order from another distributor.

(2) No distributor shall deliver any aluminum except to fill an authorized controlled material order or pursuant to a specific direction of the War Production Board.

(3) The restrictions of this regulation do not apply to aluminum powder, flake, pigment, or paste delivered for the purpose of making paint, ink, or other coating or liquid welding compound. Such aluminum powder, flake, pigment or paste may be delivered by a distributor on rated or unrated purchase orders subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

General Provisions Applicable to Steel, Brass Mill Products, Copper Wire Mill Products and Aluminum

(i) Directions to distributors and warehouses. Each distributor and warehouse shall comply with such directions as may be issued from time to time by the War Production Board with respect to making or withholding deliveries of steel, brass mill products, copper wire mill products or aluminum, and with respect to the earmarking of stocks of such material.

(j) Placement of authorized controlled material orders. A delivery order for steel, brass mill products, copper wire mill products or aluminum, shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order, if but only if,

(1) It is specifically designated as an authorized controlled material order by any regulation or order of the War Production Board; or

(2) It is endorsed with the appropriate certification and allotment number or symbol in the way prescribed by paragraph (s) (3) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(3) A delivery order for steel, brass mill products, copper wire mill products or aluminum, placed with a distributor or warehouse shall be considered as calling for immediate delivery unless the order specifically provides otherwise.

(k) Verbal delivery orders. Any delivery order requiring shipment within seven days may be placed verbally or by telephone by stating to the distributor or warehouse the substance of the information required by this regulation, Provided, That the person placing the order furnishes to the distributor or warehouse, within fifteen days after placing the same, written confirmation of the order complying with the requirements of this regulation. In case of failure to receive written confirmation within fifteen days, the distributor or warehouse shall not accept any other order from, or deliver any additional material of any kind to, the purchaser until such written confirmation is furnished. On or before the twentieth day of each month any distributor or warehouse who has received in the prior month a delivery order by telephone, shall notify the appropriate Regional Compliance Office of the War Production Board, of any case in which a purchaser has failed to furnish to him the written confirmation when due.

(l) Special provisions with respect to AAA orders. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this regulation, an authorized controlled material order placed with a distributor or warehouse bearing a rating of AAA shall be filled in preference to any other authorized controlled material orders regardless of time of receipt.

(m) Communications. All communications concerning this regulation should be addressed to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: CMP Regulation No. 4 (specify whether steel, copper or aluminum).

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1

DISTRIBUTORS OF AUTOMOTIVE REPLACEMENT PARTS

The definitions of "distributor" and "warehouse" appearing in paragraphs (b) (2) and (e) (3) of CMP Regulation No. 4 are not deemed to include persons engaged solely in the business of distributing automotive replacement parts. Consequently, such persons may sell, for use as automotive replacement parts, such items as bulk or spooled primary and spark plug wire, battery cables and magnet wire without reference to the terms of CMP Regulation No. 4, but subject to the provisions of General Limitation Order L-158 and other applicable regulations or orders (Issued Feb. 27, 1943)

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 6, Direction 1, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

SPECIAL PROCEDURE FOR AUTHORIZATION OF CONSTRUCTION

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Reg. 6:

(a) What this direction does. (1) GA 1456 is the form used in authorizing agricultural, commercial and industrial construction and all other kinds of construction except as indicated in paragraph (a) (2) below, and in giving priorities assistance needed in connection with the construction authorized. The form is also used in granting priorities assistance needed for construction work of the kind mentioned even though no authorization to do construction is needed. This direction tells how to buy controlled materials and other products and materials needed to carry on the construction work described in the form.

(2) This direction does not apply to a person doing construction work which has been authorized or rated on forms other than GA 1456. Other forms are used for housing (except farm houses, and hotels which use a GA 1456); for certain kinds of construction carried on by the Army and Navy; for water, gas, steam heating, electric power, telephone and telegraph facilities for use by the public; for petroleum facilities; and for certain other specialized kinds of construction which are provided for under blanket orders of the WPB or by special authorization forms. CMP Regulation No. 6 and other directions to that regulation tell how construction of the kinds mentioned in this sub-paragraph (a) (2) is handled under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(b) Applications and authorizations. An application for an authorization on Form GA-1456 should be made on Form WPB-617. An application to amend an authorization on Form GA-1456 should also be made on Form WPB-617. If the application is approved, Form GA-1456 will be issued assigning the allotment symbol F-6 and an appropriate preference rating which may be used to order all products, machinery, equipment, and material needed to complete the project, except as provided by the next paragraph.

(c) Limitation on the use of the allotment symbol and preference rating. The allotment symbol and preference rating assigned on Form GA-1456 may only be used to order materials and equipment needed to complete the project in accordance with the terms of the authorization. Furthermore, the symbol and rating may only be used to order those items of machinery and equipment of the kind that must be listed in Section III of Form WPB-617 which have been approved under the terms of the authorization on Form GA-1456. The applicant must construct in accordance with the construction limitations contained in Schedule A of CMP Regulation No. 6. The symbol and rating may not be used to purchase any material which the applicant is forbidden to use in construction by Schedule A of CMP Regulation No. 6. Certain exceptions to and special authorizations under the Schedule A may be obtained as explained in the next paragraph. If Schedule A is amended after the builder receives his GA-1456 authorization, he may construct according to either the amended schedule or the schedule in effect at the time his GA-1456 authorization was issued.

(c-1) Authorization of prohibited material and equipment. Schedule A of CMP Regulation No. 6 lists certain materials and equipment which may not be used in construction. If the applicant needs to use any of these materials or equipment in the construction covered by the application, he should ask for permission to use them, listing them separately as provided in the instructions on Application Form WPB-617. Appendix II of Schedule A lists certain types of equipment for which an additional special application must generally be made to the War Production Board in order to get it for a project. If the applicant needs to get any of this specially listed equipment for a project, and if Appendix II indicates that no special application form needs to be used, he may apply for permission to get this equipment on Form WPB-617, as directed by the instructions to that form. However, if Appendix II of the Construction Limitations indicates that a supplemental application must be filed to get the equipment, the applicant must file such supplemental application and must get his authorization under that application.

The War Production Board may authorize the applicant to get and use material and equipment on Schedule A, or equipment on Appendix II of Schedule A for which a special application is not required, by specific authorization on Form GA-1456. If it does so, the applicant may get and use the material or equipment, without further special authorization, notwithstanding the provisions of any other order of the War Production Board which requires authorization on a special form or letter. In order that the supplier will know that a delivery of a prohibited material or of equipment listed in Appendix II of Schedule A is permitted under this direction, the person getting an authorization for the material or equipment on Form GA-1456 should add to the standard certification in Priorities Regulation No. 7 the following: "Delivery approved on Form GA-1456 under Direction 1 to CMP Regulation No. 6."

(d) How to order materials. (1) The allotment symbol may be used to order controlled materials and Class A products by:

(i) The applicant;

(ii) By manufacturers of Class A products or Class A components of Class A products to be incorporated in the project;

(iii) By contractors and sub-contractors doing all or any part of the construction work.

The applicant must not use the allotment symbol or give others the right to use it before he has received a GA 1456 authorization. A manufacturer, contractor or subcontractor must not use it, or give others the right to use it, unless he has received a statement in substantially the following form endorsed on the order or contract by the person placing it, signed manually or in the way explained in Priorities Regulation 7:

Serial Number ------ (identifying project). You are authorized to use the allotment symbol P–6 to order controlled materials and Class A products needed to fill this order or contract.

It is not necessary to show the quantities of controlled materials in this statement. Its use shall constitute a representation by the person signing it to the person with whom the order or contract is placed, and to the War Production Board, subject to the penalties of section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, that he has the right to authorize the person with whom the order or contract is placed to use the allotment symbol to fill the order or contract. The standard form described in Priorities Regulation 7 cannot be used instead of the above statement.

(2) The preference rating may be used to order all materials other than controlled materials. If an applicant, contractor or subcontractor orders a Class A product the certificate described in Priorities Regulation 7 must be used in addition to the statement set forth in paragraph (d) (1) above. If a contractor or sub-contractor needs a preference rating to buy materials the rating may be given him by use of the certificate set forth in Priorities Regulation 7. In using the rating to buy all products and materials other than controlled materials or Class A products the certificate in Priorities Regulation 7 must be used and the allotment symbol P–6 must be used along with the preference rating for purposes of identification.

(3) Each person using the allotment symbol or preference rating must maintain at his regular place of business, for a period of two years, records of the right to use the symbol or preference rating, records, kept by serial number identifying the project, of the amount of materials ordered with the allotment symbol or rating and records showing that the materials so ordered were used for the purpose for which the right to use the symbol or rating was granted.

(4) The use of the allotment symbol P–6 will not be limited to any particular month or quarter and, therefore, no quarterly identification need be shown when using it. Authorized controlled material orders must, however, show the month in which delivery is requested. The allotment symbol and preference rating may not be used by the applicant in placing authorized controlled material orders or rated orders after the expiration date of the project but delivery after such date may be accepted on orders placed before then.

(5) The allotment symbol and preference rating must not be used to order materials in greater quantities, or on earlier dates, than needed for the construction. It may be used not only to order materials needed for the construction but also to replace in inventory materials used for the construction. Attention is called to CMP Regulation No. 2 which places a restriction on inventories of controlled materials which must be complied with.

(6) A person who has the right under this direction to use an allotment symbol in ordering controlled materials must endorse the symbol on his order and the form of certification set out in CMP Regulation No. 7, signed manually or in the way explained in Priorities Regulation No. 7. An order so endorsed is an authorized controlled material order (i) if it is a "delivery order" as defined in paragraph (b) (9) of CMP Regulation No. 6, (ii) if it is in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and (iii) if, when placed with a controlled materials producer, it is received at such time in advance as is specified in Schedule III of CMP Regulation No. 1, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same.

(e) [Deleted Sept. 11, 1944.]

(f) Transfers of allotments or preference ratings. Transfers of allotments or preference ratings by applicants (as distinguished from making an allotment or applying a rating to a supplier) shall not be made unless the transfer of the related authorization to begin construction is approved by the authorizing agency.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

PART 3274—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES

[Limitation Order L–201, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

AUTOMOTIVE TIRE CHAINS, TRACTOR TIRE CHAINS, AND CHAIN PARTS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of critical materials entering into the manufacture of tire chains for use on passenger autos, commercial vehicles, and farm tractors for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3274.76 Limitation Order L–201— (a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Tire chain" means:

(i) A complete chain assembly, whether or not reinforced, made for use on a tire of a passenger auto, commercial vehicle, or farm tractor in order to increase the traction of the tire.

(ii) Any cross chain, lock, hook, plate, or side chain, whether or not reinforced, made for use in repairing a complete tire chain.

(iii) Any chain assembly of the strap-on or single-chain type.

(2) "Passenger auto" means any passenger vehicle propelled by an internal combustion engine and having a seating capacity of less than eleven persons.

(3) "Commercial vehicle" means any light, medium, or heavy motor truck, truck-tractor, truck trailer, off-the-highway motor vehicle, passenger carrier having a seating capacity of eleven or more persons, or tractor other than a farm tractor.

(4) "Consumer" means the owner or operator of the vehicle for which tire chains are required, or the user of such tire chains for any other purpose.

(b) Limits on types and sizes of tire chains. (1) A producer must not make any tire chains containing any metal other than low carbon steel, or any tire chains which are plated with metal.

(2) A producer must not make any tire chains except for use on the following sizes of tires:

(i) Tires for passenger autos: 6.00–16 (in "light car special" type only); 6.50–16; 7.00–16; 7:50–16.

(ii) Tires for commercial vehicles other than farm tractors: 6.00–16, 6.50–20/32 x 6; 7.00–20; 7:50–16; 7.50–17; 7.50–20/34 x 7; 8.25–20; 9.00–20; 9.75–20.

(iii) Tires for farm tractors: As required.

(3) All tire chain produced for passenger autos or commercial vehicles must be of the types called A, C, G, and M in Tire Chain Specifications No. 7140, copyrighted by The Chain Institute, Inc., Chicago, Illinois, published July 1, 1940.

(c) Production of specially sized tire chain. Tire chain in types and sizes other than those permitted by paragraphs (b) (2) and (b) (3) may also be made when individually ordered for delivery by the producer directly to the consumer. This is an exception to paragraphs (b) (2) and (b) (3).

(d) Limits on production—(1) For passenger autos. Between April 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945, a producer must not use in the production of tire chain for passenger autos more than 24 percent of the total weight of metals used in the production of all tire chain (whether for passenger autos or commercial vehicles) sold by him during the period April 1, 1941–March 31, 1942.

(2) For commercial vehicles. Between April 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945, a producer must not use in the production of tire chain for commercial vehicles more than 24 percent of the total weight of metals used in the production of all tire chain (whether for passenger autos or commercial vehicles) sold by him during the period April 1, 1941–March 31, 1942.

(3) For farm tractors. Between April 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945, a producer must not use in the production of tire chain for farm tractors more than the total weight of metals used in the production of all tire chain for farm tractors sold by him either during the year April 1, 1940–March 31, 1941, or the year April 1, 1941–March 31, 1942, whichever is greater.

(4) Increased production in critical labor areas and requirement for special authorization. Notwithstanding the increase in production permitted by this order, no producer's plant located in a Group I or Group II Labor Shortage Area as classified by the War Manpower Commission shall, during the period April 1, 1944–March 31, 1945, put into process for the production of tire chain under this order a total weight of metals in excess of that legally put into process during the period April 1, 1943–March 31, 1944, unless specific authorization to do so is obtained from the War Production Board. The policy of the War Production Board will be to authorize the using of an increased weight of metals for such production so as to avoid increasing requirements for labor in labor shortage areas. Any producer seeking specific authorization under this paragraph should file a written statement in triplicate with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., explaining fully how labor requirements for the requested increase will be met.

(5) Exclusions in determining quota. In determining production quotas under this paragraph (d) sales of tire chain during the base period to or for the account of persons described in paragraph (e) below shall not be included.

(6) Scheduling of tire chain production. Each producer may schedule production of the quantity of tire chain which he is allowed to produce by this paragraph (d) regardless of preference ratings on orders for tire chain or other kinds of chain. An exception to this rule is that production of tire chain under this order shall not be permitted to delay the production and delivery of any order for tire chain or other kinds of chain rated AAA; or to delay the production or delivery more than thirty days beyond the required delivery date of any order for tire or other kinds of chain for delivery to or for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(e) Exceptions to applicability of this order. With the exception of the restrictions contained in paragraph (b) (1), the restrictions of this order shall not apply to:

(1) Any contract or purchase order for material to be delivered to, or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Selective Service System, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, or the Treasury Department under Treasury Procurement Supply (TPS) contract.

(2) Any contract or purchase order placed by any agency of the United States Government for material to be delivered under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(3) Any contract or purchase order for material which is to be ultimately delivered to the government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Exceptions and appeals— (1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to use more metal in the production of tire chains than the quota fixed in paragraph (d) (1), (d) (2) or (d) (3) (including a person who has no quota under this order) may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. The provisions of paragraph (d) (6) do not apply to production authorized under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order other than the restrictions in paragraphs (d) (1), (d) (2) and (d) (3) shall be made on Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–500) or by filing a letter in triplicate with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch to which the appeal relates, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. No appeal should be filed from the provisions of paragraphs (d) (1), (d) (2) and (d) (3).

(i) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall unless otherwise directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Tools Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–201.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS' DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–13–a, as Amended Sept. 11, 1944]

METAL FURNITURE AND FIXTURES

§ 3291.50 Limitation Order L–13–a— (a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the production of metal furniture and fixtures.

(2) "Metal furniture and fixtures" includes the following: Swivel chairs containing any metal other than upholstery springs, casters and joining hardware; theatre seats; school furniture; insulated metal filing cabinets, safes; metal visible reference panels; other metal visible reference equipment; metal shelving; metal filing cabinets other than insulated filing cabinets; wood filing cabinets containing more than two pounds of essential operating steel hardware per drawer; metal lockers, metal storage cabinets; metal desks, metal office chairs; metal office tables, including typewriter and office machine stands (except those which are integral parts of the machine which they support); metal bank vault equipment; metal safe deposit boxes; metal office counters; any other metal furniture and fixtures, including but not limited to, waste paper baskets, metal trays and wire baskets. The definition includes any furniture and fixtures whether or not specifically mentioned, containing more than 5% of metal in the net weight of the finished product other than such minimum amount of iron or steel as is essentially required for nails, nuts, bolts, screws, clasps, rivets, and other joining hardware for the construction and assembly of non-metal structural parts, and other than casters and upholstery springs. It does not include time card racks subject to L–54–c, medical and surgical furniture and related equipment as defined in L–214, Schedule III; dental equipment, laboratory furniture, metal drafting tables, metal doors, metal door frames, and metal shutters subject to Limitation Order L–142, metal household furniture subject to Limitation Order L–62, or graphic arts machinery subject to Limitation Order L–326 wood filing cabinets containing not more than two pounds of essential operating steel hardware per drawer and wood typewriter desks containing metal typewriter mechanisms subject to Order L–260–a.

(3) "Preferred order" means any contract or purchase order calling for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(b) Restrictions on production. No manufacturer shall produce any new item of metal furniture and fixtures, except:

(1) Steel seating equipment designed for use at a work bench or production machine; steel work benches where required for safety, steel foremen's desks, shop boxes, stacking boxes, tool cases, and tool room shelving inserts.

(2) To fill preferred orders (i) which state on their face that the products are for use on a steel seagoing vessel or at an advance military base outside the 48 United States and the District of Columbia; or (ii) for insulated filing cabinets, safes and metal visible reference panels, regardless of where they are to be used. A manufacturer may not produce any item to fill preferred orders under this paragraph until the preferred order is actually received by him.

(3) Such additional metal visible reference panels as can be produced out of 40% of the aggregate weight of iron and steel used by a manufacturer in the production of metal visible reference panels in the year ending June 30, 1941.

(c) No manufacturer shall use in the production of visible reference panels any new steel other than flat rolled sheets or strip less than twelve inches in width.

NOTE: Paragraph (d) formerly (c), redesignated and amended Sept. 11, 1944.

(d) Restrictions on transfer. No manufacturer shall sell or deliver any new item of metal furniture and fixtures, except:

(1) To fill orders of persons who use metal furniture and fixtures when the order is not for more than $25.00 worth of such metal furniture and fixtures. No person may divide orders for the purpose of evading the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) To fill orders for items listed under paragraph (b) (1).

(3) To fill preferred orders as specified in paragraph (b) (2).

(4) As authorized on Form WPB–1319. This form should be prepared in accordance with "Instructions for approved uses of Form WPB–1319" and filed by the ultimate consumer with the nearest office of the War Production Board, except in the following instances: Applications involving purchases by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration as well as cases involving tax amortization should be filed with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–13–a; applications involving export should be filed with the Foreign Economic Administration, Requirements and Supply Branch, Washington, D. C. If approval is granted, the ultimate consumer may certify by endorsement on his purchase order in the standard form prescribed in Priorities Regulation 7, adding the case number of the authorization on Form WPB–1319 he has received, or if he prefers he may certify as follows:

The War Production Board has authorized me to accept delivery on this order under the terms of Order L–13–a with which I am familiar. Delivery approved on Form WPB–1319, Case No. .....

.....
Signature

A person receiving an authorization on Form WPB–1319 may only place his order with the manufacturer named in the application at the time the application was made.

(e) Finished item deliveries. No person shall deliver, offer for sale, or accept delivery of any metal furniture and fixtures or any metal furniture and fixture parts which he knows or has reason to believe was made, assembled or delivered in violation of this order.

(f) The restrictions of this order do not apply to the rebuilding or altering of previously fabricated parts or products when the rebuilt or altered product is to be used for the same purpose as that for which the fabricated part or product was originally intended.

NOTE: Paragraph (g) formerly (d) redesignated Sept. 11, 1944.

(g) Reports. On or before the tenth day following the close of each calendar month, every manufacturer of safes, insulated files, or visible reference panels, shall file with the War Production Board, Form WPB–1600, according to the instructions accompanying that form. This reporting provision has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

NOTE: Paragraph (h) formerly (e) redesignated and amended Sept. 11, 1944.

(h) Exceptions and appeals—(1) Production under Priorities Regulation 25. Any person who wants to produce any metal furniture and fixtures the production of which is prohibited or restricted by paragraph (b) of this order or any person who wants to use more iron or steel than he is permitted by paragraph (b) (3) to use in the manufacture of metal visible reference panels (including a person who has no quota under that paragraph) may apply for permission to do so as explained in Priorities Regulation 25. All the provisions of the order except the provisions of paragraph (b) must be complied with when authorization to manufacture is obtained under Priorities Regulation 25.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order other than the restrictions of paragraph (b) should be filed on Form WPB–1477 (in triplicate) with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates. No appeal should be filed from the restrictions of paragraph (b).

NOTE: Paragraphs (i) and (j) formerly (i) and (g) redesignated Sept. 11, 1944.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Communications. All reports to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order except appeals, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–13–a.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RMPR 289,[1] Amdt. 12]

DAIRY PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 289 is amended in the following respects:

1. In the table of contents, the title of section 24 is changed to read:

24. Maximum prices for animal feeds made from milk products.

2. Section 1 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Animal feeds made from milk products.

3. Footnote 2 to section 1 is amended to read as follows:

[2] Casein which is manufactured for human consumption or which is especially prepared and packed for laboratory purposes shall be priced pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation 280.

4. Section 22 (d) (3) is hereby revoked.

5. Section 24 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 24 Maximum prices for animal feeds made from milk products. (a) What products are covered. This section establishes maximum prices for the following animal feeds made entirely from milk products: in dried form, skim milk, sour skim milk, buttermilk, whey, and whey solubles (all of which are referred to in this section as "dried milk animal feeds"); and the same products in condensed, concentrated, or evaporated form (all of which are referred to in this section as "condensed milk animal feeds"). This section also provides a method for establishing maximum prices for an animal feed product composed of a mixture of 50% or more by weight or volume of milk product ingredients and 50% or less of non-milk feed ingredients. (These mixtures are referred to in this section as "mixed animal feeds".) The animal feeds made entirely from milk products for which maximum prices are established in this section are those which meet the standards of the definitions listed in the next paragraph (b).

(b) Definitions. (1) "Dried skim milk" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of water from clean, sound skim milk. It contains not more than 8 percent of moisture.

(2) "Dried sour skim milk" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of water from clean, sound skim milk which has been soured by a suitable culture of lactic bacteria. It contains not more than 8 percent of moisture.

(3) "Dried buttermilk" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of water from clean, sound buttermilk derived from natural cream to which no foreign substances have been added, excepting such as are necessary and permitted in the manufacture of butter. It contains not more than 8 percent of moisture, not more than 13 percent of mineral matter (ash), and not less than 5 percent of butterfat, as determined by the Roese-Gottlieb method.

(4) "Dried whey" for animal feeds is the by-product resulting from the manufacture of cheese or casein, either or both. This product shall contain at least 65 percent of lactose (milk sugar).

(5) "Dried whey solubles" for animal feeds is the residual by-product resulting from the partial removal of milk sugar or albumen, or both, from clean, sound whey to which no foreign substances have been added except such as are necessary in the manufacture of milk sugar.

(6) "Condensed skim milk" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of a considerable portion of water from clean, sound skim milk. It contains not less than 27 percent of total solids.

(7) "Evaporated, concentrated, or condensed sour skim milk" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of a considerable portion of water from clean, sound skim milk which has been soured by a suitable culture of lactic bacteria. It contains not less than 27 percent of total solids.

(8) "Evaporated, concentrated, or condensed buttermilk" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of a considerable portion of water from clean, sound buttermilk derived from natural cream to which no foreign substances have been added excepting such as are permitted and necessary in the manufacture of butter. It contains not less than 27 percent of total solids, not less than 2 percent of butterfat, and not more than .14 percent of ash for each percent of solids.

(9) "Condensed whey" for animal feeds is the product resulting from the removal of a considerable portion of water from clean sound cheese or casein whey, either or both.

(10) "Condensed whey solubles" for animal feeds is the residual by-product resulting from the partial removal of milk sugar or albumen, or both, from clean, sound whey to which no foreign substances have been added except such as are necessary in the manufacture of milk sugar. It contains not less than 27 percent of total solids.

(11) "Mixed animal feed" as used in this section means an animal feed product containing 50% or more by weight or volume of milk-product ingredients and less than 50% by weight or volume of non-milk feed ingredients.

(12) "Wholesaler" means any person who buys animal feeds, unloads such animal feeds into a warehouse, and resells them in their original containers without mixing them.

[1] 9 F.R. 5140, 5427, 5429, 5588, 5917, 5919, 5921, 6105, 7699, 10090, 10679.

(13) "Sale at retail" means a sale and delivery of animal feeds to consumers in quantities not exceeding 500 pounds per sale for dried milk animal feeds and 10 barrels per sale for condensed milk animal feeds.

(14) "Consumer" means any person who buys animal feeds for the purpose of actually feeding them to animals or poultry.

(c) Maximum prices for sales and deliveries by manufacturers—(1) 10,000 pounds or more. Maximum prices for sales and deliveries of milk animal feeds by a manufacturer or any person other than a wholesaler or retailer, to any person, shall be the prices listed in Table A below for quantities of 10,000 pounds or more.

TABLE A

Animal feed products:	Cents per lb.
Dried skim milk	10.0
Dried sour skim milk	10.0
Dried buttermilk	10.0
Dried whey	8.0
Dried whey solubles	8.0
Condensed skim milk (not less than 27% total solids)	3.75
Evaporated, concentrated or condensed sour skim milk (not less than 27% total solids)	3.75
Evaporated, concentrated or condensed buttermilk (not less than 27% total solids	3.75
Condensed whey (not less than 27% total solids)	2.75
Condensed whey solubles (not less than 80% total solids)	4.6

For condensed whey only, the following additions to the maximum price set out in the above table may be made if the condensed whey contains more than 27% of total solids; For each 1% of total solids over 27% but not over 65%, 1/100 of a cent may be added to the maximum price per pound but in no event shall the maximum price exceed 5.79 cents per pound for 65% or higher solids content. No addition to maximum prices for higher solids content is permitted on other milk animal feeds.

(2) Increases on sales of less than 10,000 pounds. On sales by a manufacturer, or any person other than a wholesaler or a retailer, of any of the milk animal feeds named in Table A in quantities of less than 10,000 pounds, the following additions may be made to the maximum prices named:

600 to 9,999 pounds inclusive, add 1/10 cent per pound
Less than 600 pounds, add 1/4 cent per pound.

(3) The above maximum prices shall be f. o. b. the seller's plant where the milk animal feeds were produced.

(4) If the sale is made on a delivered basis, the maximum delivered price shall be the f. o. b. price listed in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above for the quantity sold, plus the lowest available freight rate from the seller's point of production of the finished product to the purchaser's receiving point, but charges for freight shall in no case exceed the amount actually paid by the seller for transportation of the given shipment.

(d) Maximum prices for sales and deliveries by wholesalers. The maximum prices for milk animal feeds sold by wholesalers are the prices set out in subparagraph (c) (1) above (for quantities of 10,000 pounds or more) plus 1/4 cent per pound, plus all transportation charges actually paid by the wholesaler for moving such animal feeds to his place of business at the lowest available freight rate.

Transportation charges to be added shall be determined by dividing the total charge for a shipment by the number of pounds (net weight) shipped. If, however, the wholesaler buys animal feeds on a delivered basis, he shall calculate his cost for the animal feeds by dividing the delivered cost to him of the animal feeds by the number of pounds (net weight) delivered, and then add 1/4 cent per pound of net weight to determine his maximum selling price.

If the wholesaler delivers the animal feeds to his buyer he may add to the maximum prices established by this paragraph the lowest of the following delivery charges:

(1) His actual cost for transporting the animal feeds from his shipping point to buyer's receiving point.

(2) His customary delivery charge, if he had an established charge for such deliveries prior to September 14, 1944.

(3) The lowest published common carrier rate for shipping a like quantity of animal feeds from his shipping point to buyer's receiving point.

(e) Maximum prices for sales and deliveries at retail. Maximum prices for retail sales and deliveries to consumers, in quantities specified below, shall be calculated as follows:

(1) Take the maximum price per pound set out in paragraph (c) (1), if the sale is made by a manufacturer, or the price paid to the supplier, if the sale is made by a dealer who is not a manufacturer;

(2) Add the appropriate one of the following amounts:

Dried milk animal feeds	Condensed milk animal feeds
100 to 500 pounds, add 1/2 cent per pound	2 to 10 barrels, add 1/2 cent per pound.
99 pounds or less, add 3/4 cent per pound	Less than 2 barrels, add 3/4 cent per pound.

(3) Add the transportation charges, if any, actually paid by the retail seller in moving the animal feeds to his place of business, at the lowest available freight rate. These transportation charges shall be calculated by dividing the total shipping charges for the shipment by the number of pounds (net weight) shipped.

If, however, the animal feeds have been bought on a delivered basis, the seller shall calculate his costs by dividing the delivered cost to him by the number of pounds (net weight) delivered, and then adding the appropriate amount from (2) above.

If the seller delivers the animal feeds he may add to these maximum prices the lower of the following delivery charges:

His actual cost for transporting the animal feeds from the place of business at which the feeds were sold to the buyer's receiving point; or

His customary delivery charge, if he had an established charge for such deliveries prior to September 14, 1944.

(f) Containers.—(1) Condensed milk animal feeds sold in barrels. The maximum prices for condensed milk animal feeds are for such products packed in new or reconditioned used tight wooden barrels or other equally efficient containers. If the buyer returns used barrels to the seller, an allowance shall be made of the actual market value of such barrels.

(2) Condensed milk animal feeds sold in less-than-barrel quantities. If the condensed milk animal feeds are packed and sold in containers smaller than barrels, furnished by the seller, 1/4 cent per pound container cost may be added to the maximum price for half-barrels or larger, up to barrel size; and 1/2 cent per pound container cost for less than half-barrel containers. No such addition to maximum price may be made if the buyer furnishes the container.

(3) Dried animal feeds. The maximum prices for dried animal feeds are for products packed in a suitable container such as a tight-woven burlap bag. An allowance of the market value of the bags shall be made if bags are returned by the buyer to the seller.

(g) Combinations of milk animal feeds. If two or more of the milk animal feeds defined in paragraph (b) are manufactured together, or sold in one container, the price for such combined milk animal feeds shall be no higher than the maximum price for the lowest-priced milk animal feed which it contains. For example, if whey and skim milk are combined in the drying process, or are put in the same container after drying, the resulting product shall be sold at no more than the applicable whey price.

(h) Mixed animal feeds. When one of the milk animal feeds is mixed with a non-milk feed ingredient to form a mixed animal feed as defined in paragraph (b), the procedure in establishing the requested maximum prices shall be as follows:

For mixed animal feeds manufactured and sold before September 14, 1944, the manufacturer shall within sixty days from September 14, 1944, apply on OPA Form 635–1095 for a maximum price for each mixed animal feed manufactured by him. The following data and the information specified in the application form shall be supplied:

(1) Name of product; nature and degree of processing; types of containers.

(2) Cost of production, including ingredient cost, labor, handling, marketing, and general administrative expenses.

(3) Container costs.

(4) Volume of sales to wholesalers, retailers, and consumers by size of container in large, medium, and small quantities.

(5) Requested maximum price.

(6) Method used in determining requested maximum price.

The original and two copies of the application for a maximum price for each mixed animal feed shall be sent by registered mail to the Secretary, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. Until a different maximum price is established by the Price Administrator, the mixed animal feed shall be sold at a price no higher than the maximum price that is in effect on September 14, 1944.

In placing a value on milk animal feeds used in the manufacture of the mixed product, no figure shall be used which is higher than the price established in this section for the lowest-priced milk animal feed used in the particular mixed product.

If the Administrator does not approve the maximum price suggested in the application, he shall, within sixty days from the date the application is received, issue an order or letter order establishing a different maximum price, or extend for another sixty days the period for determination of a price. If the Administrator has not acted within sixty days from receipt of the application, either to fix a price or to extend the period for determination, the applicant's suggested maximum price shall be deemed to be accepted as of the expiration of said sixty days. If an extension has been granted, but no different maximum price has been established, the applicant's suggested maximum price shall be deemed to be accepted as of the expiration of the sixty-day extension.

As to mixed animal feeds that have not been sold before September 14, 1944 the manufacturer shall, before the mixed feed is offered for sale, submit an application on OPA Form 635–1095, following the instructions set out in this paragraph (h) above and furnishing all of the information that is pertinent to his application, including a suggested maximum price. The Administrator shall, within thirty days from the date the application is received, either approve said suggested price as the maximum price for the product; or set a different maximum price, or set a temporary maximum price to be effective for a limited time until the Administrator can establish a maximum price. If the Administrator does not act in one of these three ways within said thirty days the suggested price named by the applicant shall be the maximum price for the product.

Failure by a manufacturer of a mixed animal feed to file an application for a maximum price is a violation of this regulation.

(i) Animal feeds not covered by this section. Sales of mixed animal feeds composed of milk ingredients constituting less than 50% in weight or volume are governed by the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 378. Sales of animal feeds composed of milk ingredients constituting more than 50 percent in weight or volume, if not covered by this section, are governed by the provisions of MPR 280.

(j) Method of computation and fractions of a cent. In computing maximum prices pursuant to this section all calculations shall be carried to the second decimal of a cent to arrive at the maximum price per pound. Any fractions of a cent resulting after the price for the total quantity sold has been calculated shall be adjusted to the next higher cent, if it is one-half cent or more, and to the next lower cent if it is less than one-half cent.

(k) Discounts and allowances. The maximum prices established by this section shall not be increased by brokerage fees, commissions or other charges. However, the maximum prices shall be decreased to reflect the seller's customary discounts and allowances including those for prompt payment.

(l) Evasion. Specifically, the provisions of this section shall not be evaded by any requirement by the seller or agreement between the buyer and seller that a seller may ship or a buyer receive animal feeds in smaller quantity than that which was actually ordered or would have been ordered but for the attempted evasion. Nor shall the provisions of this section be evaded by the buyer furnishing, or returning to, the seller used containers at a price or allowance other than their actual market value.

(m) Records. The invoice which the seller is required to deliver to the buyer under section 5 of this regulation shall, for condensed whey, state the percentage of total solids in the product. This is in addition to the other information required to be stated on the invoice. If the invoice covers a combination of milk animal feeds, as referred to in paragraph (g), it shall also specify the products of which the combination is composed.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This amendment shall become effective September 14, 1944.

Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[RMPR 165,[1] Amdt. 3]

SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. The first sentence of section 1 preceding the colon is amended to read as follows: "This regulation covers all services previously covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended, Services. It also covers all other services except:"

2. The first sentence of section 2 preceding the colon is amended to read as follows: "On and after August 1, 1944, regardless of any contract or other obligation:"

3. Section 4 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) The maximum price of your closest competitor for the same service to a purchaser of the same class,[2] if you did not actually supply it or offer it for supply in March 1942 to any purchaser. However, you may not take your closest competitor's maximum price if such price is based on his offering price.

4. A new sentence is added to section 13 to read as follows: "Such sales slip or receipt must show your name and address, the date, the description and quantity of each service sold, the price charged for each such service, and the price charged for any parts or commodities furnished with the service."

5. Section 14 is amended in the following respects:

a. Section 14 (b) (2) is amended by adding a clause to the last sentence thereof to read as follows: ", insofar as it applies to non-retail services which you sell."

b. Section 14 (b) (3) is amended by adding a sentence after the first sentence thereof to read as follows: "If you have previously filed a statement of your maximum prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended, and your maximum prices have not changed under this regulation, you need not refile under this regulation."

6. The first sentence of section 15 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) If you fail to keep the records or file the statements as required by section 14, or if such records or statements are incorrect, or if you fail to apply to OPA for the establishment of a maximum price under section 5, if you are required to do so, OPA may issue an order establishing maximum prices for the services you sell in line with prices established by this regulation.

7. The first sentence in the undesignated paragraph following section 16 (a) (3) is amended by changing the word "limitation" to "limitations".

8. The first word of the second sentence of section 16 (b) is deleted.

This Amendment No. 3 shall become effective September 14, 1944.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 5C,[1] Amdt. 151]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale accompanying this amendment issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5C is amended in the following respects:

In § 1394.8153 (a) (1) the last sentence is amended to read as follows:

No transfer may be made pursuant to this subparagraph in exchange for a coupon detached before the presentation of the coupon book to the transferor, except that a transfer may be made in exchange for any Class A coupon, numbered "12", detached before the presentation of the coupon book if the license number and the state of registration noted on the coupon pursuant to § 1394.8004 (e) (1) is the same as the license number and the state of registration of the vehicle noted on the cover of the coupon book presented at the time of transfer.

This amendment shall become effective September 9, 1944.

AUTHORITY: Sees. 1 to 10, inclusive (§ 1439.-14), issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE REGULATION AND DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Explanation of the regulation. (a) This regulation establishes maximum prices for sales of natural condition unpacked dried prunes and raisins of the 1944 and later crops by producers, dehydrators and dry-yard operators and by all other persons for whom no maximum prices are provided by other maximum price regulations.

(b) This regulation applies in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(c) This regulation supersedes the provisions of all other maximum price regulations and orders as to the commodities and sellers covered.

(d) This regulation becomes effective September 9, 1944.

SEC. 2. Definitions. When used in this regulation the term:

"Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, and their legal successors or representatives. The term includes the United States, its agencies, other governments, their political subdivisions and their agencies.

"Producer" means a person who grows the kind of prunes or raisin variety grapes (including currants) being priced and dries or dehydrates them or has them dried or dehydrated by another person.

"Dehydrator" or "dry-yard operator" means a person other than a producer who dries or dehydrates the kind of prunes or raisin variety grapes (including currants) being priced for other persons or who purchases the kind of prunes or raisin variety grapes (including currants) being priced and dries or dehydrates them.

"Natural condition unpacked", as applied to dried prunes, means dried prunes in sacks or lug boxes or in bulk as usually delivered by producers to processors for processing; and as applied to raisins, means raisins (including currants) unstemmed in sweat boxes or picking boxes as usually delivered by producers for processing.

"Sale" includes sales, dispositions, exchanges, leases and other transfers, and contracts and offers to do any of those things. The terms "sell", "seller", "buy", "buyer", "purchase" and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

"Price" means the consideration requested or received in connection with the sale of a commodity or the supplying of a service.

"Records" means written evidences of transactions and includes books, of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents, including written evidence of the tests pursuant to which prices are figured.

ARTICLE II—PRICING PROVISIONS

SEC. 3. Maximum prices for sales of natural condition unpacked dried prunes and raisins by producers, dehydrators or dry-yard operators. (a) The maximum prices per ton, for sales of natural condition unpacked dried prunes by producers, dehydrators or dry-yard operators, shall be as follows:

SEC. 4. Adjustments for transportation and payment after test. (a) The word "seller", when used in this section, shall mean the producer, dehydrator or dry-yard operator.

(b) Each seller shall ascertain the rail shipping point nearest to his ranch or place of business. The maximum price of the seller shall include delivery to the buyer at that point.

(c) In the event that the seller and buyer desire to have delivery made to a point other than the nearest rail shipping point mentioned above, the transportation charges shall be adjusted or allowance made for transportation, as follows:

(1) If delivery is made by a vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, the seller may charge the purchaser the amount by which the truck rate from the seller's ranch or place of business to the actual point of delivery exceeds $1.25 per ton. For the purpose of figuring the truck rate the following schedule of mileages and rates applicable thereto shall be used:

Miles over—	Miles but not over—	Rate (in cents per 100 pounds)
0	3	4½
3	5	5½
5	10	6
10	15	6½

200	220	30
220	240	31½
240	260	33½
260	280	35

However, wherever the Office of Price Administration or any of its regional or district offices has adjusted the maximum prices that may be charged by any carrier other than a common carrier for the service of transporting natural condition unpacked dried prunes or raisins by motor truck between any two points in the state where delivery is made, the prices so adjusted shall be used for the purpose of figuring the truck rate instead of those named above.

(2) If delivery is made by a vehicle owned or controlled by the buyer, the buyer shall deduct the sum of $1.25 per ton from the seller's maximum price.

(3) Any deduction or credit for hauling or transportation shall be itemized by the buyer on the settlement sheet rendered to the seller.

(d) For natural condition unpacked dried prunes, payment shall be made according to sack or box test at the purchaser's receiving point or actual grader test made at the time of delivery to the buyer's plant, and on estimates of grade or on visual grading.

(e) For natural condition unpacked raisins of any type covered by this regulation, payment shall be made according to test at the buyer's receiving point and the weight of sand, as determined by actual test, shall be deducted from the net weight of the raisins sold or delivered.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales of natural condition unpacked dried prunes and raisins by persons in special situations. Any person who sells natural condition unpacked dried prunes or raisins and for whom no maximum price is provided by this or any other maximum price regulation shall take as his maximum price in each case the maximum price fixed for the producer, dehydrator or dry-yard operator in sections 3 and 4. The point at which he received delivery of the item shall be deemed to be his ranch or place of business for the purpose of figuring transportation charges under section 4.

SEC. 6. Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export natural condition unpacked dried prunes or raisins shall be determined in accordance with the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[1] and amendments.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 7. Records which must be kept. Every person who makes sales covered by this regulation shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged in those sales.

SEC. 8. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery. But no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon a pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization. The authorization will be given by order.

SEC. 9. Compliance with the regulation.—(a) No selling or buying above maximum prices. Regardless of any contract or obligation no person shall sell or deliver, or buy or receive in the course of trade, any item of natural condition unpacked dried prunes or raisins at a price higher than the maximum price established for it by this regulation. However, prices lower than the maximum price may be charged and paid.

(b) Evasion. (1) Nor shall any person evade a maximum price, directly or indirectly, whether by commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege; by tying-requirement or other trade understanding; by any change of style of pack; by a business practice relating to grading, labeling, or packaging, or in any other way.

(2) No buyer shall pay and no seller shall receive any buying commission or other consideration in addition to the price, directly or indirectly, in connection with the sale of his fruit.

(3) Storage costs incurred by the seller on goods owned by him shall not be added to his maximum prices. Storage by the seller of goods owned by the buyer may be charged for in accordance with the maximum price regulation applicable to such services.

(4) The practice known as toll packing, by which a producer, dehydrator or dry-yard operator arranges to have his fruit processed by a processor and to pay a fee for processing, is prohibited, except when the following conditions are complied with:

(i) The owner of the fruit must retain title during the processing.

(ii) The owner of the fruit must assume all risk of loss or spoilage during the processing, except for loss caused by the misconduct or neglect of the processor, for which the processor would be legally liable.

(iii) The processor shall not negotiate the sale of the processed fruit as agent for the owner, nor receive any fee or commission in connection with the sale of the fruit by the owner.

(iv) The processor shall return to the owner the identical fruit delivered by the owner for processing and shall not substitute other fruit on a quantity equivalent or other basis.

(v) The owner shall not sell the fruit to the processor who processed the goods for the owner and the processor shall not purchase it from the owner.

(d) Enforcement. Any person violating a provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension provision, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(e) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[2] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 10. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a general modification of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

This regulation shall become effective September 9, 1944.

NOTE: All record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 9th day of September 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 11,[1] Amdt. 25]

FUEL OIL

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 11 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 36 (b) (1), (b) (2) and (b) (3) of Appendix A is amended by substituting the phrase "August 31, 1945" for the phrase "September 30, 1944" wherever it appears.

2. Section 36 (b) (3) (i) of Appendix A is revoked.

3. Section 36 (c) of Appendix A is amended by substituting the phrase "September 30, 1945" for the phrase "October 30, 1944" wherever it appears.

4. Section 36 (d) of Appendix A is amended by substituting the phrase "through August 31, 1945" for the phrase "only during the validity period of the coupon sheet."

5. Section 36 (e) of Appendix A is amended by substituting the phrase "September 30, 1945" for the phrase "November 30, 1944."

6. Section 1394.5501 (a) is amended by inserting the phrase "other than Class 4, 5 and 6 coupon sheets to which any Period 4, Period 5 or definite value coupons are still attached" beteween the word "sheets" and the word "shall."

7. Section 1394.5554 (a) (1) is added to read as follows:

(1) Every dealer or primary supplier who, at the close of business September 30, 1944, has on deposit a consumer's Class 4, 5 or 6 coupon sheet must, not later than October 10, 1944, give that consumer written notice by mail of the gallonage value of the consumer's period 4, period 5 and definite value coupons not yet detached from that sheet as at the close of business September 30, 1944. A copy of that notice, bearing date of mailing, must be kept by the dealer or primary supplier at his place of business for at least two (2) years from the date of mailing.

This amendment shall become effective on September 11, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this amendment to Revised Ration Order 11 have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 8A,[1] Amdt. 13]

MEN'S RUBBER BOOTS AND RUBBER WORK SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new section 2.18 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 2.18 Men's rubber riding boots may be transferred as non-rationed. (a) (1) Any establishment may be authorized by the District Office to transfer as non-rationed men's below knee-height rubber riding boots, with inside pull-on loops, shaped leg and ankle, special riding boot last, and a bright finish, which were manufactured in the United States before September 15, 1944, or were imported into the United States before that date.

(2) Application for permission to transfer such rubber footwear as non-rationed shall be made to the District Office serving the locality in which the establishment is registered. The application need not be in any prescribed form but shall state the number of pairs of rubber footwear the applicant desires to transfer ration-free. Before the District Office approves an application, it shall inspect the rubber footwear included therein to determine whether or not it comes within subparagraph (a) (1) above.

(3) The District Office, if it approves the application in whole or in part, shall issue to the applicant official non-rationed stickers (OPA Form R-123 with the words "Non-Rationed Rubber Footwear" printed or stamped thereon) equal to the number of pairs of such rubber footwear to be transferred as non-rationed. The District Office (or the applicant if required by the District Office) shall write or print on each such sticker the registration number of the establishment to which it is issued.

(4) Before any such rubber footwear may be transferred or offered for sale as non-rationed, the applicant shall attach to one boot of each pair an official non-rationed sticker. Such rubber footwear may be transferred as non-rationed by and to any person at any time thereafter.

(b) Any rubber footwear of the kind described in subparagraph (a) (1) above which was brought into the United States before September 15, 1944, may be released by the Collector of Customs, certificate-free, to any establishment. However such rubber footwear may be transferred by the establishment as non-rationed only in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) above.

This amendment shall become effective September 15, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting provisions and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 11th day of September 1944.

[Directive 4]

PART 4003—SUBSIDIES; SUPPORT PRICES

DRY EDIBLE BEANS, 1944 CROP

The War Food Administrator having submitted certain information and recommendations to me on September 5, 1944, with reference to a program to develop and introduce a subsidy program for certain dry edible beans, it is hereby found and determined that the purposes of the hold-the-line order, specifically, the policy established by Executive Orders 9250 and 9328 (3 C. F. R. Cum. Supp., pp. 1213, 1267) will be effectuated by the adoption of such a program.

The War Food Administrator is, therefore, hereby authorized and directed to develop and enter into a subsidy program which will permit dealers to pay producers of certain dry edible beans produced in 1944 the support prices announced for such beans.[1] The subsidy payments shall be in the amount by which the announced support prices for such dry edible beans exceed the applicable Office of Price Administration
